NEPONSET BOARD

DO IT YOURSELF

It's a mighty hard thing to get a builder to do a small job these days. The housing shortage is so great that they all have big contracts on hand. But if you need a room refinished or a new one made out of some unused space, you can do it yourself with Neponset Board.

Neponset is a tough, flexible board finished with a quartered oak effect on one side and a light tan effect on the other. Both sides are thoroughly waterproofed. If you wish to paint it any other color, it takes paint beautifully and economically.

Come in today and let us demonstrate to you some of the varied uses to which Neponset Board can be put and show you how simple and satisfactory it is to use in the home and office

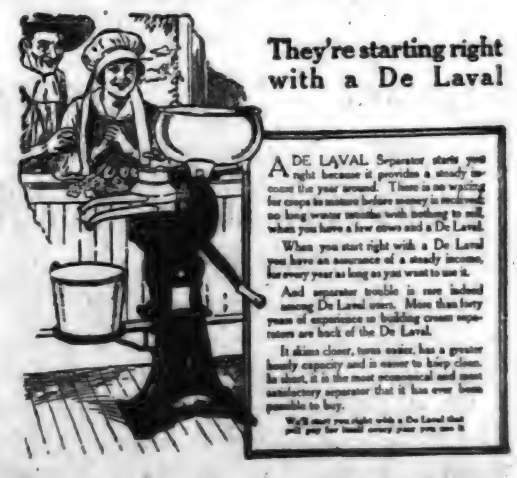
Straight talk on Cream Separators by

J. E. SMITH & Co.
Orangeville, Ont. Canada.



They're starting right with a De Laval

A DE LAVAL Separator starts you right because it provides a steady income the year around. There is no waiting for crops to mature before money is received, no long winter months with nothing to sell, when you have a few cows and a De Laval.

When you start right with a De Laval you have an assurance of a steady income for every year as long as you want to use it.

And separator trouble is now indeed among De Laval users. More than forty years of experience in building cream separators are back of the De Laval.

It skims closer, turns easier, has a greater bowl capacity and is easier to keep clean. In short, it is the most economical and most satisfactory separator that it has ever been possible to buy.

We'll show you right with a De Laval that will pay for itself every year you use it.

Sooner or later you will buy a

NOTES AND COMMENTS

The Miners' Strike in England must be getting serious. The coal supply of the breweries has been cut off.

The kitchen used to be the most important part of the house, but a recent vote shows that the cellar now has the call.

There are 934 families in Canada still getting help from the Patriotic Fund and there is still a substantial balance on hand.

Ontario voted dry, and straightway the weekly newspaper association decided to stage their annual convention at Vancouver.

The vote on the 18th was the fifth in which the Province has given a prohibition majority the dates being 1894, 1898, 1902, 1919 and 1921.

The Toronto Telegram says it begins to look as though this country will never be prosperous again until everybody gets a job on a railway.

According to the assessment recently completed in Elora that village has a population of 1199 and a total assessment of $450,046.

A Collingwood young man was caught carrying a still on his back—$200 and costs or six months in the coop. He decided to be a cooper.

Having wrestled with the intricacies of the income tax report, the citizens will be in good shape to meet the census enumerators on their rounds next month.

Ontario can thank the towns and villages for the majority that was rolled up to make the province bone dry. No booze means prosperity to this province.—Kincardine Reporter.

While attending his brother's wedding Frank Stanley, of Bruce Township, had his barns and stables with all his horses and cattle burned, the house having been rifled before the fire started.

Oshawa's Queen's hotel, built in 1873, has been closed and will be converted into stores. Queen's hotels have passed in not a few towns, but for unsightly ruins the Barrie one is easily in a class by itself.

Two members of the Old Russian nobility, princes of the blood, are employed with a gang of laborers on the Canadian National Railways between Hearst and Armstrong, and say that they like their job and never felt better.

If we really want to lower the cost of things we all buy, we must all help to lower the cost of the things we make. In the declining prices of farm products there should follow soon a general lowering of manufactured commodities.

Montreal Witness: Any man who does not do all he can at some useful calling or service of mankind, or, who does not live as simply as is consonant with health and efficiency in the largest service open to him, is to that extent a parasite, a drag on human progress.

As a death-dealing car, the ancient Juggernaut of India is far outdistanced by the modern automobile. For the first four months ending April 30th, in New York State deaths from automobiles totaled 351 —over double that of the same period in 1920. In New York city alone, for April, 61 people were killed by motor cars.

A prominent citizen tells this one:—Going down street a few days ago he noticed a sign, "This Lot for Sail." A man, who looked as if he might be the owner, was nailing a board on the fence; and our friend came at him with the question, "When's the lot going to sail?" "Just as soon as someone comes along who can raise the wind!" answered the proprietor without batting an eye.

Motorists who travel around a bit are pleasantly impressed on entering a town to have a sign greet them such as: Industrial Hanover; You are Welcome; Please Drive slow; and on the other side of the board which you would see on leaving the town, these words: Remember Us Kindly; Thank You; Call Again. Signs like these put up on the East and West Ends of Broadway would help boost Orangeville somewhat.

The town of Fergus has purchased a car load of road oil and will have it sprinkled on the streets in a few days. Why not try out the experiment in the town of Orangeville? The street watering is very unsatisfactory here as it is impossible to go over all the streets in town with one team of horses and cart. If our streets were thoroughly oiled the job would be complete for the season. The smell from the oil would not last long.

Large eggs are getting to be a hobby with the purebred Barred Rocks. Mr. Wm. Napier, of the 10th line, Drummond, has handed the Era an egg measuring 8 1-2 by 6 1-2 inches. This egg, we believe, is larger than the Kenaas egg laid Easter Sunday. Mr. Napier has 50 purebred Rocks and during the first four months of this year, his flock gave him 232 dozen eggs, exactly an average of 58 dozen a month. Mr. Napier feels very proud of his flock as they have been a profitable investment. —Lanark Era.

J. A. Maharg, M. P., Maple Creek, Sask., is going to desert the big show at Ottawa for a Cabinet position in Saskatchewan Government. We wonder if he has made up his mind that the farmer representation in the federal field will not be as big as some of them expect. You have got to be a real big one at Ottawa. Back home you may be some big pumpkins, but when you get to Ottawa you find your level and little is heard of you. We ask our readers to recall the names of the men who loom up in public life at Ottawa. A score at most are found in the forefront. Do you know many of them.—Kincardine Reporter.

A LETTER FROM HOME

In a letter to The Banner from Mrs. Stanley (nee Miss Gertie Galbraith), of Heward, Sask., she says:—"Am enclosing money order to pay my subscription to The Banner, and am sorry that I neglected to look at label sooner. It seems quite easy to read the news and not notice the label, and I certainly enjoy reading the Dufferin papers and also the items about old friends at Hillsburg and surrounding country.

We are busy at the seeding and have a hundred acres of wheat in, and if the weather continues good will expect to have nearly as much more in next week, and then the oats and roots. The farmers have been very much delayed by a heavy snow storm that lasted four days, then heavy rains and this week wind storms.

We lost one of the old timers of this community when Mr. Joe Dickey passed away. He was a Dufferin old boy and his wife also came from Mulmer Corners.

We hope any of you that take a trip to the Prairie Provinces will not forget to come and see us, and we would be very pleased to see any of you.

Hoping you are all well,

Yours sincerely,
Mrs. Alex. Stanley.

A WASTE OF INTEREST

The Virginia farmer who ploughed up $14,903 in gold and silver buried a century ago, has something to grieve over, if he likes. The interest that money might have earned, compounded at 6 per cent. is $6,051,884.96, an amount which would buy enough strawberries at present prices to satisfy a whole family at one meal.—Simcoe Reformer. Now what's the use of trying to make that farmer dissatisfied?

A WOMAN'S HEALTH NEEDS GREAT CARE

When the Blood Becomes Watery a Breakdown Follows.

Every woman's health is dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache pain in the back, poor appetite, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness? Of course all these symptoms may not be present—the more there are the worse the condition of the blood and the more necessary that you should begin to enrich it without delay. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a splendid blood-building tonic. Every dose helps to make better blood which goes to every part of the body and brings new health to weak, despondent people. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are valuable to all women but they are particularly useful to girls of school age who become pale, languid and nervous. There can be neither health nor beauty without red blood which gives brightness to the eyes and color to the cheeks and lips. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills build up the body as is shown by the experience of Mrs. Jos. E. Venlotte, West Northfield, N. S., who says: "For several years I was in a bad state of health. I was pale and nervous, my appetite was poor, and I suffered from weakness, headaches and a feeling of oppression. I got so nervous that I was afraid to stay in the house alone. All this time I was taking medicine but it only did not help me, but I was growing weaker. Finally I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after using six boxes I felt much better. I had a better appetite, slept better and felt stronger. However, I continued taking the pills for a couple of months longer and now I am feeling as well as ever I did. I give all the credit to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and hope that my experience may be of benefit to some other weak woman."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRESBYTERY MINUTES

The Presbytery of Orangeville, Tuesday May 10th, in St. Andrew's Church was well attended and a considerable amount of business was transacted.

The resignation of Rev. W. M. Morris, of the charge of St. Andrew's Church, to accept a position in connection with the Department of Education, was reprtfully accepted, to take effect after the 15th inst.

Rev. J. A. Matheson, of Mono Mills, was appointed Interim Moderator of the vacancy and will declare the pulpit vacant on Sunday, the 22nd inst.

The following resolution was unanimously passed:—"The Presbytery of Orangeville desires to put on record its high appreciation of the services rendered by Rev. W. M. Morris, as pastor of St. Andrew's Church Orangeville since August 26th, 1908 and would express its deep regret at parting with him. The services he has rendered to the congregation, to the Presbytery, and to the community at large, have been of the highest order, and have been given most heartily and cheerfully. Our best wishes go with him for his success in his new sphere of work.'

Rev. P. W. Spence, M. A., B. D., Phd. of Claude, was nominated to the Chair of Old Testament Literature and Exegesis, in Saskatoon Presbyterian College.

Presbytery agreed to certify to the Senate of Knox College, Mr. A. G. Macpherson, of Orangeville, as a student for the ministry.

The report on statistics was given by the Clerk. Number of communicants within the bounds, 5244, an increase of 245 since the year before. Grand total raised for all purposes, $33,687, an increase of $19,518. For missions and benevolences, $26,342, an increase of $9,427. This does not include the givings of the W. M. S. For the Budget, the amount raised last year was $8,939.

Twenty ministers of other churches are applying to the General Assembly for admittance into the ministry of the Presbyterian Church. Of these six are Congregationalists, three Baptists, two Methodists, one of the Bulgarian Church, one of the Bohemian Church, one of the Free Church of England, one Anglican, one Evangelical Association, one unspecified, four of the American Presbyterian Church, one of the Presbyterian Church of Ireland, one of the Presbyterian Church of Wales, and one of the Established Church of Scotland.

Rev. Jenkins Burkholder was appointed Commissioner to the Assembly in place of Mr. Morris.

MRS. REBECCA LANGTREE

The many friends of the family learned with deep sorrow of the sudden death on Sunday, May 8th, of Mrs. Rebecca Langtree, beloved wife of the late Matthew Langtree, at her home on Church St. She was in her 71st year and was born in Toronto Township in the year 1850. She came north to Black's Corners when quite young with her parents when the place was nothing but a wilderness, being one of the first settlers there. Forty-seven years ago she married the late Matthew Langtree, who predeceased her twelve years ago. Shortly after his death she moved to Orangeville, where she made many warm friends. She was a great sufferer from rheumatism for many years. Some six years ago she got her leg broken, which left her an invalid, but never was known to complain, always bearing her pain with Christian patience, waiting for her Master's call. Although being an invalid she was ambitious and worked at fancy work up to a few days of her death. She is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Robt. I. Curry and Miss Jennie, who mourn her loss deeply. She was attended constantly by her faithful daughter, Mrs. Curry, who deprived herself of all pleasurer for her mother's comfort. Besides her two daughters, she is survived by three brothers. Her only sister living, Mrs. Stinson, predeceased her by twenty-eight hours, making it particularly sad, the two sisters passing away so suddenly. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, May 10th to Greenwood cemetery. The service was conducted by her Rector, Rev. Capt. T. H. Stewart, who paid a high tribute to the sterling worth of the deceased. The remains were borne to their resting place by Messrs. H. Christian, W. Braiden, M. Langtree, F. Webb, W. J. Curry and J. Nason. A number of beautiful floral tributes bore mute testimony to the sorrow and sympathy of friends of the departed woman.

O, God our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home.

Beneath the shadow of Thy throne,
Thy saints have dwelt secure,
Sufficient is Thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.

A thousand ages in Thy sight,
Are like an evening gone
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away,
They fly, forgotten as a dream,
Dies at the opening day.

O, God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come
Be Thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

MRS. ROBT. M'CUTCHEON

The death of Mrs. Robt. McCutcheon, relict of the late Robt. McCutcheon, Caledon, occurred at the Lord Dufferin Hospital on Saturday, May 7th. Although in ill health for several weeks her recovery was anticipated. However, appendicitis developed and an operation was performed on Wednesday evening. It was thought successful, but apparently the shock was too great, and the last summons came early on Saturday morning. Mrs. McCutcheon, who was 65 years of age, was a daughter of the late John Quigley, of Adjala township. She is survived by a family of four sons and three daughters, Robert, Foam Lake, Sask; John, Hamilton; James, Mono Mills; Mrs. Ellwood Black, Bradford; Isabel and Ethel, Alton. The remains were conveyed from her old home, the residence of her son, James, to Mono East cemetery on Wednesday, May 11th. Service in the church and at the home was conducted by the deceased's pastor, Rev. Mr. Carr, Alton. Rev. Mr. Matheson, Mono Mills, was also present. The Alton Presbyterian choir assisted with the church service. The pallbearers were James McCutcheon, Mono Centre, George Turner, Tottenham, E. A. Black, a son-in-law, and three sons, John, James and William.

OF NO BENEFIT

Forest fires benefit no one and they rob the workingman, the merchant, the farmer, and indirectly every citizen. Forest fires are fought not only in the bush, but in towns and cities. When Canadians of town and farm and forest are all determined to stop forest fires, then our forests will be freed from the ravages of this fiend.

"All the Boys Want a Ride on My New C.C.M."

TOMMY STEVENS has one big kick—

All the boys want to ride his new C. C. M. bicycle.

Tommy says, "The fellows pester the life out of me. Before one of them has finished a ride, some other fellow is

Coaxing for a Turn

They all seem to like my new C. C. M. a lot better than their own bikes."

Aside from this one kick, Tommy is tickled to death with his new bicycle.

He admits he can hardly blame the fellows for wanting to ride it. It runs so much easier. And when the boys ask him why, Tommy tells them about the

C.C.M. Triplex Hanger

It reduces friction. And there's a freedom from those mean "tight and loose" spots often developed by other hangers.

Tommy says, "It makes a C. C. M. bicycle run so smooth and easy you'd almost think you were riding down grade. And I can feel the Triplex fairly sizzle with power and pull away like mad when I hit her up!"

Boys! Girls! Have you ridden a C. C. M. Bicycle with the C. C. M. Triplex Hanger? Get your father to go to the dealer's with you and see one.

The New Models Are Beauties

The last word in bicycle style and smartness. Wonderfully smooth enamelling that fairly sparkles. And the "bright as sunshine" nickelling is done over copper so it can't rust.

All C. C. M. Bicycles have the New Hercules Positive Drive Coaster Brake — the kind that coasts farther and has no clumsy side arm.

The C. C. M. is "A Real Bicycle for a Real Boy."

And there's a special one that the boy won't outgrow. Equally good for a lad of nine or a youth of twenty. Step into a C.C.M. dealer's and ask to see the C. C. M. 18-in. Curved Bar Model.

MONO MILLS

Members of L. O. L. No. 192, Mono Mills, will attend divine service in the Methodist Church on Sunday, May 22nd, at 7 p.m. Members of neighboring lodges are invited to worship with the brethren.

HILLSBURG

The deep sympathy of this whole community goes out to Mr. Albert D. McBride in the sudden death of his wife, Lettie Harkness McBride, and to Mr. and Mrs. R. Harkness of Hillsburg, in the loss of their daughter, the sad event taking place on Monday night, May 9th, and so suddenly that it proved a shock to all who heard. The funeral services at her late home on the townline, Caledon, were conducted by Rev. John Lindsay, of Erin, assisted by Rev. Mr. Humphreys, of Hillsburg Baptist Church, while the service at the grave was in charge of Rev. Frank C. Harper, B. D. of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, which the deceased had been a member of for years, as well as serving in the choir and the Young People's Guild. The pallbearers were Harry Willis, Wilbert and Henry Wheeler, Elwood McGill, Alex McLaughlin and John Faulkner, and as they bore the casket up the slope to the family plot in Huxley's Cemetery, a large gathering of sympathizing friends followed to pay their last sad offices of regard to an old friend departed. Before her marriage last year, the deceased had been a popular member of the class in the Business College at Orangeville.

The lecture on Robert Burns, given in St. Andrews Church by Prof. Malcolm W. Wallace of University of Toronto, on Friday evening, May 13th, was greeted by a large and appreciative audience, who received many a pauky Scot's joke with keen interest and applause. Interesting details of the poet's life, in both pathetic and humorous vein, keen references to traits of character in Burns which showed the lecturer's insight into the poet's personality, and his reading of "To the Daisy," "The Birks of Aberfeldy," "O' a' the airts" and other selections in true interpretation of the poets feeling, made this visit of the distinguished professor of English at Old Varsity a treat to all present. The St. Andrew's choir also was well received in the two songs, "Burns and Scotland Yet" and "Flow Gently Sweet Afton." The minister of the church Capt. Rev. F. C. Harper, B. D., presided as chairman during the evening's program.

PLEDGE SIGNED BY GERMANY

By accepting the ultimatum, Germany pledges herself to do these things:

Pay $240,000,000 within twenty-five days

Pay a total of $32,000,000 of reparations at the rate of $496,000,000 each year, plus 26 per cent of the amount of her exports;

Disarm "civilian" military bodies in Bavaria East Prussia and elsewhere in accordance with the terms of the Allied "Accorde" of Paris of January 29th:

Punish immediately the persons guilty of war crimes;

Give guarantees to carry out her pledges.

Acceptance of the ultimatum finds Britain and Italy as well as the United States, hopeful that this action will put an end to the plan of France to invade the Rhur. The French military preparations, however, have continued as though the invasion was to be carried out even in the face of German acquiescence and the French troops, not waiting for the German reply, took possession of Mulheim, from which it is a step less than four miles to Essen.

Meanwhile the Polish insurgents in Silesia are continuing their war to gain possession of the best parts of the province. Britain and Italy are making ineffective protests against this intrigue which is resulting in fighting, in which Italians are taking part against the Poles.

HIS LIFE RUINED BY DYSPEPSIA

Until He Tried "FRUIT-A-TIVES" The Wonderful Fruit Medicine

MR. FRANK HALL

Wyevale, Ontario.

"For some two years, I was a sufferer from Chronic Constipation and Dyspepsia.

I tried every remedy I heard of without any success, until the wife of a local merchant recommended 'Fruit-a-tives'.

I procured a box of 'Fruit-a-tives' and began the treatment, and my condition commenced to improve immediately.

The Dyspepsia ceased to be the burden of my life as it had been, and I was freed of Constipation.

I feel that I owe a great debt to 'Fruit-a-tives' for the benefit I derived from them."

BANNER COUNTY IN THE PROVINCE

Majority in Favor of Bone Dry Ontario is Officially Placed at 11,129.

Grey County as a whole gives a majority of 11,129 in favor of a "Dry" Ontario. This is the largest majority in favor of the exclusion of the liquor traffic given by any county in Ontario and takes care of the adverse majority given in Toronto. North Grey piled up the largest dry majority of any provincial constituency, so far as heard from. The figures from South Grey show a dry majority of 4,782. Only two municipalities gave wet majorities, i.e., Normanby 14, and Neustadt 84. The following are the official figures:—

STOLE JUDGE VANCE'S CAR

Two men made a strenuous effort in Barrie to steal an automobile early one morning but after two unsuccessful attempts abandoned the idea. Jamieson's garage at the Five Points was broken into and although three cars were there all were locked, so the robbers went away, taking only a spot light and a pair of pliers. Judge Vance's garage was entered next with better results for they got quietly away with his McLaughlin touring car, but being short of gas they had to commit one more robbery before they could get away. It was now 2 a.m. and Constable Case happened to see them at the gas tank at the corner of Mulcaster and Dunlop streets. The car stood across the road at the Clarkson House and when the thieves saw the constable making for them they fled, leaving behind the car and two gallons of gasoline they had already pumped out by smashing open the tank.—Collingwood Bulletin.

THE MISERY OF BACKACHE

Removed by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Meaford, Ont.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for backache, and I also had a female weakness. I felt dizzy and nervous, and was without energy. I had to force myself to do my work, and was always tired. Saw a Pinkham advertisement which induced me to take the Vegetable Compound, and my back gradually stopped aching and I felt lighter in spirits. I am recommending the Vegetable Compound with pleasure to all I meet who complain as I did."—MILDRED BROOK, Meaford, Ont.

Woman's Precious Gift

The one which she should most zealously guard is her health, but she often neglects to do so in season until some ailment peculiar to her sex has fastened itself upon her. When so affected women may rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has been wonderfully successful in restoring health to suffering women.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

The Pride of Her Home —Her Table

AND you can give her nothing for her table of such fascinating charm and lifelong usefulness as "Holmes & Edwards" silverware.

Its exclusiveness of pattern alone would delight her.

But, added to its distinctiveness and dainty simplicity, "Holmes & Edwards" offers features which stamp it as the finest silverware made.

It has the rich, gleaming lustre which only hand-burnishing (an exclusively "Holmes & Edwards" finish) and the generous use of pure silver can give.

Extra silver, too, guards "Holmes & Edwards" at the wear points. In SILVER INLAID solid blocks of pure silver are fused in on the back of the bowl and handle. In SUPER-PLATE these points are protected against wear by a heavy extra deposit of pure silver.

Your jeweller will be glad to show you suitable gift selections in "Holmes & Edwards" silverware—and also table appointments, such as tea services, bread and cake trays, or casseroles of "Holmes & Edwards" lustre and quality.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

SIMPLICITY

NEVER was so much efficiency combined so skillfully with extreme simplicity. That is why the Ford is called a marvel of engineering skill.

Simple in design—anyone can quickly understand all running parts of a Ford.

Simple in construction—and every part a bulwark of strength.

Simple in operation—anyone can run a Ford.

Simple to maintain—no skill required to care for it.

Yet in spite of this simplicity look at the performance of the car! The worst roads in this part of the country are smooth as compared with those that the Ford negotiates daily in other parts of the world.

Engineering skill has combined the wonderful endurance power of the Ford with light weight. It weighs several hundred pounds less than the ordinary car of equal power and carrying capacity.

Light weight means no loss of strength. Every wearing and strain bearing part is made of Ford vanadium steel, made according to special Ford formula, and infinitely stronger than ordinary steel.

Engineering skill has put into the Ford these miracles of utility, efficiency and endurance at the lowest cost. Light weight means economy in manufacture, and reduces wear and tear on tires.

Ford owners not only enjoy a car of unequalled efficiency at lowest cost but they have fewest expenses with tires and other troubles.

When your Ford needs attention we render Ford service. No waiting for genuine Ford parts or for expert mechanics to make repairs. Our stock of genuine Ford parts is kept complete.

Your Daughter

IS your daughter at that critical age, approaching womanhood, when nothing is so important to her as mother's care and mother's advice?

It is during this time that her whole future health and happiness may be at stake.

With most girls this important development takes place at a time when school work is most exacting and the nervous system is consequently under a most severe strain.

An enormous quantity of rich, red blood is necessary to meet the demands of the system, and, this failing, there is the development of anaemia, chlorosis or some form of nervous trouble, such as St. Vitus' dance.

Most mothers now know about Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and the promptness with which it enriches the blood and builds up the nervous system of the growing girl.

It is mother's duty to see that a reasonable amount of rest and sleep is obtained, that the food is wholesome and nutritious, and that the treatment is used regularly and persistently so as to keep up an abundant supply of pure, rich, nourishing blood.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food 50 cents a box. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. The portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., are on every box of the genuine.

MRS. GEO. LEE

Following an illness which lasted over a year, the last five weeks of which she was in a very serious condition, the death occurred on Saturday afternoon of Mrs. George Lee, 85 Kent street. She has been a patient sufferer for a long time and her death was not unexpected. Deceased was a very highly respected and esteemed lady, and was for many years one of the most active workers at Norfolk St. Methodist church, and in this church she will be greatly missed. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Reed, Dundas Road, and was born in Brant County, but has resided the greater part of her life in Guelph. She leaves to mourn her loss her sorrowing husband, who will have the heartfelt sympathy of a host of friends, her parents, two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Campbell, of Brantford, and Miss Nellie Reed, of the post office staff, and two brothers, Harry, of Hamilton, and Arthur, of Guelph. The funeral took place this afternoon from her late residence, 85 King street, to the Guelph cemetery, the services being in charge of Rev. E. A. Pearson, of Norfolk St. Methodist Church.

MINISTERS ON SIDE OF "WETS"

An unusual situation in the recent referendum developed in the town of Chesley, Bruce County, says the Barrie Advance. There are six churches in that town of 2000 people, and four of the six ministers were hostile to the vote passing for bone-dry prohibition. Evidently the citizens didn't take particular stalk of the arguments of some of these "divines," who were openly opposed, for the citizens voted 614 yes and 60 no. One minister wrote letters to the press in opposition to the measure. We know of writers who must be "ginned" up with booze before they can command a paragraph, but no minister requires the extra stimplant to preach the Word of God! Hence it's strange that these "divines" of Chesley, who are so much looked up to in that community, should countenance the stuff. If they felt like one of those verses in Tennyson's "Vision of Sin" it might be different. It reads:

"Let me screw thee up a peg:
Let me loose thy tongue with wine:
Callest thou that thing a leg?
Which is thinnest, thine or mine?

Lowe Brothers

This paint film is less than 1\100 of an inch thick. What does that mean to you?

When you stop to realize that a two-coat film of paint is less than 1-100 of an inch in thickness, and that this thin film stands between your house and the weather, you can see the vitalness of buying the right kind of paint.

Lowe Brothers High Standard Paint forms a tougher film than any other paint we know of. It is elastic. It will not crack with the weather's changes. It is both weatherproof and waterproof.

It costs a little more than most paints, but it always covers more surface, therefore less paint is required and you actually save money at the very start. This fact, coupled with its long lastingness, makes it really an investment paint.

If you want to prevent future trouble, come in and talk over your paint problems with us.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Literary Committee had charge of the Epworth League meeting held last Monday evening in the Methodist Church. Mr. Ellis Liddy, convener of the Literary Department, presided and in the course of a brief address expressed his gratitude to the Leaguers for the honour which they had conferred upon him by electing him to the office of 3rd Vice-President. Mr. Liddy said that he was glad to be able to attend the League meetings again and to take part in the work of the Society. The program included a vocal solo by Mr. Clarence McConnell.

The topic for the evening was the Bible. A brief synopsis of a paper given on the subject follows:—The Bible (literally "book") was the name given to the Scriptures or writings of the saints. It is divided into two sections, the Old Testament, containing thirty-nine books, and the New Testament, consisting of twenty-seven books. The Old Testament is divided into three parts: the historical, the poetical and the prophetical. The New Testament deals with a later period in the history of the world. Our modern Bible is the product of much labour and careful study and we owe much to the early translators and copiers of the Bible for the copy of the Scriptures which we have to-day. It is the best piece of literature known and has the widest circulation of any book in the world. The translation of the Bible into a foreign language is a laborious task because it has to be translated from the original Greek into that language so as to preserve the whole truth and express it in the clearest way possible so that the people will have very little trouble in understanding the meanings of the different parts.

Next Monday evening, May 23rd, the meeting will be conducted by the Citizenship Department. Those in charge of the meeting have gone to a great deal of trouble to make this meeting interesting. It will take the form of a Patriotic meeting and an address will be given on the life of the late Queen Victoria. All are urged to attend this meeting.

On the following Monday evening the Social Committee will be in charge. This will be something you will not want to miss so keep the date open, May 30th. Particulars next week.

PRESS ASSOCIATION ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association will be held in Vancouver on the 9th and 10th of June. A special train of 150 passengers, consisting of newspapper men with their wives or daughters, will leave Toronto on Thursday, June 2nd, at 4 p.m., going by way of the Canadian National Railways to North Bay, Cochrane, Winnipeg, Kamloops and Vancouver, where it is due to arrive at 9 p.m., Wednesday, June 8th. On the trip going, stopovers will be made at Winnipeg, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Jasper, from nine to twelve hours at each place. From Vancouver, a boat trip will be taken on Saturday, June 11th, to Victoria, arriving in Vancouver in time for the return journey, which will be made entirely over the C. P. R., leaving Vancouver Sunday night at 8.30. On returning, the party will have an opportunity to visit Lake Louise, Banff, Calgary and Regina, several hours at each place. The party is due back in Toronto at 7 a.m. Monday, June 20th. The train from Toronto with its hundred and fifty passengers will be from Ontario, Quebec and the Maritime Provinces. Provision is also made for any or all publishers who wish to go by regular trains. Publishers from the Western Provinces will join at other points along the route, and when all have assembled at Vancouver it will be the largest gathering in the history of Canadian publishers. Publishers are allowed the privilege of going or coming on either road, also stopovers wherever desired with tickets good for two months.

A STORY OF THE LATE D. J. MUNGOVAN

The Printer and Publisher says: D. H. Morrison, editor of the Tweed News, tells this one: "While in a reminiscent mood the other day, my thoughts wandered back to the old Dufferin Post printing office where I served my apprenticeship. The late D. J. Mungovan was editor and proprietor. He had a foreman named Campbell, who was a prominent member of the Methodist Church, and frequently items concerning that denomination found their way into the Post that were not paid for at so much per, a fact which was sometimes drawn to the editor's attention by his friends. Mungovan was a Roman Catholic and was totally blind. He groped his way into the office one morning when he was not in a particularly good humor and this is a synopsis of the conversation that took place: "Campbell, are you here?" "Yes, sir," very meekly from Campbell. "Well, I would like to know who in h—l is running this office —the Methodist Church or the Pope of Rome?"

Two men were boasting of the merits of their respective wives. "My old woman," said one, "won't enter a green-grocer's shop. She buys all our vegetables straight from the farm so that they will be nice and fresh." "Well," replied the other, "my old woman does better than that. She went to the market gardener and insisted on choosing a marrow that was still growing. 'How much for this one?' she says. 'Eightpence,' says he. 'Too much,' she says. 'What's the price of this little 'un?' 'Fourpence.' 'All right, I'll have it,' and she pays for it on the spot. Then she says 'Don't cut it now. I'll call for it next week.'"

BORN.

THE GEM THEATRE

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
May 20th and 21st
WILL RODGERS
—IN—
"Water, Water Everywhere"

Little drops of water that we used to think were only made for chasers are now the whole drink. Hell's Bells Saloon was all done up in pretty baby ribbons and the boys slouched 'round the "sody" fountain inhaling nice pink an' brown bubbles. "When you don't care particular for what you're drinking you like to look at something good over the top of your glass," said Will Rodgers when Redstone went dry. He got something good for the boys—and then the fun began. A 100 p.c. entertainment brew. It's all about prohibition —six slick city Sals—and a big-hearted fellow who won the girl he loved—for another man. A Will Rodgers' triumph.

MONDAY & TUESDAY
May 23rd and 24th
SYLVIA BREAMER AND ROBERT GORDON
—IN—
"The Blood Barrier"

Not the difference between races —not the difference between red and blue blood—or the chasm between the high born and the lowly. In this drama it is the inviasble barrier that arises if one man murders another to marry the murdered man's wife. It is the blood clot on the conscience. "The Blood Barrier" is an original, unique, thrilling photoplay. Its action is swift and compelling. It shows the underground secret agents at work—an inside look into the plots of nations, and how men and women are mere pawns in the great game for lust and power.

THIRTEENTH EPISODE
"Daredevil Jack"

WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY
May 25th and 26th
GERTRUDE ATHERTON
—IN—
"Out of the Storm"

In "Out of the Storm" you'll see the most terrific shipwreck ever flashed upon a screen. A man and a girl are swept over the rail of a sinking steamer. He swims with her to a floating spar. They cling to it for a night and a day and are rescued, but never meet again until five years later. Love sang in that terrible gale. When he saw her on the stage of the world's greatest opera house, he leaped to his feet—but we won't spoil this wonderful picture for you. Come and see it!

MOTOR CAR BURNED

While proceeding home on the Centre Road, near Victoria, about 8 miles from Brampton, two Shelburne men narrowly escaped serious injuries when their car turned turtle and burst into flames. The car, which was a new one valued at $2,000, was completely destroyed.

A PRETTY TULIP BED

Mr. J. J. Kelly Has a Splendid Showing of Tulips at His Residence.

Mr. J. J. Kelly, the collector, 658 4th Avenue East, formerly of Orangeville, has a beautiful bed of tulips of various colors in front of his residence which adds a great deal to the beauty of the street. Mr. Kelly is interested in horticulture very deeply and before coming to Owen Sound from Orangeville had a splendid showing of flowers.

Tulips of several colours are to be seen in Mr. Kelly's beds and they are very attractive. A campaign to increase the membership of the Horticulture Society to 2,000 begins this week with the ultimate end in view of making the most of Owen Sound's wonderful natural beauty. This city can be made the most beautiful in Canada by a little application and hard work along horticultural lines. The work of Mr. Kelly shows what one man is capable of doing along this line. Everyone should join the Horticultural Society and boost Owen Sound.—Owen Sound Sun-Times.

Orangeville is at present blessed with several beautiful tulip beds in different parts of the town, which are looked after by the Orangeville Horticultural Society. Help the Society along by becoming a member, only $1 a year.

WHEN BABY IS SICK

When the baby is sick—when he is cross and peevish; cries a great deal and is a constant worry to the mother—he needs Baby's Own Tablets. The Tablets are an ideal medicine for little ones. They are a gentle but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach, banish constipation and indigestion, break-up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Philippe Payen, St. Flavien, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets have been a wonderful help to me in the case of my baby and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

THE NEWSPAPER OF TO-MORROW

It isn't what the newspaper was yesterday—that's history. It isn't so much what a newspaper is to-day—we all know that. But it is what the newspaper is going to be to-morrow that vitally concerns every last one of us, for that means the future conditions of the whole world. You may advocate—if you will—what you may be pleased to term "the waning power of the press;" you may say that newspapers influence only a few people, but when all the evidence is in, the fact remains apparent that the newspaper is your authority in the early morning and your authority in the late afternoon and evening for everything that has taken place on this earth from one end to the other in the previous twenty-four hours.—Victor F. Lawson at the American Newspaper Publishers' Association.

LACROSSE

The Owen Sun-Times says that Markdale will combine with Owen Sound in the intermediate series. If this information is correct, an Owen Sound—Markdale team should take some beating. Owen Sound has not been in the lacrosse limelight for some years, but are somewhat of an unknown quality. Mercer and Nick Buttside, of Markdale are strong players. Wingham have been grouped with Hanover and Owen Sound intermediates.

Durham intermediate lacrosse team this year has been somewhat of an in-and-out proposition. First, it was to be run under the wing of the Durham Athletic Association; the next move was made when it became known that Hanover would not enter a team and it was decided by the players of that place to play under Durham colors. Walkerton's entry into the O. A. L. A. spilled the beans again, and as Walkerton was five miles closer to Hanover than Durham, it was impracticable for the Hanover players to link up with the Durhams. The Saugeen Athletic Association was the next move put through, but as the O. A. L. A. executive handed this combination a soothing lotion, this too, was not satisfactory. The final and last move in this lacrosse serial took place last night at a meeting in the Star Theatre, when it was decided that Hanover enter a team and draw players from Durham. As this last proposition meets with the approval of the players on both teams, it is likely to be the last, and the net result is that the Durhams this year are out to win glory under the Hanover colors.—Chronicle.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

The Price of the NEW EDISON has increased less than 15% since 1914 in the States. Mr. Edison has sacrificed millions in order to keep his favorite invention within the reach of everyone.

Would you like to know Mr. Edison's Favorite Tunes?

YOU know Mr. Edison, the scientist — now meet Mr. Edison, the music lover. Almost every day, Mr. Edison sits close to his Official Laboratory Model, hand cupped to ear, and enjoys his favorite RE-CREATIONS.

Mr. Edison has his own private collection of RE-CREATIONS. He has built it up with the discrimination of a confirmed collector.

We have just received a booklet containing 25 of his favorite tunes. This booklet is entitled "What Edison Likes in Music", and interestingly describes Mr. Edison, the Music Lover.

If you would like a copy of this booklet, together with a 12" x 19" proof of Franklin Booth's etching of Mr. Edison, please fill out this ballot and mail or bring it to us.

What other well-known person's favorite tunes would you like to know? Please write his or her name on the ballot.

Mr. Edison's love of music has made the phonograph his favorite invention. He spent over three million dollars in research work to perfect the New Edison.

Then, to prove its perfect realism, he stood the New Edison side by side with the living artist and matched its performance with the actual performance of the living artist. No one was able to detect any difference between the two. This is the only true way to prove the realism of a phonograph or talking machine — and the New Edison is the only phonograph which sustains this acid-test of direct comparison.

A Gentleman's Agreement

IF you love music, your credit is good here. Pay cash or suit your own convenience. Ask us about our Budget Plan.

FREE — In addition to "What Edison Likes in Music", you can obtain a copy of the bulletin, "What Did Edison Do During the War?" and a proof of Booth's famous etching of Edison, suitable for framing. Just use the coupon.

ELK JUST 16,000 YEARS OLD

Professors of geology and biology of the University of Toronto are tremendously interested in the find of antlers, measuring eleven feet from tip to tip, and a skeleton in the waters of Green Lake, Caledon, and if it is an elk, as claimed, the Royal Ontario Museum, Bloor street, will have a new and unique exhibit.

A. P. Coleman, M. A., Ph. D., Professor of Geology and Dean of the Faculty of Arts, declared the information given so far was so meagre that he was unable to state definitely, but if it is true the antlers measured eleven feet from tip to tip, the animal must have lived in the post-glacial period in Ontario, and it would be approximately 16,000 years old. Prof. Bensley, B. A., Ph. D., is also looking into the matter, while Prof. Dr. Parks left to-day noon for Caledon, where he will make a first-hand study.

"I am not sure yet what kind of an animal it is, but it is an extraordinary find," declared Prof. Coleman to The Telegram. "The press despatch says eleven feet from tip to tip, but I would like to know what the tines are. There is one for each year.

"There have been a number of huge animals found in Canada. The tusks of a mammoth or mastodon (two extinct elephants) were found in Canada in the mines of the Yukon.

"The elk as described as having been found in Green Lake is like those found in the bogs of Ireland, but never in Canada. It is a new species, if it turns out to be an elk. This tremendous elk found in Ireland followed the mammoth.

"In the inter-glacial period in Toronto there were elk related to the Irish elk. It is different in size, more like a moose, but with a different attitude of head.

"If the account is correct, the animal lived in the post-glacial period in Ontario, for no digging was required to get the animal out of the water or bog.

"In the post-glacial period there were two large lakes, the Algonquin and the Iroquois; one flowed into the other. Toronto and Hamilton are on what is known as the Iroquois beach, while Green Lake would be on the Algonquin beach.

"Near Hamilton, the horn of an elk was found some time ago in a gravel pit. No dimensions could be

FEELS AS HAPPY AS LITTLE BOY

Since Taking Tanlac Can Do As Much Work as Any Man 30 Years Younger, He Says.

"Well, it just makes me think of old times, back when I was a boy, to be feeling so fine once more," said Wm House, Chedoke, Mount Hamilton, Ontario.

"My health was broken all up and I was simply under the weather. My stomach gave me all sorts of trouble and it looked like every time I ate a bite of anything it caused indigestion. I would bloat up until I felt like I was choking and would have to pant and fight to get my breath. I had an awful stubborn case of constipation and had pains all through the lower part of my stomach.

"Then I had rheumatism in my legs and feet and at times the pains were so sharp I couldn't stand up. I couldn't sleep to amount to anything and hardly had the strength to hold out through the day. Things looked pretty gloomy and I thought I would have to quit work altogether.

"Well, Tanlac just fit my case the best sort and now it has fixed me up so fine I believe I can do as big a day's work as any man thirty years younger than myself. Why, I feel as spry as a fox and haven't a pain about me anywhere. I'm back on the eating list and nothing ever hurts me at all. I am not constipated any more, in fact I am feeling as fit as a fiddle in every way."

A JOB HUNTING THE MAN

There is a job hunting a man in this village that seems somewhat difficult in locating the proper person. Last week an effort was made to get a successor to W. R. Hamilton, Councillor, when but three ratepayers appeared. Ex-Reeve Thos. Watson was nominated, but he refused to consider the honor at this time; so another attempt will be made on Friday of next week, 27th inst., to secure a Councillor. The position is one of well-known honor, rich in reward and surely there is some young man anxious to do his bit of public service.—Star & Vidette.

NEPONSET BOARD

DO IT YOURSELF

It's a mighty hard thing to get a builder to do a small job these days. The housing shortage is so great that they all have big contracts on hand. But if you need a room refinished or a new one made out of some unused space, you can do it yourself with Neponset Board.

Neponset is a tough, flexible board finished with a quartered oak effect on one side and a light tan effect on the other. Both sides are thoroughly waterproofed. If you wish to paint it any other color, it takes paint beautifully and economically.

Come in today and let us demonstrate to you some of the varied uses to which Neponset Board can be put and show you how simple and satisfactory it is to use in the home and office

CADET INSPECTION

The annual inspection of the Orangeville High and Public Schools Cadet Corps attracted a large number of interested spectators to the High School Campus last Friday afternoon. Ideal weather and the natural beauty of the surroundings made the outing a source of joy and delight apart altogether from the pleasurable interest that naturally centred in the inspection. Promptly at 2 o'clock the Inspecting Officer, Colonel Huggins, appeared on the field, where the two companies were drawn up at attention. His arrival was the signal for the commencement of the inspection, which was followed by the march past and the customary exhibition of company, platoon, section and physical drill.

At the conclusion of the manoeuvres and exercises the two companies were drawn up in a hollow square and while in this position were addressed by the Inspecting Officer and Col. Preston. Col. Huggins complimented the Cadets on their smart soldierly appearance and stated that the precision shown in the manoeuvres was very creditable considering the earliness of the season and the limited opportunities for outdoors drill since the spring set in. Col. Preston referred to his interest in the Corps and urged the cadets to live up to the lessons of discipline and exactness taught by the cadet system. Following the inspection and speeches the two corps marched down town and paraded Broadway headed by the bugle band under the leadership of Mr. Auric Aiken. The officers of the two Corps are:—

High School—Instructor, Principal Hackett; Captain, Terence McKeown; Lieutenants, Will Porter and Graham Kearns; Sergeants, Armour Robinson, Hilton Cameron, Gordon Adamson and Harold Darraugh.

Public School—Instructor, Captain Firth; Captain, Crozier Price; Sr. Lieut., Earl Gray; Jr. Lieut., Leonard Sanderson; Sergeants, Will Hanna, Jas. Marshall, Willie Flint and Isaac Snell.

The H. S. Cadets turned out about 40 strong and the P. S Corps had a parade strength of 60

THE STERLING BANK

Annual Report Shows Assets Exceed Ninety Cents on Every Dollar Deposited.

The fifteenth annual report of the Sterling Bank reveals a position of unusual strength.

The outstanding feature of the report is the extremely strong reserve. Deposits amount to $17,232,611. The readily available assets total $15,942,269—or over 92 per cent. of the public's deposits. These consist of cash assets and Government and Municipal Bonds.

This is a position of unique strength and security for the depositor. It means that the bank has intrenched itself more strongly than ever before and has good reason to look on the coming year's business with optimism.

positor, the strong reserve of the Sterling leaves the bank's resources liquid enough to take care of customers' requirements in the matter of loans and to extend its accommodation to new customers.

In addition to protecting the de-

The profits during the period under review were $255,976.12, slightly in excess of those of the preceding twelve months, which, with the balance of $42,942.86 brought forward, made a total of $298,918.98 available for distribution.

The bank paid out $98,418.32 in dividends, $83,000 was transferred to the contingent fund, $29,935.76 went in taxes, $50,000 was transferred to the reserve fund, which now stands at $500,000 and $37,561.90 was carried forward to the new account.

Mr. G. T. Somers in his presidential address, said in part: "Speaking for this bank, I feel that our business is so compact and sound that I am confident that we can not merely maintain our position, but continue to grow satisfactorily."

Since the end of the war the new branches opened by the Sterling Bank have numbered 31, increasing the business aread served by this institution by sixty per cent.

STERN REMINDERS OF RHEUMATISM

The Trouble Must Be Treated Through the Blood.

Every rheumatic sufferer should realize that rheumatism is rooted in the blood and that to get rid of it, it must be treated through the blood. The old belief that rheumatism was caused by cold, damp weather, is now exploded. Such weather conditions may start the pains, but it is not the cause. Liniments and outward applications may give temporary relief, but that is all they can do because they do not reach its sources in the blood. The sufferer from rheumatism who experiments with outward applications is only wasting time and money in depending upon such treatment; the trouble still remains, and it is all the time becoming more firmly rooted. Treat this disease through the blood and you will soon find relief. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on impure, weak blood; they purify and strengthen it, and so act on the cause of the rheumatism. Mr. P. J. Macpherson, R. R. No. 5, Cardigan, P. E I., says: "About three years ago I was attacked with rheumatism. I began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and soon the trouble disappeared and I am in better health than before. I also know of an old lady acquaintance who was badly crippled with rheumatism in her arms and legs, and who suffered very much. She, too, took Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and is now able to do her housework. I tell you this in the hope it may be of benefit to some other sufferer."

You can procure Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

TEA TAX

The new budget having imposed a Sales Tax of 1½ per cent. on tea, the onus is placed upon the Salada Tea Company of charging this on their invoices to the grocers, and after collection to pay it to the Inland Revenue Department. This is the only tax the consumer of Salada need pay to the grocer. There is a further tax of 2½ per cent. on importations of tea which the Salada Tea Company are paying themselves, and this is not being passed along to the grocers or the consumers.

PHARMACY EXAMS

Orangeville and former Orangeville students did well in the final examinations of the College of Pharmacy announced on Saturday. Messrs. C. C. White and T. J. Dawson, Orangeville, Leonard Pratt, Laurel, and E. A. Stuckey, of Toronto, formerly of Orangeville and Caledon passed with honors. Stanley Cranston, Orangeville, Miss M. C. Braiden, Laurel, and Harry Erskine, of St. Catharines, formerly of Orangeville were also among those who passed the examination. The Banner extends its hearty congratulations to the successful candidates.

RE OIL DEVELOPMENT

Through the kindness of the Ontario Gas and Oil Commissioners Office, Mr. H. A. Chamberlain has secured the services of a practical oil man for the proposed development work in the neighborhood of Orangeville. This man, who is thoroughly efficient, will arrive in Orangeville in the course of a few days and will superintend the oil drilling operations shortly to commence in this vicinity. There are said to be some promising showings of oil in this locality. On Victoria Day Mr. Chamberlain took a party of Orangeville men by auto to inspect a recent discovery in East Garafraxa. Indications of the presence of oil were quite pronounced and the party returned to town quite favorably impressed with what they had been shown.

"THE DEACON" POPULAR

If any doubts existed as to the popularity of the drama in Grand Valley they were happily dispelled on Monday evening, when the Waldemar Dramatic Club presented "The Deacon" to a full house. Our suburban cousins have a company of talented actors, there not being a weak character in the cast. Possibly this was due to careful deliberation before alloting the parts, for each seemed to have those natural qualities so essential in the characters represented.—Star & Vidette.

The Waldemar actors will stage "The Deacon" in the Orangeville Opera House on Wednesday night, June 1st.

KILLED BY TRAIN

SHOCKING FATALITY AT G. T. R. STATION IN BRAMPTON LAST THURSDAY MORNING

Mrs. Thos. Wilson, Former Caledon Lady, Instantly Killed by G. T. R. Train.

The town was shocked beyond expression this morning by the news that Mrs. Thomas Wilson had met her death as the result of an accident on the Grand Trunk tracks.

As nearly as can be ascertained, Mrs. Wilson must have crossed the platform of the westbound train, and jumped down on the ground just in time to be struck by the moving eastbound train.

Willing hands raised her and carried her to the express office. Both limbs had been severed about six inches above the knee, but Mrs. Wilson was quite conscious, and remained so for nearly forty minutes, when death came as a welcome release.

Drs. Vanderlip, Smith and Heggie were present, and did all that could be done to assuage the suffering of the dying woman.

Her husband was with her very shortly after the accident, and the sympathy of the town is universally extended to one called upon to suffer such a terrible affliction.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson have been residents of the town for about ten years, and have recently removed to their new home in Queen St. West, a very sad factor in a case so entirely pitiable.

Mrs. Wilson was one of the prominent workers in the Red Cross Society during the war, and was elected one of the executive of the Victorian Order of Nurses, when the former society merged into the latter.

Coroner Lawson was summoned when life was pronounced extinct, and empannelled a jury, which viewed the remains and adjourned until Wednesday night next, when the inquest will be held.

Mrs. Wilson was a member of the well known Kannawin family of Caledon, her father being the late David Kannawin, who settled on lot 26, 6th line, west, Caledon, over eighty years ago. Mrs. Wilson was born on the homestead, removing to Brampton with her husband about ten years ago. She leaves no family, but is survived by three brothers, Sam, ex-reeve of Caledon, residing on the homestead; John, of Orangeville, and Robert, of Cleveland, also three sisters, Mrs. Rowan, of Toronto, Mrs. Cairns, of Cleveland, and Miss Eliza on the homestead. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon, leaving the house on Queen Street West, at two o'clock, after a short service, and proceeding by motor to Erin, where interment will be made.

A very large circle of friends and acquaintances is affected by this melancholy event. Mr. Wilson was extremely well known through his connection with the Immigration Department, Toronto, a position he held for years. He is also an ex-reeve of Caledon and an ex-member of Brampton council. Expressions of regret and condolence in his bereavement have been frequent throughout the length and breadth of the two counties.—Brampton Conservator.

The funeral took place from her late residence, Queen St., Brampton, on Saturday, May 31st, by motor to Erin cemetery. Mrs. Wilson, who was a daughter of the late David Kannawin, 5th line, west, Caledon, was 52 years of age. She was a member of Brampton Presbyterian Church and an active worker in the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society. She was also on the Executive of the Victorian Order of Nurses and a life member of the Red Cross Society.

The service at the house was conducted by the Rev. Mr. McArthur, of Brampton, assisted by Rev. W. Kannawin, of Hamilton. Rev. J. Lindsay, of Erin, and Rev. W. N. Carr, of Alton, conducted the service at the grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. David McClure, Daniel Kilpatrick, W. Nelson, W. Beatty, J. Fallis and Mr. McMichael, of Brampton. Many beautiful floral tributes bore mute tribute to the high esteem in which Mrs. Wilson was held. These included:—

Gates ajar, husband; pillow, sisters and brothers; basket, Mr. J. Wilson and nephews, a few of Mrs. Wilson's lady friends Brampton; wreaths, Mrs. E. McLean and daughter Sadie, Erin, Masonic Order, A. F. & A. M., Dominion Immigration Department, Toronto; sprays, Mrs. K. Fife and Mrs. W. Hamilton, Toronto, Mrs. Charles Gillespie, and Miss C. Kannawin, Orangeville, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson and Mr. R. Wilson, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. George McLean, Orangeville, Beatty family and Mrs. Robinson, Brampton, Victorian Order of Nurses, W. M. S. and Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church, Mr. W. Gray, Erin, Mr. and Mrs. H. Thorley and daughter, Toronto

Those present from a distance were. Mrs. H. Cairns, Mrs. Holzman, Mr. L. Johnston, Mr. W. Johnston, Mr. R. Kannawin and Mrs. M. Rowan, all of Cleveland; Mr. and Mrs. W Rowan, Mr. S. Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. E. Rowan, Mr. and Mrs. K. Fife, Mr. and Mrs. W. Hamilton, Mr. W. Maxwell, Mrs. McArthur, Miss M. Maxwell, Mrs. Byam and Mr. and Mrs. Thorley, of Toronto; Rev. W. M. Kannawin, Hamilton; Mr. and Mrs. A. Kannawin, Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Homer McLellan and daughter, Stratford; Mrs. Pickering, Shelburne; Mrs. Nelson, Proton, Mrs. Shaw, Corbetton; Mrs. Louray, Fergus; Mr. J. Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Grundy, Messrs. Fred and W. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Katharwood, Mrs. McLean and daughter, of Erin; Mrs. Geo. McLean and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Morrow, Mrs. J. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kannawin and daughter, of Orangeville.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson's sisters and brothers in their sad bereavement.

THOMAS VANWYCK

The death of Mr. Thomas VanWyck, a former well-known resident of Caledon township, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J.J. White 98 Orchard View Boulevard, Toronto, on Sunday at the ripe age of 86 years. Deceased had been living in Toronto for the last fifteen years. He was a son of the late Gilbert Van Wyck, a United Empie Loyalist.

Deceased was highly thought of and the news of his demise is keenly regretted by his old friends and neighbors in Caledon. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. White and Miss Nancy Van Wyck, both of Toronto, and three sons, A. H., of Hillsburg, Gilbert, of Caledon, A. C., of Watson, Sask. The remains were brought to Caledon for interment yesterday (Wednesday) morning, the funeral taking place from the C. P. R. Station to St Andrew's Church Cemetery, 4th line, east, Caledon.

JOHN M'DONALD

It is with keen regret that we record the death of Mr. John McDonald, one of the old residents of Mono. The sad event took place at his home, lot 14, 3rd line, east, on Saturday following a somewhat lengthy illness from hardening of the arteries. Mr. McDonald, who was in his 70th year, was born in Mono and had spent the greater part of his life in that township. As a young man he lived in Caledon for some years, but returned to his native township some forty years ago. Genial, sociable and well-informed he was a man who had many friends and few enemies. He was a Presbyterian and a staunch Liberal of the old school, who took a keen interest in politics and always followed an election contest with the liveliest interest. He was a member of Purple Valley L. O. L. No. 84 and was for many years an active member of Harris Masonic Lodge, Orangeville. He was buried with Orange honors at Burns' Church cemetery, Mono Centre, on Monday afternoon. The funeral was largely attended. Rev. Wm. Coutts, the family pastor, was the officiating minister and the impressive burial service of the Orange Order was read by W. Bro. Wilfrid Bagnall, W. M. of L. O. L. No. 84, and Bro. Roy Moffitt, the chaplain. The pallbearers were members of the deceased's lodge. The widow and two sons, George, on the homestead, and John, of Toronto, survive. They have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

daughter, Mr. and Mrs. W. Morrow, Mrs. J. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gillespie, Mr. and Mrs. J. Kannawin and daughter, of Orangeville.

Deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Wilson's sisters and brothers in their sad bereavement.

THOMAS VANWYCK

The death of Mr. Thomas VanWyck, a former well-known resident of Caledon township, occurred at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J.J. Whites Orchard View Boulevard, Toronto, on Sunday at the ripe age of 86 years. Deceased had been living in Toronto for the last fifteen years. He was a son of the late Gilbert Van Wyck, a United Empire Loyalist.

Deceased was highly thought of and the news of his demise is keenly regretted by his old friends and neighbors in Caledon. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. White and Miss Nancy Van Wyck, both of Toronto, and three sons, A. H., of Hillsburg, Gilbert, of Caledon, A. C., of Watson, Sask. The remains were brought to Caledon for interment yesterday (Wednesday) morning, the funeral taking place from the C. P. R. Station to St. Andrew's Church Cemetery, 4th line, east, Caledon.

JOHN M'DONALD

It is with keen regret that we record the death of Mr. John McDonald, one of the old residents of Mono. The sad event took place at his home, lot 14, 3rd line, east, on Saturday following a somewhat lengthy illness from hardening of the arteries. Mr. McDonald, who was in his 70th year, was born in Mono and had spent the greater part of his life in that township. As a young man he lived in Caledon for some years, but returned to his native township some forty years ago. Genial, sociable and well-informed he was a man who had many friends and few enemies. He was a Presbyterian and a staunch Liberal of the old school, who took a keen interest in politics and always followed an election contest with the liveliest interest. He was a member of Purple Valley L. O. L. No. 84 and was for many years an active member of Harris Masonic Lodge, Orangeville. He was buried with Orange honors at Burns' Church cemetery, Mono Centre, on Monday afternoon. The funeral was largely attended. Rev. Wm. Coutts, the family pastor, was the officiating minister and the impressive burial service of the Orange Order was read by W. Bro. Wilfrid Bagnall, W. M. of L. O. L. No. 84, and Bro. Roy Moffitt, the chaplain. The pallbearers were members of the deceased's lodge. The widow and two sons, George, on the homestead, and John, of Toronto, survive. These have the sympathy of the community in their loss.

BLOUNT.

The Blount Institute held its annual business meeting in the School House. Thirteen members and two visitors were present. The meeting opened with the singing of the Maple Leaf. The new officers for the coming year were elected as follows:—

President, Mrs. J. J. Crozier; Vice-President, Mrs. Geo. Crozier; Sec.-Treasurer, Miss Minnie Williams; Ass't. Secy., Miss Myrtle Dodds; Organist, Miss Myrtle Dodds.

Program Committee consists of Misses Pearl Pierson, Mabel Huskinson, Myrtle Dodds and Minnie Williams. After a few recitations given by the pupils of the school the ladies served luncheon and the meeting adjourned.

BOWLING GREEN

The Bowling Green Women's Institute will meet at the home of Mrs. Wm. Menary on Wednesday afternoon, June 1st. Mrs. Price, of Toronto, will address the meeting. Everybody welcome.

I. O. D. E.

The regular meeting of the I. O. D. E. was held at the home of Mrs. J. A. Macleod, Second St., on Friday, May 13th, and was well-attended. After a lengthy business session Mrs. W. C. McMillan, delegate to the first annual meeting of the Provincial Executive Chapter of Ontario, held in Hamilton recently, gave an excellent account of the proceedings of the meeting. Mrs. McMillan states that our local Chapter was greatly commended there for its energy in managing and maintaining Lord Dufferin Hospital besides its activity in other work. Miss Hewatt was appointed to attend the annual meeting of the National Chapters, I. O. D. E., to be held in Toronto during the week of May 30th. At the conclusion of the meeting Mrs. Carlyle sang a very pretty Scotch ballad after which afternoon tea was served.

CALEDON

On Monday, May 16th, the angel of death again visited our community and claimed as its victim a very highly respected and much beloved citizen in the person of Mrs. Wm. Moffatt. Mrs. Moffatt was affected with an incurable disease for some time and for the past nine weeks was confined to her room and was a great sufferer until death relieved her, yet she bore the pain and endured her lot with true patience and Christian fortitude. Deceased was born in the neighboring township of Chinguacousy nearly 70 years ago, but came to Caledon when about 4 years old and resided on the old farm, lot 13, ever since. She was a consistent and active member of the Caledon Methodist Church, a very enthusiastic worker in the Sunday School, having been a teacher for over twenty-five years. She was also connected with the Ladies' Aid and used her energy to further the good of the cause. The funeral on Wednesday was very largely attended by the friends, neighbors and relatives of the deceased lady. Rev. Capt. J. F. G. Morris conducted the memorial service and paid a glowing tribute to the Christian character, noble life and genuine sincerity of the deceased. Miss Lillian Coleman sang the beautiful and appropriate solo; "He shall wipe the tears from every eye," and "The Beautiful Land" was sweetly rendered by Mr. Bert Clarke and Miss May Glassford, Miss Maggie Dodds playing the accompaniment. The pallbearers were six men of the congregation of the Methodist Church and had been selected by Mrs. Moffatt when she became aware that her illness would prove fatal, and were James and Homer Hillyard, Joe and Thompson Nesbitt, Bert Tribble and Bert Clarke. The funeral cortege, by motor to Dixon's Cemetery, lot 22, 1st line, east, Chinguacousy, was largely attended, the last service being conducted by the pastor. To Mr. Moffatt, the bereaved husband, the sympathy of the entire community is extended in his sad bereavement.

O, when shall we sweetly remove,
O, when shall we enter our rest,
Return to the Zion above,
The mother of spirits distrest?

That City of God, the great King,
Where sorrow and death are no more,
But saints our Immanuel sing,
And cherub and seraph adore.

Leg that Wouldn't Heal

"Ever since a boy of fourteen," writes Mr. John Redmond, of West Frampton, Que., "I had trouble with a bad leg. I used many remedies. Though some appeared to heal the ulcer for a while, it always broke out again as bad as ever. This last time I suffered continuously for nine years, and the old remedies had absolutely no effect.

"The limb was in an awful state when someone advised me to get Zam-Buk right away. I had only used this herbal healer a few days when I began to see great improvement. So I continued the treatment, for even Zam-Buk needed time to have complete effect. However, I am glad to tell you that it was only by the aid of Zam-Buk that the leg was eventually thoroughly healed. Never a sign of the ulcer since."

RED LETTER NIGHT

Orangeville Masons had one of the best nights in the last two decades on Tuesday night of last week. The occasion was a visit fromthe officers and members of Dufferin Lodge, Toronto, a Lodge organized about a year ago and officered entirely by former residents of Dufferin County. The first and present W. M. of the Lodge is Dr. T. A. Carson, who is well-known in Orangeville, having practiced medicine here for a number of years. The visitors came out from the city about seventy strong and travelled in a special coach attached to the regular evening train. They were met at the station by the Citizens Band and a representative delegation of the members of Harris Lodge, who escorted them to the Lodge room. In the Lodge the visitors gave an excellent exemplification of the work of the Entered Apprentice degree. The business meeting was followed by the "Fourth Degree," to which everybody did ample justice. The banquet was followed by a delightful social hour, which was spent in discussing the customary Masonic toasts, which were appropriately and heartily honored in speech, story and song. Visiting brethren were also present from Erin, Grand Valley, Shelburne and Caledon East. So large was the attendance that the Masonic Hall, the banqueting hall and the Oddfellows' Hall adjoining were taxed to their utmost to provide accommodation for the throng. The Toronto brethren returned to the city directly after the close of the festive gathering somewhere about two o'clock on Wednesday morning.

ROSEHILL

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. John Dynes, which took place on the 17th inst. at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. S. L. Island. The late Mrs. Dynes has lived with her daughter since Mr. Dynes' death, sixteen years ago. She has been in failing health for some time, and during her last days was devotedly cared for by the loving hands of her daughter. Her sweet and even temper endeared her to all who knew her, and who offer their sincere sympathy to those she has left behind. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. S. L. Island, of Caledon, Mrs. John McCartney, of Winnipeg, and Mrs George Ford, of Porterville, California, who was present at the funeral, and two brothers, Messrs. John Stubbs, of Caledon, and William Stubbs, of Port Elgin. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held on Sunday, May 22nd, to Caledon Cemetery. Capt. the Rev. T. H. Stewart conducted the service at the house and at the grave, the pallbearers being Messrs. Geo. Island, E. E. Stubbs, Elmer Armstrong, Clarence Watson, Osborne Bracken and Malcolm Faulkner. Among friends from a distance we noticed Mr. and Mrs. W. Dynes and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dynes, of Laurel, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dynes and Mr. and Mrs. R. Dynes, of Reddickville, and Mrs. Wm. Bates, of Grand Valley. The floral offerings included a pillow from the daughters and son-in-law, a spray from Mr. James and the Misses Armstrong, a spray from Mr. and Mrs. John Stubbs and a spray from Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Island.

WELL SATISFIED WITH BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she will use nothing else. Her use of them leads her to believe there is no other medicine to equal them for any of the many minor ailments of childhood. Concerning them Mrs. Eugene Boisvert, East Aldfield, Que., writes: "My baby was terribly constipated, but after the use of Baby's Own Tablets he is entirely well again. I am so well satisfied with the Tablets that I lose no opportunity in recommending them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

"THE DEACON"

Waldemar Dramatic Club will present their popular five act drama, "The Deacon" in the Orangeville Opera House on Wednesday evening, June 1st. The Play has been making a big hit elsewhere and should draw a capacity house here. It is well staged and the Waldemar amateurs have proved themselves competent actors, who display fine interpretative ability in their respective parts. Orangeville orchestra will be present and provide delightful music before the Play and between Acts. Curtain at 8 o'clock. Reserved seats, 50 cents; general admission, 35 cents. Plan of hall at Banner Office. Proceeds in aid of the Waldemar Community Hall.

INGLEWOOD

The Caledon Dramatic Club staged their new Play, "The Night Riders," before a large and appreciative audience in the Town Hall here on Friday night of last week. The scene of the Play is a tobacco plantation in one of the Southern States and the incidents depicted are characteristic of the life in the Sunny South and the portrayal holds the audience spellbound throughout the whole performance. The actors have mastered their different parts thoroughly and their clever impersonation elicited the most favorable comments. In their respective roles, the ladies, the Misses Coleman, Pattullo and Groeskurth, were faultless. Frank Johnston, as cashier of the local bank and secretly in league with the Night Riders, excelled in difficult parts of the Play. Space will not allow us to make special mention of each of the actors, but one and all contributed in full measure to the success of the performance. There was not a weak spot in the whole cast. The ladies of the Methodist Church tendered the players a dainty lunch at the close of the performance. All unite in wishing them continued success in future engagements.

The Tortures of Dyspepsia Relieved By "Fruit-a-tives"

LITTLE BRAS D'OR, C. B.

"I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and Constipation for years. I had pain after eating, belching gas, constant headaches and did not sleep well at night. Finally, a friend told me to try "Fruit-a-tives". In a week, the Constipation was corrected and soon I was free of pain, headaches and that miserable feeling that accompanies Dyspepsia. I continued to take this splendid fruit medicine and now I am well, strong and vigorous". ROBERT NEWTON.

DRUGGED AND PUT IN AUTO

The town of Palmerston was all excitement on May 18th last, over the bold attack made on Miss Edna R. Lee, leader of the Knox Church choir, who was found bound hand and foot, unconscious, in Louis Nairn's lane about half-past five in the morning.

Miss Lee, whose home is in Listowel, a few miles from Palmerston, has been giving music lessons in that town, and had returned on the 8 p.m. train from Listowel, and was on her way to the Presbyterian church after some sheets of music.

On her way to the church, a car approached from behind, and a man jumped out and asked her help for a supposed woman who, she was told, was ill in the car.

Without any hesitation, Miss Lee went over to the car, and was immediately seized by the man who had asked her aid. He covered her mouth with his hand, and thrust her into the rear seat of the car.

She was chloroformed, her hands tied behind her back, and ankles tied, then carried and left in Louis Nairn's lane, on the edge of the town, where she was found unconscious at 5.30 in the morning.

The victim of the assault is a highly respectable young woman. Her father, Mr. C. A. Lee, is a photographer in Listowel.

WILLIAM HAND

A highly respected former resident of the Stanton neighborhood, William Hand, died at his home in Alliston, Thursday morning, May 5th, in his 68th year. He had been in poor health for several years. Deceased was born on lot 5, Fifth Line, Mulmur, being the son of the late Thomas Hand. On growing to manhood he farmed for himself on lot 14, Fifth Line, Mulmur, until 1893, after the death of his father, when he went back to the old homestead, where he remained until 1910, when he moved to Alliston. His first wife (Margaret Kirkpatrick) died in 1891. He is survived by his second wife (Eliza Morrison) and six sons and daughters: Thos. K., Stanton; J. Albert, Shelburne; Clifton M., on the homestead; Mrs. R. J. Ferris, Whitfield; Mrs. Hill Little, Rosemont; Mrs. Edna B. White, Winnipeg. The following brothers and sisters also survive: Thos. A., Sault Ste Marie, Ont.; John, New York; Rev. Edward, in the United States; Mrs. Nixon Rutledge, Alliston; Mrs. Geo. P. McNabb, Rosemont; Mrs. W. W. Ireland, Perm; Mrs. (Rev.) F. W. Goodeve, Winnipeg; Mrs. Wm. Fletcher, Sault Ste Marie, Mich. The late Mr. Hand was a staunch Methodist and was for years connected with the official board of Mt. Pleasant and Mulmur churches. The funeral, which took place to Alliston Union Cemetery, Friday afternoon, was very largely attended. Rev. Dr. Harper, of Alliston, and Rev. Chas. Bailey, of Rosemont, officiated. The pallbearers were Nelson and James Greenless, Wm. Wilson, Rev. Hugh Brown, Wm. Banting, Wm. Knight. —Economist.

Arthur Ecrement, ex-M. P., was acquitted in Montreal of the charge of having obtaied $2,000 under false pretences.

A fire did several thousand dollars and small craft on the waterfront at Brockville last week.

I SUFFERED FIVE YEARS

Finally Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Paris, Ont.—"For five years I suffered from pains caused by displacement of my organs and in my back. All of this time I was unfit for work and was taking different medicines that I thought were good. I saw the advertisement in the papers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and took it faithfully. I am now in perfect health and do all my own work. I recommend it to others, and give you permission to publish this letter in your little books and in the newspapers as a testimonial." —Mrs. D. CASSADY, Box 461, Paris, Ont.

Why women will continue to suffer so long is more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound!

For forty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

These Eternal Meals

"WHAT to get for dinner?" "What to get for supper?" To-day, to-morrow, next day, every day in the week.

This is woman's problem and the source of almost endless worry.

True, there are times when most women take a pleasure and pride in cooking and baking, but when you are not feeling up to the mark it does get on your nerves and become a real worry—a nerve-exhausting worry.

Since meals are essential to life, the old problem of "what to eat" must endure, but need not be a worry when your nerves are set right.

It is when you are tired—nerve tired — that such things become a source of worry. There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to combat this condition.

It is because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is such a help under these very conditions that it has come to be relied upon by the great majority of Canadian women. Headaches, sleeplessness, tired, depressed feelings, lack of energy are some of the accompanying symptoms.

You can obtain Dr. Chase's Nerve Food from your dealer at 50 cents a box.

Lowe Brothers

Clean-Up Paint-Up

Let your home show the pride that is within you. Plant flowers and grass seed. Trim up the shrubbery and vines. Paint your house with Lowe Brothers High Standard Liquid Paint.

You can always bank on the quality of the paint bearing the Little Blue Flag trademark on the label. It may cost a little more per gallon than other paints, but it spreads further and easier, so you'll save money at the start on both your material and labor bills.

This paint also holds its color and lasts longer than most other paints. That means you will not have to repaint as often as formerly.

We will be glad to show you that the difference between Lowe Brothers and other paints is more than a mere difference of opinion. Ask for color card and interesting literature.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

This statement has been duly vouched by comparing all entries with the books at the Chief Office and certified Returns from the Branches and in my opinion is properly drawn up so as to exhibit a correct view of the condition of the Bank.

Cash and Securities have been checked at the Chief Office at 30th April, 1921, as well as at another time during the year, as required by section 56 of the Bank Act.

I have obtained all the information and explanations required, and am of the opinion that the transactions of the Bank, which have come under my notice, have been within the powers of the Bank.

LENGTHY MOTOR TRIP

Travelling in a motor car from Bolton, Ont., to a farm in Alberta, Thomas Rolley and his uncle, Frank Rolley, who is over 70 years of age, passed through Indian Head, Sask., on Sunday, May 21st. After leaving Bolton, the pair motored to Walkerville, Ont., then to Chicago, Milwaukee, Minneapolis and Winnipeg. When they reached Indian Head they had travelled 1,812 miles and will have gone 2600 miles when they reach their destination. They carry a camping outfit and spend the night on the roadside.

Out of the Present into the Past

IT is interesting to note the excellent preservation of some old family residences. So well do they "fit into the picture" that except for their architecture one might almost imagine them the product of the present age, yet in reality they stand as silent tributes to the wise precaution against decay and deterioration on the part of a former generation.

Any house that is worth building should also be worthy of preservation by means of paint. The maximum of protection is found in

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT 70% Pure White Lead (Brandram's Genuine B.B.) 30% Pure White Zinc 100% Pure Paint

The formula (70% Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead and 30% Pure White Zinc) produces a paint with a fine, smooth surface that does not crack, chip or peel and a surface protecting film that will defy the elements.

Investigate B-H "English" paint—you'll find most Canadians use it because of its economy and lasting qualities. A trial will make you a convinced adherent to this brand that goes so far and lasts so long.

VICTORIA DAY

Victoria Day passed off very quietly in town. While there was nothing doing here, there was plenty of nearby attractions. Quite a number of townspeople took in the Mono Centre Picnic, which was the usual success. Others went to Mono Mills to witness the unveiling of the Soldiers' Memorial erected by the townships of Mono, Caledon, Albion and Adjala. The ceremony, which was of a very impressive character, attracted an immense gathering. The memorial, which bears the names of twelve soldier heroes, is in the form of a cenotaph of white marble nine feet high standing on a five foot base. Quite a number of lacrosse enthusiasts hied themselves to Fergus, where they had the satisfaction of seeing The Dufferins trim a Young Torontos-St. Simons team by a score of 10-2. Neither team was at full strength. The Dufferins being short three of their regular men. Orangeville and Fergus Juniors also played, the Fergus boys winning by 6 to 3. Shelburne's celebration also attracted many from this side. A large crowd witnessed an excellent program of sports in the northern town. Shelburne's speedy junior lacrosse team defeated St. Simon's of Toronto by 9 to 6. Shelburne midget lacrosse team downed the Orangeville midgets by 6 to 0 and Shelburne girls defeated the Orangeville girls by 14 to 8 in basketball. Laurel carried off the honors in baseball, defeating Honeywood by 8 to 3 in the morning and taking Shelburne nine into camp by 8 to 4 in the afternoon. The weather was ideal for a holiday, although rain threatened toward evening.

LAUREL

L. O. L. No. 330 will hold its annual Garden Party in Maltby's Grove on Thursday evening, June 9th. Arrangements have been made for one of the classiest programmes ever given in this community. Watch for full particulars in next week's issue.

RELESSEY PICNIC

That popular June event, the Relesey Methodist S. S. Picnic, will be held in Mr. Heber Waller's Grove, lot 20, 4th line, east, Mono, on Tuesday afternoon, June 3rd. The attractions for the afternoon will include a Ladies' Baseball Match between the Violet Hill and Relesey teams, a baseball match, 7th line School vs. 6th line School and a program of races, novelty contests, swings and other amusements. Supper will be served from 4 to 6 o'clock. Admission, 40 cents; children, 25 cents.

—Shorthorn Milch Cow for Sale. Apply to Mrs. R. B. Young, East Broadway, Orangeville.

—Hear the Honolulu Hawaiian Trio in harmony singing and instrumental, and Percy David, comedian, at Claude Presbyterian Church, garden party, Friday evening, June 3rd.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

Last Monday evening the Epworth League meeting was under the auspices of the Citizenship Department. Mr. Frank Partridge, the fifth vice-president, acted in the capacity of chairman. The program included a splendid clarinet duet by Messrs. Harold Rutledge and Ellis Liddy. Miss Coral Irwin gave an excellent paper on "The Life and Works of the late Queen Victoria."

Next Monday evening the Social Committee will conduct a big Social Rally. A splendid program has been arranged, including several musical selections by the celebrated ladies' orchestra of Grand Valley. Refreshments will be served immediately after the program. Come one, come all, and have a good time. Admission 15 cents.

—During the thunderstorm on Sunday evening lightning struck a pine not more than fifty yards from the residence of the late John McDonald, 3rd line, east, Mono, and shattered it into kindling wood. Pieces of the tree were scattered here and there over the field and some of the fragments were even hurled across the roadway and deposited in a field on the opposite lot. Inmates of the McDonald household say that the shock lifted the lids on the kitchen stove. The body of Mr. McDonald was lying in the house at the time.

THE GEM THEATRE

FRIDAY & SATURDAY
May 27th and 28th
MADGE KENNEDY
—IN—
"The Truth"

"The Truth" is still held up to-day as a comedy model for the young-writing idea to shoot at. It is the story of a young wife who had inherited the gift of telling artistic lies from a rakish scapegrace of a father. Her indulgent husband does his best to show her the ultimate advantages of telling the truth, but the naive Becky finds fibbing easier, and much more exciting.

With this situation as a starting point, Clyde Fitch, one of the greatest of American dramatists, wove a plot that mingles laughter with tears and whips the element of suspense to the breaking point.

TWO REELS OF COMEDY

MONDAY & TUESDAY
May 30th and 31st
MAX LINDER
—IN—
"The Little Cafe"

Albert Loriflan is a waiter in a little cafe in Paris. His employer contracts to hire him for twenty years. If either breaks the contract, that one is to pay the other 500,000 francs. This is a frame-up, as Albert learns when he falls heir to a large fortune. He turns the tables on the tricksters by continuing to be a waiter. But what is the use of having a fortune if you can't spend it? Albert soon finds himself in a merry whirl of night life in Gay Paree, from which complications of the heart result in a cyclone of comedy.

Get this booklet which tells
"What Edison Likes in Music"

THERE is a certain song which holds a fascination for Mr. Edison.

That song is "I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen."

Mr. Edison has his other favorites, too. He listens to them in those moments of relaxation which he snatches from his never-ceasing research work.

Wouldn't it be interesting to know these tunes?

Get a copy of "What Edison Likes in Music" (use our Edison Requisition Blank). Know Mr. Edison's 25 favorite selections. Note his personal views on what is good and what is bad in music. See the six selections he thinks everybody ought to have. You will get new side-lights on Mr. Edison, the man,—also valuable music suggestions you can use.

This is the booklet the magazines have been talking about. We haven't a large supply. The demand is heavy. So, act promptly.

The phonograph which Mr. Edison has for his personal use is acknowledged to be the most perfect type of sound-reproducing instrument in the world. We have its exact duplicate. Come in and hear it. Ask for the Official Laboratory Model. You can buy it on our Budget Plan. That is, we'll make a gentleman's agreement with you.

Study This Picture! Know What It Means?

It means that famous vocalists and instrumentalists have compared their performances with the RE-CREATION of those performances by the New Edison. It means that there is no difference between the living performance and the RE-CREATED performance. It means that only the New Edison gives music exactly as great artists give it,—for only the New Edison sustains this test of direct comparison. (The New Edison also plays all makes of talking machine records, —and plays them better.)

A SAD ACCIDENT

A very sad accident happened on Monday near Richmond Hill when Sylvio O'Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Leary, Loretto, was almost instantly killed. He was operating a tractor, pulling a harrow, and when going up a hill the harrow caught on some obstruction with such force that the tractor overbalanced and fell back on him. He was terribly mangled and jacks had to be used to raise the machine before the body could be extricated. The unfortunate young man was quiet and unassuming and was well regarded in his native township. Not many months ago he was married to Miss Wallace, of Athlone, and just this spring they went to Richmond Hill. The grief stricken young wife, parents, sisters and brothers have the sympathy of the community in their great misfortune. The remains were taken by motor to St. James' Cemetery on Wednesday and interred in the family plot.—Tottenham Sentinel.

PUTTING ONE OVER ON THE PREACEHR

A practice which is not only becoming an intolerable nuisance in our local churches, but is also one of doubtful propriety, is the announcing of public meetings and entertainments of one kind or another from the pulpit. A few years ago nothing but announcements regarding church work were thought of or would have been tolerated. Then during the war it became the fashion to announce patriotic entertainments from the pulpit. From that to announcing other public events seemed an easy step. So long as ministers fall for this sort if thing, the requests will continue to come in. The practice is not only an imposition on the clergymen but on their people as well who have to sit and listen to the good man wading through notices which have nothing to do with the purpose for which they attend the place of worship. The roll of "town crier" ill becomes any clergyman and he should have no hesitation in putting his foot down flatly when requests of the above nature are made by cheeky individuals.—Walkerton-Telescope.

10 Years of Eczema
A Sample Relieved Her

Are you reading the wealth Canadian letters, telling stories of suffering from skin diseases and how cure was effected?

Here is part of a letter from Mrs. Henry Harvey, Black Lake, Que. Write her if you desire.

"Ten years of eczema on the face. Treated unavailingly by doctors. A sample alone of D. D. D. cured me, etc."

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. When a prescription for skin disease has letters of cure and endorsement from nearly every city and town in the Dominion, surely it is enough to convince the most skeptical.

Relief from itching torment is immediate. Just try one bottle of D. D. D. today on our positive guarantee. $1.00 a bottle. Try D.D.D. Soap, too.

HAS NEVER FELT BETTER IN LIFE

Words Can't Express His Gratitude To Tanlac, States London Man.

T. G. Maitland, of 147 Adelaide St., London, Ont., is but one of the well-known people in this city who after testing the merits of Tanlac, have come forward with unqualified endorsements of the medicine. Mr. Maitland has been in the employ of E. Leonard & Sons in London for the past twenty-eight years, and in telling of the benefits he derived from the use of Tanlac he said:

"It was about five years ago that my troubles first started, and since that time they have simply given me no end of worry. My appetite left me so completely that I didn't relish a thing to eat, my digestion was very bad and I would bloat all up with sour gas.

"I suffered a great deal from constipation and biliousness, and at times had such splitting headaches and such terrible dizzy spells I could hardly see. I had rheumatism in my knees and joints and often ached all over. I was so nervous that everything seemed to worry me, and at night I could scarcely sleep at all.

"I'll tell you I'm mighty thankful to Tanlac for the way it has fixed me up, for it has given me a splendid appetite and put an end to that indigestion and bloating. I never have an ache or pain of any kind, sleep good and sound every night, and am feeling fine in every way. In fact, I never felt better in my life than I do now, and words simply can't express my gratitude to Tanlac."

Messrs. Heimbecher, late proprietors of the Dundalk Woollen Mills, are negotiating with Grand Valley Board of Trade and the citizens with a view to starting in business there.

After turning three somersaults in his automobile, Dr. R. Stubbs, of Caledon, still lives to tell the tale. His motor car lives also. Dr. Stubbs was driving down the Caledon Mountain, when he swung off the road in negotiating a sharp turn. The car rolled down an embankment and after the third somersault threw the doctor out. Somewhat shaken by his experience, Dr. Stubbs picked himself up, walked to where his car was resting on its side, turned it on four wheels again, twisted the crank and rode back home.

"Like Butter?"

De Laval cream makes the best butter

WHETHER you make butter yourself or sell butter-fat to a creamery, the value of your cream depends largely on the kind of butter it will make.

It is easy to prove that De Laval cream makes better butter. Every first prize awarded at the Conventions of the National Buttermakers' Association since it was started twenty-eight years ago, has gone to butter made by De Laval users, or from gathered cream largely De Laval-separated.

The De Laval Separator is more sanitary, its bowl runs at lower speed and delivers the butter-fat globules unbroken. It is used in practically all of the world's creameries, because it gives not only more cream but better cream as well. And the fact that the De Laval runs at lower speed adds years to its life.

Let us demonstrate to you why the De Laval is the World's Standard Cream Separator

FIFTH B. C. LIGHT HORSE

The Fifth British Columbia Light Horse will be one of the few Canadian cavalry regiments that will go into training camp this year. The regiment, which was reorganized about a month ago, is already over fifty per cent. strong and all arrangements have been made to go into camp for ten days at Merritt, B. C. Banner readers will be interested to learn that the Vancouver squadron of the Fifth is under the command of Major Geo. M. Endacott, a son of Sheriff and Mrs. H. Endacott, of Orangeville. A younger brother, Q. M. S. Douglas Endacott, is one of the officers of the Regiment and will go into camp on the 9th. Both officers saw service at the front during the war. Major Geo. M. Endacott was in command of the 31st B. C. Horse on their journey from the West to Valcartier Camp at the beginning of the war.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Social Committee of the Epworth League conducted a very pleasant social meeting in the Methodist Church last Monday evening. The basement of the church was tastefully decorated for the occasion and the program was excellent. A ladies' orchestra from Grand Valley furnished delightful music at intervals. Miss Ruth Shaw and Mrs. Russell Morrow rendered an instrumental duet in fine style. Miss Luella Johnston and Master Boris Parkinson delighted the audience with a vocal duet and Master Fred Bethley contributed several recitations which added much to the success of the program. A kazoo band composed of a number of talented young ladies brought the house down with their musical selections. After the program a dainty lunch was served, which wound up the evening in fine style. Credit for the success of the evening's entertainment is due to the Social Committee. The thanks of the Leaguers are due all who took part in the program and to Miss E. M. Budd, convener of the Committee in charge. Mr. Graham Kearns presided in his usual capable manner.

Next Monday evening the Christian Endeavor Department will conduct a Consecration meeting.

MAITLANDS COMING

So far as Orangeville is concerned the senior lacrosse season will open on Saturday, June 11th, when the Maitlands, of Toronto, will try conclusions with the champion Dufferins on Idylwyld Park. The Dufferins will line up the same or virtually the same team as brought the championship home last season. The Maitlands are said to have a strong team and are coming up with the determination to take a fall out of last season's champs if they possibly can. It will be a game worth going to see. Ball faced at 3 o'clock. Admission, 50c. and 25c.

DRY MAJORITY, 166,835

Total Vote on Referendum Was 914,711—May be Mid-July Before Act Comes in Force.

The final certificate of the result of the vote taken April 18 on the Canada Temperance Act, given out by the Chief Electoral Officer Wednesday afternoon, shows 540,773 affirmative, a total wet and 373,938 negative, a total "dry" vote of 914,711, and a "dry" majority of 166,835. The announcement appeared in the Canada Gazette on Thursday.

The certificate does not give the number of names on the voters' list. These are being counted, but the result will not be available for some time. Owing to the form in which according to the Act, the lists were prepared, the names were not numbered; it is therefore necessary to count them one by one, a long process.

May Have to Wait.

It may be well on in July before the Act can be put into force. According to one interpretation placed on the Act, though the Electoral Officer has issued his certificate, the Cabinet cannot determine when prohibition shall come into force June 17. If this interpretation is until sixty days after the vote, or correct, it will be at least thirty days later, or July 17, before the Act can come into effect. Legal opinion is being sought on the point.

The question did not arise under the other votes held under the Act because difficulties in making complete returns held the issue of the Electoral Officer's certificate back until more than sixty days after the vote.

O. A. L. A. SENIOR GAMES

Owing to the amalgamation of Young Torontos and St. Simons it was found necessary to revise the Senior O. A. L. A. schedule, which has been rearranged as follows:—

CENSUS ENUMERATORS

Yesterday morning, June 1st, the following enumerators started on the work of taking the Dominion census for the County of Dufferin:

Amaranth—Elmer Bryan, R. C. Wansbrough, Leonard McCabe.
East Garafraxa—C. H. Dearing, Willard Conlin.
East Luther—S. L. Hunt, Edward Colbeck.
Melancthon—W. A. Page, Joseph Grainger, Chester Forster, Howard Dolmer.
Mono—A. H. Woodland, Clarence Haddock, Frank Jackson, Lewis Moffatt.
Mulmur—Leonard Hodgson, Lester Hill, W. W. Mason.
Orangeville, Jack M. Aiken, Bert Booth.
Grand Valley—H. A. McIntyre.
Shelburne—Wm. Gallaugher.

The enumerators, who are all returned soldiers, were appointed by and are doing their work under the direction and supervision of Mr. W. A. Wansbrough, of Grand Valley, the Chief Enumerator for the County.

MISS MAYME NODWELL

A very sad death occurred at Hillsburg, Wednesday, May 25th, when Miss Mayme Nodwell, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs R. D. Nodwell, passed away after an illness of some five months. Miss Nodwell was attending Brampton High School when she took the flu. Other complications set in and proved fatal.

The funeral took place on Friday, May 27th, from the home of her parents, "Homestead Farm," to Huxley Cemetery. A great bank of floral wreaths and a very large attendance of people from the surrounding country were evidences of deep sympathy for the bereaved, and of the esteem in which Miss Nodwell was held. She was of an exceptionally cheery disposition and highly thought of in Hillsburg and in Orangeville and Brampton, where she attended High School.

Rev. J. J. Elliott, of Midland, a former pastor of the family, conducted the services at the house and grave. Mr. Hackett, Principal of the Orangeville High School, and a number of the students attended the funeral. The pallbearers were Ross and Carrick Hammond, John and Carrick Young, Arthur Torrie and Arthur Macpherson.

—Orangeville's Twelfth of July Celebration promises to be a hummer. Already a number of Lodges outside the County have intimated that they intend to spend the day here. Local Committees are at work preparing an attractive program for the day.

PALE AND NERVOUS SCHOOL CHILDREN

Need Rich, Red Blood to Regain Health and Strength.

Many children start school in excellent health, but after a short time home work, examinations, hurried meals and crowded school rooms cause their blood to become weak, their nerves over-wrought and their color and spirits lost. It is a mistake to let matters drift when boys and girls show symptoms of nervousness or weak blood. They are almost sure to fall victims of St. Vitus dance, or drift into debility that leads to other troubles. Regular meals, out-door exercise and plenty of sleep are necessary to combat the nervous wear of school life. But it is still more important that parents should pay attention to the school child's blood supply. Keep this rich and red by giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the boy or girl will be sturdy and fit for school. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Watson, Grand Falls, N. B., who says: "In the spring of 1919 my daughter, Thistle, then 12 years of age, began to show symptoms of nervousness which developed into St. Vitus dance. She seemed to lose control of her limbs and at times every muscle in her body seemed to be twitching and jerking, and the trouble seemed to be growing worse. We finally decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and the result was better even than we had hoped for, and she is now enjoying the best of health."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

NEIL M'CALLUM

Mr. Neil McCallum, a widely known Peel County stockman, died at his residence in Brampton on Saturday at the age of 68 years. Deceased was an extensive importer of Clydesdale horses and Shorthorn cattle and was widely known in Western Canada where he had an extensive business connection. Deceased was born in Simcoe, Norfolk County, and was the son of pioneer Scottish immigrants. He had lived in Brampton for a number of years, was a member of the Methodist Church and an active Conservative. He is survived by three sons and four daughters, W. J., of Brampton and Brandon Man., E. D., of Brandon, W. C., of Newmarket, Mrs. Ernest Denny, of Erin, Mrs. A. Wolfe, of Streetsville, and Misses Margaret and Bessie McCallum at home. John McCallum, of Simcoe, Malcolm McCallum, of St. Thomas, and Mrs. Bennett, of Detroit, are the surviving brothers and sister.

DEATH OF GEO. APPLEBY

The death of Mr. George Appleby occurred at his home on Monday night. He had been suffering from asthma for a number of years which had of late brought on heart trouble. He was born near Toronto 66 years ago, and came West in 1912. For some years he had travelled extensively in Europe for the Massey-Harris Company, and had also been employed by Frost & Wood. He could relate many interesting accounts of his travels, and was an excellent host.

During his residence in this district Mr. Appleby was the first reeve of the Municipality, and was at the time of his death a trustee of Blairgowrie School. He was a man of commanding presence and was anxious to do all that his limited strength would allow for the welfare of the district. In religious belief he was a Methodist.

The sympathy of many friends is extended to the bereaved widow and the children, all of whom are at home. A brother lives at Pinkham and another at Cappon. The funeral took place at Sibbald cemetery on Thursday.—Sibbald, Alta., Times, May 12th.

DANIEL LARGE

Daniel Large, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Large, passed away at his home, lot 18, con. 1, Amaranth, on Saturday morning at the age of 54 years. Deceased was ill with pneumonia for five weeks shortly after last Christmas and never fully recovered his wonted strength and vigor. Three weeks ago he was again attacked by this dread malady, the other lung being affected by the disease. In his weakened condition he was unable to withstand the attack despite the services of a skilled nurse and the very best of care and medical attention. Deceased was a quiet, industrious man, of an inoffensive, peaceable disposition and was well liked and held in universal respect by the community in which his life was spent. He is survived by four brothers, William J., of Janseon, Sask., James and Dr. Bruce, of Rochester, and Dougal on the homestead in Amaranth. There are also two sisters, Miss Lizzie, of Rochester, and Mrs. Peter Turnbull, Rocky Mountain, Alta. The brothers and sisters have the sympathy of all their neighbors and friends in their bereavement. There was a large attendance at the funeral, which was held to the family plot in Mono Centre cemetery on Monday afternoon. Deceased had been a consistent member of St. Andrew's Church, Camilla, since boyhood and the services at the house and grave were conducted by the pastor, Rev. Wm. Coutts. The pallbearers were Messrs. James and Atkinson White, John Anderson, W. R. Rintoul and Jas. and Bert Trimble, all neighbors of the family.

JAS. BOWER DEAD

Former Mono Man Was Three Times President of Alberta Farmers' Organization.

Red Deer, Alta., May 16—James Bower died at his farm residence, adjoining Red Deer, this afternoon at the age of 61. His last illness was only of ten days' duration, but he has been practically incapacitated for some years and spent two or three years at the coast in the hope of re-establishing his health. Mr. Bower came from near Orangeville, Ont., where he was a saw miller and farmer. He and his boys were among the largest farmers of the district, their specialty being Percheron horses. He was one of the stalwart founders of the organized farmers' movement in Alberta, having been the first president of the United Farmers of Alberta, an office he held for three years. He was also the first president of the Canadian council of agriculture. He founded the Red Deer Co-operative Association, the first in the province, which was afterwards united with the Alberta Co-operative Association and then with the U. G. G. He was one of the members of the pork packing commission appointed by the Laurier government. Mr Bower practically spent the best twenty years of his life in the organization of Alberta farmers along various co-operative lines and his work and memory will be held in the highest respect and gratitude. He leaves a widow, one daughter and five sons, one son having been killed in action in France.

E J. Fream, secretary of the United Grain Growers and for several years secretary of the U. F. A., when informed of Mr. Bower's death, stated:—

"He was a sincere friend of mine and in the early days we worked together most harmoniously. His influence was largely responsible in laying the foundation upon which the U. F. A. has been built into a sound farmers' organization. It was a great loss to the U. F. A. when Mr. Bower's health broke down and made it necessary for him to drop from active work in the organization. He was greatly interested in the livestock work of the association and took an active part in organized farmers' movements as far back as twenty years ago."

The late Mr. Bower was born and spent the early part of his life in the Relessay district in Mono township. He subsequently moved to Orangeville, where he operated a sash and door factory and ran the electric light system, at that time a privately owned utility. He went West from this town about twenty-one years ago. John Bower, Orangeville, is the only surviving brother and Mrs. Robert Murphy, Primrose, and Mrs. E. J. Arthur, Orangeville, are sisters. Mr. W. J. Bower, Reeve of Mono, is a nephew.

MR. ANDREW BRAIDEN

It is with keen regret that we record the death of Mr. Andrew Braiden, an old and universally respected resident of Amaranth township and one of the pioneers of the Coleridge district. On Wednesday forenoon, May 25th, his demise occurred at the home of his nephew, Mr. John J. Braiden, lot 25, con. 3, Amaranth, where he had made his home with his brother, James. He had reached the ripe age of 81 years and 2 months. The deceased had always made his home with with his brother, James, and his family, who cared for and attended him as one of the family. James and Andrew Braiden first settled on lot 26, con. 3, Amaranth, when the place was in forest, being among the first settlers there. They cleared up their farms side by side and together experienced many of the trials and hardships of pioneer life. They were obliged to do their teaming to Guelph and Brampton, which were at that time the nearest market points. Their lot was hard and at times discouraging, but they were happy in their simple, homely life, hewing out for themselves homes in the midst of the forest and their labors were in time crowned with success and a goodly measure of prosperity. Some years ago James Braiden and family and Andrew moved to lot 27, con. 3, just north of the farm on which they had first settled. The deceased had been in failing health for some time, but was of such an active and ambitious nature that he did not give in until the very last. He never complained, but bore his physical pain and weakness with Christian fortitude, waiting patiently and cheefully for the call of the Master. He had been able to go around until the 24th of May and was downstairs with the rest of the family on that day. The late Mr. Braiden was highly thought of. He was a generous, whole-hearted man, who enjoyed the esteem and confidence of his neighbors and everybody who knew him. He found an honest joy in living and contributed much to the enjoyment of others. He was always the same and his unvarying cheerful disposition won him many friends. It was his nature to be kind to everyone and he did many acts of helpful kindness in aiding and relieving the distresses of his fellows. In business transactions he was honorable and never crushed a man who was the victim of adversity or misfortune. In the home, in the society of his brother and family he was a delightful companion. He was faithful to the highest conceptions of honor and was never known to say a hard word of anyone.

The late Mr. Braiden is survived by four brothers, James, with whom he lived, Christy, of Laurel, William, of Orangeville, and John, of Seattle, Wash. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon, May 27th, from the home of his nephew, John J. Braiden, to Shelburne cemetery. The services at the house and cemetery were conducted by Rev. W. W. Wallace, pastor of deceased. The pallbearers were Messrs. William McCabe, William Gracey, J. Mowat, J. Skelding, R. Bates and Geo. Hepton. There were many beautiful floral tributes, which bore mute testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Among the friends from a distance at the funeral were Mr. Geo. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Braiden and Miss Winetta Hunter, of Toronto; Mr. Thos. Braiden, a nephew from Alton; Mr and Mrs. Fred Braiden, Caledon; Mr. Wm. Braiden, Orangeville; Mr. C. Braiden, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Moffatt, Alliston; Mr. and Mrs Archie Moffatt, Rosemont; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Irwin, Alliston; Mr. Geo. Rounding and daughter and Mr. Warnock, Grand Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fife, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Laurel, and Mr. Irwin Dudgeon, Whittington.

WILLIAM BURTCH

The many friends of the family learned with deep sorrow of the sudden death in the Lindsay Hospital on Thursday, May 19th, of Mr. William Burtch, son of George Burtch, formerly of Orangeville. Deceased was in his 26th year and is survived by his father, now living in Collingwood, and two brothers and three sisters, namely, Charlie, of Fort William, John, of Mono, Mrs. James Payne and Mrs. Sam. McAlister of Caledon, and Annie, of Laurel. Deceased was an honest, hard-working chap and his sudden taking-off was a hard blow to the members of his family. He was a member of the Methodist Church in Collingwood and had been employed by the Bell Telephone Co. for the last five years. It was while in the employ of the Company at Lindsay that he was taken ill with double pneumonia and was removed to Lindsay hospital, where he was given every care and attention. The body was brought to Orangeville on the morning train on Saturday, May 21st, and was laid at rest beside the remains of his mother in the Forest Lawn Cemetery. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. H. L. Partridge, pastor of the Orangeville Methodist Church. A number of beautiful floral tributes bore mute testimony to the sorrow and sympathy of friends of the departed.

MONO MILLS

The members of Mono Mills L. O. L. No. 192 will attend divine service in the Methodist Church here on Sunday evening, June 5th, at 7 o'clock. Rev. Peter Tiller, the pastor, will address the brethren. Members of neighboring lodges are cordially invited to join in the service.

FIFTH B. C. LIGHT HORSE

The Fifth British Columbia Light Horse will be one of the few Canadian cavalry regiments that will go into training camp this year, The regiment, which was reorganized about a month ago, is already over fifty per cent. strong and all arrangements have been made to go into camp for ten days at Merritt. B. C. Banner readers will be interested to learn that the Vancouver squadron of the Fifth is under the command of Major Geo. M. Endacott, a son of Sheriff and Mrs. H. Endacott, of Orangeville. A younger brother, Q. M .S. Douglas Endacott, is one of the officers of the Regiment and will go into camp on the 9th. Both officers saw service at the front during the war. Major Geo. M. Endacott was in command of the 31st B. C. Horse on their journey from the West to Valcartier Camp at the beginning of the war.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Social Committee of the Epworth League conducted a very pleasant social meeting in the Methodist Church last Monday evening. The basement of the church was tastefully decorated for the occasion and the program was excellent. A ladies' orchestra from Grand Valley furnished delightful music at intervals. Miss Ruth Shaw and Mrs. Russell Morrow rendered an instrumental duet in fine style. Miss Luella Johnston and Master Boris Parkinson delighted the audience with a vocal duet and Master Fred Bethley contributed several recitations which added much to the success of the program. A kazoo band composed of a number of talented young ladies brought the house down with their musical selections. After the program a dainty lunch was served, which wound up the evening in fine style. Credit for the success of the evening's entertainment is due to the Social Committee. The thanks of the Leaguers are due all who took part in the program and to Miss E. M. Budd, convener of the Committee in charge. Mr. Graham Kearns presided in his usual capable manner.

Next Monday evening the Christian Endeavor Department will conduct a Consecration meeting.

MAITLANDS COMING !

So far as Orangeville is concerned the senior lacrosse season will open on Saturday, June 11th, when the Maitlands, of Toronto, will try conclusions with the champion Dufferins on Idyiwyld Park. The Dufferins will line up the same or virtually the same team as brought the championship home last season. The Maitlands are said to have a strong team and are coming up with the determination to take a fall out of last season's champs if they possibly can. It will be a game worth going to see. Ball faced at 3 o'clock. Admission, 50c. and 25c.

DRY MAJORITY, 166,835

Total Vote on Referendum Was 914,711—May be Mid-July Before Act Comes in Force.

The final certificate of the vote taken April 18 on the Canada Temperance Act, given out by the Chief Electoral Officer Wednesday afternoon, shows 540,773 affirmative votes and 373,938 negative, a total vote of 914,711, and a "dry" majority of 166,835. The announcement appeared in the Canada Gazette on Thursday.

The certificate does not give the number of names on the voters' list. These are being counted, but the result will not be available for some time. Owing to the form in which according to the Act, the lists were prepared, the names were not numbered; it is therefore necessary to count them one by one, a long process.

May Have to Wait.

It may be well on in July before the Act can be put into force. According to one interpretation placed on the Act, though the Electoral Officer has issued his certificate, the Cabinet cannot determine when prohibition shall come into force June 17. If this interpretation is until sixty days after the vote, or correct, it will be at least thirty days later, or July 17, before the Act can come into effect. Legal opinion is being sought on the point.

The question did not arise under the other votes held under the Act because difficulties in making complete returns held the issue of the Electoral Officer's certificate back until more than sixty days after the vote.

O. A. L. A. SENIOR GAMES

PALE AND NERVOUS SCHOOL CHILDREN

Need Rich, Red Blood to Regain Health and Strength.

Many children start school in excellent health, but after a short time home work, examinations, hurried meals and crowded school rooms cause their blood to become weak, their nerves over-wrought and their color and spirits lost. It is a mistake to let matters drift when boys and girls show symptoms of nervousness or weak blood. They are almost sure to fall victims of St. Vitus dance, or drift into debility that leads to other troubles. Regular meals, out-door exercise and plenty of sleep are necessary to combat the nervous wear of school life. But it is still more important that parents should pay attention to the school child's blood supply. Keep this rich and red by giving Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and the boy or girl will be sturdy and fit for school. The value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in cases of this kind is shown by the statement of Mrs. Watson, Grand Falls, N. JAS. BOWER DEAD

Former Mono Man Was Three Times President of Alberta Farmers' Organization.

Red Deer, Alta., May 16—James Bower died at his farm residence, adjoining Red Deer, this afternoon at the age of 61. His last illness was only of ten days' duration, but he has been practically incapacitated for some years and spent two or three years at the coast in the hope of re-establishing his health Mr. Bower came from near Orangeville, Ont., where he was a saw miller and farmer. He and his boys were among the largest farmers of the district, their specialty being Percheron horses. He was one of the stalwart founders of the organized farmers' movement in Alberta, having been the first president of the United Farmers of Alberta, an office he held for three years. He was also the first president of the Canadian council of agriculture. He founded the Red Deer Co-operative Association, the first in the province, which was afterwards united with the Alberta Co-operative Association and then with the U. G .G. He was one of the members of the pork packing commission appointed by the Laurier government. Mr Bower practically spent the best twenty years of his life in the organization of Alberta farmers along various co-operative lines and his work and memory will be held in the highest respect and gratitude. He leaves a widow, one daughter and five sons, one son having been killed in action in France.

E J. Fream, secretary of the United Grain Growers and for several years secretary of the U. F. A., when informed of Mr. Bower's death, stated:—

"He was a sincere friend of mine and in the early days we worked together most harmoniously. His influence was largely responsible in laying the foundation upon which the U. F. A. has been built into a sound farmers' organization. It was a great loss to the U. F. A. when Mr. Bower's health broke down and made it necessary for him to drop from active work in the organization. He was greatly interested in the livestock work of the association and took an active part in organized farmers' movements as far back as twenty years ago."

The late Mr. Bower was born and spent the early part of his life in the Relesney district in Mono township. He subsequently moved to Orangeville, where he operated a sash and door factory and ran the electric light system, at that time a privately owned utility. He went West from this town about twenty-one years ago. John Bower, Orangeville, is the only surviving brother and Mrs. Robert Murphy, Primrose, and Mrs. E. J. Arthur, Orangeville, are sisters. Mr. W. J. Bower, Reeve of Mono, is a nephew.

MR. ANDREW BRAIDEN

It is with keen regret that we record the death of Mr. Andrew Braiden, an old and universally respected resident of Amaranth township and one of the pioneers of the Coleridge district. On Wednesday forenoon, May 25th, his demise occurred at the home of his nephew, Mr. John J. Braiden, lot 25, con. 3, Amaranth, where he had made his home with his brother, James. He had reached the ripe age of 81 years and 2 months. The deceased had always made his home with with his brother, James, and his family, who cared for and attended him as one of the family. James and Andrew Braiden first settled on lot 26, con. 3, Amaranth, when the place was in forest, being among the first settlers there. They cleared up their farms side by side and together experienced many of the trials and hardships of pioneer life. They were obliged to do their teaming to Guelph and Brampton, which were at that time the nearest market points. Their lot was hard and at times discouraging, but they were happy in their simple, homely life, hewing out for themselves homes in the midst of the forest and their labors were in time crowned with success and a goodly measure of prosperity. Some years ago James Braiden and family and Andrew moved to lot 27, con. 3, just north of the farm on which they had first settled. The deceased had been in failing health for some time, but was of such an active and ambitious nature that he did not give in until the very last. He never complained, but bore his physical pain and weakness with Christian fortitude, waiting patiently and cheefully for the call of the Master. He had been able to go around until the 24th of May and was downstairs with the rest of the family on that day. The late Mr. Braiden was highly thought of. He was a generous, whole-hearted man, who enjoyed the esteem and confidence of his neighbors and everybody who knew him. He found an honest joy in living and contributed much to the enjoyment of others. He was always the same and his unvarying cheerful disposition won him many friends. It was his nature to be kind to everyone and he did many acts of helpful kindness in aiding and relieving the distresses of his fellows. In business transactions he was honorable and never crushed a man who was the victim of adversity or misfortune. In the home, in the society of his brother and family he was a delightful companion. He was faithful to the highest conceptions of honor and was never known to say a hard word of anyone.

The late Mr. Braiden is survived by four brothers, James, with whom he lived, Christy, of Laurel, William, of Orangeville, and John ,of Seattle, Wash. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon, May 27th, from the home of his nephew, John J. Braiden, to Shelburne cemetery. The services at the house and cemetery were conducted by Rev. W. W. Wallace, pastor of deceased. The pallbearers were Messrs. William McCabe, William Gracey, J. Mowat, J. Skelding, R. Bates and Geo. Hepton. There were many beautiful floral tributes, which bore mute testimony to the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Among the friends from a distance at the funeral were Mr. Geo. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Braiden and Miss Winetta Hunter, of Toronto; Mr. Thos. Braiden, a nephew from Alton; Mr and Mrs. Fred Braiden, Caledon; Mr. Wm. Braiden, Orangeville; Mr. C. Braiden, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Moffatt, Alliston; Mr. and Mrs Archie Moffatt, Rosemont; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Irwin, Alliston; Mr. Geo. Rounding and daughter and Mr. Warnock, Grand Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fife, Laurel; Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, Laurel, and Mr. Irwin Dudgeon, Whittington.

WILLIAM BURTCH

The many friends of the family learned with deep sorrow of the sudden death in the Lindsay Hospital on Thursday, May 19th, of Mr. William Burtch, son of George Burtch, formerly of Orangeville. Deceased was in his 26th year and is survived by his father, now living in Collingwood, and two brothers and three sisters, namely, Charlie, of Fort William, John, of Mono, Mrs. James Payne and Mrs. Sam. McAlister of Caledon, and Annie, of Laurel. Deceased was an honest, hard-working chap and his sudden taking-off was a hard blow to the members of his family. He was a member of the Methodist Church in Collingwood and had been employed by the Bell Telephone Co. for the last five years. It was while in the employ of the Company at Lindsay that he was taken ill with double pneumonia and was removed to Lindsay hospital, where he was given every care and attention. The body was brought to Orangeville on the morning train on Saturday, May 21st, and was laid at rest beside the remains of his mother in the Forest Lawn Cemetery. The service at the grave was conducted by Rev. H. L. Partridge, pastor of the Orangeville Methodist Church. A number of beautiful floral tributes bore mute testimony to the sorrow and sympathy of friends of the departed.

MONO MILLS.

The members of Mono Mills L. O. L. No. 192 will attend divine service in the Methodist Church here on Sunday evening, June 5th, at 7 o'clock. Rev. Peter Tiller, the pastor, will address the brethren. Members of neighboring lodges are cordially invited to join in the service.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving memory of Mr. John Haddock, of Relessey, who departed this life on May 30th, 1919.

Two years have passed since that sad day,
When taken from his home on earth,
With Jesus Christ to dwell.

In our home he is fondly remembered.
Sweet memories cling to his name;
Hearts that loved him with deepest affection.
Still love him in death just the same.

It is lonesome without dear father,
And sad the weary way;
For life is not the same to us,
Since he was called away.

Yet how oft our thoughts do wander
To a grave not far away,
Where we laid our dear father,
Just two years ago to-day.

God knows how much we miss him,
He counts the tears we shed;
And whispers, "Hush, he only sleeps,
Your loved one is not dead."

—From Wife and Family.

VICTORIA DAY, 1921

To celebrate in an old-fashioned way,
And show we were loyal to Victoria Day,
We hired old Mac for a couple of bills,
And hied us out to see Mono Mills.

There were speakers there from far away,
And flags and bunting mighty gay;
Even the Band from Orangeville
Was out to serenade Mono Mills.

Mono was happy and cheerful and bright,
And treated the boys to a tasty bite;
She tossed her head and ruffled her frills,
So glad to see us was Mono Mills.

The day wore on and the sky was dark,
But a hundred autos there were parked;
Laughter and joking were rife until
The Last Post was heard by Mono Mills.

A monument to the brave dead slain,
Made war-time memories fresh again;
Below the sod the lads are still.
God love the heroes of Mono Mills.

The flag unfurled, the stone laid bare,
Their names are plainly 'graven there;
Through all the days and years God wills,
Oh, cherish that monument, Mono Mills

CAMILLA

Miss Jayne Howard, of Malton, is the guest of Miss Lillian Christian and other friends.

Mr and Mrs. Charles Rayfield, of Montreal, were guests of Mr. G. W. Rayfield over the holiday.

Among other holiday visitors we noticed Mr. and Mrs. John Campbell and little son, Kenneth, of Georgetown; Mr. and Mrs. Earle South, Misses Annie and Minnie South, of Guelph; Manuel South, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bremner, of Toronto.

Miss Holtby has returned to Toronto after a pleasant visit with her friend, Miss Norma Henry.

On Victoria Day, the writer happened to be one of a large gathering at what is called McCarron's Ravine, where the annual picnic of Mono Centre church is held. We were particularly interested in the baseball games between Orangeville and Camilla Some people have grown to consider baseball a spiffy affair—odd taste—something like a longing for olives. The game was interesting even though the more thoroughly practiced Orangeville boys had the best of it all along the line. Manager Harold Gemmill, of the Camilla team made the only home run. He propelled the ball into the right field and made his way leisurely around the bases to the accompaniment of a joyous din. It was an entertaining battle of pitchers, Allan Marshall twirling the ball for Orangeville and Earle Turner for Camilla. Both were speedy and effective. Here's hoping Camilla may have better luck in their next game.

Many friends learned with feelings of deep regret and sorrow that Mr. Daniel Large had passed away to other fields of service. He lived beloved by all who were privileged to know him and he leaves a gap in the family cicle that will only be filled when the whole swirling tide of human life, in which he filled so faithful a place, has all passed out through the harbor mouth to its home again. We tender our heartfelt sympathy to those bereaved.

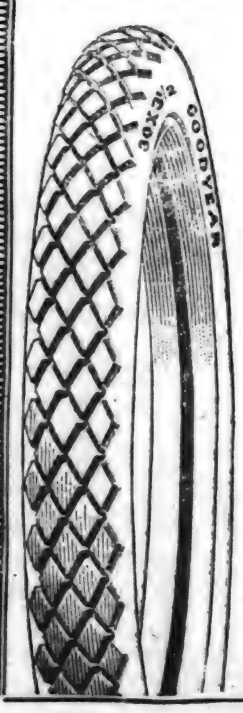
Goodyear could make a good looking 30x3½ tire to sell with a profit at $10.00

All-Weather Tires are All-Wheel Tires



There are a number of tire buyers to whom we could sell Goodyear Tires by building a very cheap tire.

These men are shoppers—purchasers on a basis of price alone—blind to the true economy of quality and value.

They have been the mark for every brilliant salesman with means enough to manufacture a few tires from the market's cheapest materials.

Such tires have been legion—here to-day and gone to-morrow, only to be replaced by another "morning glory" under another name.

The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company from the wealth of its experience as the world's largest maker of tires wishes to convey a frank message to every motorist in Canada.

Goodyear could make a good-looking 30x3½ tire to sell with a profit at $10 — but it wouldn't be worth the price — the cost-per-mile would be higher

Motoring, as a business or as a recreation, cannot stand the high cost of low mileage, quick blowouts, annoyance, and frequently soiled clothes.

Over 4,000 Goodyear dealers in Canada are ready to serve you on Goodyear Tires in both Cord and Fabric types, and the new Goodyear Non-Skid Tread 30x3½ Tire.

These tires are, each in its class, the finest, strongest and most rugged tires we can possibly produce.

By their use the minimum of annoyance and expense can be obtained.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MRS. AMEDEE GARCEAU

22 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the cure of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

THE CALEDON WAPITI

A recent issue of the Toronto Globe contained the following article from the pen of J. R. Dymond, Royal Ontario Museum:—

The recent discovery at Caledon, some forty-five miles northwest of Toronto, of an almost complete skeleton of the American "elk" or wapiti is an event of considerable interest, and a reminder of the magnificent animals which once roamed the forests of Ontario. Green Lake, where the bones were found, is of about fifteen acres in extent, and is partly on the farm of Mr. Norman McLaughlin, in whose possession the bones now are. Perhaps a hundred and fifty years ago, as a conservative estimate—and likely much more—the animal must have become mired in the marshy peat formation of the shore of the lake. Not only were the bones found to be in excellent state of preservation, but the nature of the parts recovered indicated that the whole skeleton, with the possible exception of a part of the face, must have been in position when the discovery was made. Owing to the fact that the water of the lake is much lower this year than usual, Mr. Edward Johnston, who first reported the find, had no difficulty in recognizing the exposed parts as something unusual.

Included with the parts as found is a magnificent pair of antlers, each a little over four feet in length, one with six, the other with seven points. The antlers are not so large as in many heads from animals living in the West, but are notable for their fine curvature and symmetry. Professors Parks and Bensley, of the University of Toronto and the Royal Ontario Museum, who examined the bones at the home of Mr. Mc Laughlin, found that the skeleton lacks only some parts of the skull, a few vetebrae and smaller pieces, such as parts of the breastbone and the toes. The animal probably stood about six feet high at the shoulder.

The Range of the Wapiti.

The wapiti—unfortunateld called "elk" in America, since the true elk of Europe has its American counterpart in the moose—had originally a very broad distribution. It had a range comprising the central portion of the North American continent, extending from north of the Peace River to New Mexico, and from Massachusetts westward to the Pacific. Its northern limit in central Canada was probably a line extending from the north shore of Georgian Bay to the vicinity of Montreal. Though the chief distribution was always westward, the animal must have been abundant throughout its major range. The records of its recurrence in Ontario are still to be gathered, and the time of its extinction yet to be ascertained. Many legends, as well as reports that the animal has been seen alive in Ontario within recent years, are to be discredited. Antlers have been found at various places, notably in the vicinity of Ottawa and in the Ottawa Valley. They were not infrequently found in the ossuaries of the Algonquin Indians, and a number of specimens, mostly fragments of antlers, have found their way into museum collections. Unlike the Virginia deer, and to a certain extent the moose, the wapiti was doubtless unable to withstand the first onslaught of white men, even without modern firearms, the chief menace of game animals now living. In Western Canada and Western United States the animal still occupies its natural haunts, except that with the progress of civilization it is being pressed back into the more secluded places, such as the river valleys and the hills.

Easily Domesticated.

The wapiti is easily domesticated. Many are kept in parks, and the Dominion Government maintains a splendid herd at Buffalo Park, Wainwright, Alberta. It is also privately kept and bred, and has been found to be more hardy and capable of rustling for itself than the Virginia deer. The fact that the animal reaches a weight of over 90 pounds has resulted in many attempts to grow the animal for venison, the project being most promising, but not yet commercially profitable.

The wapiti, if not the largest, is the stateliest of all deer. With the exception perhaps of the Alaskan moose, the antlers are the most magnificent trophies of our North American game animals. Full grown, they usually have twelve tines to the pair, these projecting for the most part forward from massive rounded beams, which are directed upward, backward and outward in a graceful curve. Frequently antlers are taken which have a larger number of points, but not necessarily larger than those with fewer points. Single antlers measuring over fifty inches along the beam are considered large; those over sixty inches very exceptional. The largest antlers recorded by Thompson Seton in "Life Histories of Northern Animals," were sixty-six and a half and sixty-four and a half inches, respectively. The spread, not so significant as in the moose, was fifty-four inches.

GOLD IN NEARLY ALL LANDS

Yet It Is Today, to a Very Large Extent, the "Mainspring" of a Nation.

Gold has been much talked about during these years of war, and every one-pound and ten-shilling note is a monument to the power and value of gold. It is to a great extent the mainspring of a nation, says a writer in London Answers.

And yet in spite of its being counted among the rare and precious metals it is surprising how universally it is found. Almost every country in the world can boast of a gold mine.

Gold is found in the ground in rock formation when its presence is often discovered on the surface. The fine particles of gold are extracted by crushing the rock and amalgamating with mercury. Another place where gold is found is in river beds and ditches, when the gravel is collected and the gold separated by washing.

In the British Isles gold is found in small quantities. There are a few mines in North Wales, where it is won from rock of poor quality.

The greatest mines in the world are in Africa, the Rand mines, which are worked by large limited companies. Up country, in Rhodesia, and also in West Africa, there is plenty of gold.

America is the next largest gold-producing country. Extensive operations are carried on in Alaska and California, and the metal is obtained in many other American states.

Australia is one of our colonies whose reputation as a gold producer is known to many. Gold was first discovered in 1851 in New South Wales and Victoria, and there are possibilities in gold mining in Queensland and Western Australia.

PUTTING THE CASE MILDLY

Condemners of Crutal Murder Could Not Be Accused of Undue Denunciation of Crime.

The example given in recent issues of the Companion of understatement of facts reminded a reader of a glaring instance of such caution in speech. One Monday morning, she says, our colored laundress came to us all agog with the gruesome particulars of the brutal murder of a little girl that had happened a few hours before. As she was the bearer of the first intelligence, I listened intently, interrupting her tale with due exclamations of horror. At last she turned to the washtub:

"Ya-as'm," she drawled, bending over steaming suds, "it suttinly was a mean thing to do—a right mean thing!"

At the time that seemed to me the acme of moderation, but—strangely enough—I was later to meet it exaggerated in the mother of the little victim of that mad assassin. When I paid my visit of condolence to the poor woman, she spoke at length of all the sad circumstances of the tragedy. It was when she came to sum up her conclusions that language failed. Pulling out her handkerchief, she sobbed into its nest folds:

"It was so—uncalled for!"—Youth's Companion.

DO ALL MY HOUSE WORK

Before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could hardly get about.

Cobourg, Ont.—"For many years I have had trouble with my nerves and have been in a general run down condition for some time. I could not do my work half of the time because of the trouble with my monthly sickness. I was told of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound by friends and advised to try it. It has done me good, and I strongly recommend it. Since I have taken it I have been able to do all my own work, and I also know friends who have found it good. You can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. ELLEN FLATTERS, Box 751, Cobourg, Ont.

Why will women continue to suffer so long is more than we can understand, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For forty years this good old fashioned root and herb remedy, which contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

An Afternoon Tea

"Thank you, Mrs. Jones, just one lump of sugar, if you please. No, I don't take cream."

The buzz of feminine voices around me resembled that of a beehive, and the gay colours made Mrs. Jones' spacious verandah look like a part of her famous flower garden.

It was an ideal afternoon for a tea and every invited guest had turned out. Of course, Mrs. Smith was half an hour late and Mrs. Pink had to wait for her, but that was such a common occurrence that the other ladies would have been overcome if they had arrived on time. For the first hour everybody talked as hard and as fast as they could, that is, everybody but meek little Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Muller. Mrs. Muller, unfortunately, had taken her false teeth to the dentist that very morning to be fixed.

In one corner of the verandah Caroline Green was discussing politics and the new minister, with great animation. Mrs. Black, to the left of her, spent half an hour in telling about how well Johnny was getting along with his music.

"By the way, I heard you practising a new song yesterday, did I not, Caroline?" Mrs. Black's tone was rather condescending. "Do sing for us, Caroline," immediately came a chorus of voices. "Yes, do," echoed Mrs. Black.

When Caroline had convinced her audience that she really could not sing a note that no one knew how sore her throat had been last week and that she was dreadfully out of practice, she got up and went in to the piano. Opinions differed as to Caroline's voice but everyone agreed that she sang "Bubbles" beautifully, even deaf Mrs. White.

The luncheon, having been cleared away, and Mrs. Jones complimented on her lovely bread by half a dozen guests, Emily French and her mother, after much urging, finally consented to give a piano duet. They refused an encore, however, as Emily simply had to get the heel of a sock turned before leaving.

For some time longer the click of tongues kept pace with the click of needles. Then Mrs. Pink exclaimed in a horrified voice that it was after six o'clock. Immediately there was an added stir and an extra flutter of colours. The gay company, with many expressions of goodwill and thanks, bade their hostess goodbye and rushed home to tell their families about the faults and virtues of Maggie Jones' tea.

When Baby Comes

WHAT a joy to mother's heart when baby comes! What a relief after months of anxiety and nerve strain!

Mother is happy and expects soon to be strong and well again.

But frequently reaction sets in, and when the excitement is over she is left weak and limp and does not seem to build up the way she should.

Fortunate the mother who has at hand the kindly nurse or attentive friend to tell her how Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help her at this critical time.

Now more than ever the mother requires the assistance of a blood-forming, tissue-building, nerve-invigorating treatment, and these requirements are admirably met by Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Mrs. Wm. Woods, Coldwater, Ont., writes: "After the birth of my baby I was run down, nervous and could not eat or sleep, jumping at the least noise. Dr. Chase's Nerve Food built me up and made me strong and well again."

Mrs. David Logan, Thorburn, N.S., writes: "A friend of mine whom I went to see after baby was born told me she used Dr. Chase's Nerve Food all through the expectant period and attributed her good condition and splendid baby to its use."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box. All dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto. Look for portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D., the famous Receipt Book author, on the box you buy.

WALDEMAR

(Intended for last week.)

Have had a dandy spring for seeding. Most of the farmers are through.

Tom Keys, the Good Roads boss, is busy these days. Looks as if there is going to be a better road between this burg and the county town.

Spring is here to stay. Evidence of the fact is furnished by the way the dairymen have their cows on the road, even to the poundkeeper. Is Jack B., our young bachelor, to pasture them again this year. He says not.

When will Jim Talbot finish his new shed?

The constable has his fine residence nicely fixed now.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey McConachie are nicely settled in their new home.

Boost that Community Hall, boys.

The Dramatic Club will play at Tarbert on May 23rd, with Miss Margaret Byers and Elgin Finea taking the parts played by Miss Tena Gamble and Earl Gamble before leaving for the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Bushby and family are living in Mrs. Tate's house. Welcome to the burg.

Mr. Biney Rodgers is working for the Doless and Seymore Company these days.

Does Cyril still watch for the school to close?

Jack Berry is through seeding. We hope he finds time to get a housekeeper before harvest. We are at a loss to know where he visits as he is always around on Sunday.

The river is full of trout these evenings.

A number of our boys attended the recent dance in Erin.

Miss Sadie Price is the latest purchaser of a new tin Lizzie.

Wm. Byers and Sandy Warnock are erecting new houses this summer. Wait for the dances boys.

Bus Tolton is expecting a job with our dramatic club as well as the orchestra this summer.

Jim Butler is back to the garage once more after helping Bob Mann finish sawing at Jake Hoare's.

Mr. John Black lost a very valuable brood mare lately.

Walter McDowell is mixing mortar these days.

Wilfrid and Harvey like to stroll into Grand Valley after the stores close. Is it a clerk, boys?

Mr. Wm. Lovell is back in his old home and Dave Tate now resides in the Henry Patton house.

Jim Tate is working for George Gamble these days.

Wm. Lovell is getting on the good side of Mayor Boyle on Sundays.

On the brow of the hill at Salem, where the road from Elora divides, one half going down across the bridge at the Irvine and the other up over the hill, there now stands a tall cenotaph of grey marble, a lasting memorial to the boys from Nichol township, eleven in number, who fell in the Great War.

A Floor Varnish That Stands Rough and Scuff

Lowe's Durable is one of the few floor varnishes made especially for floors—one of the few that fully fulfills its purpose.

It is heavy in body, covers thoroughly and gives complete protection to the floor. Dries hard, but will not crack even though the wood is dented. And it is easy to apply—does not drag on the brush.

Durable Floor Varnish does not have that cheap "shiny" look, but gives a deep, rich gloss effect.

It is tough and elastic enough to stand wear and tear. It does not mar white.

Water—boiling hot or freezing cold—does not affect it. It is a varnish we recommend for your floors. It is made just for that purpose.

UNVEILING OF WAR MEMORIAL

Citizens of Mono Mills District Honour Their Soldier Dead.

Impressive Ceremony Witnessed by Large Concourse on Victoria Day.

Little did the early settlers in the townships of Caledon, Albion, Mono and Adjala dream, as they hewed their way through the thick woods, and travelled along the blazed trails, that one day their descendents would erect, on the point where the four townships meet, a monument to the men of the district who gave their lives in the greatest war, and for the greatest cause that the world has ever known.

On Tuesday afternoon, May 24th, five hundred people, some of them descendants of the early settlers some of them Canadians from other parts of the Dominion, some of them recent arrivals from the tight little island across the sea, met at the extreme northern point of Caledon, in the village of Mono Mills, to witness the ceremony of unveiling such a monument

Standing on the banks of a deep gorge, which slopes down to the Humber, has been erected a cenotaph of white granite, symbol of the enduring memory in which twelve Canadians are to be held by the district. Around are the dark pines, the sombre cedars, overhead the shadowing branches of the stately maple, the elm and the oak. Far below murmur the waters of the little stream, plaintively sounding the notes of a continuous requiem for the brave lads who sleep in Flanders' fields.

Early in the afternoon, the children of three school sections met at the Mono Mills School, and formed into procession, headed by Orangeville Citizens' Band. At the space surrounding the cenotaph they were met by the ministers and others who were to take part in the momentous ceremony. On their young minds was to be set an undying impression. Their serious young faces showed the realization that the moment was a most unusual one.

Before them was the monument, draped in the flag for love of which their friends had sacrificed their lives. Leading in the devotional exercises, Rev. Captain J. F. G. Morris, of Alton, gave hearty thanks for the heroism and valour of the dead soldiers, and prayed for submission in sorrow on the part of those who had been bereaved. Captain Morris pulled the cord suspending the Union Jack, and the face of the memorial with the names of the twelve men was bared to the elements for all time.

As the gaze of those present travelled over the letters cut deep into the granite, eyes moistened, and throats filled with the memory of the brave lads who had gone forth in youth and vigor, and whose days had been cut off so soon. The names of the gallant lads, whose memory and heroism were thus perpetuated, were:—

Joseph Halbert, killed at Cambrai, October 5, 1918

William Welwood, killed at Passchendale, October 30, 1917.

Samuel Jackson, killed at Vimy Ridge, April 10, 1916.

G. Chester Crozier, killed at Camp Borden, July 2, 1918.

Henry Hickey, killed at Ypres, August 29, 1915.

Reginald Maples, killed at Cambrai, September 30, 1918.

E. Scott Scarlet, killed at Arras, September 12, 1918.

Henry Burgess, killed at Arras, September 8, 1918.

Charles Lillie, killed on the Somme, June 16th, 1916.

I. Belwood Fish, killed September 14, 1915.

John James Proctor, died of wounds, November 19, 1918.

Charles Constan, date of death not known.

The reverse side of the monument bears the inscription: "For King and Country, 1914-1918. Erected to the memory of Our Honored Dead, and Those Who Carried on, by the village of Mono Mills." Memory travelled back with poignant force to the days marked by the news that these men had made the supreme sacrifice, and it was well that Captain Morris, who had seen the war at first hand, was able to point the eyes of faith to the Better Land, where these soldiers await the coming of their loved ones.

The same high strain of thought was heard in all the addresses of the afternoon, tributes to the bravery and sacrifices of the men, appeals to the faith of those who had given them. The other speakers were Rev. J. A. Matheson, who acted as chairman during the ceremony, Revs. G. D. Atkinson and Peter Tiller, of Mono Mills, A. C. McCollum, of Lloydtown, A. Laycock, of Caledon East, and C. W. Holdsworth, of Islington.

Dougal Macpherson, of Orangeville, who sent four sons to the war, and received only three home again, and Deputy-Reeve J. S. McDonald, and Councillor W. J. Trathen, of Caledon, also spoke during the afternoon. Colonel Carmichael was to have performed the ceremony of unveiling the monument, but telephoned from Collingwood that he had met with an accident to his car, and was unable to be present.

The ceremony of unveiling was marked by the sounding of the last post, the call being sounded by Sydney Hamilton, of Toronto, who enlisted with the 164th Battalion. The band played the solemn strains of the Dead March

The school children had their part to play on the occasion, a number of patriotic recitations being given, and patriotic songs sung

The gathering partook of a picnic luncheon, tea, coffee and ice cream being served at three booths on the grounds. Later in the afternoon, a football game between the Connor and the Mono Mills teams was played, the visitors being the winners.

The following committees were in charge of the arrangements:—

Program Committee—Rev. J. A. Matheson, Rev. Peter Tiller, Rev. H. A. Atkinson and Messrs. Geo. Lee and John A. Vance.

Sports Committee—Messrs. W. A. Donaldson, John E. Jackson, Edgar Patterson and Thos. McCandless.

McMillan, Miss Betty Crozier, Miss Edythe Duke, Miss Grace Mills, Miss Wanless, Miss Evelyn Gallaugher, Miss Mona Ward, Miss Elsie Cliff, Miss Lundy, Miss Lovena McCandless, Miss Edythe Arlow, Miss Sadie Rayburn, Miss Olive Holmes, Miss Baxendale, Miss Atkinson, Miss Rushbrook, Miss Laverda Patterson, Miss Clara Jones and Miss Mary McLeod.

WHEN BABY IS ILL

When the baby is ill; when he cries a great deal and no amount of attention or petting makes him happy, Baby's Own Tablets should be given him without delay. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus drive out constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers and make teething easy. Concerning them Mrs. Desire Theberge, Trois Pistols, Que., writes: "I am well satisfied with my use of Baby's Own Tablets. I have found them of great benefit to my baby when he was suffering from constipation and I can strongly recommend them to other mothers." The Tablets are sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

STORR–GROH

The marriage of a popular Hanover young lady took place at the Methodist parsonage, Guelph, at 11 o'clock a.m., on Tuesday, May 24th, Rev. E. A. Pearson officiating, when Miss Florence Carmeleta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Storr, of Hanover, became the bride of Mr. Clayton S. Groh, of Goldstone, Ont. The bride wore a travelling suit of navy tricotine with hat to match. The event was very quietly attended. Mr. and Mrs. Groh are on a honeymoon trip to Montreal, and on their return will reside at Goldstone. The bride has been chief operator at the Bell Telephone office here for the past year and a half, and is held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends who will join in extending best wishes to the young couple.—Hanover Post.

The local friends of the bride, who is a former Orangeville girl, extend their hearty congratulations and good wishes.

RANEY'S GARDEN PARTY

The Annual Garden Party of Raney's Methodist Church will be held on the grounds of Mr. Edward Baxter, lot 6, con. 4, Adjala, on Wednesday evening, June 8th. A varied program will be provided, including vocal selections by Mrs. Norman Barton, of Beeton, and the Downey Bros., of Castlederg; violin music by Mrs. Milton Leggett, Miss Eveline Young and Miss Lyness, accompanied by Mrs. Ray Leggett; elocution by Miss Viola Edwards, Tottenham, and Miss Gallaugher, Sheldon; a tableau by the children of S. S. No. 2, Adjala, and short speeches by Revs. Atkinson, Matheson and Dudgeon. The Committee is also hanging up a Prize of $10.00 for the Winners of a Football Match. Supper will be served by the ladies from 5 to 7 o'clock. Program at 8 o'clock. Admission, 35c. and 25c.

CALEDON

The Caledon Dramatic Club motored to Laurel on the eve of Victoria day and staged their popular play, "The Night Riders," to a crowded house. The Club was well pleased with the reception that was given them and also the appreciation of the drama. After the entertainment the ladies of the congregation provided an excellent tea which was heartily enjoyed by the visitors.

SMOOTH SCORING MACHINE

In its report of the Victoria Day lacrosse match in Fergus, the Fergus News-Record describes The Dufferins as "A smooth running, scoring machine." The report read in part as follows:—

"It was seven minutes before Golden scored the first goal for Orangeville but three minutes later Bert Brown added another and a couple of minutes more and Mitty Mitchell came all the way down the field, passing to Golden, who shoved it in the net again. The Orangeville team was working almost as smoothly as it ever did last year and they appeared to be able to score whenever they felt like it. The fourth goal went to Toronto but a minute later Clyde Gordon made it 4 to 1, which was still the score at the end of the period.

"The second period was a little slower, Orangeville scoring twice and their opponents not at all. In the last period Orangeville had two more in the first five minutes and then made it nine to one, before the Toronto goal keeper took the ball down the field himself with little opposition, resulting in Toronto's second goal. Two minutes before the end of the game Bert Brown scored for the last time. The final score was, Orangeville, 10, Toronto-St. Simons, 2.

"The game was never exciting, but as an example of how a smooth-running scoring machine can work, it would be hard to beat the exhibition put up by the two Browns, Golden and Clyde Gordon."

WHO OWNED THE STILL

The discovery of a small still of the regulation pattern used for the production of "moonshine" whiskey caused some excitement along the Hockley Road a short time ago. A farmer chanced on the outfit while taking a stroll in a piece of bush near the corner of the Hockley Road and the 5th line It had evidently been secreted in the bush by the owner. The man who made the find left the outfit where it was and a day or so later informed some of his neighbors, who visited the spot, only to find that the still had been removed in the meantime. There is naturally considerable speculation as to the ownership of the outfit, the object in secreting it temporarily in the bush and whether or not it is in operation in the neighborhood.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. W. A. Moffatt, Centre Road, Caledon, wishes to thank his neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy in his recent bereavement.

U. F. O. MEETING

Last week we inadvertently omitted to report the public meeting held in the Opera House on Thursday night, May 19th, and addressed by Hon. Manning Doherty, Minister of Agriculture for the Province of Ontario, and T. K. Slack, M. L. A. for Dufferin. It was the Minister's first appearance on an Orangeville platform and he must have been gratified at the size of the audience and the appreciative hearing he received. The Hall was crowded to the doors and the speakers were given a close and sympathetic hearing Hon. Mr. Doherty spoke specially to the farmers and told them what the Drury Government had done to further their interests since it took office. He spoke at some length of his recent visit to Great Britain and of his efforts to secure the removal of the cattle embargo, which he predicted would be lifted ere long.

Mr. J. M. McNaughton occupied the chair in his usual capable manner.

FRAGRANCE —The aroma of

"SALADA"

TEA

betokens the perfection of the leaf. Famous for 30 years, Salada never varies the excellence of its quality.

—Mr. James Dawson, whose name was announced last week in the list of Orangeville students who passed their final examinations at the College of Pharmacy, lost no time getting into business. Last week he bought out a long established drug business in Brampton and took charge the beginning of this week. "Jimmie" is renovating the store and putting in new counters and fittings. When the improvements are completed he will have a bright, nifty stand and if he makes friends as fast in Brampton as he has in and around Orangeville he will soon build up a fine business. Mr. Dawson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Dawson and a returned soldier. His Orangeville friends wish him all kinds of success in his venture.

—The eleventh annual convention of the Dufferin County Women's Institute will be held in Shelburne on Wednesday, June 8th. The programme appears in this week's issue.

—St. Cornellius' R. C. Church, Caledon, will hold their annual Garden Party on the grounds of Mr. P. Garrity, Centre Road, Caledon, on Wednesday evening, June 22nd. Further particulars later.

—Dorenwend's superb display of Hair Goods at the Grand Central Hotel on Tuesday, June 7th, will include a showing of their newest and finest styles for both ladies and gentlemen. Advice on anything pertaining to the hair is offered to those attending this display.

The Grey Dort Club House for Its Employees.

Gray-Dort Motors have always been foremost in consideration of the welfare of their employees—not only in factory life—but by means of bonuses, life insurance, the formation of a work's council and other features. Now, however, they are taking a more vital interest in the lives of their employees apart from factory life, and in order to accomplish this, a magnificent building has been outfitted and is maintained by the Company for the use of their employees, their families and their friends.

The Gray-Dort Club, as it is called, is a large brick building fronted by great white pillars. The wide French windows open into a spacious lobby luxuriously furnished as a lounge room with comfortable Chesterfields and deep upholstered chairs drawn up before an open fire-place, while a great grandfather clock records the pleasant hours spent here. Adjoining this is a special room for ladies, daintily furnished with wicker chairs and settees, tables and writing desks. A large dancing and banquet hall capable of seating three hundred, and a modern kitchen, as completely equipped as the most scientific housekeeper could desire, comprise the other rooms down-stairs, while the upper floor of the building is given over to several recreation rooms. An electric player-piano has been placed in the Club House so that the members may have music to enliven any of their entertainments.

The Company has appointed a Club Manager, who allots the evenings and assists the various committees in planning their evenings' entertainments. Any department of the factory or office staff may reserve an evening for its exclusive use, or several departments may combine for an evening.

The Club has already been the scene of considerable social activity. Banquets, luncheons, dances, musical evenings, stunt nights, card parties, smokers and lectures have been given and each entertainment has been heartily enjoyed.

Gray-Dort Managers are to be congratulated on the exceedingly generous way in which they have met the need for such a means of entertainment among their employees. Mr. Robert Gray, President of the Company, has devoted many weeks to drawing up the plans for the Club—for he firmly believes that the welfare of all Gray-Dort employees is of no little importance to the managers of the Company. Noting the enthusiasm with which the Club is being visited and enjoyed, one readily understands how it is Gray-Dort Motors has never had a strike, for happier and more contented employees are nowhere to be found, and the already notable esprit de corps is being strengthened by this latest manifestation of the Company's concern for those who labor for them.

THOUGHT WITHOUT ACTION IS DANGEROUS

The battle is not always to the best intentioned. Good intentions have produced more pavements than results. The world wants results, not intentions. The value of an idea consists in its actual fulfilment and not in the enthusiasm which engineered it.

You can sit in a chair but not in the idea of one

By all means first plan your work, but don't stop there. Get busy and work your plan.

Good intentions and constructive thought are a recognized necessity to business progress, but it takes action to get results. Like the front wheels of an automobile, good intentions are a fine thing to keep the craft steered in the right direction, but it's the rear wheel power that makes her cover the ground

You can't get anywhere with your rear wheels jacked up!

Consider Rodin's statute—"The Thinker." It should have had a sequel—"The Doer"—thousands will accept it as a Golden Rule, become an immobile piece of marble, and ponderously sit thinking.

Why not check up once in a while. Divide the results achieved by the number of ideas conceived and startle yourself by the low percentage. Open your mind to new ideas but don't let it be a parade ground for a steady procession.

Think what you will do, but don't just think it—go ahead and do it.

Let that be your motto.

Zam-Buk invaluable for eczema, both in the case of my baby and myself," says Mrs. L. Bonin of West Arichat, N.S. She adds: "Baby's skin was badly broken out, but repeated applications of Zam-Buk entirely cured it.

"In my own case, I had eczema on my hands, which made it very inconvenient for me to do my housework. Particularly was this so, as it aggravated the trouble so to put my hands in water. By using Zam-Buk, however, I soon got relief, and it was not very long before every trace of the trouble had disappeared. I really think no home should be without Zam-Buk."

Zam-Buk is equally good for all skin injuries. All dealers 50c. box.

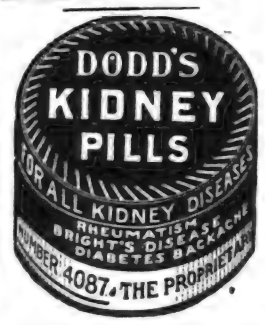
JOHN REBURN

On Tuesday evening, May 16th, the death occurred at his home, lot 8, con 2, O.S. Melancthon, of John Reburn, another of the older settlers of the township at the age of 77 years. Mr. Reburn was born in the township of Caledon, was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Reburn, who in later years became residents of Mulmur township At the age of 28 years he married Margaret Loney, who alone survives, and they settled on lot 8, 1st line, W. H. S., Mulmur, where they continued to reside until they retired and moved to Shelburne about ten years ago. He had been residing on the farm where he died, for the past two years. For a few years prior to coming to Shelburne and up to the time of his death, he was Bailiff of the Shelburne Division Court. For 55 years he was a member of Whitfield L. O. L. No. 366 and the funeral on Thursday last to Whitfield Anglican cemetery, was held under Orange auspices Rev. H. Naylor conducted the services at the house and grave. Deceased is survived by his widow but no family. Three brothers, Messrs. R. J., Charles and Wm. Reburn, of Shelburne, survive.—Free Press



"Mother," said the little boy after coming in from a walk, "I've seen a man who makes horses." "Are you sure?" asked his mother. "Yes," he replied; "he had a horse nearly finished when I saw him, he was just nailing on his back feet.

HILLS WERE ONCE VOLCANOES

Thousands of Years Ago, What Are Now Pleasure Resorts, Near Montreal, Were to Be Dreaded.

Near Montreal are eight great hills, each bearing two names, and known collectively as the "Monergian Hills," which now are believed to be nothing more than the roots of former volcanoes that reared themselves thousands of feet into the air, and belched lava and steaming ash on the surrounding district. Some authorities agree that the hills, which now are pleasure resorts, in former ages were 2,000 feet high, but have been cut off.

On many of the mountain tops are hidden lakes, believed to have at one time been craters. For a long period the peaks are believed to have been worn by water and weather, and the passing ages found them greatly decreased in size. Then came the glacial period, and the movement of the stupendous sheets of ice from the northeast tore the mountains from their base, scraped many hundred of feet of earth from the rocks surrounding them, and transferred it further south. The baked limestone alone withstood the onslaught, and although the softer rock was carried away, the lava beds remained and formed the present-day hills.

Japanese Lucky Numbers.

In Japan the telephone number eight commands a higher price from subscribers than any other. This number, written in Japanese character, means success and prosperity, and costs the subscriber who holds it nearly £100 a year. Another lucky number is 357, for the reason that it is the custom to present children to the deity on their third, fifth and seventh birthdays. As a general rule odd numbers are considered luckier than even numbers. Numbers forty-two and forty-nine are particularly unlucky in the eyes of the Japanese. The former is pronounced "shini," which means death; the latter "shiku," meaning distress and suffering. These numbers are carefully avoided by subscribers, and are usually allotted to police stations, asylums and similar institutions. —London Tit-Bits.

THE SAFE USE OF ELECTRICITY

By J. E. Middleton.

A useful article of warning appears in The Bulletin, a magazine issued monthly by the staff of The Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario. Now that electric energy has become a useful domestic aid in thousands of homes, it is well to know the circumstances under which the current may become dangerous.

During 1920 in the city of Toronto there were three cases of death from electricity, as compared with 23 from burns, 23 from asphyxiation, and 4 from the explosion of gasoline tanks. That shows the comparative safety of electricity, especially since all electrical devices now offered for sale in Ontario must be approved by the Commission's Department of Inspection.

It seems that the danger of fatal shock is greatest in the bathroom. A good rule is never to touch any electrical fixture with wet hands, or while standing in the tub. Another good rule is never to turn simultaneously a water-tap with one hand and an electrical switch with the other. The bathroom is always directly connected with the ground by means of the water-pipes. If, through some slight defect in the wiring, or by reason of deteriorated insulation, the fixture, whether for heating or lighting, should become "live," there might be no perceptible shock under ordinary circumstances. But wet hands, or the formation of a perfect connection to the ground through the body might bring instant death.

About three years ago, a woman, while in the bath-tub reached out to move an electric heater. The metal nine-plate on the heater, owing to the gradual loosening of a screw had dropped down until one end of it was touching one of the electrical terminals, thus the iron frame of the heater had become "live." The moment the wet hand touched the frame, the woman was killed.

In a bathroom, because of the dampness of the atmosphere and the variations of temperature, insulating material has a shorter life than in other apartments of the average house. For that reason the inspectors nowadays require for bathroom use porcelain sockets and receptacles which cannot become "live." The ideal arrangement is to have the lighting fixture on the ceiling, controlled by a wall-switch which will be some distance away from any water-pipe and which cannot be reached from the tub.

The article continues: "When the house-wiring has been inspected and approved, and when only approved electrical devices are bought for household use, as is now required by law in Ontario, the degree of protection is materially increased. It is, however, still possible to find houses wired with exposed cut-outs and knife switches at the service, and with metal shell-sockets in hazardous locations. There is also little doubt but that many electrical devices of inferior workmanship are still in use in homes. It would be a boon to each householder if he would recognize that by co-operating with the Inspecting Department of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, he is increasing to a great extent the degree of safety in his home."

Flesherton is to have a new industry, if things go satisfactorily. Messrs. T. A. Blakely and W. Henry have joined forces in the manufacture of auto truck bodies and have already completed a sample. A truck firm in Toronto has agreed to take quite an extensive output of these bodies if the sample is satisfactory.

FROM REMOTEST PARTS OF GLOBE

Tanlac Elements Come From Many Lands Far Away From Here.

The ingredients from which the celebrated medicine Tanlac is made, come from remote sections of the earth, and are transported thousands of miles over land and sea to the great Tanlac Laboratories at Dayton, Ohio, and Walkerville, Canada.

The Alps, Appennines, Pyrenees, Russian-Asia, Brazil, West Indies, Rocky Mountains, Asia Minor, Persia, India, Mexico, Columbia and Peru are among the far away points from which the principal properties of this remarkable preparation are obtained.

What is said to be the largest pharmaceutical laboratory in the United States has been completed at Dayton, Ohio, for the manufacture of Tanlac, which, according to recent reports, is now having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world; over 20,000,000 bottles having been sold in six years.

The new plant occupies 60,000 square feet of floor space and has a daily capacity of 50,000 bottles. Uniform quality is guaranteed by a series of careful inspections by expert chemists from the time the roots, herbs, bark and flowers are received in their rough state from all parts of the globe until their medicinal properties have been extracted by the most approved processes. The finished medicine is then bottled, labled and shipped out to tens of thousands of druggists throughout the United States and Canada to supply a demand never before equalled by this, or any other medicine.

A CAPACITY HOUSE

A capacity audience heard St. Andrew's Church children's choir give their Cantata, "A Dream of Fairyland,' by Gabriel, in the Opera House on Friday night. The singing of the choir of fifty voices was a pleasant revelation to the audience, many of whom had not looked for such an ambitious and finished performance from juvenile singers. Briefly, the Cantata depicts in song and action the trip of two little girls from the city to Fairyland, these parts being admirably taken by Misses Muriel Ellis and Myrta Bruce. The Cantata was featured by solos, duets, choruses, dances and recitations by the fairies, sprites and wicked spirits, who formed the cast, the latter parts being taken by the boys appropriately costumed for their role. The solo parts were taken by Mises Ellis, Bruce, Lucille Montgomery and Masters Isaac Snell and Georgie Pownall. The sweet and finished singing of the children and the admirable manner in which they interpreted the conceptions of the composer reflected great credit on the youthful performers and also on their instructor and conductor, Mr. A. C. Hannahson, organist and choir master of St. Andrew's. The Cantata was staged under the direction of Mrs. R. A. Irwin, who rendered valuable assistance in the training of the children. The Cantata was followed by a musical comedy entitled, "The Pioneer Pedagogue," in which the parts were acceptably taken by Misses Audrey McLean and Mary Hanley and Messrs .Hannahson and Carl Hanley. The performance was given under the auspices of St. Andrew's Sunday School, the necessary business arrangements receiving the supervision of the Superintendent, Mr. J. B. Adamson.

MAITLANDS COMING

So far as Orangeville is concerned the senior lacrosse season will open on Saturday, June 11th, when the Maitlands, of Toronto, will try conclusions with the champion Dufferins on Idylwyld Park. The Dufferins will line up the same or virtually the same team as brought the championship home last season. The Maitlands are said to have a strong team and are coming up with the determination to take a fall out of last season's champs if they possibly can. It will be a game worth going to see. Ball faced at 3 o'clock. Admission, 50c. and 25c.

MRS. J. S. GORDON

Oldtime Orangeville friends learned with sorrow of the death in Hamilton on Saturday, May 28th, of Matilda Kirkland Grant, beloved wife of Mr. J. S. Gordon, Assistant General Manager of the Bank of Hamilton and formerly Manager of the local branch of the Bank in Orangeville. During her residence here Mrs. Gordon made many warm friends and won the regard and esteem of the community. The remains were taken to Owen Sound for burial, interment taking place in Greenwood Cemetery in that city. Rev. Dr. Thurlow Fraser conducted the service at the grave.

MISS HANNAH GORDON

Miss Hannah Maria Gordon, an esteemed resident of Orangeville, passed away at her home on Margaret St., on Thursday, June 2nd, after an illness of about eighteen months duration. Deceased was 68 years of age and is survived by two brothers, Mr. Jos. Gordon, with whom she lived, and Mr. W. J. Gordon, of Hamilton, and one sister, Mrs. M. Varcoe, West Broadway. She was a faithful and consistent member of the Methodist Church and was held in affectionate esteem by a wide circle of neighbors and friends. The funeral was held from her brother's residence on Margaret St. to Greenwood cemetery on Saturday afternoon, Rev. H. L. Partridge, the family pastor, officiating at the house and grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Oliver Cooney and H. Christian, Orangeville, Geo. Gordon, Chas. Gray and W. R. Grosskurth, Laurel, and Robt. Tribble, Waldemar.

DAVIS–GODDARD

A pretty June wedding was celebrated Wednesday afternoon, June 1st, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Goddard, Isabella St., Brampton, when their daughter, Marjorie Loraine, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to James William Davis, of Chinguacousy. The ceremony was performed on the pretty lawn by the Rev. Dr. Sparling. The bride was becomingly attired in white crepe de chene with veil caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. A cousin, Miss May Johnston, of Orangeville, was bridesmaid, wearing orchid satin and carrying mauve sweet peas. Mr. Henry Garrett, of Elgin, Ill., was best man. Miss Allie Johnston, Orangeville, another cousin, played the wedding march. The happy couple left on their wedding trip by motor, the bride wearing a suit of navy blue with blouse and hat to match. On their return they will reside in Brampton.

TIGHE–M'CORMICK

St. Cornelius' R. C. Church, Caledon, at 9 a.m. Wednesday, June 1st, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Hazel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCormick, of Caledon, was married to Mr. Edward Tighe. The Rev. Father Bagnasco, of Orangeville, performed the ceremony. The bride was charmingly attired in a gown of navy blue Canton crepe with hat to match. Miss Anna Harris, of Weston, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Joseph Tighe assisted the groom. After the ceremony the bride and groom left for Detroit where they will make their home.

DERRY–STATIA

A quiet wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vance A. Statia, Murphy St., at 2.30 on Wednesday afternoon, when their eldest daughter, Bessie Blanche, was united in marriage to Mr. Hedley Derry. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Major Frost, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony a wedding repast was served and congratulations extended. The young couple left the same evening for Toronto and Streetsville on a short wedding trip. The bride received numerous wedding gifts. They will take up their residence in Trenton on their return.—Trenton Advocate.

LACROSSE NOTES

Shelburne juveniles showed their class last Friday by defeating the Fergus juveniles in an O. A. L. A. fixture by the one-sided score of 18 to 4. The winners played gilt-edged lacrosse all the way and look pretty near good enough to repeat last year's championship record. Bert Booth refereed the game.

Hespeler Juniors proved too good for the Junior Dufferins in the championship game on Idylwyld Park last Friday afternoon. The visitors played nifty lacrosse and won out by 7 to 3. The locals had their share of the ball, but the home players were off in their shooting and missed a number of promising chances to convert attacks into goals. The team could also improve in passing, some of the players being decidedly inaccurate in this respect. The locals have a fast stepping, plucky outfit and should improve rapidly with practice and experience. Henry, Hughes and McKim were probably the pick of the bunch. Players and positions were: goal, Rhomet; point, Henry; cover-point, Hughes; defence, Flint and Connell; centre, Rowan; home, Crowe and Smith; outside home, Flint; inside home, McKim. We wish the boys better luck next time.

—Collingwood Kilties' Band and Orangeville Citizens' Band will provide the music for Orangeville's Dominion Day Celebration.

A DESIRE TO EAT WHAT YOU WANT

Stomachs Can Be Restored to a Healthy Condition.

Not to be limited in diet, but to eat whatever he pleases is the dream of every dyspeptic. No one can honestly promise to restore any stomach to this happy condition, because all people cannot eat the same things with equally satisfactory results. But it is possible to so tone up the digestive organs that a pleasing diet may be selected from articles of food that cause no discomfort.

When the stomach lacks tone there is no quicker way to restore it than to build up the blood. Good digestion without rich, red blood is impossible, and Dr. Williams Pink Pills offer the best way to enrich the blood. For this reason these pills are especially good in stomach trouble attended by thin blood, and in attacks of nervous dyspepsia. Proof of the value of Dr. Williams Pink Pills in cases of indigestion is given by Mr. John A. McDonald, Tarbot, N.S., who says: "Every sufferer from indigestion has my heartfelt sympathy, as I was once myself a bond slave to it. Eating at all became a trial, and as time went on I became a mere skeleton of my former self. I took all sorts of recommended medicines, doctors' and advertised, but to no avail. Then a friend said to try Dr. Williams Pink Pills. I got a box and I thought before they were done I could feel a change. Then I got six boxes more, and by the time they were used I was eating my meals with regularity and enjoyment. My general health is now good, and it is no wonder that I am an enthusiastic advocate of Dr. Williams Pink Pills."

You can procure Dr. Williams Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or they will be sent you by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing direct to The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MARK VETERAN'S GRAVE

On the application of Sheriff Endacott the War Department at Washington has agreed to provide a head stone of American white marble to mark the grave of the late J. H. Lewis, a veteran of the Civil War. Lewis, as many of our readers will remember, died in Orangeville a couple of months ago and was buried in the Forest Lawn Cemetery. He fought for the Union forces in the Civil War and was severely wounded in the head in battle. Sheriff Endacott is to be commended for his praiseworthy interest and it is greatly to the credit of the United States War Department that it agreed so readily to do what was necessary to mark the last resting place of the aged veteran.

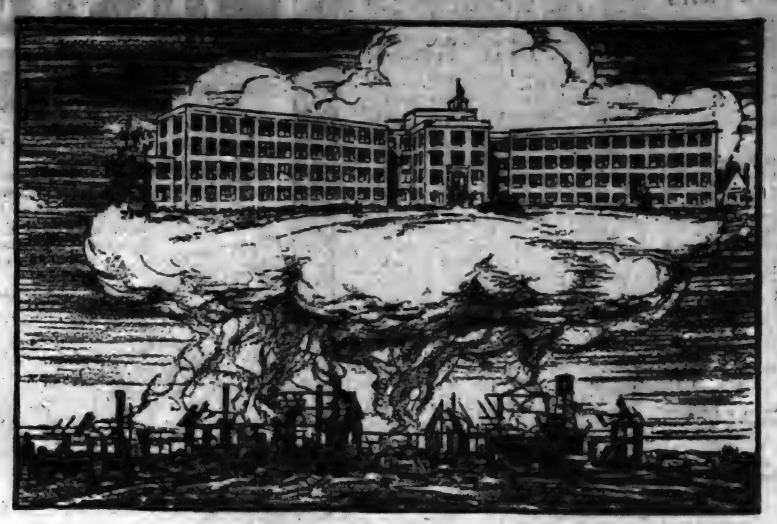
Up from the ashes!



Rebuilding a building to rebuild lives!

ON November 30th last, the Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives was destroyed by fire.

On January 14, this year, Sir William Gage, founder of the institution—the one man who had contributed most largely to its support, and for twenty-five years the outstanding friend of needy consumptives—died.

To-day, more than ever before, poor, suffering consumptives need your assistance.

Give—give all you can—to the National Sanitarium Association's

Consumptives' Emergency Million Dollar Fund

The Muskoka Free Hospital for Consumptives, destroyed by fire on November 30th last, must be replaced by buildings, larger and fireproof.

Accommodation is needed at the Muskoka Free Hospital for 400 adults in early stages of the disease. This will restore 250 of them to their homes and loved ones—cured. The remainder will be greatly benefited.

A few months for each patient soon means thousands cared for.

Funds are urgently needed for this work.

Again—adults in advanced stages must be treated at the King Edward Sanatorium, on the banks of the Humber, near Weston. Extensions are necessary. Many of these patients can be saved.

And again—little children—stricken with the dread disease—must be cared for at the Queen Mary Hospital for Consumptive Children, near Weston. Ninety per cent. of these are saved to become healthy men and women.

Funds are urgently needed to cover the cost of extensions.

Further, funds are urgently needed to carry on the work of The Gage Institute in the City of Toronto, where the needy poor come for free examinations, including X-ray, and for medical and nursing assistance.

Fifteen thousand needy consumptives have been cared for to date at the hospitals conducted by the Association.

A SMILE IN EVERY DOSE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Baby's Own Tablets are a regular joy giver to the little ones—they never fail to make the cross baby happy. When baby is cross and fretful the mother may be sure something is the matter for it is not baby's nature to bbe cross unless be is ailing. Mothers, if your baby is cross; if he cries a great dial and needs your constant attention day and night, give him a dose of Baby's Own Tablets. They are a mild but thorough laxative which will quickly regulate the bowels and stomach and thus relieve constipation and indigestion, colds and simple fevers and and make baby happy—there surely is a smile in every dose of the Tablets. Baby's Own Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BLOUNT.

Mrs. W. J. Dodds entertained the Blount Women's Institute at the June meeting. Meeting opened with Opening Ode. There were 13 members and 13 visitors present. Mrs. Geo. Woods and Miss Williams were chosen delegates to attend the Dufferin Institute Convention at Shelburne, June 8th. The following program was rendered: Paper on "Some Things that Make Life Worth While," by Mrs. Alex. Still; a Reading by Miss Pierson; a recitation by Miss Perry Crozier and a song by the girls, "Let the Rest of the World Go By." The hostess then served an excellent lunch, which was heartily enjoyed by all and the meeting closed with Auld Lang Syne.

—Releasey S. S. held a successful picnic on Friday afternoon, the proceeds exceeding $175. Violet Hill and Releasey young ladies competed at baseball for a $10 prize. The Releasey girls won by a score of 30 to 24.

FINE RACING

Orangeville Turf Club's Meet Furnishes Two Days' Excellent Sport.

Keen, closely contested racing was quite the order at the two day meet of the Orangeville Turf Club on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. Especially was this the case on Thursday afternoon when every event on the card was fought to a finish and the issue in doubt until the end of the final heat. The Baronet won the first two heats of the 2.18 trot in impressive fashion, but did not perform so well in the third heat which went to Gossett Bird. The Robinson entry made a determined bid for the fourth, but could only finish second, The Baronet holding the first position throughout the second half of the heat. The 2.30 pace furnished the spectators with a spectacular race and an exciting contest for first honors between Jim B. and Stella Mac. The mare took the first heat, but fell back to fifth place in the second and third, finished second in the fourth and was first under the wire in the fifth. Jim B. was second in the opening heat, won the second and third, dropped to fifth in the fourth and came back with a third in the fifth. This left the pair tied for first money and they were ordered to trot another heat. The mare proved a little too strong for her opponent and won in a close finish with both drivers urging hard on the home stretch. Elm Tree captured third money despite a poor showing in the opening heat of the race. It took five well contested heats to settle the 2.14 pace which was won by Esson's Billy Sunday. The feature of the race was Mansfield's lightning rush from behind at the finish of the third heat. The Overland entry came very fast at the finish of the remaining heats and in both heats, came very nearly repeating the win of the third. They were sensational finishes and had the crowd on tiptoe with excitement. The summary follows:—

Some thirty horses were here for the races and the officers of the Turf Club were more than pleased with the large entry and splendid racing, particularly in view of the fact that the Galt Turf Club persisted in going ahead with a meet on the same dates despite the fact that Orangeville had claimed its dates months ago. However, the Galt sports got properly repaid for their unsportsmanlike conduct for they were compelled at the last moment to postpone their meet owing to lack of horses The track was in excellent condition, the weather ideal for racing and horsemen, officials and spectators were alike delighted with the racing. The Club will hold a econd meet early in August.

THE MAPLES

The regular meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at The Maples Community Hall on Tuesday, June 14th, at 2.30 p.m. Mrs. Laura Rose Stephen, of Huntingdon, Que., will give an address on "The Boy and Girl Problem."

The Maples Garden Party will be held on July 8th. Keep this date in mind. Particulars later.

ALTON

Rev. W. M. Morris, of Orangeville, will take the service in the Methodist Church here next Sunday evening. Owing to the absence of the pastor, who is away attending Conference, the service in Caledon Methodist Church will be withdrawn for the day.

A memorial service will be held in the Methodist Church early in July in honor of the soldier members of the congregation who gave up their lives in the Great War.

Wants to Call a Truce Between Capital Forces And the Leaders of Labor

SIR CHARLES WAKEFIELD, a former Lord Mayor of London, proposes a "five years' truce" in the industrial warfare of Great Britain.

He calls for "a great representative conference of employers and employed, an economic and industrial Parliament, which, given goodwill and with the whole facts of the national and international situation before them, would settle down to discuss a definite truce for a definite period."

The proposal, welcomed by some papers, is criticized by others as being impracticable.

"To us," says the London Observer, (Unionist), "the movement must be a cause of half-amused and half-melancholy reflection. Again and again, before the armistice and after, we urged the supreme necessity of an industrial concordat between capital and labor for the period of transition after the war. In specific terms we urged this very idea of a five years' truce. But we pleaded alone and wrought in vain. Why? Because capital and labor after the armistice were equally short-sighted and equally to blame. We warned capital that it would have to pay a very high price for industrial peace, though the gain would be worth it by comparison with the alternative of endless unsettlement. But the price of bringing labor into more fully effective partnership as regards counsel and profits alike was thought to be too high, and we all have to pay for the consequences, and shall have to go on paying, unless some new and great departure is attempted."

To call for a five years' truce, believes the Observer, would now be too ambitious, but even a twelve months' truce, renewable for an equal term by the parties to it, would be a priceless gain. Delegates of capital and labor would have to school themselves equally to listen with patience to the views they most disliked. Labor would require two things above all: participation in profits above a fixed return of capital after full remuneration of directing ability; and an absolute guarantee against increased unemployment as a result of increased production.

Those who are doubtful of all truce proposals feel that any arrangement would be difficult to guarantee. It would not be possible to bind all employers on the one hand, and, on the part of labor, more and more there is a tendency among the rank and file to demand power of decision, irrespective of their leaders' opinions. This movement is deplored by some authorities as leading to instability, and praised by others as being actually and effectively democratic.

Finger-prints For All.

The fact that nature supplies every babe at birth with its own identity disc, which cannot be lost — save by mutilation — and never wears out, has prompted the suggestion of the New York Police Department that the finger-prints should be filed with the birth certificate of every child. An English authority on the subject states that finger-prints are the most certain means of identification we have. They are, he says, unchangeable throughout life. Sir William Herschel, one of the earliest students of finger-prints, took the impressions of all his fingers in 1859. He took them again fifty years later, and there was no alteration in the slightest detail. No two persons, it is said, have the same finger-prints. Thus if the finger-prints of a person are sent to New Scotland Yard, and duplicates of those prints are found to be filed, both sets are of the same person, no matter how many years earlier the first set was taken. There are about 340,000 different sets of finger-prints at Scotland Yard.

The Origin of Cricket.

Cricket can be traced back under its present name to the seventeenth century, though our premier summer game as we know it was not played until the eighteenth century. In a rudimentary form, something like the game existed in the fourteenth century. There is a reference to cricket in a remarkable book written by a monk of John Milton in 1646. The title of the book is remarkable, at least: "Mysteries of Love and Eloquence, or the Art of Wooing and Complimenting, the Treatments of Ladies at Balls, Sports, Drolls, the Watchwords of their Persuasive Language, etc." But cricket is only mentioned in a casual way in the sentence, "Would my eyes had been beaten out of my head with a cricket-ball the day before I saw thee."

Natural Inquisitiveness.

Mr. Willerby was particularly tired one evening, so he was not as patient as useful with the questioning of his eight-year-old son. After he had answered a number of questions as well as he could, the boy asked, "Daddy, what do you do at the office all day long?"

It was at this point that daddy's patience became exhausted. "Oh, nothing much," said he, with a sigh.

A few moment were spent by the son in pondering upon this answer. Then he cheerfully asked, "But how do you know when you have finished?"

Sheep In Highland Deer Forests.

Several Highland proprietors, notably one great landlord of the west of Scotland, awake to the necessities of these hard times, have re-introduced the sheep to their deer forests—to the great increase of the stock of mutton and wool, and without, as far as can be ascertained, any detriment to sport.

THIS WOMAN'S RECOVERY

Shows Remarkable Restorative Power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chesley, Ont.—"Before using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I was a total wreck. I had terrible pains in my sides and was not regular. Finally I got so weak I could not go up stairs without stopping to rest half way up the steps. I tried two doctors but they did me no good. I saw your medicine advertised in the newspapers and thought I would give it a trial. I took four bottles of the Vegetable Compound and was restored to health. I am married, am the mother of two children, and do all my housework, milk eight cows, and do a hired man's work and enjoy the best of health. I also found Vegetable Compound a great help for my weak back before my babies were born. I recommend it to all my friends who are in need of medicine, and you may print this letter if you wish."—Mrs. HENRY JANKE, R. R. No. 4, Chesley, Ontario.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

DID OLD HUNTER NUNN HIT CALEDON WAPITI?

He Went After "Big Deer" With His Flintlock Very Many Years Ago.

Bone-Sleuths From University of Toronto to Delve Into Marl of Green Lake.

What may come out of the marl of Green Lake on Norman McLachlan's farm, three-quarters of a mile from Caledon village, is making veteran bone-sleuths like Dr. W. A. Parks and Dr. B. A. Bensley, of the University, as restless and expectant as diamond miners these days. A month ago it was one of the finest specimens of an ancient wapiti—that is, so far known—and to-morrow it may be anything from a mastodon to a common domestic cow; for Mr. MacLachlan has intimated that he has located more bones peeping through the mud.

Accompanied by Dr. Bensley, of the biological department of the university, a specialist in modern animals, by a representative of The Star, and by a jar of shellac, some digging tools and rubber boots, Dr. Parks must have thought of his dinosaur hunts in the Red River Valley of Alberta, as he drove his Ford for the second time up Caledon Mountain yesterday morning in the mist. No bones are ever reported that Dr. Parks does not itch to see. On Tuesday he had seen the fine antlers and the skeleton and had made a liberal offer to Mr. MacLachlan on behalf of the fascinating Paleontology section of the Royal Ontario Museum. This neither Dr. Parks nor Dr. Bensley thought should be raised. The bones once more are packed away in their boxes in Mr. McLachlan's cupboards—but have this difference, that they now have a preservative treatment of shellac. On Mr. McLachlan's request no digging was done. Although upon his return from the lake, just as the Toronto party arrived, he said that he thought he had found more skeletons of whose identity he is not just certain yet.

All Bones Sacred.

All bones are sacred to a man like Dr. Parks, engrossed, as he is, in the prehistoric animal life of the continent. So "in the interests of science," each separate piece of the wapiti's earthly frame was tenderly cleaned, dusted and painted copiously with the preserving fluid of five parts good proof spirits to one of shellac from the suspicious brown jug. Bones become immortal when soaked in this. "It would be a shame to see these bones disintegrate," declared Dr. Parks. "And already they have begun."

No doubt now exists in the minds of Dr. Parks and Dr. Bensley that Mr. McLaughlin's fine specimen is that of a wapiti, probably from 200 to 1,000 years old. "Only in the stories of the Indians of the early settled days were they mentioned as having inhabited the Ottawa Valley a long time before," said Dr. Parks.

Not nearly so important or so old as the extinct mastodon, however, are the wapiti, which still exist in the nothwest. Antlers of the present day specimens, however, seen by both scientists, are only about half the size of the huge ones dug up on Mr. McLaughlin's farm. As they are mounted now on the wall of his kitchen they are almost 9 feet in the span from tip to tip. And, except for a few toes joints, the skeleton is practically complete.

Once a Natural Trap.

It is a possibility that the marl beds of this enclosed little lake, about 15 acres in extent, scooped out by the geological movements of prehistoric times and forgotten among the numerous basins of the ridge, may have been a natural trap. In this stagnant bog may be the skeleton remains of many of the prehistoric animals that were mired here when they came to drink. One of the components of cement, of a white shade, marl, like the peat bogs of Ireland, has preservative qualities to an extreme degree. "On account of the lowness of the water this year," said Mr. McLaughlin, parts of it are exposed that have not been so for many years.

From the standpoint of scientific interest, it is a pity, in Dr. Bensley's opinion, that tons of this marl cannot be sifted in the most thorough way.

It was while strolling along the bank on April 18th, looking for ducks, that Edward Johnston, a friend of Mr. McLaughlin, saw one of the long tines of an antler of the wapiti exposed above the marl. With the help of a neighbor he extracted both sides.

Since Mr. McLaughlin's discovery has become the talk of the neighborhood, old stories of a "huge moose" have been revived, Johnnie Gibson, a farmer near here, told me," said Mr. McLaughlin, "That his father, old James Henry Gibson, now dead for several years, fished some large deer horns out, of the lake many years ago, and the old man used to tell of another old hunter named Nunn when he was a boy, who said he had shot a great moose in these parts. That would be well over a hundred years ago."

Mr. Gibson told The Star that he remembered quite vividly the story his father used to tell of the great moose that Nunn once shot. "I am a man 'of 60 myself," he said, "and I can just remember faintly of having seen Nunn, an old man then, when I was a boy. Nunn said he had shot the huge animal away down by Ingersoll. He had traced it by its blood to the vicinity of the lake, where he had lost all further trace. The horns my father got out of Green Lake about 80 years ago weren't half the size of those that Mr. McLaughlin has.

Whether the skeleton of the wapiti was once the legendary moose that the old hunter, Nunn, fatally wounded with his ancient flintlock gun, can never be more than a matter of idle speculation now. What Dostors Parks and Bensley are speculating about is whether the wapiti skeleton will ever find a permanent place in a case in the Royal Ontario Museum. What Mr. McLaughlin is thinking about at nights is what else may lie buried in the marl of Green Lake.

What Thompson Seton Says.

The following is a quotation from Ernest Thompson Seton's Life History of North American Animals: "The largest Rocky Mountain head is known as the 21-point head. The beams are said to be 66½ and 64½ inches long respectively, and the spread 52 inches, but most judges give the palm for beauty to the superb 20-point head shown by A. L. Tulloch at the American Trophy Exhibition and London, 1898. Its size and points have been exceeded, but its massive beams perfect, symmetrical, and the wonderful pearlind are so far unrivalled. The animal was killed in Montana in 1883, the record head points is 28 inches.

THE TORTURES OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 OTTAWA ST., HULL, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again.

One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives" the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

COULDN'T REACH

Report has it that on a recent Saturday evening in one of the local general stores mother had taken little Johnny with her to do her evening shopping. There was some crowd and in the interest in some of the bargains mamma lost sight of Johnny. He was finally located in another department of the store.

Of course mamma scolded some and said, "Johnnie, you must not get lost again, just hold tight to mother's skirt and you will be all right." Johnnie started to cry and mamma asked what was wrong now, and he said, "Well, mamma, I can't do that, for I can't reach it."

"At Forty-Five"

"YES, at my age I suppose I should expect a change in my condition. But I am so nervous and irritable, so easily excited and worried, that I cannot understand what is wrong."

"I know just how you feel, my dear, for I have gone through exactly what you are experiencing now."

"But you are not nervous."

"No, not now, but I was in a far worse condition than you are, when a friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. I need not tell you more, for you know how well I have been for the last few years."

Mrs. H. Alchorn, 23 Gerald St., Charlottetown, P. E. I., writes: "Dr. Chase's Nerve Food was recommended to me by an aunt who used it while passing through the change of life and was completely built up by its use. From my experience as a wife and mother I find that the majority of users are women, especially women passing through the change of life; next by young mothers to regain strength after baby comes, and also by mothers for their young daughters entering their womanhood. While it is good for all classes of humanity, I am sure it is especially so for women, as they seem to be troubled most by nervous diseases."

BULL DOG SUBDUED

Looking For Fight Tackled a Horse That Used Hoofs on Canine.

On Sunday about half-past one, while Dr. Glendenning was driving down Mississaga street, a bull dog attacked his horse. The dog first jumped at the horse's head and body, but failing to get hold ran under the buggy and caught the animal by the tail. The horse became terrified and unmanageable, and went up on the sidewalk in front of Charlie Chow's restaurant. There the dog loosened its hold on the horse's tail and jumped up and put its teeth in the fleshy part of the hind quarters. When it fell back on the sidewalk, the horse, which had been kicking vigorously, got the first chance to strike a straight blow at the dog, and both hoofs hit him. This took the fight out of the bull dog and he retired. The horse was so frightened that it would not back off the sidewalk, and had to be unhitched and turned round. About this time something frightened the horse again and it put its head through the restaurant window, cutting its nose and causing it to shed some blood. The fight created considerable excitement on the street. —Orillia Packet.

CALEDON.

(Intended for last week.)

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian Church held a very successful celebration on Exhibition Park on May 24th.

Mrs. Wm. McCartney, the Misses McCartney and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lindsay, of West Toronto, were visitors in Caledon over the week-end.

Miss Ruby Laughlin, of Elmvale High School staff, spent the recent holidays under the parental roof.

Mr. W. J. Limebeer, ex-Warden of Peel, who unfortunately lost his hearing very suddenly, is now, we are glad to note, somewhat recovered and hopes are entertained for his complete recovery in the very near future.

Miss Ada Harrison, who underwent a very critical operation in Toronto General Hospital last week, is doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Una May Vanwyck, of Detroit, is visiting Caledon friends

Miss Pearl Warnock and Miss Vida M. Vanwyck are visiting their aunt, Mrs. A. Vanwyck, in Detroit.

CENSORED

Easter Island Treasure.

Easter Island was discovered by the Dutch on Easter Day in 1722, was visited, among others, by Spaniards in 1770, and by Captain Cook four years later, and now belongs to Chile. Its outstanding problem is the presence of hundreds of grotesque statues. Ancestor-worship and a bird-cult which included the practice of cannibalism in a cave have their connection with these statues, for on the backs of many of them are rude carvings of the "bird-man." This can be seen on the one that stands in the dim portico of the British Museum, brought here in 1868 by the Topaze. Who carved them, and when, and why? There was a cessation probably through an enemy's incursion, just as the marvellous prehistoric Cretan civilization was wiped out. And here in savage Easter Island, as in civilized Crete, there is an undeciphered, perhaps undecipherable, script — only here the remains of the pictograms are but few. There are also wood carvings and rock incisions, and the problems of race. White and black have met and mingled here, Polynesian and Melanesian, and skulls show high development. Dr. Keith reports that the Easter Islanders are the largest brained people yet discovered in the islands or shores of the Pacific, and that their cranial capacity exceeds that of the inhabitants of Whitechapel.

INCREASED PRODUCTION

A negro from Kentucky drove to a loose leaf tobacco sales warehouse in one of the Indiana cities on the Ohio with a load of tobacco.

When he received his sales slip and weights he noticed the customary bank cheque was missing.

Approaching the cashier, he said: "Look here, boss, where is my money for this here tobacco?" The sales sheet was consulted.

"It's like this, the expense for weighing, unloading and commission for selling your tobacco amounted to more than the tobacco was worth. You still owe us just 59 cents," explained the cashier.

"Well that's all right, I guess, but I ain't got a cent with me."

"Then the next time you are coming over the river, just bring along a chicken with you and we will call the deal square."

Within a week the colored man appeared in the office with two chickens, one unde each arm.

"Here are the chickens."

"Sure—but you didn't have to bring two of them, one would have paid the bill."

"Yes, boss, but I'se brought another load of tobacco."

JAW BROKEN

Flesherton Five Year Old Boy Victim of Brutal Treatment.

A mysterious and painful accident occurred on Wednesday evening last and one which created considerable excitement for a few hours. Little Billie Welton, the five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Welton, disappeared in the afternoon, and when he did not come home for supper his mother became worried, but nothing was done until the father, who had been away, arrived home about 9 o'clock. Then a posse of citizens was organized and a search begun. It was learned that he had been playing with two boys, one his own age and the other two years older, sons of Wm. Brown, who lives in the suburbs. Mrs. Brown says the boys came home and brought Billie's pup with them, saying the latter had given it to them and had gone fishing. The eldest Brown boy agreed when pressed to show where he had last seen little Billie, but before he did so other members of the search party found the little lad lying in R. Bentham's pasture field unconscious and moaning, not far from the highway. He was picked up and brought to his home when Drs. Guy and Henry made an examination but could not arrive at the extent of his injuries. He was placed in an auto and hurried to a Toronto hospital, where it was found that his jaw was broken, but the face was not disfigured. A plate had to be made to keep the bone in place, and he is still in the hospital.

A mystery surrounds the accident. The eldest boy claimed the next day that a horse had kicked Billie, although he said nothing about it the night befoe. A stick was lying a few feet away that was the most probable means of the injury, although different theories are advanced.

There is much sympathy expressed for the little fellow, who is a sweet tempered, manly little lad, and a general favorite with everybody.

Mr. and Mrs. Welton wish to thank the citizens of Flesherton and surrounding country for their assistance during the search for the little lad.—Flesherton Advance.

Few Fish In Hudson Bay.

Mr. C. W. Nash, the well-known Toronto biologist, confirms the statement of Rev. Dr. Walton, Anglican missionary in the Hudson Bay District, that few fish inhabit James and Hudson Bay. "There are some fish," said Mr. Nash, "chiefly Arctic salmon and whitefish, but as a commercial proposition the quantity is negligible. I would say that there are about enough fish there to keep the natives in food." Mr. Nash says climatic reasons are probably the cause of the scarcity.

A Wierd Suggestion.

E. L. Elford, of Ottawa, advocates the substitution of the hen for the beaver as emblematically Canadian, urging that the beaver is becoming extinct. He has not yet proposed that the dandelion replace the maple leaf.

Maidenly Modesty.

Little Charlotte Cowper, through the Fort William Times-Journal, wrote to Santa Claus to bring her this Christmas a doll's bed, a big doll, a sleigh, an automobile and a piano.

OIL PROSPECTS

An Expert Says That the Indications are Most Promising in the Vicinity of Orangeville.

After an investigation of the oil prospects in the vicinity of Orangeville an oil expert of the highest standing states that it would be difficult to find a place to explore for oil or gas, where so much positive evidence favorable to the accumulation of an oil pool is present. Crude oils have usually a green cast by reflected light. Otherwise they vary in color from yellow to black—the same as when seen by transmitted light. The greenish color is an important characteristic of crude oils. It is frequently a convenient means of distinguishing between crude oils and those which have been manufactured. Dark crude oils can be deprived of their color by filtration through fuller's earth or clay. This is possibly what happens where small traces of crude oil can be found near the surface, the oil having been carried upward by the force of water.

There are several places in close proximity to Orangeville where there are unmistakeable traces of crude oil.

Methods of Locating

'All too many oil producers have settled down into a fatalistic habit of thinking that the success of tests is so uncertain that no care or skill is required in their location. This is a very costly blunder. While all experienced persons know full well the uncertainties of drilling, the demonstrable success of improved methods in locating wells is so manifest that a neglect of geological considerations bespeaks incompetence. In locating test wells the age of the rocks should be favorable. Commercial gas has been produced as low as the Potsdam formation in the Cambrian period, and oil and gas in very large quantities as low as the Trenton formation. The Trenton lime is the covering over the Potsdam.

There are no good theoretical reasons why both oil and gas should not be found in commercial quantities right in this vicinity by just knocking. The only way to knock is to get together as other towns have done. Boost for your own town, get a sufficient amount of capital subscribed to form a company and drill.

Mr. H. A. Chamberlain is now working on the Orangeville syndicate and is meeting with considerable success. It will not be long until a good, strong Company will be in the field pushing preliminary drilling operations in vigorous fashion.

Orangeville Oil & Gas Development Syndicate.

FATALLY INJURED

Geo. Best, of Whitfield, a prominent Mulmur farmer and a brother of John Best, M. P. for Dufferin, died about seven o'clock Monday evening from injuries sustained through a fall from a load of pressed hay. Deceased and several neighbors were drawing pressed hay to Shelburne. A short distance north of Shelburne Best fell from his load alighting head-foremost on the hard roadway and fracturing his skull. He was rushed to his brother's home in Shelburne in an unconscious condition where he died without regaining consciousness. Three doctors were summoned and Dr. Middlebro, of Owen Sound, came down on the afternoon train in response to an urgent summons. The injuries unfortunately were of such a nature that the physicians were powerless to do anything for the dying man. Mr. Best was about 55 years of age and leaves a widow and a family of one son and two daughters. He was President of the Shelburne Agricultural Society and took an active interest in educational and other public affairs. The sad occurrence has caused widespread gloom and the most profound sympathy for the suddenly bereft wife and family.

BARON HAMLET (Imp.)

will be kept for service during the season of 1921 at the stables of his owner, lot 15, 2nd line, east, Caledon

TERMS—$15.00 for a living colt, payable when the colt is one week old.

Sale of mare renders fee due and payable.

All accidents to mares at the risk of their owners.

Of his breeding nothing need be said as it is a well known fact that Baron Hamlet is one of the best bred Clydesdales in Canada. As a Stock Horse he is unsurpassed.

Foals in 1919 from Baron Hamlet sold as high as $150.00 at 10 months old.

One of his colts foaled in 1920 won first prize at Caledon Fall Fair, beating the colt that won the first prize at Dufferin County Show at Orangeville, and was sold the same day for $150.00 and was delivered at four and a half months old. Another of his colts foaled in 1920 was sold at public auction for $155.00 at eight months and a half old.

BARON HAMLET was inspected on the 29th day of October, 1912, when he was passed and approved, Form 1. He has also been enrolled for the year 1921 in Form 1, in accordance with Chap. 67, Statutes of Ontario, 2 George V.

CAN WE LIGHTEN DISHWASHING

(Mrs. L. Duncan, Lecturer in Household Management, M. A. C.)

"It is this eternal dishwashing that gets me." How often we hear this from the busy housewife, and she has reason for so expressing herself, because washing dishes three times a day, three hundred and sixty-five days in the year, is likely to become tiresome. For some years institutions have been using power dishwashers with marked success but very few have been in use in private homes. It is possible to procure one in Winnipeg suitable for home use which can be run by hand which will considerably lessen the labor of dishwashing. The same company has an electric dishwasher which is very satisfactory but of course much more expensive.

An inexpensive dish dryer may be made in the following way. It is most satisfactory and by its use the time spent in dishwashing can be reduced considerably.

Use a 100-lb. Swift's lard can or other 10-gal. container. The lard can answers the purpose very satisfactorily as it has handles and a tight lid. Have a tinsmith cut out the bottom of the can, leaving a margin of 1½ inches all round. Then have him rivet in a bottom of heavy wire netting, having about ½ inch mesh. The margin may be re-inforced with a strip of heavy tin. Two cheap dish pans are needed. They should have bottoms of smaller diameter than the bottom of the can so that when the can sits on the dish pan there is a depth of about 2½ inches below the can. When one is going to wash dishes one dish pan should be set on the stove with about 1½ to 2 inches of water in it. The can may be set in the other pan near the sink or table where the dishes are being washed. As dishes are washed they should be placed in the can, cups mouth downward and plates stood on edge, etc., so that when over steam, the steam may reach the whole surface. When the can is full of dishes, the lid should be put on and the can should then be transferred to the pan on the stove and let steam for 15 to 20 minutes; then the can should again be lifted to the first dish pan, the lid removed and the dishes left to dry. When cool enough to handle they should be put away.

Time may also be saved in the dishwashing process by the use of a wheel table whereby, in one trip, all the dishes may be carried from the dining room to the place for washing up. The relative positions of the dining room, sinks or place for washing dishes, the stove (if water supply is there) and the cupboard where dishes are kept, must be considered so that no unnecessary steps are taken in the whole process.

By consideration of these points a good deal of the worry caused by dishwashing may be eliminated.

MELVILLE

A Garden Party will be given on the Melville School grounds on the evening of June 17th, under the auspices of the Melville Methodist Church. The David Bros. and assisting artists will provide the program. Refreshment booths on grounds. Watch for further particulars.

NEWS NOTES

At a special meeting of the Owen Sound Presbytery, the Rev. E. F. Chandler, M. A., for the last three years pasor of he Presbyterian Churches at Kilsyth and Jackson, was released from his charge.

When attempting to push a stalled motor car up Tannery Hill, near King City, a week ago Sunday afternoon, Jesse W. Ireland, a retired farmer living at Aurora, collapsed, and was dead in a few minutes.

"You look like a fool," thundered the disgusted man to his swell son just returned from college. "More and more like a conceited, hare-brained, helpless fool every year."

Just then an acquaintance of the old man entered the office and saw the youth.

"Hello Charlie, back eh?" exclaimed the visitor, "You're looking more and more like your father every year."

"Yes," said Charlie, "That's what the governor's just been telling me."

NOTHING MUCH

"Pa, what are ancestors?"

"Well, my son, I'm one of yours. Your grandpa is another."

"Oh! Then why is it people brag about them?"

SAVING MONEY

Mrs. Doughless—"I saved the money to buy this coat, darling."

Doughless—"How did you manage it, precious?"

Mrs. D.—"I bought it with the money you gave me for a new hat and had the hat charged to your account."

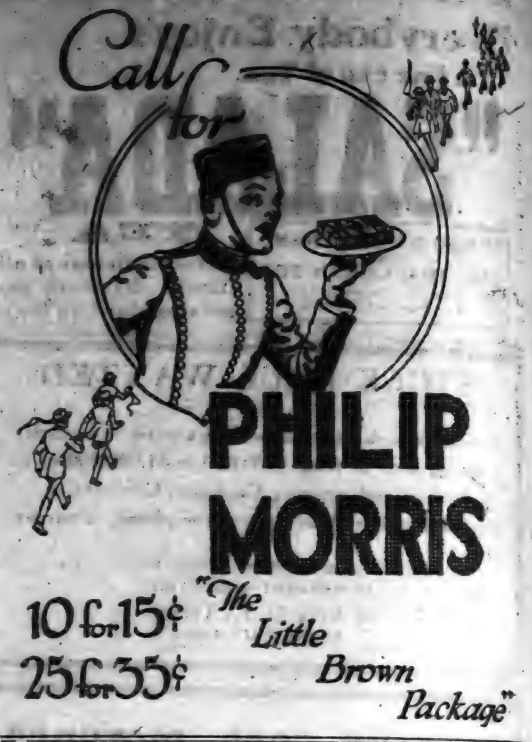
Sounds Like Einstein's Theory

Two gentlemen riding on a train were both very much intoxicated.

First Gent—"What time is it?"

Second Gent (after extracting a match-box from his pocket with much exertion and gazing at it intently)—"Thursday."

First Gent—"My heavens, I've got to get off here."



I Will Pay $10,000 For The Best Thoughts on One of My Problems

Thos A Edison

IN 1851, RALPH WALDO EMERSON said: "Could I only have music on my own terms, whenever I wished the ablution and inundation of musical waves, that are a bath and a medicine."

Emerson spoke the thoughts of millions, and voiced a need of all humanity.

It is obvious that the phonographic reproduction of music affords the only means of providing music of practically every variety, wherever and whenever it is desired; without this means, even those, who live in the great centers of music, can hear it only at conventional hours—and, then, not always the kind of music they most need and desire.

To make the phonographic reproduction of music serve the need expressed by Emerson, it is necessary that the reproduction shall preserve—undiminished and undistorted—the true beauties of the original music. The greatest shortcoming of the phonograph has been its lack of realism. It is this shortcoming which I have sought to remove. The result is a degree of realism in our new phonograph, which is baffling to even the most expert ears, whendirect comparison is made between living singers or instrumentalists and the reproduction or RE-CREATION of their work by our new instrument.

Were Emerson alive today, I feel that our new phonograph would be accepted by him as a satisfactory answer to the need, which he expressed. At any rate, the psychological research work, which we have been conducting for nearly two years, indicates that the well known and almost incalculable benefits of music can be derived, in full measure, from the proper use of this new instrument.

Psychologists, physicians, and other scientists appreciate that our object is to provide music of the best sort, under conditions that will insure the largest benefits. The new phonograph, which we have developed, is merely the instrumentality by which I am endeavoring to place truly fine music — at the command of every household.

A great many people have said that they regard this new instrument as the best phonograph in existence. While such statements are naturally gratifying to me, I find that the importance of our work in the field of music is somewhat obscured by the fact that so many people continue to think of this new instrument merely as a phonograph. They may think of it as the best phonograph—but it still is only a phonograph to them.

I want a phrase, which will emphasize that our new instrument is not a mere machine, but that it is an instrumentality, by which the true beauties and the full benefits of music can be brought into every home.

The phrase should not contain more than four or five words. I want a dignified expression, which will clearly distinguish this instrument from all other sound reproducing devices.

I have authorized that $10,000.00 in prizes be paid for the best idea submitted.

(Signed) THOMAS A. EDISON.

Details of Mr. Edison's $10,000.00 Prize Offer can be obtained from the Edison dealer in your locality. If you do not know him, write for his address and for other facts concerning the Prize Offer. There is nothing to consider for three points.

Historic Tablets.

A group of valuable historic tablets from excavations of the city of Babylon, bearing dates as far back as three and one-half centuries before the Christian era, was recently secured by Stanford University. Several of the pieces carry the distinct prints of the fingers which moulded them over 4,000 years ago. One sun-dried contract bears the name of Darius, the Persian King of Babylon, and is dated in the second year of his reign. The system of characters on the tablets is composed of horizontal, vertical, or oblique strokes. This cuneiform writing, it is said, was first adopted by the Babylonians after its invention by a people called Sumerians, and was used by them about 4500 B.C. It passed from them to the Assyrians, who used it with some changes, notably in recording the life and deeds of the kings on the surface of terra cotta bricks.

An Extinct Monster.

The Curators of the Launceston and Tasmanian Museums have presented to the Royal Society of Tasmania the preliminary account of a nearly complete skeleton of a gigantic extinct monster, recently discovered in the pleistocene beds of Tasmania. The animal was as large as the largest existing rhinoceros. The new discovery shows clearly that it was a rhinoceros-like animal, with a skull built for aggressive warfare, and at least one powerful horn on the snout. Evidence of the gigantic battles in which this animal engaged is to be found in the complete smashing and partial mending of the collar-bone, and in the crushing and subsequent repair of the bones of the nose and snout.

USELESS

The fussy steneg had looked at her wrist-watch a number of times one morning.

"I have a date for lunch and don't want to miss it," she explained to the office boy when she found him watching her curiously.

"Huh!" replied the youth scornfully. "I don't need no watch to know when it's lunch time. I've got a belt, I have."

THIS MAN DREADED TO SEE NIGHT COME

Was So Restless He Couldn't Sleep And Daylight Was Always Welcome.

"With the exception of a little milk toast, which comprised my diet for more than eight weeks, I could not eat anything," said Capt. Geo. W. Womble, residing at 105 Jennings St., Knoxville, Tenn., a highly respected citizen of that city.

"I am now able," continued Captain Womble, "after taking two bottles of Tanlac, to eat practically anything. I had a bad form of stomach and intestinal trouble for a long time and for months my condition had been such that I suffered agony. I got so I could not eat the simplest food. I tried doctor after doctor and all kinds of medicine but nothing that was prescribed for me seemed to do me any good. I had a terrible pain in my breast just over my heart and for weeks and weeks I got no relief.

"I finally got so nervous that I actually dreaded to see night come as I could not sleep and was always so restless that I would rejoice to see daylight come. I was also constipated all the time. In fact, life seemed a burden and I was so miserable that I was almost on the verge of despair. Several of my neighbors told me about Tanlac and advised me to try it.

"I am personally acquainted with Mr. Dan M. Chambliss, of the firm of Kuhlman & Chambliss, and when I told him of my condition and how I suffered he advised me to begin taking Tanlac without delay and that it had relieved hundreds of the best people in Knoxville. I have now taken two bottles of Tanlac and am giving you this testimonial in the hope that it may induce others to take it. Since taking this medicine I actually feel like I had been made all over again with the youth, energy and ambition of a sixteen year old boy."

On the eve of their departure for their new home in Toronto the members of the Presbyterian Church presented Mr. and Mrs. V. R. McCallum, of Alton, with an electric reading lamp. The same evening the Amusement Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Mason and presented them with a silver pie casserole. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum will be greatly missed.

Duncan McKenzie, of Dundalk, has some freak plums in his garden at present. A plum tree was laden with bloom a month ago and its rapid growth since that time has developed full-sized fruit of a kind. It has the nice blush of a peach on the sunny side but the fruit is only "camouflage." On closer examination it is found to be a mere punk formation.

NEPONSET ROOFS

For Buildings of All Kinds

For sloping roofs on residences, garages, bungalows, or public buildings, Neponset Twin Shingles make as handsome and durable a roof as it is possible to find anywhere — and they are most economical.

Neponset Twin Shingles are impregnated with asphalt and heavily surfaced with crushed slate. No wonder they resist time and wear. Their natural slate-red and slate-green colors are restful and beautiful.

They will not catch fire from falling sparks. Because they are two shingles in one and self-spacing, they require less labor and less nails to lay.

The De Laval puts money in the bank

MONEY in the bank is the final test of any piece of farm equipment. It is especially true of a cream separator.

Butter-fat is the most valuable product of the farm. Twice a day, every day in the year, gravity skimming or a poorly constructed separator wastes this high-priced food.

A De Laval Cream Separator stops this loss of profit. It supplies the extra money that is needed for current expenses, improvements about the farm, or for the purchase of new stock.

More than 2,500,000 De Lavals are in daily use throughout the world. These De Laval owners represent the most progressive and most prosperous farmers in every country and locality.

A De Laval Cream Separator will make your farm more profitable, too, and put money in the bank for you.

You may buy a De Laval on such terms that it will actually pay for itself while you are using it. Consult the nearest De Laval agent or write us for catalog.

Sooner or later you will buy a

An Outstanding Tire Achievement
A New and Better Clincher All-Weather Tread Tire

Better even than the famous Goodyear All-Weather Tread Clincher which has been used as regular equipment on half the cars built in Canada using this type.

Finer in appearance—double cure process.

Greater air capacity.

Better able to withstand road-shocks and the battle of the miles.

A tougher tread.

Practically eliminates tread separation.

Practically eliminates mold pinching.

This new Goodyear Tire is not an experiment. For over two years the Goodyear Company has been building it in the United States. It has been used on hundreds of thousands of cars.

Reports from motorists, dealers and Goodyear branches give this tire a consistently good record.

"These Clinchers are proving our best tires."

"Mileage received from them is more than satisfactory to the user and complaints are few."

"There seems to be no doubt that they are superior."

Goodyear dealers have this new tire on sale now. It is a cost reducer. It puts motoring on a more economical basis. See it today.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear father, the late Irwin Hillock, who departed this life on April 14th, 1921:—

Two months have passed and gone,
Since the one we loved so well,
Was taken from his home on earth
With Jesus Christ to dwell.

Dear mother, wipe away those tears,
Be calm and only gone before;
'Twill not be long till you meet him,
On the bright and heavenly shore.

Still you miss your husband dear,
You see his empty chair,
We also miss him in our home.
We miss him everywhere.

Your wife and your children
Would love to see you there;
For there is none to occupy
Poor father's vacant chair.

His memory is as dear to-day,
As the hour he passed away;
When the days are dark and friends are few
Dear father, how we long for you.

We think of you in silence
And your name we oft recall;
But there is nothing to answer,
Save your photo on the wall.

'Tis hard we know to sorrow not,
For you will have its way;
But there's hope to meet again
On that happy resurrection day.

Then our sorrows cease to flow,
Since He has called him home;
But let your hearts in every woe,
Still say Thy Will be done.

Yet from off our hearts do wander,
To the grave not far away,
Where we laid our dear father,
Just two months ago to-day.

God alone how much we miss him,
He knows the tears we shed;
And whispers, hush, he only sleeps,
Your loved one is not dead.

—Sadly missed by wife and children.

MAXWELL—TILT

A pretty wedding took place in Preston on June 15, when Louise Caroline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Tilt, became the bride of Allan Lougheed Maxwell, of Alton, Ont. The ceremony was conducted by the Rev. C. W. Cosens, of Walkerton, cousin of the bride, in the presence of relatives and friends of the bride and groom. During the signing of the register Mr. Leroy Morlock, of Kitchener, sang. Later Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell left on a motor trip and upon their return will reside near Orangeville.

I. O. D. E.

The members of Lord Dufferin Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, held their monthly meeting and annual picnic at the summer home of Mrs. C. R. McKeown at Caledon Lake last Friday afternoon. An interesting feature of the meeting was the splendid account given by Miss Clara Gibbs of the 21st annual meeting of the National Chapter of Canada I. O. D. E. held at Convocation Hall, Toronto, through the week of June 1st. inst. Miss Ina Porter was made an honorary member of Lord Dufferin Chapter in recognition of her services as Captain of the Girl Guides organization here. A delightful afternoon was spent.

MONSTER U. F. O. PICNIC

A Monster Picnic under the auspices of the United Farmers and United Farm Women, of Melancthon, will be held in T. K. Slack, M. P. P.'s Maple Grove, four miles northwest of Shelburne, Thursday, June 23. Premier Drury will speak at 3 o'clock. This will be the only time he will speak in Dufferin this summer. Baseball at 1.30, Honeywood vs. Laurel; at 4.30, Dundalk vs. Toronto. Lacrosse match, Shelburne vs. Brampton Intermediates. Premier Drury will face the ball. Foot Races, Football, Basketball. Music by Shelburne and Honeywood Bands. Open Air Concert at 8. Percy David and Joe Williams, entertainers, Olma Holmes, Highland Dancer. Mrs. H. L. Laws, Secretary U. F. W. O., will speak. J. M. McNaughton, Orangeville, chairman. Grounds lighted by electricity. Refreshment booths. All are requested to bring lunch. Admission, Adults, 50 cents; Children, 25 cents. Come and enjoy the biggest event of the season.

LAUREL ANNIVERSARY

Rev. W. G. Wallace, D. D., formerly pastor of Bloor St. Presbyterian Church, Toronto, will conduct anniversary services in Laurel and Black's Corners Presbyterian churches on Sunday, June 27th. Services will be held in the Laurel church at 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. and in the Black's Corners church at 3 p.m. On Wednesday evening, June 29th, the Laurel Church will hold its annual Garden Party in Maltby's orchard in Laurel, when a delightful programme will be provided by Joe. Williams, the celebrated English comedian. John Best, M. P., will occupy the chair and there will be short addresses by T. K. Slack, M. P. A., Rev. W. M. Morris, Rev. S. Lundie, Rev. G. W. Lynd and other speakers. At 6 o'clock Grand Valley and Orangeville baseball teams will meet in a friendly match. Supper will be served from 6 to 8 and there will be seasonable refreshments at a booth on the grounds. Admission, 50 and 35 cents.

EXCELSIORS COMING

Great interest attaches to the coming of The Brampton Excelsiors who will meet The Dufferins in a championship lacrosse game on Idylwyld Park on Wednesday afternoon, June 22nd. It is now twenty-four years since these old-time rivals last met in a championship fixture. A great game is assured when they clash and the meeting will draw a record crowd. Game at 3 o'clock sharp.

GROVE METHODIST CHURCH

The annual Garden Party of Grove Methodist Church will be held in Handley's Grove on the Erin-East Garafraxa townline, a short distance from the village of Orton, on Friday evening, June 24th. A pleasing programme will be provided by Bob Wilson, the widely known humorous entertainer, Grace Bonnick, pianiste and entertainer, Elgin Finer, humorous reciter, and the Tarzwell orchestra. Warden Brown, of Dufferin, will occupy the chair and Mr. T. K. Slack, M. L. A., and Rev. F. C. Harper, of Hillsburg, will be among the speakers. The usual refreshments will be served. Admission, 50 and 25 cents.

—See Torrie's Tweed Raincoat Bargains, your choice, up to $25, for $12.00.

—Orangeville will hold a big Dominion Day Celebration this year.

MELVILLE GARDEN PARTY

The celebrated David Entertainers will provide one of their popular programs of solos, duets, trios and comedy sketches at the Annual Garden Party of Melville Methodist Church on the Melville School Grounds on Friday evening, June 17th. The members of the Company are Albert David, tenor; Percy David, comedian; Malcolm Wood, instrumentalist; Irene Calhoun, elocutionist, and Jessie Drummer, pianiste. They make a strong combination of real concert artists and provide a delightful program. There will be a refreshment booth on the grounds, which will be lighted by electricity. Admission, 35c; children, under twelve, 25c.

DUFFERINS WON

Maitlands Gave Last Year's Champs Hard Argument on Saturday.

Maitlands of Toronto, held The Dufferins down to a 2 to 1 score in the first three quarters of the game at Idylwyld Park on Saturday afternoon. In the beginning of the final period the visitors made a determined effort to pull out a victory and managed to tie the score shortly after play commenced. Just at the critical moment when supporters of the green and white began to fear that the home team might be beaten Joe. Cushing, the big defence man, captured the ball, ran up the field and sent in a stealer that completely fooled the Maitland goal tender who had been playing a wonderful game all afternoon. The Dufferins played like a new team after Joe's stunt and ran in three more in short order, making the final score 5 to 2 in their favor. Undoubtedly the better team won. The Dufferins had it all over their opponents in the opening quarter, but the scoring division, while shooting frequently and accurately, always found the Maitland goalies right in the way of the ball. Play was even in the second and third periods, but The Dufferins generally had a shade on their opponents. Dufferins scored once in the first quarter and each team got a goal in the second period. The third was scoreless. Both teams have strong defences and the home men were usually pretty closely watched and checked so promptly that they had little chance to get in position to shoot. Dufferins had much the better home, but did not seem able to score until the last quarter, when they got going in real championship form. Booth well protected by Densmore and Cuking, performed splendidly in the flags and was Black, Henderson and Scott made a strong and reliable defence field. Stevenson, last year's centre fielder, was out of the game with a stiff knee, a memento of the recent Varsity tour, but his place was ably filled by Golden, who covered a lot of ground in an effective manner. Ewing, the two Browns and Gordon made a fast and exceedingly clever bunch and with a little more seasoning will be as invincible as they were last year. Mitchell, a Fergus man now working at the Melville Quarries, fitted in nicely on the home and should prove a valuable man. Despite the rainy morning and the fact that it was The Dufferins' first championship game, the match attracted a splendid crowd, the gate running well over $400. There was plenty of enthusiasm, showing that the interest in the game is just a strong as ever and that The Dufferins will have the same staunch support that they received last year. Tom Humphrey and Doyle handled the game to the satisfaction of both teams. There was comparatively little rough play and what few fouls occurred appeared to be accidental. Blythe Brown and Scott were the worst sufferers, both men being cracked over the head and laid out temporarily.

The next home game for The Dufferins will be on Wednesday, June 22nd, when the Brampton Excelsiors will be here. The last championship game between these old-time rivals was on the Exhibition Grounds north of the town on July 29th, 1897. At that time there was no such place as Idylwyld Park and all lacrosse games were played on the Exhibition Grounds. There was intense rivalry between the two teams that year but in the game referred to The Dufferins effectually disposed of their rivals by the one-sided score of 10 to 1.

WOULD NOT BE WITHOUT BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. W. Beesley, Mille Roche, Ont., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the past eight months and would not be without them. I used them for indigestion and teething and my baby is cutting his teeth without any trouble whatever. I can highly recommend the Tablets to other mothers." What Mrs. Beesley says thousands of other mothers say. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach, thus driving out constipation and indigestion and making teething easy. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville Ont.

FRUIT PICKING

A number of High School and town girls have either gone or are going shortly to fruit farms to help pick the season's fruit crop. Among them are Misses Myrtle McCauley, Annie and Olive Parks, Jean Firth, Mildred Youmans, Wilma Trehord, Grace Island, Helen Irvine, Ina Porter, Frances Judge, Muriel Torrie, Beulah Irwin, Viola and Alva McKim, Kathleen Island and Monica Crozier.

CARD OF THANKS

Her sister and brothers wish to express their sincere and grateful thanks to all the friends and neighbors for their constant and kindly assistance during the long illness of the late Miss Hannah Gordon. The goodness of the people of the neighborhood is something that will always be remembered with gratitude.

E. L. GARDEN PARTY

Alton Epworth League will hold a big garden party on the Alton School grounds on Wednesday evening, June 29th. A programme of unusual charm will be provided by the Hugh Thomas Entertainers, a popular Hawaiian trio, assisted by Cecil Menary, comic singer and entertainer, and the Alton orchetra. Seats will be provided in front of the platform, so that the audience may enjoy the programme in comfort. Refreshments at booth on grounds. Admission, 35 and 25 cents.

LARGE HOLDINGS

Further Information About the Orangeville Gas & Oil Development Syndicate.

The large and attractive area of leases, which are all well located, assures a big return to the contributors in the event of oil, gas or coal being found in commercial quantities. Another favorable feature is the small and conservative capitalization to subscribers. The capital of the Company when formed is to be $500,000. Honest and efficient management is to be assured by the appointment of a Trustee, who will be elected with a view to obtaining a man of such calibre that the Trusteeship will be a guarantee that funds subscribed will be expended in exact accordance with the term of the subscription agreement, and in the event of profitable development all contributors will share in proportion to their contributions in the results obtained. Men who have experience in the development of oil and gas territory will conduct and direct the exploration.

YOU BUY A DEFINITE SHARE IN THE RESULTS OF THE DEVELOPMENT:

No Stock is being sold in this enterprise but subscriptions are being received to develope Oil and Gas leases. In the event of successful development a Stock Company will be organized, in which subscribers will be issued stock paid up and non-assessable at the rate of three to one. FROM THE STANDPOINT OF THE INVESTOR no fairer, squarer plan of development could be devised.

J. S. Monroe, the expert Oil Man, who has been accredited to H. A. Chamberlain by the Gas & Oil Commission of Ontario, has not quite completed his report on this most promising Gas and Oil field. A full and authentic report will shortly be completed, when it will be given to the public.

BASKET PICNIC

The Blount Women's Institute will hold their Basket Picnic in Mrs. J. J. Crozier's bush, lot 5, fifth line, east, Mono, July 6th, at 2 p.m. A program of races, swings, games and other amusements has been arranged. A cordial invitation is extended to all Institutes. Collection taken up. Come everyone and enjoy a half day of out of door sports with the children. 50-2t

A SPLENDID TONIC FOR WEAK PEOPLE

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Act On the Blood and Nerves.

Food is as important to the sick person as medicine, more so in many cases. A badly chosen diet may retard recovery. In health the natural appetite is the best guide to follow; in sickness the appetite is often fickle and depraved.

Proper food and a good tonic will keep most people in good health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a fine tonic medicine, harmless and certain in their action, which is to build up the blood and restore vitality to the run-down system. For growing girls who are thin and pale, for pale, tired women, and for old people who feel in strength, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are an ideal tonic. Thousands have testified to the benefit derived from the use of this medicine. Among them is Mrs. William Gallie, Masterport, N. S., who says: "Before I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I was so weak and run down that I could hardly do my own work. I often suffered from headaches and was very nervous. I then began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I can truthfully say I have found them the best medicine I have ever taken. You may depend upon it I will advise other sufferers to take these pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

CAMILLA

Misses Olive and Annie Parks were among the bunch of girls who left town Monday for Jordan to pick fruit.

Miss Jennie Howard has returned home after spending a few days with her Camilla friends.

Misses Florence and Winnie Buchanan spent the week-end with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parks, of North Bay, motored to Orangeville and spent the week-end with friends here.

Camilla U. F. O. intends holding a picnic to Mono Centre Rocks.

Misses Angeline Patterson and Chrona Landy left for Clarkson on Wednesday morning where they intend picking fruit.

REV. THOS. SCOTT

Many in this locality will regret to learn of the death of a former pastor of Laurel Methodist Circuit, in the person of Rev. Thos. Scott M. A., B. F. L., on June 1st, in Alberta. Mr. Scott was stationed at Laurel until about a year ago, when through failing health Conference allowed him one year's leave from active work and he went to the West with the hope of regaining his health. Deceased was pastor of the Gravel Road church in Melancthon during the years 1895, 1896 and 1897, succeeding Rev. J. W. Sanderson. Like many a zealous student he studied extra-murally for the degree of M. A. with the Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, Ill., while still in active work on this and succeeding circuits. Among the pastorates that he successfully filled were Chatsworth, Melancthon, Maxwell, Downsview and Laurel.

ALTON

The Misses Isabel Peaker, Florence McNeil, Dorothy Weber and Helen Robinson and Messrs. Claude Weir, Bruce McNeil, Terrence Smith, Wilbur Timmons, Jim McIlroy and Clarence Hewitt, all of Toronto, were the week-end guests of Misses Edith and Catharine Harris at the Dodswood farm.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Smith and daughters, Dorothy, Eileen and Luella, of Guelph, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Caledon and Alton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Dods and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Dods and daughters, Marjorie, Catherine and Mary, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dods.

Mr. Allan Meadows and Miss Ina Mae McLachlan spent the holiday with the latter's parents.

Miss Olive Dods, of Toronto, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dods.

Mr. Cecil Lowe has returned to the States after a week's visit at his home here.

MOTORED FROM WEST

Two young Westerners, Albert Robbins, a son of Mr. Rich. Robbins, Mill St., and D. Wilson, a son of the late Henry Wilson, of Primrose, arrived in town last Thursday, having travelled from Laura, Sask., by motor. They made the journey in a seven passenger McLaughlin and covered the whole 2500 miles without experiencing any tire, engine or car trouble. They left Laura on June 3rd so that our readers will understand that they did not waste any time on the way. They travelled by way of Chicago and St. Paul and report excellent roads nearly all the way. Altogether they did not travel more than 100 miles of really bad road and some of that was in Ontario.

ORANGE GARDEN PARTY

Mono Britons L. O. L. No. 259 will hold one of the best garden parties of the season on the grounds of Mr. Jackson Holmes, lot 2, 4th line, Mono, on Friday evening, June 24th. The Orpheus Male Quartette will be heard in solos, duets, quartettes, monologues and humorous sketches and will be supported by Cecil Menary, comedian, Miss Gallaugher, elocutionist, and the Orangeville Citizens' Band. Short speeches will be given by the County Orange Master, the Resident Ministers and other speakers. Lunch counter and refreshment booth on grounds. Admission, 35 and 20 cents.

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING

Dufferin County L. O. L. will hold its semi-annual meeting in Aaron L. O. L. No. 427 Hall on Saturday afternoon, June 18, at 1.30 p.m. Officers and other members are urged to attend.

IN MEMORIAM

CAMERON—In loving memory of James A. Cameron, beloved husband of Annie E. Coulter, who passed away at his home, "Woodlawn," Caledon, June 19th, 1920.

Not dead, oh no, but borne beyond the shadows,
Into the full clear light;
Forever done with mist and clouds and tempest
Where all is calm and bright.

But not forgetful, keeping fond remembrance,
Of dear ones left awhile;
And looking gladly to the bright re-union,
With handclasp and with smile.

—WIFE.

You are not forgotten daddy, dear,
Nor will you ever be,
As long as life and memory last,
We will remember thee.

—MARION.

Some day, some time, we hall see
The dear face we hold in memory,
Fresh in our hearts his memory clings,
Yet still our hearts are sore:
But each passing year will nearer bring
The day we shall meet once more.

—LLOYD and BRUCE.

BRACKEN–EVANS

Palms, roses and carnations decked the home of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar A. Evans, Runnymede Road, Toronto, for the marriage at two o'clock Wednesday of their only daughter, Marion Louise, to Mr. Arthur. E. Bracken, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Bracken, Rev. H. A. Bracken, M. A., B. D., brother of the groom, officiating. The pretty bride wore a simple gown of white charmeuse and an exquisite string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was sweetheart roses. Miss Genevieve Creery, of London, as attendant maid, wore pale pink and carried pink roses. Mr. Ken. Davidson, of Brampton, was best man. After a dainty luncheon and the usual toasts, the young couple left to spend their honeymoon in Muskoka, the bride travelling in a navy suit and navy and tan hat.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

This is a Short Letter, But It Proves the Reliability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Bothwell, Ont.—"I was weak and run down, had no appetite and was nervous. The nurse who took care of me told me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I am getting strong. I recommend your medicine to my friends, and you may use my testimonial."—Mrs. W. J. Brady, R. R. 2, Bothwell, Ont.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful in overcoming woman's ills is because it contains the tonic, strengthening properties of good old-fashioned roots and herbs, which act on the female organism. Women from all parts of the country are continually testifying to its strengthening, beneficial influence, and as it contains no narcotics or harmful drugs it is a safe medicine for women.

If you want special advice write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read, and answered by women only.

LEAVING QUEBEC

With the annual session of the Montreal Methodist Conference just closing, the Rev. Isaac Couch, M. A., B. D., pastor of the Methodist Church of this city, having completed the full pastoral term of four years, is about to leave Quebec.

Rev. Mr. Couch assumed the pastorate of the Quebec church in June, 1917, and during this tirm has made a host of friends. Prior to coming to Quebec he held charges in Toronto, Hamilton, Peterboro and Ottawa. He holds a high reputation as a close student, is a gifted speaker, and is recognized as one of the ablest preachers in the Methodist denomination.

Mr. Couch's departure is keenly felt by the Board of Management and the members of the Methodist Church in Quebec. At their annual meeting held last month a complimentary resolution, expressive of their pastor's worth, was unanimously passed, and ordered to be inscribed in the Church books. While at the annual meeting of the Quebec district, when Mr. Couch was asked to preach before the session, a similar resolution was adopted.

As one prominent church official aptly remarked: "He has broadened our horizon, enlarged our conceptions, enriched our life, and every right thinking person must view with regret the approaching departure of Rev. Mr. Couch from our city." There are other organizations, however, that share in this regret. In the Masonic fraternity he has taken a keen interest and has given unsparingly of his time and talent. He was honored by the Grand Lodge of Quebec, by being elected two years in succession as Grand Chaplain for the District of Quebec and Three Rivers. His influence has also been felt for good in the Quebec Curling Club, where he was held in high esteem. His addresses have been marked with breadth of vision and depth of thought, and never has an audience listened to him without receiving helpful instruction. He emphasizes essentials and feels that mankind is one great brotherhood. All who knew him realize that he is a lover of humanity and hence his friends are to be found among all creeds and classes.

With the departure of Rev. Mr. Couch, for Strathroy, Ont., to assume the pastorate of the Methodist Church there, Quebec will lose a good citizen, a scholarly preacher, a man of tender heart and a friend of the people.—Quebec Chronicle.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

"Just Listen to This"

"I HAVE been after you to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and you always say it is intended more for women."

"Well, that is what I always understood, for I hear you women talking so much about using it."

"Don't you think men have blood and nerves as well as women? It says here that Dr. Chase's Nerve Food forms new, rich blood and nourishes the exhausted nerves back to health and vigor."

"Yes."

"Well, the doctor says it is your nerves that are responsible for your indigestion and sleeplessness. Why not try some of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food? You know what it did for me."

"I would like to know of some men in my condition who used it."

"Just listen to this: 'Mr. A. W. Foster, 178 Le Breton street, Ottawa, Ont., writes: 'For a year I was troubled with "nerves," was restless, especially on retiring, and unable to sleep for hours. I was easily fatigued and very irritable.

"'A friend told me to try Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and before I had used the treatment a week I was enjoying a good night's rest every night. I gained rapidly in every way and my general health is very much improved.'"

"That sounds all right."

"Yes. This statement is vouched for by Mr. E. M. Ahearn, the druggist, and is no doubt correct."

"Well, I will give it a try-out."

WELL GETTING STRONGER

Discovery of Gas on Theodore Johnston's Farm Near Owen Sound.

There promises to be a big development in the natural gas well that was discovered Thursday night on the farm of Mr. Theodore Johnston on the town line between Sydenham and St. Vincent. The gas has been flowing steadily ever since Thursday and the latest reports this morning are that the flow of gas is getting even stronger. And this is despite the fact that no more drilling has been done. A local company is being formed to develop the well, and there are possibilities that the well will develop into a real gusher. There are indications of oil also in the well, and this would make the well much more valuable than if it continues to flow gas.

The discovery of the well was quite by chance. Mr. Theodore Johnston was drilling for water, and indeed was quite disappointed when he struck gas instead. The drilling was being done by Mr. William Cross who is in the employ of Mr. R. A. McCorkindale, of Owen Sound. Mr. Cross has had absolutely no experience in gas wells, and when the gas came he did not know what it was. Gas was struck at the depth of 137 feet, when a roaring sound was heard in the pipe and the water in it began to bubble and foam. Later the well was drilled four feet more to 141 feet and the flow of gas increased to nearly double.

Mr. McCorkindale, of Owen Sound, who has an extensive experience in the drilling of gas wells, was called out to see the well. He was out again on Sunday evening and reported that the flow of natural gas was continuing strong and steady. Speaking of the well, Mr. McCorkindale said; "The indications point to striking a gusher. Of course it is a gamble, but it is an ideal formation for a first class well." Mr. McCorkindale said that the well was the most surprising one he had ever seen. The gas was struck so near the surface, whereas usually it is at least five or six hundred feet down. But the most astonishing part about it is that the well is absolutely free from seepage. Usually there is so much water coming up with the gas that the well is almost useless. But the St. Vincent well is perfectly dry, and the gas could be used as it comes up through the pipe.

The well will be developed by a local company which has secured rights over the well from Mr. Johnston. Mr. E. J. Creeper and Mr. McCorkindale went out to the well this morning to try and put a cap on it and to test the strength. It is impossible to estimate the flow of gas to any exact extent as yet, but there is a pressure of about forty pounds. Mr. McCorkindale yesterday said that it would not be over estimated at fifteen to twenty thousand cubic feet per day. A flow of fifty thousand cubic feet would be necessary before the well would be of commercial value

The well is in a formation of dark grey shale, which shows indications of oil. The gas has a slightly oily smell, while pumpings from the well show the presence of oil among the shale. Many people have long thought that there was gas in the district, and this discovery is proof of the truth of their beliefs. The present well is too small to be anything more than a test well, for the pipe is only 3 5-8 inches in diameter, whereas it should have a six or eight inch casing. As the well was originally bored for water, only a four inch drill was used. The flow of gas from the present depth is so strong and so free from seepage, that there is every possibility of a really big gusher when a well is drilled wider and to a greater depth than the 141 feet of the present well on Johnston's farm.

The advantages to Owen Sound and the district from the discovery of gas are undoubted and are easily seen by everybody. The well is only about nine miles from Meaford and about fourteen from Owen Sound. If the flow continues, or if more gas or oil is discovered there will be a great development of this region, and much outside capital will come in. The next few weeks only will tell the full tale though of the discovery.—Owen Sound Advertiser.

HOSPITABLE

But Entertainment Came High at Malott Domicile.

Several weeks ago when James Gillen, of Toronto, paid Guelph a visit, he was a caller at the hospitable home of Mr. James Malott, who is now serving a short term at the Ontario Reformatory, and while there he loaned Mr. Malott the sum of $60 which the latter agreed to pay back in small instalments, but as James was sent down, it was only natural that he could not fulfil his obligations. The result of this failure on his part brought Mr. Gillen to Guelph again yesterday, as he was anxious to know what had become of Mr. Malott. He walked up to the house on Grove street, and was most graciously received, in fact so warm was the welcome that before he left he got beautifully drunk, and to add to the warmth of his welcome he was permitted to pay $7.50 for a bottle of whiskey which he says was furnished to him by Grace Malott, and the contents of which were consumed on the premises by himself and the ladies of the house. When this bottle was empty he purchased another at the same price, but he declares that he only got one drink out of this bottle, leaving the rest of it there, and no doubt it is all gone long before this. When he got ready to leave the house he was not allowed to depart without making a parting gift to the family, and he contributed two five dollar bills to the Malott exchequer before the door would be unlocked. He finally got away, however, and the next heard of him was when a constable found him at 6.45 o'clck lying on the Grand Trunk railway tracks on Grove street, dead to the world. It was a lucky thing that he was found just when he was for a minute afterwards a passenger train came flying past, and he would probably have been cut to pieces. He was brought to the police station, where he spent the night, and this morning was brought before Magistrate Watt. He was charged with being intoxicated, pleaded guilty and was fined $10 and costs. He then went into the witness box and told the story which is briefly outlined above. He says that when he went into the Malott house he had $56 in his clothes, but when arrested all he had left was $23. Out of this he had to pay his fine, so that he did not have very much left with which to go back to Toronto. He was very glad to get the first train out. A warrant was soon obtained for the arrest of Grace Malott, but when the police went to execute it, there was no one at home, and it is more than likely that Grace has left the city for a short time. —Guelph Herald.

Lowe Brothers

This paint film is less than 1\100 of an inch thick. What does that mean to you?

When you stop to realize that a two-coat film of paint is less than 1-100 of an inch in thickness, and that this thin film stands between your house and the weather, you can see the vitalness of buying the right kind of paint.

Lowe Brothers High Standard Paint forms a tougher film than any other paint we know of. It is elastic. It will not crack with the weather's changes. It is both weatherproof and waterproof.

It costs a little more than most paints, but it always covers more surface, therefore less paint is required and you actually save money at the very start. This fact, coupled with its long lastingness, makes it really an investment paint.

If you want to prevent future trouble, come in and talk over your paint problems with us.

AN AWAKENED INTEREST IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS

MEETINGS OF PUBLIC SCHOOL TRUSTEES AND RATEPAYERS, MARKDALE, WALKERTON AND GUELPH

The annual meeting of the Provincial Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association, held in Convocation Hall, Toronto, last Easter, surpassed in attendance and programme the expectations of those in charge and went far beyond the record of any previous gathering for educational affairs in the province. There was a registered attendance of 1400 delegates and an attendance of approximately 2000 people. It has been the opinion of some that such enthusiasm could not be maintained and the people of Ontario induced to attend such meetings to do constructive thinking for the improvement of our educational system. There is no doubt that quite a number came to the Provincial meeting for the purpose of criticising anything and everything connected with education.

However, similar meetings have just been held in Markdale, Walkerton and Guelph, which have given positive proof that the people are taking this movement seriously and manifesting a sincere interest in educational problems. There can be no progress in educational affairs that is not sustained by public opinion. It is a source of strength in a democracy for people to have confidence in one another and co-operate in all the affairs of state and church. At the meeting in Markdale, June 1st, for the whole county of Grey, there were over 300 delegates, mostly from the Rural sections, who spent the whole day discussing educational problems. Inspiring addresses were given upon the Consolidation of Rural Schools, Health Education and the Necessity of Dental Inspection in our Public Schools. This was the first All Grey Convention and it is expected will be an annual affair in the future.

There was also a similar meeting in Walkerton on June 1st for the county of Bruce, where the attendance was over 250, mostly from the Rural parts of the county. Mr. W. A. Rowand, President of the East Bruce Inspectorate Association, occupied the chair and expressed his pleasure that so many had come to show their interest in educational affairs. He expressed a hope that there might be a better spirit of co-operation between parents, trustees, inspectors and the Department of Education, and that what is needed is a better understanding of our various points of view. Mr. A. E. McNabb, Mayor of the town, welcomed the delegates to this first convention of Bruce County School Trustees and Ratepayers and spoke of the many advantages afforded the people of the town of Walkerton, and particularly of the splendid schol buildings.

Major J. P. Cowles, of the Department of Education, emphasized the importance of school attendance. We have two main divisions to our system of education. One of these is that of curriculum, equipment and school buildings. The other division, and the one which is often neglected, is that of the attendance of the pupils. Money to the amount of $55,000,000 is invested in the elementary school plants of Ontario and it costs $22,000,000 annually to operate them. According to statistics the average attendance of pupils is about 70 per cent. of the enrolled number of pupils. The province is, therefore, losing 30 per cent. annually of this vast amount of money because our schools do not function to 100 per cent. owing to the lack of attendance on the part of the pupils. This would not be tolerated in a business institution and where should we exercise greater business ability than in preparing the youth of to-day for the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship to-morrow.

The Major also referred to the Adolescent Act, part of which comes into force on the first of September. This Act requires that "Every adolescent between 14 and 16 years of age shall attend school for the full time during which the schools of the municipality, in which he resides, are open each year, unless excused for the reasons hereinafter mentioned." The child may be excused for sickness, for necessary employment or if he has passed the matriculation examination. The material prosperity of a nation depends very largely upon the development of the natural ability of the people. There are three great factors that go to make national greatness. These are the material resources of the country, the natural ability of the people and the acquired ability secured by the development of the natural ability. The first two of these are fixed quantities and there is no country in the world that has a greater supply and of any better quality than has the Dominion of Canada. We have unlimited natural resources and the natural ability of the Canadian people is unsurpassed anywhere, but the material resources of our land will remain undeveloped unless the natural ability of our people is trained by the institutions of home, school and church. The great common factor for the development of our natural ability is the Public School and it is, therefore, the duty of the state to make these schools as efficient as possible. For this reason the Adolescent Act should be enforced by the Department of Education. There should be no difficulty in the enforcement for the people of Ontario are just as anxious to give their children a good education as is the Department and if a curriculum can be provided that will meet the needs of these young people and give them the education their parents desire them to have there will be no difficulty in the enforcement of the Act.

The discussion of this subject was introduced by the Rev. N. R. D. Sinclair, of Belmore, who referred to the adolescent period of life as the time when young people learn the great principles of association and co-operation necessary to democracy. This will best be acquired by the social and recreational life of the people. The greatest difficulty in the way of successful education is the indifference of the parents. The speaker referred to the great interest that is being awakened in education. So long as we are satisfied to let our educational affairs be administered from Toronto our system of education will remain exactly as it is. That is the reason why one sections of our country remain in a backward condition in educational matters and they will always remain so if parents are unconcerned about the school attendance of their children. The speaker did not think the ratepayers of Bruce would object to paying more for education provided they got the worth of their money.

Mr. John McCool, Inspector of Public Schools for East Bruce, took part in the discussion and referred to the time when he was a school teacher having an average of 70 scholars and found time to teach pupils in the fifth class three times a day. There was a delegate in the audience who confirmed this statement by rising to his feet and stating that he had been in that fifth class. Mr. McCool emphasized the importance of the home in keeping the children interested in their school work. He next referred to the teacher as the important factor in education and referred to the difficulties of enforcing the Adolescent Act in Rural parts on the ground that farmers can always find necessary work for their boys.

During the discussion Major Cowles referred to a suggestion made by a delegate at a series of meetings in the county of Waterloo that an annex be built to three or more schools in the township and the township council engage two or three teachers of special subjects, such as agriculture, manual training and household science. And that further, these teachers itinerate the township and assist in these special schools to give advanced instruction to the older boys and girls who might attend during the winter months for such a course of instruction. It was also suggested that a two year winter course of this sort give the pupils first year standing in the Ontario Agricultural College. The Major merely passed this suggestion on to the convention for the consideration of the people.

W. I. Chisholm, of the Department of Education, spoke on the subject of Consolidating Rural Schools. He felt quite at home in Walkerton because of the fact that he was principal of the Walkerton Public School 20 years ago. The Consolidation of Rural Schools is simply co-operation in education. The system is now half a century old and and there are some 13,000 consolidated schools in the United States, 112 in Manitoba and a number in Saskatchewan and Alberta. Ontario has made very little progress along this line, but a number of consolidated schools are under construction. The speaker did not claim that such schools would be practicable everywhere but believed they would solve the Rural educational problem in very many cases. Mr. Chisholm spoke from his wide experience in education when he claimed that Rural environment is the best for children. From his personal observation and experience Urban schools are more efficient than Rural schools, but the Urban environment is much poorer for the bringing up of children. There are the paved streets, the picture shows, the bright lights and many other things that attract the children from their school work. In the country schools we have the best environment and by consolidation could have a school equal to that of the Urban centres and could thus provide both environment and educational facilities of the best quality.

GUELPH DISTRICT CONVENTION

This was the first attempt to hold an educational convention for a District in Ontario. There were 450 delegates from the counties of Dufferin, Peel, Halton, Wentworth, Wellington and Waterloo, and an Executive has been appointed to make this convention an annual affair. It is the intention of the Provincial Executive to hold a number of District conventions and the success of this one will be great encouragement.

The meeting was called to order at ten o'clock by Mr. G. R. McWhirter, of Colbeck, who was chairman for the morning session. Committees were appointed on Resolutions, Organizations and Publicity. A few minutes were given to the delegates who attended the Provincial meeting to report, among whom were Mr. J. A. Harper, of Waterloo, and Miss Smith, of Brampton. Mr. Harper suggested that there should be fewer speeches at the annual meeting of the Association and more time allotted for discussion. Miss Smith commended the Trustees and Ratepayers for coming together to study education, believing that if we find out what we do want and ask for it we shall receive it.

Col. Craig, Inspector of Public Schools for South Wellington, was called upon to give an address and gave a report upon the Consolidated School, Guelph, which the delegates afterwards visited. He assured them that this school was not a failure. It was established in 1905, but handicapped in its work by being built in the wrong place, close to the city of Guelph, which has an area of 4 square miles and from which no pupils are expected to come to the Consolidated School. There were five school sections included in the area when established and the children of some of these had to be driven through the city of Guelph by vans to reach the school. The school building was the gift of Mr. Macdonald and established on a scale of lavish expenditure. After an experiment of three years the financial support of Mr. Macdonald was withdrawn and three of the school sections withdrew from the consolidation on the ground that it was going to be too expensive to maintain. If the school had been established by the people and controlled by the people they would not likely have built it on the present site nor established so lavish a precedent of expenditure.

There are at present 120 pupils on the roll from the two school sections and as Inspector Craig reported that it is giving better satisfaction than any other school in the Inspectorate of South Wellington and he favors consolidation for the following reasons:—

1. Regularity of attendance. It is better in this school than any Rural school in the inspectorate and few inspectorates have a higher average attendance than that of South Wellington, in which the attendance is 90 per cent. of enrolment in many schools.

IF YOU WANT GOOD HEALTH

The Science, Art and Philosophy of Chiropractic is based on a correct knowledge of the functions of the Mind, Brain, Nerves and Spine.

The Brain is the dynamo of the body, which generates the life giving power. The nerves are the wires that convey life to all organs and tissues.

95 PER CENT. OF DISEASE is caused by Bones of the Spine pressing upon Spinal Nerves, which causes deranged functions. Kidney, Stomach, Liver, Lung and Heart Troubles (also all Diseases peculiar to Women) are speedily removed by Chiropractic Adjustments.

DON'T DELAY. Every day you wait makes it more difficult to remove the cause of your Trouble.

Mr. Edison will pay

$10,000 for some thoughts!

MUSIC can help you. The pictures above show one way. There are many other ways.

Mr. Edison has developed an instrumentality by which these benefits of music are placed at your command in your own home. Its RE-CREATION of music is so perfect, that it cannot be told from the original music, even when heard in direct comparison.

This instrument, which brings both the true beauties and the full benefits of music, is a great deal more than a mere talking-machine. Therefore, Mr. Edison wants a phrase of four or five words, which will distinguish the New Edison from all other sound-reproducing devices.

He will pay $10,000, in 23 cash prizes, for the best ideas submitted.

Sign and Send the Coupon

It will bring the two things you need. Folder of complete information,—and a New Edison with which you can experiment in your own home. We'll loan you the instrument for three days. No charge or obligation. Mail the coupon today.

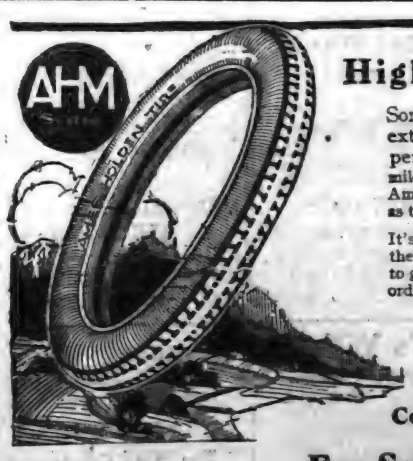
MAN OF VISION

Late Jas. Bower Stood for Sterling Type of Citizenship.

The Red Deer, Alta., Advocate has the following report of the funeral of the late James Bower, whose death was reported in a recent issue of The Banner:—

The funeral of the late Jas. Bower took place from his residence on Thursday afternoon to the Red Deer Cemetery, services being held at the house by Rev. G. D. Armstrong. There was a large turnout of friends, especially of the farmers and U. F. A. members of the district, and the service was held outside on the lawn; the procession of autos at the funeral was perhaps the largest ever seen here. There were beautiful floral tributes from the family and friends. Two favorite hymns of the deceased —"A Few More Years Shall Roll" and "O God, Our Help in Ages Past"— were sung, Mrs. R. Wilkins at the piano. The U. F. A. provincial organizations were represented by Mr. E. J. Fream, Calgary, secretary of the United Grain Growers; Mr. P. Baker, Ponoka, Provincial Vice-President U. F. A.; and Mr. D. W. Warner, Clover Bar, Provincial Director U. F. A. President Wood was detained by official business preceding appearance before the grain Commission. Mr. Fream, Mr. Warner and Mr. Rice Sheppard now only remain of the old guard of ten years ago. Mr. Baker and Mr. Armstrong both bore faithful and inspiring testimony to the character and work of Mr. Bower. Mr. Baker spoke of Mr. Bower's vision of what could be accomplished by a united farmers' organization; in every field of progress it was the man who had a vision of what was to come and impressed that vision on his generation, who moved things in the required direction. Mr. Bower did not see then all that followed that early work—the 150,000 farmers organized throughout the Dominion. Mr. Bower's first U. F. A. secretary was Mr. Fream, now the U. G. G. secretary; his first secretary of the Canadian Council of Agriculture was Mr. Drury, now Premier of Ontario. Mr. Bower's work and service, like that of other leaders, was not properly appreciated; he was often wounded in the house of his friends. He had given of his best unstintedly for the U. F. A. work, and his memory would not be forgotten. He stood for a sterling type of citizenship. Men like Mr. Bower, with home and family round him, anchored to the soil, dealt with public affairs sanely and soberly. Strong in body, vigorous in intellect, unswerving in purpose, Mr. Bower brought to bear unusual capacity and personality on any work he took in hand; his energy of mind and body, it might also be said, burnt up his physical frame. Mr. Armtrong pleaded also for a better understanding of men of Mr. Bower's type, whose defects were the outcome of their virtues to a large extent. Mr. Bower had contributed something worth while to his day and generation, something enduring; with unswerving courage he had buckled to his task with his gifts of leadership, and they would do well if they carried on, in spirit at least, the work that had been so near his heart. As an instance of Mr. Bower's inheritance, Mr. Armstrong said that Mr. Bower's parents walked sixty miles to Toronto to get married by the Bishop at Toronto, before there was any very settled Church of England service in their district.

—A senior lacrosse match and a junior championship lacrosse game between Orangeville and Shelburne will be among the attractions for the Dominion Day Celebration in Orangeville.



High Average Mileage

Sometimes you find a tire that gives extraordinary mileage—one in a dozen perhaps. Whereas the average of mileage given by a dozen—or a hundred—Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes" will be as high as that given by the exceptional ordinary tire.

It's the high average that counts—that cuts the cost of miles—that makes it worth while to get Ames Holden "Auto-Shoes" instead of ordinary tires.

VIOLET HILL

(Intended for last week.)

As Violet Hill has not been heard from for a little time I thought I would take a stroll around and see what was going on. I landed in Shelburne on the 24th morning and they told me there was going to be a celebration there that day. Everything was so quiet that I thought I was in Primrose. I then decided that I would start for the Rocktown picnic. The first person I met was Herman Forsythe. I think by the way he talked that he knows all the teachers pretty well. However, we did not chat long as I was in a hurry. It was late when I got out to Violet Hill that night so I called on Mr. Samuel Liddy for a week-end's lodging. He entertained me royally and greatly to my surprise was enquiring where he could get some seed potatoes. On Sunday morning I left Mr. Liddy's and went down the First Line, where I met George Armstrong and Allie Bailey. After going a short distance I learned that Frank had been left in the dark. I met a buggy at Tom Lindsay's gate. It was nearly stopped of course. There were four occupants—Gordon and Alwin with two girls from the Second Line. We told them that a car would be better, but Alwin preferred the buggy. The next people I met were Milton Armstrong and Hazel White, the former a Whittington chap. He had got stormstead and by the first glimpse I got fo them it appeared as if they would not mind if it rained a month. As I had to meet the morning train Perry good naturedly left, me in to town. On the way he told me that a good night's sleep was worth more to him than a whole night's spooning. We stopped at Primrose and to our surprise found that Jim Dean seemed well posted on the Garafraxa market. How he came to know so much about this puzzled both of us. We suggested that these young fellows should attend the Relessey picnic and cheer the girls on their way.

FELT LIKE AN IRON BAND AROUND HEAD

Mrs. Osborne Says She Shudders When She Thinks How She Suffered.

"For years," said Mrs. V. B. Osborne, of 718 Lancaster Ave., Lexington, Ky., "I have been in a run-down condition; nervous, weak and dizzy. I was actually so nervous that any sudden noise or excitement would produce a palpitation of my heart that frightened me. I absolutely could not climb stairs, for to attempt such would thoroughly exhaust me.

"I had nervous headaches and when they came on it seemed that an iron band was drawn tight around my head. I now shudder when I think of those headaches. My stomach was weak and I could not digest the lightest liquid food. Any food of a solid nature caused nausea and the sickening sensation remained for hours.

"My misery was almost unbearable. My sleep was never sound and I was worn out all the time. My condition was indeed a very deplorable one. I finally sought treatment in Cincinnati but nothing helped me one particle. I was on the verge of giving up in despair when a neighbor pleaded with me to try Tanlac. I obtained a bottle of the medicine and began its use.

"I began improving at once and soon felt my nervousness and dizziness disappearing. Then my headaches left me and I realized my strength had returned. My appetite and digestion improved and I am now so much better in every way. This Tanlac is a wonderful medicine and the only one that ever really helped me. I hope every woman who is suffering as I did will try it."

PASTOR ESTEEMED

Congregation Voices Regard in Farewell Presentation.

A most pleasing event took place yesterday afternoon in the parlor of the Methodist Church when a goodly number of the male members of the congregation met and presented the retiring pastor, the Rev. I. Couch, with a token in the shape of a well filled purse.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. W. Lambton, who with one or two others of those present, made short addresses expressing the deep regret felt by the congregation at the coming departure of Mr. Couch and wishing him God speed and success in his new field of labor.

Mr. Couch made a most feeling reply expressing the regret he felt at having to sever the ties with those among whom he had been laboring during the last four years and at whose hnds he had received nothing but kindness. He said he would carry away with him the most kindly feelings not only of those of his own immediate congregation but of Quebec citizens in general with wom he had come in contact during his sojourn in the Ancient Capital.

Mr. Couch closes his pastorate here next Sunday, preaching his farewell sermon at the evening service. His new field of labor will be in Strathroy, Ont., the present pastor of which, the Rev. J. Calvin Reid, B. A., B. D., will succeed the Rev. Mr. Couch here. Mr. Reid is highly spoken of as a very scholarly and eloquent preacher and the members of the local church are looking forward to a most happy and profitable pastorate.

Address to Mr. Couch.

The address presented to Rev. Mr. Couch, which was read by Mr. C. H. Thorn, is as follows:

We are gathered here this afternoon because we feel we cannot allow our pastor to depart form us without some tangible expression of the high esteem in which he is held. It has been a privilege indeed, from week to week to listen to his inspiring sermons, as he unfolded the truths of the Bible, and gave us an insight into some of the almost hidden mysteries of the sacred Word, and led his congregation to see the truth from the modern and scientific viewpoint, while at all times laying stress upon essentials that never change.

In his sermons Rev. Mr. Couch has always presented to us the great love of God in the gift of the Lord, and in the great sacrifice for the world's redemption.

His going away from us is a great loss to our church and also to our city, for he has shown himself larger than any creed and appreciates merit wherever found. We wish him God's richest blessing and a multitude of friends in his new charge who may ring true in unswerving loyalty to their pastor.—Quebec Chronicle.

SILVER SHOWER

The beautiful home of Miss Clara Lesson, 9th line, Erin, was the scene of a very pleasing event on June 17th, in the form of a silver shower in honor of a bride-to-be, Miss Reta Purvis, of Orton. The guests were received by the hostess, who was becomingly gowned in black satin, lace and beads, and was assisted by Miss Maisie Black in pretty blue voile. When the guests were seated in the drawing room, several selections were played on the piano and "The Bells of St. Mary's" was sung very sweetly by a chorus of young girls. At the time appointed the guest of honor came in as a march was being played looking very pretty in a blue frock. She took her seat beneath a huge white bell and two pretty little tots, Isabel Mooney and Berniece Black in dainty pink silk, came in with a basket filled with beautiful pieces of silver and presented it to the bride-to-be, who in a suitable little speech thanked all for the lovely gifts. The guests then repaired to the beautifully decorated dining hall, where small tables were artistically arranged with choice pieces of linen, glass, china, silver and cut flowers. Here a most dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. George Lush, in brown satin, and Miss Madge Justin, in blue organdie, poured tea and coffee. The guests were entered to by four pretty young ladies, Misses C. Munro, D. McGill, A. M. Lush and H. Armstrong. Guests were present from Toronto, Guelph, Fergus and Orangeville.—Guelph papers please copy.

A UNIQUE GATHERING

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Algie, of Brampton, formerly of Alton, was the scene of a unique gathering on Monday evening of last week, when Mrs. Algie, as the eldest grandchild of Mrs. Sarah Dale and the late Edward Dale, founder of the Dale Estate, entertained some sixty people representing the four generations of the Dale family. Mrs. Dale herself has reached the remarkable age of 92 years. The gathering was in honour of the return from Los Angeles, Cal., of Mrs. Clara Matthews, daughter of Mrs. Dale, after an absence from Brampton of eighteen years. Mrs. Dale, the aged guest of honor, thoroughly enjoyed the event and the program given by her children and great grandchildren.

WELL DONE DUFFERINS

Green Shirts, With Weakened Team, Tied St. Simons at Lansdowne Beach.

Neither Team Scored During 60 Minutes Regular Game—Each Got a Goal in 20 Minutes Overtime Play.

Dufferins demonstrated conclusively on Saturday that they are a really great lacrosse team. Without the Browns, Dr. Elzn and Earl Stevenson they held the mighty Toronto-St. Simons to a tie on the Sunbury Beach grounds. It was a remarkable game and one of the kind that makes lacrosse history. Both teams went the full eighty minutes without scoring a goal, an event unprecedented in the annals of the national game. Ten minutes overtime brought no change in the situation. In the second ten-minute period a neat bit of combination work gave Golden an opening, which he converted with a shot of deadly speed and accuracy. Half a minute after the face-off, Thom shot for St. Simons. Booth stopped the ball, but it dropped in front of the flags and in the ensuing scuffle someone knocked it into the net. It was a bit of hard luck that deprived The Dufferins of a chance to win a splendid victory under adverse conditions. The period ended without any more scoring and for another ten minute period the teams struggled gamely, but both defences were airtight and neither home had a chance to tally. At the end of the thirty minutes overtime the officials decided there was no use attempting to break the deadlock. In 110 minutes play only two goals were scored and these came inside of 30 seconds. Nothing to equal it ever happened before in lacrosse and it will probably be a long time before the fans have an opportunity to witness another game like it.

The absence of the two Browns, on account of the funeral of Mr. Beatty, head of the firm of Beatty Bros., with which the two home players are connected, was severely felt. To make the matter worse Dr. Elzn was not available Saturday and Earl Stevenson was out of the game on account of an injured knee. The management filled the gap as best they could by placing Cranston on the defence, moving Scott up to centre, shifting Gordon to outside home and placing "Dodo" Brawley, a junior, at inside home. Cranston played in oldtime form and proved a real acquisition to the defence. Brawley is small and light, but a beautiful stick handler and did remarkably well for his first game in senior company. In its report of the game the Mail & Empire says:—

It was the greatest exhibition of defensive playing that has ever been seen in the O. A. L. A. The small score was not due to rawgedness or constant mistakes on the part of the homes. The remarkable thing about the struggle was that such dangerous looking attacks on the part of the homes should have produced so little result. When the passing was loose, it was nearly always because the checking was so close. The defences were fighting their men every inch of the way. The homes bored desperately and got close for many shots but the defences were always there to deflect them or block them. Those that did travel towards the goal were handled in great fashion by "Bill" McArthur and "Bert" Booth. The latter is a stone wall against shots but McArthur did some spectacular net guarding that brought the crowds to their feet again and again.

Gordon Was Held.

Both the defences played such holeproof lacrosse that it would be difficult to pick individuals for special mention. Perhaps the two chief reasons why Orangeville is so hard to score against are Densmore and Cushing. They are big and strong, and they manage always to keep opposing homes from getting unchecked shots. Gordon was the pivot of their attack, and St. Simons set Thom the task of watching him. Not only did Thom hold him, but he also managed to go down several times to help the Saints worry the Orangeville defence. It has already been recorded that Thom pulled the surprise that saved the game in the overtime. The crowds began to leave, when The Dufferins scored, but in less than a minute they had good reason to sit down and stay a little longer. Hayes was steady as a rock, while Dedrick and Hall furnished a gilt-edged brand of defence fielding.

There cannot possibly be a better game of lacrosse this season, clean, hard-fought, heady and exciting, with something doing every minute. The Toronto-St. Simons found that they can hold their own against the best, the best being the flying Dufferins of Orangeville. The line-ups:—

point, Dedrick; cover, Hayes; defence, Toronto-St. Simons—Goal, Bill McArthur; Bockett, Thom and Hall; centre, I. McArthur; home Holmes, H. Scott and Lount; outside, Robertson; inside, W. Scott; extras, Trotter and Smith.

Orangeville—Goal, Booth; point, Cushing; cover, Densmore; defence, Cranston, Black and Henderson; centre, Scott; home, Mitchell, Ewing and Golden; outside, Gordon; inside, Brawley.

Officials—Charlie Querrie and Len Smith.

OFF TO CAMP

Friday morning a detachment of some thirty men left town for Niagara Camp in charge of Capt. (Rev.) T. H. Stewart and Sergt. Fred Scott. Despite lack of training the squad looked quite smart and soldierly as the men paraded Broadway and subsequently marched to the depot, where they entrained about 10.30 a.m. on a special from Owen Sound, which carried the newly formed Grey Regiment some 300 strong and its Pipers Band. The Pipers got off the train here and enlivened the wait at the depot by playing a number of lively airs. The local men form part of the 20th Halton Rifles, which is under the command of Lieut.-Col. Brown, of Georgetown, who will be remembered by our Orangeville readers as Major Brown, one of the officers of the 146th, when that battalion was training here for overseas service. The Orangeville volunteers were:—

Fred Corbett, Edward Ellis, Elmer McKim, Harry Atcheson, Neil Crowe, Frank Ridley, Bert McLean Kenneth Willoughby, George Hogben, Hugh Nesbitt, Fred Jenkins, Harold Bobby, Douglas Hogg, Roy Connop, Will Allan, Edward South, J. A. Menary, Christy McAuley, Will Hargreaves, Ralph Rohmer, Robert Horley, Fred Lewis, George Leighton, Norris Hughes, Roy Ferguson, Edgar, Harrison, J. Jelly, George Kay, H. Fead Douglas McCartney.

Messrs. Hogben, McCauley, Leighton and Hughes went to camp with the Georgetown Band, which is the Rifles Battalion Band. The boys will be at Niagara Camp for nine days and left town looking forward to having a pleasant outing.

ALMOST HELPLESS FROM ST. VITUS DANCE

The Miseries of the Hands, Face and Body Affected.

St. Vitus Dance is a disease of the nerves brought on by a morbid condition of the blood. It is common with children and the weaker girls more frequently than boys. Irritability is frequently one of the first signs noted. The child frets, is quarrelsome and does not sleep well. The jerky movements that characterize the disease come a little later. The limbs and sometimes the whole body jerks spasmodically, and in severe cases the power of speech is affected. Such a child should not be allowed to study, but should be kept quiet, given a nutritious diet, remain out of doors as much as possible. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will help the blood restore the shattered nerves. The value of these pills in cases of this kind is shown by the following statement from Mrs. Frank Reynolds, Windsor, N. S., who says: "When a young girl I suffered very severely from St. Vitus dance. I could not keep still for a moment. If I tried to handle dishes I broke them, and could not safely attempt to hold a thing in my hands. No matter what was done for me I could not control the twitching in my face and body. My parents gave me several remedies, but they did not help me. Then one day my father brought home a half dozen boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. After two boxes had been taken there was an improvement in my condition. By the time the last box was gone, to my own great joy and relief to our family, my condition was normal, and I have since enjoyed good health. I never lose an opportunity to say a good word for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Comfort Costs You Nothing

Usually you pay for comfort and style.
But not in Goodyear Cord Tires.

The comfort from resiliency of these fine tires is a bonus. On the basis of mileage alone they cost less to use. The saving in car-depreciation, the saving in gasoline, the easier riding, are all clear profit to you.

Ask any motorist who uses Goodyear Cords if you want to know what real comfort is. Look over the cars which have been run thousands of miles on Goodyear Cords and note their good mechanical condition.

Inquire regarding Goodyear Cord Tire mileage for economy's sake. Note the tremendous increase in sales of these tires—because they cost less to use.

Certainly truck-owners are not much influenced by comfort or looks in buying tires. But Goodyear Cords dominate the pneumatic truck tire field. That's because both truck and tires cost less in the end.

Mortimer, Honeywood; Vice-Presidents of Municipalities—Amaranth, Herb Hughes, Laurel; East Garafraxa, Presley Donaldson, Waldemar; East Luther, John Lovell, Colbeck; Melancthon, Earl McComb, Melancthon Station; Mono, Thos. Lindsay, Camilla; Mulmur, Paul Gallaugher, Mansfield; Grand Valley, T. C. Hamilton; Shelburne, R. A. Ray; Orangeville, E. A. Robinson.

The Association decided to call a Convention in Shelburne on Friday, July 8th, at which candidates will be nominated for the Legislature and House of Commons.

JUVENILES WON

Orangeville, juveniles showed their mettle in Fergus on Wednesday afternoon, June 15th, when they defeated the Fergus juveniles in a close and keenly contested lacrosse game. The game was a championship fixture. The teams were so evenly matched that full time found them tied, the score standing 2 all. Each team scored a goal in the ten minutes overtime that the officials ordered them to play. In the second ten minute period the Orangeville juveniles scored once, thereby winning the match by 4 to 3. Both teams played clever, snappy lacrosse and the game was well worth watching. The teams were:—

Fergus—Arnold Small, J. J. Atkinson, A. Armstrong, Flewelling, White, Athel Beattie, Stewart Dick, Richardson, Tom. Russell, Curlies. Graham and Farrow, spares.

Dufferins—Goal, Rohmer; point, Henry; coverpoint, Hughes, defence, Crowe and H. Flint; centre, W. Flint; home, Connell and Smith; outside home McKim; inside home, Hogg.

THE MAPLES

The seeding is now a thing of the past. Crops of all kinds are flourishing in this district.

Potato planting is the order of the day.

Reggie Hoare and George Black have joined the ranks of the Motor League with a new Ford and Chevrolet respectively. Success, boys, but remember the speed limit.

Mr. Henry Reid has sold his farm to Mr. Austin Buchanan. Isaac May has purchased Thos. Allen's farm and James Black has bought 75 acres from Isaac Simpson. Messrs. Black and Sons now work and own 300 acres.

MONO MILLS

The Committee of the Mono East Presbyterian Church are busily engaged making preparations for their big lawn party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mills on Tuesday evening, the 28th inst. The services of the David Entertainers have been secured for the program. These concert artists, five in number, who are coming here for the first time, have received a very flattering reception everywhere they have appeared and their presence will no doubt make this one of the best lawn parties of the season. There will also be a number of good speeches and a good time is confidently expected.

Mrs. Jennie Mason, widow of the late R. M. Mason, M. P. P., of Fenelon Falls, is visiting friends here.

Miss Ursie Matheson, who has just completed her course in Toronto University, is home at the Manse.

The Union Sabbath School are holding their annual picnic to Stanley Park, Erin, on Friday afternoon, June 24th. Cars will meet at the S. S. Hall at 12.30 sharp to convey the pupils.

We regret that Miss Edna Gallaugher, of Mansfield, is severing her connection with the school here after discharging the duties of teacher very successfully for three years. During her stay here she has also been a worthy leader among the young people and has given her assistance willingly and freely to every undertaking that has been intended for the good of the community. We understand that she has been engaged in one of the Toronto schools.

LADIES' GARDEN PARTY

The Ladies' Aid of Bowling Green Methodist Church will hold their annual Garden Party at the Menary Homestead, Bowling Green, on Wednesday evening, July 6th. A pleasing program will be provided by Ben Hokes, the great Hawaiian wizard and Miss Violet Simdson, elocutionist. Come and enjoy a good time. Refreshments at booth on grounds. Admission, 35c. and 25c.

COUNTY L. O. L. MEETING

Dufferin County L. O. L. held its semi-annual meeting in L. O. L. No. 635 Lodge room on Saturday afternoon. The attendance was very fair. The business was chiefly of a routine character. The 12th of July Celebration Committee reported that the arrangements were well in hand and that they expected over fifty lodges to spend the day here. The County Master gave a brief report of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge at Niagara and related some of the impressions he received from visits to Primary Lodges. A pleasing feature of the session was the presentation to the Lodge by the County Master, W. Bro. T. H. Bullock, of a County Master's Collar, which was suitably acknowledged by several of those present. W. Bro. Geo. Holmes was elected Treasurer to fill the vacancy left over from the annual meeting.

LIFE MEMBERSHIPS

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Robinson, West Broadway, on Friday afternoon the members of St. Mark's Women's Auxiliary presented Mrs. H. Endacott and Miss Nettie Darraugh with life membership in the Society as a recognition of their zeal and splendid services. About forty ladies were present and a most enjoyable afternoon was spent by all. Mrs. H. F. Tuck read the address to the two ladies who were being so signally honored and Mrs. E. J. Ellis and Mrs. E. A. Robinson presented them with their life membership certificates. Little Miss Ruth Hopkins presented Mrs. Endacott with a gold pin emblematic of membership in the Auxiliary and Master "Myr" Morrow made a similar presentation to Miss Darraugh. Following the presentations refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour was spent by all. Mrs. Lewis poured tea and Misses Ethel Allen, Bertha Allen, Blanche Cameron and Edith Robinson served.

MARSVILLE

On Tuesday of last week there passed away at the Fergus Hospital Everett Robson, eldest son of Mrs. Robson, 9th line, Garafraxa. He was in his 21st year and had been troubled with diabetes for almost 3 years. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon from his mother's residence to McKee's Cemetery.

The Marsville Branch Women's Institute held its summer meeting last Monday afternoon in the Disciple Church and it proved one of the most interesting and beneficial meetings since the organization of this branch. There was a large attendance, about 80 ladies being present. Mrs. Stephen was the speaker and gave an address on "Heredity vs. Environment," and also gave many hints on labor saving devices in the home. The address, though lengthy, was given the closest attention and was appreciated by all present. The Maples Branch will be present on the first Wednesday in July and will give the program. The meeting will be held in the Disciple Church and all members and their friends will be present to enjoy a social evening.

The members of Marsville Court C. O. F. and their friends enjoyed a motor excursion on Saturday to Eugenia Falls. Fifteen autos made the trip and all returned without any mishaps.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered in the Presbyterian Church on Sunday afternoon. The preparatory service was held on the previous Friday afternoon and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. F. C. Harper.

The Horsward and Marsville baseball teams played a friendly game on Friday evening. The game resulted in a victory for the visitors by a score of 9 to 7.

The Grove Church garden party on Fri. day, June 24th, promises to be the best of the season.

Mr. Will Barnes, Miss Barnes and Mrs. Fergrave, of Unionville, and Mr. James Byers, Greenwood, are visiting relatives here and in East Luther. Mr. Byers is a brother of Mr. John Byers, 13th line.

The Women's Missionary Society of Bethel Church met in the hall in Marsville on Tuesday, June 14th, for the purpose of quilting two quilts for their mission box. During the meeting Mrs. A. Oliver, their president, who is about to leave, was presented with the W. M. S. pin, a beautiful bunch of flowers and the following address:

Dear Mrs. Oliver:—We, the members of the W. M. S., have learned that you are about to remove from among us. We could not let this opportunity pass without showing to you in some way the love and respect we hold for you. You have been such a loyal and devoted member of our society that we shall miss you very much. And before going we ask you to accept this pin, not for its value, but as a small token of our respect for you and our prayer is that you may be long spared to usefulness and happiness.

Signed on behalf of our Society,
Mrs. G. Hawes, Sec.
Mrs. J. Edwards, Treas.

At the same time and place the Marsville Women's Institute presented Mrs. Oliver with the Institute pin, a large bunch of flowers and the following address:—

Mrs. A. Oliver:—We, the members of Marsville Branch Women's Institute avail ourselves of this opportunity of expressing to you our regrets at your departure from this community and also desire to express our appreciation of your faithfulness and valuable service in our Institute work. You have been an active member for many years and have always proven yourself a faithful and an unselfish co-worker of this society. During your years of membership you have filled many offices with credit to yourself and to the satisfaction of all. Your genial disposition and kindly manners have endeared you to all your fellow workers. We therefore ask you to accept this pin as a slight token of our regard for you. We trust it will be a remembrance of the pleasant times spent with the members of the Marsville Branch Women's Institute. We wish you and Mr. Oliver may have many happy years to enjoy your new home. We pray that God's richest blessing may ever be with you.

Signed on behalf of the Society,
Mrs. Jos. Taylor, Pres.
Mrs. S. Price, Sec.

IRWIN—EDWARDS

Mr. Dunning Irwin, general merchant in Hockley, and Miss Viola Edwards, of Tottenham, were married on Wednesday, June 15th. The ceremony took place quietly in the Rectory at Lloydtown, Rev. A. C. McCallum, formerly of Mono Mills, officiating. The groom's Hockley friends held an informal reception in honor of the young couple on their arrival home. The Banner wishes Mr. and Mrs. Irwin every happiness.

MURPHY—FENWICK

The marriage of Mr. Insel H. Murphy, Centre Road, Mono and Miss Alice R. Fenwick, graduate nurse of Lord Dufferin Hospital, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fenwick, Maxwell, at high noon on Wednesday, June 22nd. The happy couple left later in the day on a motor trip to Kingston, Ottawa and other points east. On their return they will take up their residence on the Centre Road, Mono. The Banner joins the many friends of the happy couple in extending its hearty good wishes and congratulations.

BREMNER—INRIG

A very pretty wedding took place Thursday evening at the home of Mr. Alexander Inrig, Sussex Ave., Toronto, when his youngest daughter, Catharine, became the bride of Dr. Murray Bremner, Toronto, son of Mrs. Alexander Bremner, Camilla, Ont. Rev. J. Dean officiated in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a lovely gown of kitten's ear crepe, embroidered in seed pearls. The veil of old lace was caught with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of ophelia roses. Her bridesmaid was Miss Winnifred Cooper, in a quaint frock of flowered ice blue organdie. She carried a sheaf of sunset roses. The groom was attended by Mr. Will Inrig. The wedding music was rendered by Rev. Edwin Boettger, of Buffalo, brother-in-law of the bride. During the signing of the register Mrs. (Rev.) S. G. Gole, of Chicago, sister of the groom, sang "O Perfect Love." After the reception the happy couple left on a motoring honeymoon. On their return they will take up their residence at 97 Glendfod Ave., Toronto.

ORANGE GARDEN PARTY

Marsville L. O. L. No. 845 will hold the annual Garden Party on the Marsville School Grounds on Monday evening, July 4th. A second to none program will be provided by the Ionic Quartette, of Brampton, a company of versatile artists, who will present a varied program of classical and standard selections. They will be assisted by Gordon L. Eaton, of the Howard Studio, Hamilton, assisted by Mrs. Eaton. Mr. Eaton is a capital entertainer and will enliven the evening with comic songs and funny sayings. Rev. F. C. Harper, of Hillsburg, will occupy the chair. Reasonable refreshments will be served at a tent on the grounds. Admission, 25 cents, pre war price.

INVITE TO LONDON

Monday morning Lieut. G. H. R. Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Phillips, of Amaranth, received a letter from London, England, containing an invitation to the Third Annual Reunion Dinner of the Independent Force, Royal Air Force, in the Hotel Cecil. The invitation stated that Air Marshall Sir H. M. Trenchard, Commander of the Force, would preside and that H. R. H. the Duke of York had intimated that he would be present. As the Dinner took place on Monday evening Lieut. Phillips had to be content with the honor of the invitation. Phillips, who is an expert airman, was attached to the Independent Force while overseas and it is pleasing to know that the birdmen are so well remembered by those in charge of the arrangements for these annual reunions.

KNOX CHURCH GRAND VALLEY

The Ladies' Aid of Knox Church, Grand Valley, will hold their annual Garden Party on Wm. Crane's on Friday evening, July 15th. The ladies will serve an old-fashioned Supper followed by a good programme. Admission, 50c. and 25c. for children under 10 years.

VALUE OF CO-OPERATION

As a practical demonstration of the value of co-operative shipping of livestock Mr. McNaughton, U. F. O. shipper here, was last week able to get his customers $10.25 per cwt for the hogs shipped by him, while the price offered by other buyers was only $9.00. It pays to co-operate.

LAUREL

The bride of this week, Miss Jean Hughes was presented by her S. S. Class with a beautiful berry bowl and an address one evening last week. On Saturday afternoon a miscellaneous shower was arranged by the young ladies of the League executive and tendered to Miss Hughes, the young people meeting at the home of Mrs. A. D. Harrison and going to the home of the bride-elect, who was delightfully surprised at these tokens of the appreciation of her many girl friends.

Don't forget the Women's Institute picnic to the O. A. College, Guelph, on Friday.

Mr. John Fyfe, of Hamilton is visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. R. Grosskurth, and other friends at Laurel.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Curry, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Brown, are motoring to Philadelphia this week and will spend a couple of weeks with friends there.

Mrs. G. Nelson, Miss Ruth and Master Newton are spending a week at their old home here.

We are pleased to know that Mrs. Wylie Wallace has returned from the Lord Dufferin Hospital very much improved in health.

We are looking forward to the coming garden party on June 29th and hope that the weather will be kind on that date.

A number of the members of the Laurel Women's Institute attended the meeting at The Maples Community Hall, where Mrs. Laura Rose Stephens gave an excellent address on "Household Economics" and "The Boy and Girl Problem." It was a great pleasure to listen to such an able and experienced speaker. Mrs. Stephens is one of the oldest Institute workers in Ontario.

ADD LAUREL

Rev. Dr. Wallace, of Toronto, who is conducting anniversary services in Laurel Presbyterian Church next Sabbath, will address a union open air service of the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations at 7 o'clock in the evening in Maltby's orchard. All the people of the community are heartily invited to attend.

IS THERE A BABY IN YOUR HOME?

Is there a baby or young children in your home? If there is you should not be without a box of Baby's Own Tablets. Childhood ailments come quickly and means should always be at hand to promptly fight them. Baby's Own Tablets are the ideal home remedy. They regulate the bowels; sweeten the stomach; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fevers—in fact they relieve all the minor ills of little ones. Concerning them Mrs. Moise Cadotte, Makamick, Que., writes: "Baby's Own Tablets are the best remedy in the world for little ones. My baby suffered terribly from indigestion and vomiting, but the Tablets soon set her right and now she is in perfect health." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. Brockville, Ont.

A Bad Case

Eczema All Over His Body—His Legs—His Arms Covered

John Clark of Brockville, N. B., crowds a story of great suffering into a few words.

"I was tormented beyond words. I could not sleep. You could not put a pin on my whole body. I tried several doctors. They said it was scrofula. Three dollar bottles of D. D. D. is all I used. I have not had a sore for five months."

Each week we are selecting a letter from some Canadian sufferer to show what can be done to itching, burning skin disease by the clear, purifying liquid wash, D. D. D.

Stop that itch today. You are not asked to use D. D. D. for weeks before you receive results. If you don't get relief from the very first bottle we hand your money back. $1.00 a bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

LIFE WAS A MISERY TO HER

Says this Woman Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Owen Sound, Ont.—"I suffered for ten years with female organic trouble, neuralgia and indigestion, and was weak and had such bad pains I could hardly walk or stand up at times. When I would sweep I would have to go and lie down. I could not sleep at night, and would wander around the house half the time. I tried everything but nothing did me any good, and the last doctor I had told me he never expected me to be on my feet again or able to do a day's work. One day one of your little books was left at my door and my husband said I should try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I thank God I did, for it relieved me, and I am now well and strong. I think there is no remedy like the Vegetable Compound for anyone who has my troubles, and have recommended it to my neighbors. You can publish my letter for the benefit of those I can't reach." —Mrs. HENRY A. MITCHELL, 1767 7th Ave., East, Owen Sound, Ont.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

On Sunday, June 19th, a memorial tablet to the memory of the late Rev. Hector Currie, who was minister of Knox Church, Thedford, for 35 years was unveiled.

STRUCK BY BALL

Sad Fatality at Arthur Public School

To see her only son leave for school after the noon hour, in particularly good spirits because he had taken a full one hundred per cent. on a test examination in the morning and then to have his lifeless body brought back home in less than three hours was the terrible experience which fell to the lot of Mrs. Jas. Holloway on Monday afternoon. His father was at the time working some miles from town in Peel township and when the accident happened a car was sent for him at once and he was brought back to the home which had been so suddenly and irreparably saddened since his departure in the morning.

Menna, the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Holloway, a bright boy of twelve years of age, was playing baseball on the school campus during the afternoon recess period. He was running from first to second base when the boy at the bat drove the ball down the field with a heavy strike. It struck the unfortunate boy over the heart and he fell to the ground. He was carried under a tree where he expired in about five minutes. Dr. Allan was sent for but life was extinct long before he arrived. Principal Rogerson and his assistants did everything possible to resuscitate the boy but he never revived. The fatality is one of the saddest in the town's history, and words cannot too strongly express the sympathy felt for Mr. and Mrs. Holloway and their little daughter, now their only surviving child, in the great bereavement they have sustained. Menna was a particularly bright and attractive boy, who was a general favorite with his schoolmates and companions. — Arthur Enterprise-News.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

MONO MILLS.

Those who were present at the unveiling of the Soldiers' Memorial on Victoria Day will be interested in the following letters, which have been received by the Committee:—

30 Benlomond Ave.,
Toronto, May 18, 1921.

Dear Mr. Vance,—

I am very glad to hear that the Soldiers' Memorial is now in place and ready for the ceremony of unveiling.

Will you please convey to the Committee my thanks for the honor that has been conferred upon me in selecting me to unveil the Memorial.

I appreciate the favor very highly and regret exceedingly that it does not seem possible to accept the invitation.

I hope this may not put you to any inconvenience. Again thanking you.

Very sincerely yours,
S. A. ROGERS

Collingwood, Ont.,
May 25th, 1921

Dear Mr. Vance,—

Yesterday when I phoned you about 11 a.m. following upon the breakdown of my car I thought it impossible to reach Mono Mills in time, but following our conversation at 12 noon, I ordered a car from Collingwood and started from here at 1 p.m. We live over five miles out from town. We arrived at Shelburne at 4 p.m. and thinking it useless to continue at that hour I returned. I am not attempting to apologize for disappointing you, but I'm sorry that things turned out as they did, and I trust that you had a pleasant and successful day notwithstanding.

Dixie, Ont.,
May 23rd, 1921

Dear Mr. Vance,—

I am very sorry I will be unable to leave home to-morrow.

Yours,

BOOZE COSTS HIGH

George Morrison was the first one to find out in Magistrate Crawford's Court that it comes higher now to sell booze, although the high cost of living is going down. Morrison, who hales from Orangeville, had appeared on two other occasions, but was unable to produce some of the facts desired by the bench. On Monday of last week sufficient evidence was produced to satisfy the magistrate that Morrison must enjoy the honor of paying the first fine under the Ontario Temperance Act, and he muleted the offender $200.—Brampton Conservator.

BONAR LAW

Nova Scotian Who Might Have Been British Premier—Poor Orator, But Brain Crammed With Facts.

A Nova Scotian "blue-nose" by birth, but by adoption a Scotchman, who has soaked in the traditions of stern Caledonia since the age of 12, when he went to live in Glasgow, Bonar Law enjoys the distinction of being not only the first Canadian-born, but the first Britisher born outside the British Isles to become a Minister in the British Cabinet. Bonar Law learned the iron-founding business in Glasgow, early made a snug fortune and entered politics. The dour atmosphere of the iron foundry in that smoky, foggy city by the Clyde has certainly set its mark on the character of the erstwhile Canadian.

Close Friend of Beaverbrook.

For an uninteresting man Bonar Law has had a very interesting career. A friend and political associate of his fellow-countryman, Lord Beaverbrook, in whose London financial offices, by the way, one of Law's sons was for a time located, Bonar Law (born in 1858, and so about 20 years older) is in striking contrast to the man from Beaver Creek, N. B. Max is aggressive, a pusher, and something new in British politics. Law, on the other hand, strikes one as being a very conventional type of capable Scotchman, almost retiring in his disposition. One quality they possess in common—they are both hard-headed business men. Moreover, they are both sons of Maritime Provinre Presbyterian ministers.

Unemotional Speaker is Law

A tall, thin, pallid man, Andrew Bonar Law, who resigned the office of Privy Seal the other day, is not the kind of orator to arouse enthusiasm in the House. And since he first came on the political scene in England, in 1900, his speeches have given rise to few salvos of "Hear, hear." During the anxious days of the war, when stormy debates shook the Commons, and when a Telegram man has heard Lloyd George, Asquith, Carson, the Redmonds and other great masters of words thrill the House with their oratory, Bonar Law was always the precise, unemotional speaker — mincing at times.

Brain Crammed With Information.

But behind that placid delivery of his is a keen mind stocked full of valuable information. Bonar Law is a veritable walking encyclopaedia. Hard facts are his specialty, and he can always dig up statistics upon any subject. It was by unloosing some vital information regarding sugar duties during a dry debate in 1900 that Bonar Law, the new Unionist member for Blackfriars, in 1900, evoked applause from a jaded House, and made a reputation for himself in just 30 minutes.

Law Might Have Been Premier

When Arthur James Balfour retired from the leadership of the Tories in 1917, sys a writer in the Kansas City Star, commenting on Law's career, he selected the grave Nova Scotian as his successor. It thus became Law's duty to sit across from the Ministerial bench, and by interrogating the Government on every conceivable matter, to make the Premier as uncomfortable as possible. In May, 1915, when the coalition Government was formed, he relinquished his post as leader of the Opposition and accepted the portfolio of Secretary of State for the Colonies. At this juncture Bonar Law very nearly approached being Prime Minster. The Northcliffe press was fiercely assailing Asquith. The war was not going too well. A strong man was needed to head the Gvernment. And Bonar Law's name was frequently mentioned. In fact, immediately after Asquith resigned, later in the year, Law was summoned to an audience with the King, which looked tatamount to his appointment. But Lloyd George emerged. Apparetnly Bonar Law had declined the responsibility in favor of the brilliant orator and versatile statesman who brought the Empire safely through the war

S. S. CONVENTION

The annual Convention of the Mono Township S. S. Association was held in Mono Mills Presbyterian Church on Thursday, June 16th. Both afternoon and evening sessions were interesting, profitable and well attended. Miss M. Taggart, superintendent of Girls' Work of the Ontario Religious Education Council, spoke particularly on Girls' Work, giving many helpful suggestions. Miss Ethel Allen's vocal solos were much appreciated and Rev. J. W. Edwards' address on "The Greatest Industry in the World" was followed very closely. A thoughtful and inspiring address by Rev. C. W. Holdsworth, of Islington, on "Some Essentials in the Life and Character of the Sunday School Teacher" was one of the main features of the evening program. The Mono Mills Sunday School workers entertained the delegates in a very hospitable manner, serving an excellent tea between sessions. The following officers were appointed for the next year:—President, Rev. J. W. Edwards; Vice-President, Mr. J. A. Marshall; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. W. J. Bower; Girls' Department, Mrs. D. N. Potter; Boys' Department, Rev. Wm. Coutts; Adult Department, Mr. Jas. Wise; Home Department, Mrs. Samuel Irwin; Teacher Training, Rev. H. L. Partridge; Missionary Department, Rev. T. H. Stewart; Temperance Department, Rev. D. C. Atkinson; Elementary Division, Mrs. Robbert Andersen.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Noble, of Bolsover, wish to tender their grateful thanks to their friends and the neighbors of the community for their kindness and assistance during the illness and since the death of their little son, Lorne.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crombie and family, of Mono Mills, wish to thank their many friends for their kindness and sympathy during their recent bereavement.

MRS. JAMES CROMBIE

Mrs. Martha Crombie, widow of the late James Crombie, one of the pioneer settlers of Amaranth, passed away at the home of her son, Mr. Charles Crombie, of Mono Mills, on Monday night, June 13th, in the 93rd year of 90 years. Despite her advanced years she retained the full possession of her mental faculties and her usual good health almost to the last. She had resided on lot 13, 2nd Mne, Amaranth, for fifty years. During her long residence in that township she had made many warm friends, who will keenly regret the event of her demise. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. W. T. Johnston, of Whittington, and two sons, Samuel Crombie, of Munsee, Alta., and Charles of Mono Mills. The funeral was held from the latter's residence to Whittington Cemetery on Wednesday, June 15th, Rev. Peter Tiller, of Mono Mills, officiating. The pallbearers were Messrs. Geo. Crozier, John Reid and Henry Bake, of Mono Mills, and Wm. Phillips, R. J. Wallace and S. J. Cruikshank, of Whittington.

ABRAHAM REID

Mr. Abraham Reid, an old resident of Mono township, passed away in Hamilton on Monday evening after an illness of eight months or longer. He was 76 years of age and is survived by his wife and a family of six sons and one daughter. The members of the family are Fred W., of Reston, Man.; Charles, of Caledon; Abraham and Arthur, of Mono; Joseph, of Toronto; William, of Hamilton, and Mrs. William Norsworthy of Orangeville.

Deceased was a native of Cambridge, England. He came to Canada when about 25 years of age, lived in Brampton for a few years and then settled on lot 4, 2nd Hne, east, Mono, where he resided up to the time of his last illness. He was a kindly man, straightforward and honorable in his dealings with his fellows and a first-class neighbor and citizen. He had a cheery, genial manner, which won him many friends, who will keenly regret the event of his demise and who extend heartfelt sympathy to the widow and family in their affliction. The funeral was held from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Norsworthy, Mill St., to the Forest Lawn Cemetery, yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon, Rev. H. L. Partridge conducting the services at the house and grave.

THOMAS SMITH

Thomas Smith, of Erin, whose sudden death between 5 and 6 o'clock on Monday evening, June 13th, was briefly noted in last week's Banner, farmed the greater part of his life in East Garafraxa. He was born in Greenock County, Kentucky, on February 6th, 1854, but when one year old came to Canada with his parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, early settlers on the 17th line, East Garafraxa. Seven years ago he gave up farming on account of indifferent health and moved to Erin village, where he has since resided. Deceased was 67 years of age, was twice married and is survived by a widow, but no family. He was an honest, hard-working man and an excellent neighbor. Besides his wife he is survived by one brother, William, of East Garafraxa, and four sisters, Mrs. Jas. Charters, of Siloam, Mich., Mrs. Latter, of Mahnska, Alta., Mrs. Chas. Clegg, of Toronto, and Mrs. Phillip G. Coulson, of Caledon. The funeral was held to Greenwood Cemetery on Wednesday following his death, Rev. J. Lindsay and Rev. Mr. Jewett, of Erin, being the officiating clergymen. The pallbearers were Messrs. Long, Beer, Longstreet Albert Dyer, Arch. Reid and P. G. Coulson.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of May Walker, beloved wife of Alex. McDonald, who passed away at Erin, June 17th, 1920.

We watched her suffer day by day,
It caused us bitter grief,
To see her slowly pine away,
And could not give relief.

Not dead to us, we love her still,
Not lost but gone before,
She lives with us in memory,
And will for ever more.

Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears of sorrow often flow,
Memory keeps our loved one near us,
Whom God claimed one year ago.

Sadly missed by husband, sisters and brother.

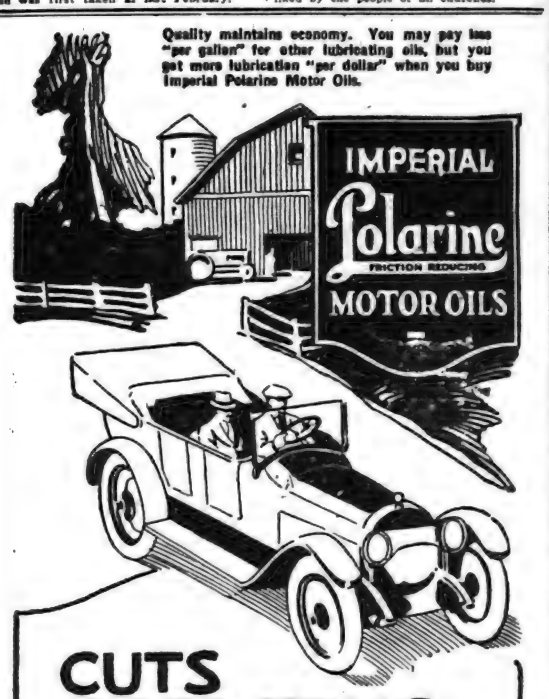
—Dufferin County Council is in session this week.

Quality maintains economy. You may pay less "per gallon" for other lubricating oils, but you get more lubrication "per dollar" when you buy Imperial Polarine Motor Oils.



CUTS OPERATING COSTS-

THE economy of using Imperial Polarine Motor Oils extends over practically every item of motor operation.

The lubrication afforded at every friction point and the gas-tight piston-to-cylinder seal means a big saving in fuel bills and a noticeable increase of power.

Through perfect protection of all motor parts, undue repair bills are avoided and depreciation is greatly reduced. By using Imperial Polarine Motor Oils you can save dollars this year on maintenance alone. Besides, you realize more profit and greater usefulness from your car.

Always use the grade of Imperial Polarine recommended on our Charts for your type of motor. See Charts at your dealer's or write to 56 Church Street, Toronto, for a copy of our interesting booklet, "Automotive Lubrication," which contains the complete Chart of Recommendations.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED
BRANCHES IN ALL CITIES

WE GIVE IMPERIAL Polarine MAKES A GOOD CAR BETTER CRANK-CASE SERVICE

For a Clean, Efficient Motor

Dealers displaying this sign will thoroughly clean the old oil and the grit and the dirt out of your crank-case; will flush your motor crank-case with Imperial Flushing Oil and refill it with fresh lubricating oil. Your crank-case should be cleaned every 1,000 miles or less. It means more economy and more satisfaction to employ Imperial Polarine Crank-Case Cleaning Service.

The NEW EDISON "The Phonograph with a Soul"

Mr. Edison's $10,000 Prize Offer

Too tired to get dinner Music brings back the "pep"

THE illustrations show what good music will do for you. The New Edison is so perfect an instrumentality that it enables you to utilize the power of good music to improve your mood, brighten your spirits, and refresh your body.

Mr. Edison wants a phrase of 4 or 5 words that will distinguish the New Edison from talking machines, and emphasize the fact that it is an instrumentality by which the true beauties and the full benefits of music can be brought into every home. Come to our store and get a folder that gives full particulars of Mr. Edison's $10,000 Prize Offer.

Three days of Music Free

If you do not own a New Edison, mail or bring us this coupon, and we will gladly loan you an instrument for three days, in order that you may experiment with it in your home, and learn what music will do for you. This experience may make it easier for you to win a prize.

Act quickly, as the number of instruments which we can lend is limited. Remember, you assume no expense or obligation.

ADAMSON HARDWARE CO.

2. Grading of pupils. Such a school provides better grading and thus a fair amount of time to all the pupils. In the ungraded school with ten or eleven classes, requiring four lessons each per day, the teacher would have an average of eight minutes for each class, or 32 minutes of the day given to each grade. With a three or four roomed school teachers could be given three or four classes each and consequently devote more time to the pupils. There could be a fifth class or a continuation class in such a school. This is not a fact in Guelph, because of the close proximity of the collegiate institute which the pupils can easily attend when they pass the entrance examination, but in a wholly Rural environment there could be a continuation class so that pupils could take their Normal Entrance examination without having to leave home.

3. Gardening. Mr. Craig admitted that he was not always in favor of Consolidated Schools and many of these so called fads, such as gardening, manual training and household science, but finds there is an educational value in taking the children into the yard for the beautifying of the grounds. It not only improves the appearance of the school premises but has a cultural value for the pupils themselves. Agriculture is now taught in forty out of the sixty schools of Mr. Craig's Inspectorate and he finds that it does not prevent the children from attaining a good standard in the Three "R's."

4. Manual Training and Household Science. Very little time is lost in having the boys and girls take these subjects. They take a keen interest in the work they are taught to do with their hands and the articles made by the children in these departments, according to measurement and under the direction of the teacher are found in many cases to be superior to anything done by those of more mature years. The girls in the Household Science Class, said Mr. Craig, can make better bread now than their mothers and this is saying a great deal in South Wellington, for no better bread is made anywhere else in the province.

Mr. Craig stated that Consolidated Schools might cost more but there would be better returns for the money invested. There are schools in South Wellington with an average attendance of 9 costing over $1000 a year for maintenance and thus amounting to more than $100 per pupil. The Consolidated School has an average attendance of 120 and costs $5000 a year which comes to $41.50 per pupil and a better training for the children. He had no hesitation in stating that consolidation of schools is the solution of the problem of Rural education in Ontario.

Mr. Peter Boyer, of Moorefield, took part in the dicussion. He said he came from Maryboro Township and represented School Section No. 19, decided that it is utterally impracticable in the township of Maryboro. The people of this section have studied the question of consolidation and chiefly on account of the roads. He also said "If some of the agitators for consolidation would migrate to the country, purchase farms and begin to pay off mortgages, they would have less time to go about advocating consolidation."

Financing Secondary Education—J. N. MacKendrick, Galt.

A very large percentage of the High School pupils of Ontario come from Rural districts and yet the Rural population of Ontario does not pay its fair share for the maintenance of the High Schools of the province. It is gratifying to know that some counties, through their county councils, make a grant for the maintenance of High Schools and Continuation Schools within the county over and above the grant equivalent to the Government grant which they are required to give. Such counties as Waterloo, Huron, Prince Edward and Dufferin make extra grants to the High Schools and Continuation Schools within their bounds because of the large percentage of Rural pupils in attendance. It is reasonable to believe that other counties are willing to do likewise if the matter were clearly placed before them.

Some thirty years ago the High Schools of Ontario were supported by a district consisting of the town or village in which the High School was situated and several adjoining townships. About that time a clause was introduced into the High School Act which allowed county councils to detach from a High School district any municipality which so requested. The result was that High School districts were quickly reduced to the town which contained the High School and consequently the support of the High School had to be undertaken very largely by the town.

In the meantime the provincial grants to High Schools were greatly reduced from 44 per cent. of the cost of maintenance to 6.2 per cent., while the annual expenditure to maintain these institutions greatly increased. There are two main divisions to be considered in reckoning the cost of secondary education:

1. The maintenance of the school, including the salaries of teachers, fuel, insurance and ordinary repairs.

2. The cost of ground and buildings, interest on debentures, the ventilation system, scientific apparatus, school furniture and permanent improvements.

The municipality providing the High School has had to bear the total cost of No. 2, while counties from which Rural pupils came were required to pay the total cost of education so far as No. 1 is concerned, while municipalities sending pupils to a High School or Collegiate Institute situated in a separate town or city were asked to pay only 80 per cent. of No. 1.

An Act was passed by the Legislature of Ontario last session amending the school law to the effect that counties shall pay the same amount for the maintenance of schools and also 80 per cent. of the cost of permanent improvement and for providing the interest payable on debentures.

Dr. MacDougall, of Harriston, led in the discussion and said that only those who have taken part in financing secondary schools realize what a great responsibility rests upon School Boards. There are some who advocate the closing of our High Schools because of the heavy taxation upon the municipalities supporting them. The Teachers' Federation that has been recently formed, byt which teachers have drawn up a covenant fixing a minimum salary for all grades of schools, is compelling School Boards all over the province to raise the salaries. There is no doubt that teachers have been underpaid in the past, but it is a great undertaking to educate public opinion sufficiently for a municipality to bear a heavier burden in financing these institutions. School Boards are at the mercy of the Federation. The secretary of the Federation tells the Board the salary it must give, but it is the Board that has to guarantee the amount, not the secretary of the Teachers' Federation. It is a very serious problem for High Schools in small towns. They are finding it hard to carry on between the demands of the teachers on the one hand and an indifferent public on the other hand. School Boards want to do the best they can for the youth of our province and need the sympathetic support of the parents and ratepayers in this task.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Corbett, Proton, on Wednesday, June 8th, at 4.30 p.m., when their elder daughter, M. Louise, became the bride of Glenn G. Montgomery, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Montgomery, Melancthon.

Geo. Spence, who was born in Sydenham township about 70 years ago, and had lived there all his life, died at the General and Marine Hospital, Owen Sound.

GOODMAN–HARRIS

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander Harris, Evelyn Avenue, Toronto, the marriage took place at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon, June 15th, of their daughter, Lillian Naomi, to Mr. William H. Goodman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Goodman, Toronto. Rev. R. Newton Powell officiated. Miss Eva M. Goodman played the wedding march, and a violin solo, "Salut d'Amour," was played by Mrs. Edna Harris Wheatley. The bride wore Duchess satin with silver lace and pearl embroideries, and veil and orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of Ophelia roses and lily of the valley. Miss Jenny L. Goodman, as bridesmaid, wore pink satin, with pink georgette picture hat and carried pink roses. Mr. Willard Finch was best man. Following the honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Goodman will reside at 68 Waverley Road. The groom is a grandson of the late John Goodman, of Orangeville.

BELFOUNTAIN

The passing of Robert Western Brock at his home in Belfountain on May 21st, after an illness extending over two years, removes one of Caledon Township's well known residents. Born in Glen's Falls, N. Y., nearly 82 years ago, at the age of ten he, with his parents, came to Canada, settling at Kingston, Ont. A few years later, however, he removed to Belfountain. In 1860 he married Miss Jane Eagles, who predeceased him some eighteen years ago. A family of five sons and two daughters was the result of this union. A second marriage took place in 1905, with Mrs. Jessie McMaster, of Hillsburg, Ont., who survives him. The other surviving members of the family are Charles and Samuel, Belfountain; Mrs. Gledhill, Kenora, Ontario, and Mrs. Frank Thornhill, of Bellingham, Wash.

ENDS HIS LIFE

Soldier and Public Official Could Not Face Disgrace.

Driven from his office at Osgoode Hall, from his family nad home at 1 Bain avenue, from his friends and from the city by the knowledge that there were irregularities in his accounts Major Edward O. Reid, accountant of the Public Trustees' Office, after wandering a week, took poison on the brow of Lewiston mountain, just opposite the Niagara Falls Country Club, last Wednesday afternoon His body, still warm, was found by a party of motorists who were picnicing.

A note to his family, found in his notebook, read: "The sun has set on this dreadful day. Dearest of been dreadful of me to run away, women, four sweetest of children, forget quickly a bad daddy. It has but I know that I am much better out of your life. Perhaps a good Lord will send someone who will be worthy of your affection and kindness. Kiss yourself for daddy and think kindly of me. Good-bye and God bless you. Daddy."

Major Reid was through the South African War and was in the recent Great War with the 52nd Battalion. He had lost a leg and was a member of the Amputation Association. On his return to Canada he was first given a post on the Soldiers' Aid Commission, from which he was transferred to his recent post. He was 41 years old.

The Trustees' Office does everything that a trust company does. It looks after estates, and much money and many valuables pass through the office. Those competent to judge, say that the system in vogue in the office is absolutely indefensive, as there was no check whatever upon the accountant. In this way Reid was constantly exposed to temptation.

He had recently been asking for a considerable increase in salary, and, it is thought that he wanted this to cover up the irregularities which are said to amount to not more than one or two thousand dollars. While under suspension, it is stated that, because of his military record, prosecution was not contemplated by the bonding company, but a warrant was issued when he cashed, at Niagara Falls, a worthless cheque for $200. On Monday a letter was received here, intimating his intention to end his life.

—A senior lacrosse match and a junior championship lacrosse game between Orangeville and Shelburne will be among the attractions for the Dominion Day Celebration in Orangeville.

EVERYBODY SEES A CHANGE IN FATHER

Grateful Son Says His Father Looks Like Different Man Since Taking Tanlac.

"My father has suffered from chronic stomach trouble for over twenty years and has paid out thousands of dollars for medicine and doctors," said G. W Slayton, a well known Cobb County farmer, living a short distance out of Atlanta, Ga.

"We tried nearly everything trying to cure him and he went of to the Springs, thinking maybe the water might help him but it just looked like nothing would reach his trouble Then he tried dieting and lived on liquid food until he almost starved, but even that failed to do him any good and he just kept going from bad to worse.

"I don't guess there ever was a case as stubborn as his and if there ever was a confirmed dyspeptic, he was one of them and I guess he would have been one yet if it hadn't been for this Tanlac.

"The first we heard of this medicine was when my father saw an advertisement in the papers from parties he knew in Tennessee, who were friends of his and he knew what they said about it was the truth so he got it right away and began taking it. Well, sir, it acted just like magic—everybody notices the change in father. Why, he is just like a different man and sits down to the table and eats like a farm hand. Only yesterday he ate pork and turnips for his dinner and ate so much we were actually afraid he was going to over-do the thing but he laughed and said nothing hurt him now and that he was hungry and expected to eat and make up for lost time.

"Now, when a medicine will do things like that I think people ought to know about it and I want to say right now that I would not give one bottle of Tanlac for all the other medicines and health resorts in the country put together."

Palmerston Spectator—Mr. M. Beckett, of Owen Sound, Provincial Inspector under the O. T. A., paid Palmerston a visit on Saturday and as a result a citizen added $500 to the provincial treasury and a considerable amount of wet goods to the already large stock of the province.

An accident occurred last week on the farm of Mr. James McMahon, near Palgrave, when his three year old son was injured by the knives of a mower driven by the father. The little boy wandered into the hay field, where his father was working and was not noticed until caught by the knives of the machine. His leg was terribly lacerated. Dr. Reynar was called and the boy was at once taken to the Hospital for Sick Children.

A district farmer of a jocular turn of mind was making merry while in Cobourg last week, over the fact that for two bags of potatoes he received sufficient cash to get a hair-cut. He sold two bags of potatoes at 25c. a bag, and paid out the 50c. for a hair-cut. A shave would have required another bag of potatoes, leaving a nickle change. A number of farmers disposed of their surplus potatoes by hauling them in to town, as a local exporter was shipping them from there and from Grafton. Twenty-five cents a bag was the price received.

Mr. Chamberlain, of the Chamberlain Oil Company, Shelburne, was in Flesherton on Friday, and in company with his expert, Mr. Monroe, of Toledo, Ohio, gave the Advance a call. They were up on an investigating visit to the oil prospects there. The work was shut down for a couple of days, but considerable oil was brought up last week by the sand pump and the operators are quite sanguine that when the hole is cleared out oil will be found in considerable quantity —just how much is the question to be decided.

A local fisherman is wondering what he had on his hook the other day, and it is keeping him awake at nights dreaming about whales and porpoises with red spots on them. It will never be settled definitely and we would advise him to cease thinking about it before he catches neurasthenia or some other bad nerve disease. The facts are these: To begin with, he was fishing in the hydro pond, when he felt two heavy tugs at his line. He tried to snag Mr. Fish but found his line come away freely. Leaving it in the water for a few moments he decided to examine his bait. Drawing it up, he found the hook caught in the tail of a five inch catfish which was dead and half digested. The question which gives him nightmare is, what size was the fish that had the cat fish corralled and whose breakfast was so ruthlessly pulled away by the tail from his interior. It would be interesting to know.—Flesherton Advance.

A woman inmate of the House of Refuge fled from the institution one night recently and is understood to be staying with friends in Teeswater. While everybody was sleeping soundly she is believed to have slipped down a fire-escape and made a quick getaway.

Little Willie Welton, of Flesherton was again moved to the Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, last week, for retreatment of his broken jaw. The Advance says that it is a long time since that village has been so stirred with indignation as it has been during this case.

The C. P. R. has of recent years been shortening up the names of its stations, and in recent timetables the "Hill" has been removed from Vankleek Hill, and it now appears Vankleek only. The change will probably be adopted locally in course of time.

West Oxford farmers will organize a company known as the Beachville Co-operative Co., and capitalized at $40,000.

Lightning, striking the barn of Dan Plain, near Shedden, burned the building to the ground with all the crops and cattle.

Evidence of the extent of the famine in China is furnished by the fact that 1,460,000 persons died of starvation and 5,340,000 were kept alive eating grass, chaff, etc. Canada has reason to rejoice that such calamities have been escaped here.

Street car conductors in Ottawa have been ordered to desist from putting their hands about the waist of a lady to aid her in boarding a car. The railway company are now wondering why so many Ottawa ladies walk instead of using the electric railway.

A report presented to the Presbyterian General Assembly showed that the number of divinity students attending Presbyterian colleges was less than it was 40 years ago. In 1881 the number was 28 for every ten thousand Presbyterian families; in 1921 it was only 7.

A horse belonging to Fawcett's livery, Flesherton, dropped backwards through a covered well on the livery property early a week ago Saturday morning and went down up to its ears. Fortunately there was a block and tackle on the premises and with the assistance of eight or ten men the animal was hoisted from its very uncomfortable position and is apparently none the worse for its drop.

Joseph St. Louis, now serving a five-year term in the Kingston penitentiary, was brought to L'Original last week and appeared before Police Magistrate B. R. Poulin to answer to the charge of having robbed the Bank Nationale at Bourget last June. He pleaded guilty to the charge and was sentenced to five years in the penitentiary at Kingston, the sentence to run concurrently with the one he is now serving for the Ottawa robbery.

SIGN OF TROUBLE

"Somebody is ringing the front door-bell."

"Must be a collector or a peddler.'

"What makes you think so?"

"If it was anyone I knew or wanted to see he wouldn't ring the bell; he'd just sit out in his car and honk his horn."

—Collingwood Kilties' Band and Orangeville Citizens' Band will provide the music for Orangeville's Dominion Day Celebration.

ABLE TO DO HER WORK

After Long Suffering Mrs. Peasey Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Toronto, Ont.—"I suffered with irregular menstruation, was weak and run down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains, so bad I sometimes thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two or three years and could not seem to work. I tried all kinds of medicines and had been treated by physicians but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I received the best results from it and now I keep house and go out to work and am like a new woman. I have recommended your Vegetable Compound to my friends and if these facts will help some poor woman use them as you please."—Mrs. J. F. PEASEY, 387 King St., Toronto, Ontario.

If you are one of these women do not suffer for four or five years as Mrs. Peasey did, but profit by her experience and be restored to health.

NEPONSET ROOFS

For Buildings of All Kinds

For sloping roofs on residences, garages, bungalows, or public buildings, Neponset Twin Shingles make as handsome and durable a roof as it is possible to find anywhere — and they are most economical.

Neponset Twin Shingles are impregnated with asphalt and heavily surfaced with crushed slate. No wonder they resist time and wear. Their natural slate-red and slate-green colors are restful and beautiful.

They will not catch fire from falling sparks. Because they are two shingles in one and self-spacing, they require less labor and less nails to lay.

U. F. O. PICNIC

Five Thousand People Gather To Hear Premier Drury Last Thursday.

Picnic in T. K. Slack's Grove a Huge Success.

It is estimated that fully five thousand people attended the big U. F. O. picnic in the grove of Mr. T. K. Slack, M. L. A. for Dufferin, near Melancthon Station last Thursday afternoon The Picnic, which was held under the joint auspices of the U. F. O. and the U. F. W. O., was in every respect a huge success. Splendid attractions were provided both afternoon and evening. Music was provided in the afternoon by Shelburne Citizens' Band and the Honeywood Band and the entertainment included baseball and lacrosse matches. A combination Laurel and Shelburne baseball team defeated the Honeywood team by a score of 3 to 2. A Dundalk baseball nine took the measure of a Toronto team representing the U. F. O. Co-operative Sales Staff by a score of 10 to 1. In the lacrosse match the speedy Shelburne Juniors worsted a team of Brampton intermediates by 10 to 1.

Interest in the sports was, however, subordinate to the interest aroused by the visit of Premier Drury who attended the picnic as the guest of Mr. Slack and was the chief speaker of the afternoon. Mr. J. M. McNaughton presided and in addition to the Premier Mrs. H. L. Laws, Provincial Secretary of the U. F. W. O., who was introduced by Mrs. M. J. Matthews, President of Melancthon U. F. W. O., Mr. Slack and Mr. R. H. Halbert, M. P. for North Ontario, addressed the gathering. On rising to speak, the Premier was accorded an enthusiastic reception and was presented with an address expressing appreciation of his services to the people of Ontario. This address was read by Mr. W. G. Noble.

"The growth of the U. F. O.," the Premier said, "had marked a desire to clean up Canadian public life, to stop 'playing politics,' and to see that all the cards were put on the table and handled in an open and above-board manner.

"But now," he said, "the movement stands for something bigger than the interests of the farm people or any other class. In striving for good government, don't turn your backs on the help of other citizens."

For the most part Mr. Drury devoted himself to a discussion of expenditure, highways, radials, and the timber probe. After pointing out that the only controllable increase in expenditure which his government had made was an item of $1,600,000 in the subsidy to education, most of which was spent on the improvement of rural schools, the Premier recalled Hon. G. Howard Ferguson's oft-repeated accusation that the government were "terrible spendthrifts."

"If we only had the money now," said he, "which Mr. Ferguson allowed to slip through the fingers of the province in the north country we'd be able to do a great deal more spending in the interests of the people. Before the session opened Mr. Ferguson said he'd have my hide. But before the session was over he was as meek as Moses. In referring to the timber probe, however, he has said many things which he shouldn't have said in decency."

The premier announced that the government had now started out to reorganize the system in Mr. Ferguson's former department in such a way as to prevent scalers from signing affidavits concerning whose accuracy they were ignorant and to stop lumbermen from cutting over the line to trespass with comparative impunity.

"I've been talking more about Mr. Ferguson than about Mr. Dewart," he proceeded, "but the fact is we received no quarter from either of them. Whenever a chance occurred to make it awkward for us they both always took advantage of it."

Turning to the radial question, the Premier laughingly remarked that the appointment of the Sutherland commision of investigation had brought down on the government's head "the wrath of the city press and the hysterical shoutings of a large portion of the city population." He considered, however, that the commission would be well worth whatever it might cost, since the evidence which had been adduced before it would show the people what they were being asked to undertake. The proposition accordingly should not be like the Chippawa works, where, he said, the engineers had apparently failed to estimate the final cost with aything approximating to accuracy.

Mr. Drury said he ventured to predict that the embargo on Canadian store cattle would be raised, largely as the result of the efforts of Hon. Manning Doherty, whom he regarded as "one of the most zealous and efficient ministers of agriculture that the province had ever had." He based his belief that the embargo was to come off upon the fact that Dr. Tolmie, the Dominion minister of agriculture, was making "such terrific efforts to get in and take some of the credit and glory of having it lifted."

The evening concert attracted a very large crwd. A program of more than usual merit was provided by Joe Williams, Comedian, Percy David, Humorous Entertainer, and Miss Olma Holmes, Highland Dancer. The proceeds of the day reached the large sum of between $2200 and $2300.

McKINLEY–McMULLEN

Mr. Wm. W. McKinley, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKinley, of Caledon East, and Miss Myrtle May McMullin, daughter of the late George McMullin and Mrs. McMullin, were quietly married at the Methodist Parsonage in Caledon East, on Wednesday, June 15th. Rev. A. Laycock was the officiating clergyman.

BERRY–RAYBURN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Rayburn, Caledon, Ont., on Monday, June 27th, when their daughter, Eloise, became the bride of Ernest F. Berry, of Toronto, the Rev. J. Burkholder officiating. The Banner joins the manny friends of the happy young couple in extending its best wishes.

HALL–PURVES

A pretty home wedding took place on Tuesday afternoon, June 21st, at 94 Roxborough St., West Toronto, when Miss Loretta Jean Purves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Purves, of Orton, was married to Mr. Truman Hall, of the 12th con., East Garafraxa. Only immediate relatives were present, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Frank C. Harper, B. D., of Hillsburg. Afterwards Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on the "Kingston" for the trip through the Thousand Islands. Many gifts and good wishes to them both testify to their popularity in a wide circle of friends.

MONO COLLEGE W. I.

The Mono College Women's Institute held their regular meeting on June 18th at the home of Mrs. G. E. Island, Mono. By special arrangement this was made a joint meeting of the Mono College and Sandhill Institutes, of which Mrs. Island is a Past President. Over forty members motored up from Sandhill and with as many Mono College members, made Mrs. Island's lawn a busy scene. The programme, which is given below, was prvided by the Sandhill Institute, and in addition, several of the gentlemen, who accompanied the visitors, added a few timely remarks in appreciation of the work of the Institutes and at the close of the meeting expressed their thanks to those who had contributed to the success of the afternoon, and a hearty vote was also tendered to the popular hostess and Mr. Island who had worked hard to make the visitors feel at home, and whose efforts had been crowned with success. The programme was as follows:—Duet by Mrs. Neelands and Miss Clarke; Instrumental duet by Miss Marjorie Anderson and Miss Dorothy Wilson; Papers by Mrs. W. D. Bowles and Mrs. T. P. Wilson; Pianoforte Solo by Miss Dorothy Wilson.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. N. Baker, Centre Road on July 7th. The members are requested to be present as arrangements are to be made for the picnic.

Reduce the Cost of Selling
—Use Long Distance

THINK of Long Distance in terms of time and money saved. "Use the 'Bell' to Sell." It is today the most effective form of approach to customers. Your personality, the convincing tones of your voice, will bring results when everything else fails.

"Many of our Long Distance calls are now Station-to-Station calls"—writes a subscriber. "We notified our customers that two of our most capable men had been designated to look after Long Distance business. As soon as Long Distance calls, our Private Branch Exchange operator switches the call instantly to one of these men, which gives our client the advantage of Station-to-Station rates.

"Increasing the efficiency of a sales force ten per-cent is well worth while. Our Sales Manager calls up our travellers by Long Distance, or they call him. He encourages them, advises them, helps them to secure orders. If competition has arisen he learns of it in time to meet it."

HOLIDAY TRIP

Canadian Newspaper Men Visit the Pacific Coast.

Excursionists travel from Toronto Over Canadian National Lines Returning over the Canadian Pacific.

The Annual Convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association held in Vancouver on June 9 and 10, gave to the weekly newspaper men of Eastern Canada, the opportunity of seeing the Canadian West under the most favorable auspices. On board the special train leaving Toronto on Thursday, June 2nd, were the editors of Eastern Canadian newspapers with their wives, making a party of one hundred and thirty people. These were largely from Ontario, but there were also several representatives from Quebec New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, including the editor of a weekly paper in Sydney Mines, Cape Breton, Canada's farthest East. In addition to the special train party about fifty eastern newspaper men travelled to the convention by regular train, making a total of nearly two hundred from the East.

These were joined at Vancouver by a large delegation from the western provinces to the number of another two hundred, making a total attendance of fully four hundred. This year's convention set a new record as never before in the history of press conventions has this attendance been equalled.

The following is a list of those who made the journey by the special train:

Travelling in Comfort

The train in which the members of the Weekly Newspaper Associatin made their transcontinental trip represents the last word in travel comfort.

The Canadian National Railways and the Canadian Pacific Railway each supplied their latest type of equipment for the train which consisted of six standard drawing room sleeping cars, dining car, tourist car and baggage car.

The editors were very much interested in inspecting the many new features introduced in the 1921 type of Canadian National sleeping cars comprised in the train. These steel cars are the latest expression of the Railway Car Builders' art, quietly, but luxuriously upholstered —have individual heating control, which can be utilized from each berth; thermos bottles in drawing rooms, and several other devices calculated to make a transcontinental journey as pleasurable as possible.

The dining car is also of the most modern Canadian National type, panelled in oak. The Canadian National Railways took advantage of the editors' trip over their lines to the Pacific coast to place in service their new dining car menus on which are described in text and illustrations the various stages of Canada's development.

This splendid train was the home of the editors for eighteen days, and nothing was left undone by the railways to make the trip enjoyable and at the same time show the newspapermen en route the many striking indications of the agricultural and industrial progress of the Dominion.

The officials who were in charge of the train are as follows:—O. K. Howard, General Tourist Agent, Toronto; H. J. Lambkin, Inspector of Dining and Sleeping Cars, Winnipeg; J. J. Kelly, Steward in charge of Diner, Winnipeg; Walter Thompson, Publicity Agent of Grand Trunk, Montreal; R. Creelman, Assistant Traffic Passenger Manager, Winnipeg; W. C. Riddell, Publicity Agent of the Canadian National, Winnipeg; Osborne Scott, General Passenger Agent, Vancouver.

An electrician, also a superintendent and master mechanic of each division rode the train. The baggage car was specially fitted and in charge of a special man. Baggage was available at all hours.

The excursionists were unanimous in their praise of the fine dining car service provided by the railway companies and also with the very complete arrangements made for the comfort of one and all during the time they were aboard the train. The following dinner menu of the Canadian National is indicative of the character of the provision made for the delectation of the inner man:

Dining Car Service

MENU—Dinner
Strawberries and Cream
Assorted Hors D'Ceuvres
Filet of Sole, Tartare Sauce
Grilled English Mutton Chop Roast Young Chicken, Giblet Sauce
Combination Salad
Potatoes Mashed in Cream
Potato Croquettes
Creamed Cauliflower, New Asparagus
Cherry Pie Strawberry Pie
Chocolate Blanc Mange
Ice Cream Assorted Cakes
Tea or Coffee

Freed from the cares and routine of the weekly grind the newspaper men and their wives and friends proved themselves a sociable and jolly crowd. Among the impromptu devices for adding to the pleasure of the outing were a number of ear and special songs, which the crowd delighted to perpetrate whenever and wherever occasion offered. Here are a couple of samples:

FOOT AMPUTATED

A serious accident occurred at the C. P. R. Station on Saturday last, when a soldier named Everson Laurence from Durham got his foot caught under the wheels of the special which was conveying the soldiers home from the Niagara Camp. Laurence was in the restaurant when the train started to move forward for the purpose of taking on water Thinking that it was pulling out the lad attempted to get aboard, missed his foting and fell under the wheels. He was rushed to Lord Dufferin Hospital, where it was found necessary to amputate the injured limb about five inches below the knee.

THIN, WATERY BLOOD MEANS ILL HEALTH

Rich, Red Blood Brings Bright Eyes and Rosy Cheeks.

The girl who returns home from school or from work thoroughly tired out will be fortunate if she escapes a physical breakdown, because this getting tired so easily is probably the first warning symptom of a thinning blood that must not be disregarded if her health is to be preserved.

When the blood becomes thin and impure the patient becomes pale. She not only tires out easily but often suffers from headaches, palpitation of the heart, dizzy spells and a loss of appetite.

In this condition Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will be found to have a beneficial action on the blood. Miss Delima Lafreniere, St. Ambrose, Man., has proved this in her own case, and advises others to use these pills. She says: "Before I began the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I felt like a complete wreck of my former self. My blood was impure and thin. I suffered from faint and dizzy spells, and had backaches and headaches almost every day. I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial, and by the time I had used three boxes I felt much better and I continued taking the pills until I felt as well as I ever did. For what they did in my case I cannot recommend these pills too highly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained from any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A MOTOR TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hamilton of Buffalo, N. Y., have just returned from an auto trip to Montreal and back to Buffalo, going via New York State through the Adirondacks. Mr. Hamilton is a son of Mrs. William Hamilton, of Laurel, Ont. Miss D. Sedgwick, of Toronto, and Miss Wilkes, of Buffalo went with them. The party left Buffalo Monday morning, June 6th, and made Syracuse the first night, a distance of 154 miles, touching Canandaigua Lake and Seneca Lake, two of the finger lakes of New York State. The second day they made the trip from Syracuse to Glens Falls, a distance of 170 miles, many miles along the bank of the Mohawk River. The third day they reached Plattsburg, N. Y., covering a distance of 162 miles. This whole day was spent in the Adirondacks, beautiful roads winding in and out, up hill and down hill through the pines, passing Lake George, Loon Lake, Schroon Lake and Lake Champlain. The fourth and last day they reached Montreal, which is 73 miles from Plattsburg, or 43 miles from Rouse's Point on the New York State border. Six days were spent in visiting relatives in Montreal and sight seeing. There are several beautiful rides around the island, one especially to Pointe Clare. The first day of the return trip was taken through a different part of the Adirondacks, passing Lake Placid and Saranac Lake, through to Malone, a distance of 182 miles This section of the mountains was just as beautiful and even more wild than the other day in the mountains. The second day covered the trip from Malone to Alexandria Bay, 112 miles. All enjoyed the motor boat ride among the Thousand Islands. Rochester was the next stop over night and on the fourth day they reached Buffalo again. One of the remarkable features about the trip was the fact that 1265 miles were covered altogether without a puncture or a drop of rain. The roads were splendid with the exception of an occasional detour. Of curse there were some pretty steep grades in the mountains. The party were thoroughly refreshed every night by stopping at first class hotels and having a hearty breakfast. Most of the time the other two meals were prepared on an auto camping stove on the shore of some lake.

CONSTIPATION AND HEADACHES

Completely Relieved by the Great Fruit Medicine, "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. ALFRED DUBOISSEAU
462 St. Catherine St. E., Montreal.

"For three years, I was a terrible sufferer from Indigestion, constant Headaches and Constipation. I took various medicines for the trouble but nothing seemed to do me any good.

Then, a friend advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives'. Now I am free of Indigestion and Headaches, the Constipation is cured, and I have gained considerable weight; and my general health is fine.

'Fruit-a-tives' is a grand medicine and I cannot say enough in its favor."

ALFRED DUBOISSEAU.

'Fruit-a-tives' are made from fruit juices and valuable tonics—and are pleasant to take, their action being gentle and mild, yet always most effective.

50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. At all dealers or sent postpaid by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

MR. JOHN ELLIS PASSES AWAY

It was with startling suddenness that the death of Mr. John Ellis came. For some time he had been ailing and on Sunday morning at seven o'clock, May 8th, 1921, he passed quietly away, heart failure being the cause. Mr. Ellis was 62 years of age.

There is no language at our command by which we can fittingly portray the sincerity of this man's Christian character. He was strictly honest in the services he rendered. In short, he was an honorable gentleman in the highest sense that term implies. To man, woman or child he always extended a cordial greeting that lent a ray of light to brighten their pathway in the journey of life. He commanded the respect of all sects and classes of people, as the attendance at his funeral fully verified. We did not fully appreciate his true worth until after the thread of his life was severed. He had borne adversity bravely and enjoyed prosperity quietly. He had filled the various relations of life in son, husband, father, brother, friend, and filled them well. Who can do more? Besides a devoted wife he leaves six daughters and three sons.

He was an old member of the Loyal Orange Lodge, served for thirteen years on the Kinistino Public School Board, on which he served first in 1894 for three years, again a few years later, and from 1914 continuously until his death.

The funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon, May 10th, 1921, Rev. Thos. Clark officiating at the home of the deceased and at the grave-side, after which all that was mortal was placed in Kinistino cemetery.

The floral offerings surpassed in profusion and beauty anything seen here for some time. There were a number of wreaths, one of which was given by the Kinistino Public School. On a card appended could appropriately have been placed these words: "These flowers, so typical of the life we mourn, mutely speak the pathos of a parting word, and are placed upon the casket by the friends who loved the sleeper. On these petals are tears for the parting, and hopes for the meeting beyond the gates." Just before the committal service was closed the children of the public school filed past the open grave and each dropped a flower upon the coffin, in which was all that was mortal of Mr. John Ellis, a member of their School Board.—Kinistino, Sask., Representative.

Deceased was a cousin of Miss M. Ellis, Orangeville, and Messrs. J. J. Ellis, Centre Road, Caledon, and Jas. Ellis, Mono.

JOHN H. BELL

On Thursday, June 16th the death occurred at the home of his brother, Duncan Bell, townline, east of Primrose, of John H. Bell, at the age of 64 years. Death was due to a paralytic stroke, which he sustained on the Monday previous, consequently his illness was of short duration. Deceased was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bell, former residents of Primrose, and had resided in that locality all his life. He was unmarried, and is survived by four brothers, Duncan, J. Alex. and Dougls, of Primrose; and Alfred of Violet Hill, and three sisters, Mrs. Jas. Buchanan, of Mulmur, and Mrs. Henry Breedon and Mrs. W. J. McKenna, of Mono. The funeral of the deceased took place on Saturday afternoon last, interment being made in Whitfield Presbyterian cemetery. Rev. A. E. Thornley, pastor of Knox church, Shelburne, officiated.—Free Press.

A driver of a dynamite wagon, named Fortin, was blown to fragments with his horse and vehicle, when his cart was struck by a train at St. Germain, Drummond Co., Que.

—Orangeville's Twelfth of July Celebration promises to be a hummer. Already a number of Lodges outside the County have intimated that they intend to spend the day here. Local Commitees are at work preparing an attractive program for the day.

Chief of Police Herb. Wilson, Blenheim, is investigating a compliant of Abe Sherrah, that he lost a valuable sow and Jersey cow through poisoning.

THE "WIN ONE" BIBLE CLASS PICNIC

The members of the "Win One" class
Of the Methodist Sunday School;
Held a picnic on June the eighth,
When the weather wasn't too cool.

The affair was held in the orchard grove,
At the home of Mrs. Mills,
On Church street west, the nicest spot,
'Twixt here and Mono Hills.

The place was sure an ideal one,
And the decorations grand;
And those who were there were the happiest crowd,
This side of Newfoundland.

The guests began to arrive at two,
And were all assembled at three;
It wasn't long till the fun commenced
In the shade of the old apple tree.

Among the novelties introduced,
Were races and many a game;
The gentlemen to the fun all flocked,
And the ladies did the same.

A game of ball was started then,
And the fun grew very high;
You should have seen the adults play
And run and jump, oh, my!

The ball descended from the Hill
To the batter standing on home;
The batter had to Duke his head
And round the bases roam.

This certainly was a very Wise move
As all around could see,
For when Glover swung on that old bat,
He almost felled a tree.

A dainty lunch was served to all,
By the ladies of the class;
And anybody out for fun,
Sat beside his favourite lass.

After the lunch had disappeared,
A game of football started,
And to see the kicks that poor ball got,
Would make a man faint-hearted.

As the evening wore on, the crowd went home,
To rest after their play,
And each and everyone agreed,
They had spent a pleasant day.

The members of the class desire,
To thank Mrs. Mills sincerely,
This certainly was the best one yet,
Of the picnics the class holds yearly.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

SUPPOSE—JUST ONCE

Suppose an editor should just for once relieve his mind by printing all the news he happened to know at that minute! Options would be thrown up, citizens arrested, families disrupted, fights fought on every street corner, candidates resigning, ministers leaving for distant parts, lawyers taking long vacations, business men turning things over to their clerks for a season, hired girls hunting new jobs and so on down along list of casualties and the editor would be so mussed up that his corpse couldn't be identified by his own family. A newspaper man doesn't know everthing, but his work is such that he hears a lot that common sense, common decency and common prudence keep out of the paper.—Cornwall Freeholder.

NEW SCHOOL DESK

Miss Anna Martin, art teacher in the Norwood schools, was recently granted a patent by the United States Government, upon a school desk improvement, which is destined to revolutionize school desk construction. The old school desk is inadequate for taking care of certain departments, such as art, gymnasium, science and domestic arts. It is in the form of a receptacle and is strong and inexpensive.

In the primary grades it will be a boon, doing away with the unsightly boys dangling at the sides of the desks and furnishing a place for storage for the many things a pupil must use in special departments.

This desk improvement consists of a receptacle below the regular book shelf and answers a long felt need in our schools.—Norwood, Ohio, Republican.

Miss Martin is a sister of Mr. William Martin, formerly town engineer.

OLIVER–HOARE

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hoare, East Garafraxa, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, June 22nd, when their daughter, Myrtle Viola, became the bride of Mr. Hugh Burton Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Oliver, also of East Garafraxa. The ceremony, which was witnessed by about forty immediate friends of the young couple, took place in the drawing room, under an arch of evergreens banked with ferns and flowers. Rev. G. W. Lynd, of Laurel, the family pastor, was the officiating minister. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked sweet and winsome in ivory duchess satin, with overdrape of georgette and trimmings of crystal. She wore a veil of embroidered silk brussels net and orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of sunset roses. The flower girl, Miss Lillian Hoare, a cousin of the bride, was dressed in pink organdie and carried a basket of pink sweet peas. The wedding march was played by the groom's sister, Miss Hazel Oliver. After receiving the congratulations of the assembled friends the newly wedded couple led the way to the dining room, where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The table decorations were pink and white carnations. The bride, who is deservedly popular, was the recipient of a large number of beautiful wedding gifts. The groom's gift was a sunburst of pearls and to the flower girl a ring. Later in the afternon the happy couple left amid showers of confetti and good wishes on a motor trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, the bride travelling in a suit of navy blue beautifully embroidered and wearing a hat of navy blue to match. On their return they will take up their residence on the Oliver homestead in East Garafraxa, occupied until recently by the groom's parents. The Bnner joins a wide circle of friends in wishing the young couple health, happiness and prosperity in their journey through life.

STONE–DYNES

On June 15th the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson Dynes, Redickville, was the scene of a very pretty wedding when their third daughter, Bertha Mae, was united in marriage to John A. Stone, a prosperous young farmer of the Back Line, Melancthon. The Rev. A. F. Banford, of Honeywood, tied the silken knot promptly at the hour of two o'clock, to the strain of Lohengrin's wedding mrch, well rendered by Miss Mary Brown. The groom took his place under an arch of evergreen, banked with flowers, joined by the bride, who was given away by her father. The bride looked pretty in a gown of accordion pleated ivory satin with over dress of beaded georgette. She wore a veil of Brussels net arranged in coronet and caught with a wreath of orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and fern. They were attended by Master Fred Watson, nephew of the groom, who acted as page and carried a crook tied with white ribbon and flowers. Little Miss Mary Dynes, niece of the bride, made a dainty flower girl, frocked in pale blue silk and gold lace, and carried a basket of sweet peas. After the ceremony and hearty congratulations the bridal party led the way to the dining room, which was prettily decorated in pink and white, where a dainty repast was served. The groom's gift to the bride was a beautiful white fur, ostrich trimmed, to the pianiste a sunburst of pearls, to the flower girl a gold necklace, to the page boy a gold watch chain, to the Misses Birdie and Lena Dynes, who were maids of honor, pearl necklaces. The bride received many gifts, among them being a piano from her father and mother. The young couple left on the five o'clock train for different points in Saskatchewan and New Ontario, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit of hand embroidered tricotine with picture hat. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, Back Line, Melancthon.

FERNS–EVERSON

On Wednesday afternoon, June 22nd, at 2.30 o'clock a happy wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Urias Everson, 14th con., East Garafraxa, when their youngest daughter, Annie Alma, was married to Mr. Harold Ferns, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Ferns, of the 15th con., East Garafraxa. The ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. Frank C. Harper, B. D., minister of Bethel Presbyterian Church, took place under a wedding arch of evergreens and white peonies on the lawn in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends. The bride, whose wedding dress was of white satin and georgette crepe, carried a bride's bouquet of white roses, carnations and lilies of the valley. At the close of the ceremony a happy party enjoyed the tasty wedding breakfast in the old homestead dining room where the tables were beautifully decorated with flowers and burdened with good things to delight the most fastidious taste. The toast to the bride was proposed by the officiating clergyman and honoured with enthusiasm by all present. Many pretty and costly gifts were given to these two young people in token of their place in the hearts of their friends in Old Garry. The same evening Mr and Mrs. Ferns left by motor on their honeymoon, accompanied by the hearty good wishes of their friends, and followed by the inevitable but not inseparable old boots and shoes.

JOHNSTON–TRIMBLE

On Tuesday, June 21st, the home of Mr. and Mrs David Trimble, Fraxa Junction, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their eldest daughter, Ruby Beatrice, became the happy bride of Mr. Ross Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnston, of Shelburne. Only a few intimate friends were present. To the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march the bridal couple took their places on the lawn under an arch of evergreens. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in a gown of ivory duchess satin with overskirt and sleeves of silver embroidered Brussels [illegible] and silver bead trimming. She [illegible] the customary bridal veil, caught with orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of sweet peas, smilax and maidenhair fern. Her only ornament was a gold wrist watch, the gift of the groom. The nuptial knot was tied at 2.30 o'clock by Rev. J. A. Reddon, of Laurel, the family pastor. During the signing of the register Miss Viney Menary rendered sweet music. After the ceremony the newly wedded couple led the way to the dining room, prettily decorated in pink and white, where a dainty luncheon was served. The groom's gift to the pianiste, Miss Clara Trimble, sister of the bride, was a sterling silver marquise ring set with brilliants. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the happy couple left by motor for a short trip to Hamilton, Niagara Falls, Guelph and other points south, the bride wearing a becoming suit of camel's brown cloth with hat and shoes to match. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside on the groom's farm west of Shelburne, where they will start out in life accompanied by the sincere good wishes of many friends.

On Monday evening previous to her marriage some friends and neighbors and The Maples Women's Institute met in the Community Hall ,The Maples, and presented the bride-to-be with a miscellaneous shower. The beautiful gifts tendered on this occasion go to show the esteem in which Mrs. Johnston is held. During the evening a short program of songs and speeches of a congratulatory nature was given, the speakers uniting in wishing the bride-to-be many happy years in her new home.

SAVE THE CHILDREN

Mothers who keep a box of Baby's Own Tablets in the house may feel that the lives of their little ones are reasonably safe during the hot weather. Stomach troubles, cholera infantum and diarrhoea carry off thousands of little ones every summer, in most cases because the mother does not have a safe medicine at hand to give promptly. Baby's Own Tablets relieve these troubles, or if given occasionally to the well child will prevent their coming on. The Tablets are guaranteed by a government analyst to be absolutely harmless even to the newborn babe. They are especially good in summer because they regulate the bowels and keep the stomach sweet and pure. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

CAMILLA

Fred Rayfield, B. A., of Galt, is visiting his home here.

Miss Elaine Neil, of Chicago, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Eliza Neil, and other friends here.

Miss Janet Moore has returned home from Corbetton.

Miss Elsie Curtis has completed her course at Hamilton Normal School.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Laidlaw and daughter, Jean, of Rochester, N. Y., are visiting Mrs. Laidlaw's mother, Mrs Lemon, and other friends.

Mrs. (Rev.) Stewart Cole, of Chicago, is holidaying at the home of her mother, Mrs. Bremner.

Miss Bessie Reid, of Toronto, is home for the summer vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Buchanan spent Sunday with Toronto friends.

Dr. Charles and Alex Scott, of Toronto, were home over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Laverty and daughter, Grace, of Orangeville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Marshall Sunday.

Miss Sadie McLean, of Erin, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Elizabeth Mann.

Mr. John Buchanan has purchased a new automobile.

Sunday afternoon a large congregation greeted the much revered Dr. John Neil at St. Andrew's Church. Rev. Mr. Coutts conducted the devotional exercises. Dr. Neil gave an address on his trip West last fall under the auspices of the Home Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church. He dwelt particularly upon the problem of Canadianizing the Ruthenian element of the western population. He paid glowing tribute to the zealous workers in the Home Mission Stations, and to the teachers of the public schools for their splendid influence in training the young to appreciate the privileges of citizenship in this fair Dominion. Delightful solos were rendered by Mr. Clowes, Orangeville, and Mrs. (Rev.) Cole, with violin accompaniment by Misses Leola and Mabel Kyles.

Miss Vera Thompson gave a splendid talk at a well attended Y. P. S. meeting last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. and Miss Wallace, of Horning's Mills, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gallaugher Sunday.

CALEDON

On Wedesday last "Pine Lodge," the beautiful farm home of Mr. and Mrs Geo. Laughlin, 1st line, west, Caledon, was the scene of a very pleasing and happy dvent, when their eldest daughter, Louise Elizabeth, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. J. Watson Wiggins, a popular and successful farmer of Inglewood. Before the ceremony Miss Betrice Ingram, of Toronto, sang very sweetly the appropriate solo "All Joy bo Thine." The bride, gowned in beaded georgette over kitten's ear crepe with tulle veil caught with orange blossoms and carrying ophelia roses, was conducted under the arch on the verandah by her father,who gave her away, while Miss Edythe Muriel Laughlin, youngest sister of the bride, played the Lohengrin wedding march. Rev. (Capt.) J. F. G. Morris performed the ceremony and Miss Ruby J. Laughlin, sister of the bride, was in attendance During the signing of the register Mr. Bert Lindsay sang "Just You Alone," after which the happy young couple received hearty congratulations from the large number of invited guests. A sumptuous wedding breakfast was then served in the dining room, which was decorated with peonies and ferns and, after all had done justice to the good things provided, Rev. (Capt.) Morris acted as toastmaster and proposed a toast to the health of the bride, which was very ably responded to by the groom. The toastmaster then called upon Mr. W. J. Wiggins, brother of the groom, Mr. Bert Lindsay, Mr. Jas. R. Hillyard, Mr. E. E. Wilson and Mr. W. H. Hunter, who all responded in a very fitting manner. Mr. and Mrs. Wiggins left for an extended trip down the St. Lawrence amid showers of confetti and best wishes for their future happiness, the bride travelling in a sand colored tricotine suit with hat to match. The presents were costly and numerous and included a substantial Victory Bond, a gift from the bride's father. The young couple will take up their residence on lot 2, 1st line, east, Caledon, and will be at home to their friends after July 1st

L. O. L. No. 250 will attend divine service in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday at 7 p.m. Rev. J. Burkholder will preach and all brethren are expected to attend.

Mr. E. E. Wilson has completed his rounds as census enumerator for this ward. Ed found the ladies younger than he expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Brandon and family attended the Laughlin-Wiggins nuptials last week.

MR. WM. CHANEY

In the death of Mr. Wm Chaney, of Amaranth, on Friday evening, June 17th, at the old age of 91 years, Amaranth loses one of its oldest settlers. He was born in Suffolk, England, and when 21 years of age came to Canada in the year 1851. Deceased came to Amaranth and has lived on the farm where he died for 67 years. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Fred Clarke, of Minburn, Alta., and two grandsons, George Clarke, of Minburn, and Wm. J. Jelly on the homestead. The remains were laid to rest in the Union Cemetery, Grand Valley.

LATE MRS. EWART

The death took place on Tuesday, June 21st, of Jane Wilson, widow of the late William Henry Ewart, at her home in Albion. The late Mrs Ewart was born in Albion 68 years ago; was a daughter of the late Henry Wilson, and had lived in the township all her life. For ten years she had been a great sufferer from rheumatism and for the past six years had been unable to move about. She is survived by five children, namely, Mrs. Harry Steele, of Albion, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, of Shelburne, L. Ezra, of Albion, Bertha at home, and Dr. Eli Ewart, who has just received his degree. Her surviving brothers are John, Henry, David and Robert, and sisters, Mrs. James Allan, of Albion, Mrs. Thos. Wilson, of Toronto, Mrs. Samuel Elliott, of Albion, Mrs. E. B. Ford, of Detroit, and Mrs. H. H. Hodson, of Albion. Interment took place at Laurel Hill Cemetery, service being conducted at the home by Rev. Dr. Williamson, of Palgrave.—Bolton Enterprise.

MRS. THOS. M'CRACKEN

Sunday evening, June 19th, at her home at Rosemont, the death occurred of Mrs. Thos. McCracken, after an illness of only a few days following a paralytic stroke. She had been in declining health for the past few months. Mrs. McCracken was a native of Tomorontio township where she was born 67 years ago. Her maiden name was Sarah Jenkins, and she was a member of the well-known Jenkins family of that township, whose parents were pioneers in the municipality. Mrs. McCracken was a woman of sterling worth and was held in high esteem by all her friends. She is survived by her husband and four sons and two daughters—Wm., of Rosemont, Herbert, of Tomorontio, Jackson at Everett, Simpson in the West, Mrs. Harry Allen at Everett and Mrs. Robert Shaw at Rosemont. Brothers and sisters surviving are Simpson Jenkins, Jas. Jenkins, Jackson Jenkins, John Jenkins and Mrs. Thomas Lee, all of Everett. The funeral took place Tuesday afternoon to Jennings' church burying ground where the remains were interred at Mrs. McCracken's own request. Service was conducted by Rev. Charles Forth, assisted by Rev. C. J. Bailey and Rev. G. L. Gray.

ADAM M'FARLANE

Mr. Adam McFarlane, a former resident of Caledon township, passed away at his residence in Caledon East, on Friday, June 17th, after a few weeks' illness from hardening of the arteries, aged 68 years. Deceased retired from farming a few years ago and became a resident of Caledon East, where he was deservedly respected. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon, when divine service was held at the house, three ministers taking charge of the service. Rev. Lockhart, his present pastor, read portions of scripture, Rev. Wm. McKinley, an oldtime companion and neighbor, invoked the divine blessing and Rev. Hugh Matheson, of Knox College, a former pastor, preached the sermon. The funeral cortege afterwards wended its way to Caledon East Public Cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. The late Mr. McFarlane was never married and leaves five sisters, Miss Kate and Mrs. Smith, who resided with him, and Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Reed, of Chicago, and Mrs. Johnston, of Toronto. His brother resides on the old homestead. The pallbearers were all cousins of deceased and were Messrs. Alex. McFarlane, John Wilke, Wm. J. Kearns, John Kearns, Mack Kearns and Adam F. Kearns. Several beautiful wreaths and sprays covered the casket.

CHARLES M'CABE

Mr. Chas. McCabe, a native of Mono township, died at his home in Winnipeg on Saturday, June 25th. Deceased was 68 years of age and was married to Mary McCarston, a daughter of the late James McCarston, of Mono Centre. He had been living in Winnipeg for the last eight years. He is survived by his widow, one son, Henry, in the West, and two daughters, Mrs. Lily Clarke and Mrs. Charters, both of Regina.

MARSVILLE

Marsville Women's Institute will hold their garden party on July 19. The Marr Family, entertainers, will be present. Full particulars later.

CARD OF THANKS.

The United Farmers and United Farm Woman of Melancthon wish to heartily thank the people of the district who turned out in such numbers to their picnic in Mr. Slack's bush on June 23rd, and wish also to express their appreciation of the good behaviour of the crowd throughout the afternon and evening and the splendid order kept throughout the speeches and other parts of the program.

A DECISIVE WIN

Dufferins Score an 11 to 4 Victory Over Brampton Excelsiors in Championship Game.

About 2000 lacrosse enthusiasts saw The Dufferins defeat the Brampton Excelsiors by the score of 11 to 4 in a championship game on Idylwyld Park on Wednesday afternoon, June 22nd. The visitors brought up a strong following, who appeared to have every confidence in the ability of their favorites to take a fall out of the greenshirts. The result shows that they had sadly underestimated the strength and skill of last year's champions. To give the Excelsiors credit they put up a fine game and play on the whole was much more even than the score would indicate. Their home, while fast and clever, was not as effective as the Dufferin home. On the other hand the Brampton defence did not check as closely nor protect the flags nearly as effectively as did the Dufferin defence. In these two facts taken conjointly lies the reason for the score. It was a beautiful game to watch—fast, clever, clean and at times spectacular. Both teams gave an excellent exhibition of the manner and spirit in which lacrosse should be played. There were very few penalties and the few imposed were for accidental offences.

Dufferins made but one change initial face-off and before they lost possession Gordon shot but missed. Excelsiors then worked the ball to the other end of the field, where some skilful manoeuvring gave Cudmore an opening which he converted. Dufferins came back in decisive fashion, the home running in no fewer than four counters before the quarter ended. Shortly after the face-off in the second period Bert Brown made the score 5 to 1 for the Dufferins, the score coming as the climax to a clever piece of combination work. Excelsiors pressed hard and Harry Sproule doubled their total by a swift shot from the side. Gordon tallied one for Orangeville just to keep pace with the garnet shirts and then George Sproule got into the limelight with a well-earned tally for the visitors. Dufferins got another before the period ended making the half time tally 7 to 3. The third period was strenuous with play fast and very even most of the time. Nearly all the penalties came in this quarter. After about thirteen minutes play Excelsiors notched their fourth and last goal. Blythe Brown got the only other tally of the quarter for The Dufferins. In the final period Dufferins seemed to have the measure of their opponents, running in four goals, some of them in rather easy fashion, while their opponents were held scoreless.

Dufferins made but on echange during the, game and that was at the end of the third quarter, when Ewing retired in favor of Earl Stevenson, who has been out of the game for some time with an injured knee. Earl put up a good game and will be a source of strength to the team, when he rounds into last season's form. Brampton made a number of changes, pulling out Campbell and N. Anderson in favor of Ingram and Stevens at the end of the first period. Every man of the Dufferins played fine lacrosse. Booth was the usual tower of strength in goal and was effectively protected by Cushing and Densmore. The advent of Stan Cranston, who made his first appearance since 1919, strengthened the defence materially. Cranston, Henderson and Black made a pretty effective defence. Scott was right on the job at centre and usually got the better of the face-off. Ewing, Golden, the two Browns and Gordon made a speedy and smooth-working scoring division and undubtedly constitute one of the strongest home divisions playing the game to-day. Referee Querrie and Judge of Play Harrison were capable and impartial and both teams were well satisfied with their decisions. The gate receipts were over $600. Players and officials were:—

Excelsiors— Campbell, Ingram, Warre, McLean, Blain, Ashley, Stevens, N. Anderson, G. Sproule, H. Sproule, Cudmore, R. Anderson and Charters; spares, Blanchard and Yates.

Dufferins—Booth, Cushing, Densmore, Cranston, Black, Henderson, Scott, Ewing, Stevenson, Golden, Gordon, Blythe Brown, Bert Brown; spares, Mitchell, Brawley and Robinson.

Referee—C. Querrie.
Judge of Play—A. Harrison.

IF YOU WANT GOOD HEALTH

The Science, Art and Philosophy of Chiropractic is based on a correct knowledge of the functions of the Mind, Brain, Nerves and Spine.

The Brain is the dynamo of the body, which generates the life giving power. The nerves are the wires that convey life to all organs and tissues.

95 PER CENT. OF DISEASE is caused by Bones of the Spine pressing upon Spinal Nerves, which cause deranged functions. Kidney, Stomach, Liver, Lung and Heart Troubles (also all Diseases peculiar to Women) are speedily removed by Chiropractic Adjustments.

DON'T DELAY. Every day you wait makes it more difficult to remove the cause of your Trouble. CALL TO-DAY.

MARSVILLE

The annual Convention of the East Garafraxa and East Luther S. S. Association was held in Bethel Presbyterian Church, Price's Corners, on Wednesday, June 22nd. The attendance at the afternoon and evening sessions was fair considering the other interesting events in the immediate neighborhood. Both sessions proved profitable to all engaged in Sunday School work. Miss Taggart, of Toronto, Superintendent of Girls' Work of the Religious Education Council, gave an excellent address at both sessions on wor pertaining to Sunday Schools. Rev Mr. Lundy, of Grand Valley, and Rev. Mr. Ellis, of Monticello, alsogave good addresses on educationl work in the chruch. Rev. Mr. Trux, of Grand Valley, and Rev. Mr. McArthur, of Keldon, also contributed to the success of the meeting. The following officers were appointed for the next year:—

President, Geo. Gear, Waldemar; Vice-Pres., W. A. Walker, Grand Valley, No. 2; Sec.-Treas., Mrs. I. Scott; Supt. of Children's Department, Mrs. Colbeck, Grand Valley, No. 1; Supt. of Boys' Dept., Geo. Gear, Waldemar; Supt. of Girls' Department, Mrs. T. H. Hamilton, Grand Vlley; Supt. of Adults' Department, G. R. Whirter, Colbeck; Supt. of Teachers' Training Department, Rev. Mr. Ellis, Colbeck; Supt. of Home Department, W. E. Turner; Supt. of Missions, Miss Anderson, Jessopville; Supt. of Temperance, L. Boggs Orton.

Place of meeting next year, Grand Valley Methodist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hewlett, of the village have the sincere sympathy of the entire community in the sad affliction that befell them on Thursday evening of last week by the passing away of their second son, James Albert. His illness was of short duration, lasting less than two days. Membraneous croup was the cause. The best medical care and nursing proved of no avail against the dreaded malady. Jimmy was 3 years, 7 months and 16 days of age. He was a favourite with all who knew him. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to Price's cemetery. The Rev. F. C. Harper conducted the services at the house and gr[illegible]

The grove garden party, which was held on Friday evening of last week, proved a successful affair. The evening was an ideal one for such an occasion and the large crowd present enjoyed the program. Bob Wilson and Miss Grace Bonnick proved themselves excellent entertainers. The Tarswell-Dyer orchestra rendered several selections. The chair was ably filled by Rev. F. C. Harper. The proceeds amounted to $285.

The Marsville baseball team met the Hereward team at Grand Valley last week and defeated them by a narrow margin.

The subject assigned to me is so inclusive that it becomes necessary to determine with more definiteness the limits of our discussion. As we all know, boys and girls, even in prehistoric times, received a more or less effective training for their vocations. This type of education came first. It has continued and will continue as a basic factor for the mass of the people throughout all time. The manner of its giving has varied in accordance with the conditions and the outlook of each generation. If I have interpreted the wishes of your Executive correctly, it is desired that I discuss, not vocational training for the professions, but vocational training for commercial, industrial and agricultural pursuits in the light of the conditions and outlook of the present.

In contrasting the conditions and outlook of the present with those of the past with a view to discovering the place and purposes of vocational training in a modern educational system, we have need of giving special attention to the following significant phases of the development of social organization.

The emancipation of the human intellect from the control of superstition and arbitrary authority has had most significant results. It is the basic factor which has made all subsequent progress possible. Inquiring minds have been free to apply themselves with all the intelligence of which they are capable to a study of man's environment. They have asked questions. They have sought diligently and with keen insight for the answers. They have tested the answers. The general result has been a marvellous extension of human knowledge into new fields and within the older fields of inquiry.

The most significant social results, in the course of relatively few centuries, have been: (1) The emancipation of the individual from the control of superstition and arbitrary authority in the field of religious belief and organization; (2) The emancipation of the individual from the control of arbitrary and irresponsible authority in his political relations; (3) The extention of human knowledge and its applications to the problems of finding and utilizing nature's materials and of so arranging and controlling nature's forces as to cause them to serve man's purposes. These applications have revolutionized the whole field of economic relations—communication, transportation, production, and distribution. These transformations and adjustments in the economic field, long in process and now apparently reaching a critical stage, appear to be leading to a corresponding emancipation of the individual from the control of arbitrary and irresponsible authority in his economic relations.

Each of these significant social results has been followed and in a measure accompanied by radical changes and extensive developments in the field of educational service. It was recognized early in the process that freedom for the individual brings responsibility to the individual; that new rights always carry with them new duties. To meet the new responsibilities and perform the new duties in the religious and political phases of his life it is necessary for the individual to be informed, to be given control of the tools by which information may be secured, to be trained in evaluating such information and in forming judgments in regard thereto. For the safety and welfare of himself and his fellows it is imperative that the educational preparation of the individual must keep pace with the rights and duties of the individual. This necessity has formed the basic reason for the extension of elementary education to all, for the development of state supported school systems and for the enactment of compulsory school attendance laws in all democratic countries.

The enormous increase in the productive power of mankind and the new facilities for communication, transportation, production and distribution which have been made possible through the applications of science to the problems involved have made it economically possible (1) To eliminate slavery; (2) To restrict greatly the economic exploitation of children; (3) To prevent the employment of women in occupations wholly unsuited to their physical powers; (4) To have a shorter working day for all; (5) And to raise the standard of living for all.

Educationally it has made it economically possible, not only to withhold children from employment for a longer period, but while withheld, to provide for their training in preparation for their future participation in adult activities. It is being found economically possible also, as further progress is made, to extend the period during which adolescent boys and girls may be withheld from full-time participation in gainful employment for the purposes of more adequate preparation for life's responsibilities and duties in a democratic community and state.

Quite as significant as the economic possibility of giving to extended period of trainig for our youth is the social and economic necessity for such an extensin due to the increased complexity of human relations. An extension of the period of preparatory training throughout the period of adolescence is essential if our boys and girls are to be equipped with the knowledge, the skil, the intelligence and ideals necessary for successful participation in human affairs—be they social, political or economic.

The necessity for such a period of secondary education has been to professional service, and, it may be, through professional service, to recognibed for the relatively small percentage of our youth who aspire social and political leadership. Even in these fields the requirements for average success and especially for leadership are becoming more and more extensive and exacting. In medicine, for example, even a bright student does not count on beginning the independent practice of his profession until he is twenty-eight or even thirty years of age.

The complexity of the modern economic situation in all its aspects—communication, transportation, production, manufacturing, distribution—is such as to make imperative a much longer period of training for those who are to find employment in business and industry than that found necessary a generation ago. Those who aspire to leadership or even to junior and senior administrative and executive positions now consider four years' work of college grade a necessary preparation. Quite as significant and important is the necessity for secondary education for adolescents who expect either to go forward to such senior courses or to find employment in the junior and operative positions which call for special skills, specitl trade and related knowledge. Many workers in both business and industry under modern conditions are not asked for more than the efficient performance of a very narrow routine of work which calls for little skill and little, if ny, mental effort. For such a group there must be a training which will discover and give opportunity to those who have the capacity for greater responsibility. There must be also, during the period of adolescence, a training which will result in this group being informed and intelligent in regard to their relations to their fellows—social, political and economic—as well as in regard to appreciation of the problems of the business or industry with which they are associated. Those who cannot gain the intellectual and technical mastery must have their appreciations and ideals cultivated in harmony with the principles of democracy. If their daily job requires little of their intelligence, as home-makers, citizens and co-operators in business and industry, such is demanded of them in terms of intelligence and character.

In the light of what has been said, it is clear that the present effort of Ontario to develop an adequate system of vocational education is neither the result of the activity of a few enthusiasts nor a special provision for a temporary need. It is the result of basic, economic and social necessity. Such provision must be made and must be effectively administered if our Canadian-born youth is to be given an even chance with those who come to us from other lands, and if our country is to attain and retain its place among progressive and competent democratic peoples.

The Dominion Government, recognizing that the question of vocational education was a matter of national as well as of provincial significance, passed the Technical Education Act of 1919. This Act provided for the distribution to the provinces of $10,000,000 over a period of ten years, provided the provinces spend an equal amount of their own money. The provincial governments are, in turn, distributing the $20,000,000 thus made available to the municipalities provided they, in turn, spend at least an equal amount of their own funds for the purposes of vocational education. During the ten year period beginning with 1919, more than $40,000,000 will be made available for the purpose of laying the foundations for a permanent system of vocational education in Canada.

The effective use of these funds calls for careful planning and sane administration, but it calls for more than that. Initiative, vision and the exercise of creative faculties on the part of school boards, educational leaders, industrial and commercial leaders, and of the instructors who are to give the trailng are essential if a satisfactory foundation is to be laid. It involves so much more than the mere provision of buildings and equipment, however necessary these may be. It means the development of organized instruction and training in new fields, the organization of courses of instruction around new central purposes. It means the training of those who are to be the instructors in the new subjects and of those who are to teach the old subjects in this new relationship. It means new conceptions to be given to youth and, above all, to parents and school officials. It means a new and intimate relationship of co-operation between the organizations controlling education and training and the organizations controlling business and industry. It means that the opportunities for training and instruction must be available not merely during the years of youth, but throughout the vocational careers of all. The increased frequency with which changes take place in all fields of work make such provision for supplementary training a necessary part in any scheme for vocational education.

Good progress is being made in Ontario. Evening vocational classes were conducted during the the past winter in 58 centres with an enrolment of over 25,000 persons. Day vocational schools are now operating in ten centres—Toronto, Hamilton, London, Ottawa, Brantford, Windsor, Chatham, Niagara Falls, Sudbury and Haileybury. The new buildings in Fort William and in Sudbury will be ready for use at the beginning of the next school term. Toronto is building a new Branch Technical School at an initial cost of $400,000. Hamilton is adding a central unit to the new school at a cost of $500,000. Sarnia is building its new composite secondary school which is costing in the neighborhood of $500,000. Sault Ste. Marie is proceeding with the construction of its vocational school. Walkerville and Windsor are co-operating in the construction and maintenance of a vocational school which will cost in the neighborhood of $500,000. Peterborough, Guelph, Galt, Belleville, St. Thomas, St. Catharines, Timmins and Kenora, with the co-operation of the Department of Education have had vocational education surveys made with a view to determining what needs to be done. The reports of these surveys have been made. Action on the part of these and other communities will be taken no doubt when the local communities are prepared to make the necessary expenditures.

It is important that communities consider expenditures for education as an investment. With wise policies and effective administration it is the safest and, at the same time, the most profitable investment that people in a democratic country can make. The difficulty is for the adults of to-day to become willing to provide liberally for the training of those who are to be the adults of to-morrow. Yet the best period in which to lay the foundations for social and vocational life is the period of adolescence. With all its instability and unreliability it is the period during which the individual gets those glimpses of distant purpose which are to lead him to attainment; it is the period during which there wells up within him those impulses and aspirations which are to form the driving power and the ideals that are to sustain his efforts through drudgery and difficulty until he has attained. It is the period during which there can be laid to best advantage in his mind and heart the ideals and the basic methods which control his relationship to his fellows in its social, political and economic aspects.

The Canada of To-morrow, the Canada of 1975 to 2000 A. D., when the boys and girls of to-day are holding the positions of responsibility, will be a Canada of thirty or forty millions of people. When their day of stress and trial comes, will they be able to look back to us and say, "We are prepared. We know and we can do because those who went before planned wisely and provided generously to prepare us for our task." They must meet their responsibilities or those from other lands will do it for them.

Ladies and gentlemen, much more than monetary expenditure is necessary if we, the adults of to-day, are to do our part. We must spend ourselves as well as our money. As teachers, as parents, as employers or fellow-workers, we must give the time, the thought, the energy, feeling and will that is necessary to vitalize our relationship to our youth and bring them into right relations to their fellows and to their future responsibilities.

Toronto, June 7th, 1921.

A NOTTAWASAGA PIONEER

There passed away on Thursday, June 9th, an old pioneer of Mulmur, at the home of his daughter, on lot 10, con. 5, Nottawasaga, in the person of Wm. Maxwell, at the grand old age of 89 years. The deceased was born in the County of Armagh, Ireland, and came to Canada in the year 1857. In 1861 he married Jane Campbell, of Orangeville, by the Rev. Robert McKee. He moved to the township of Tossorontio, and later to the township of Mulmur, where he spent the greater part of his life. In 1901 he moved to Creemore, and lived at his residence on Edward St., now occupied by Wm. Lemon, when he became helpless and was taken to his son, James, New Lowell, and later to his daughter's, Mrs. Jane Colgan, west of Creemore, where do died. He leaves to mourn his loss: his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Jane Colgan, Nottawasaga, and Mrs. John Lane, Mulmur, who predeceased him in 1908; three sons, James, Nottawasaga; Robert and Thomas, of Toronto; sixteen grandchildren and two great-grand children. The funeral took place from his daughter's, Mrs. Colgan, on Saturday, and was largely attended. Interment took place in the Union Cemetery, Creemore. Rev. C. H. McDonald conducted the services. The pallbearers were three sons and three grand children.

Five hundred dollars was the damages received by Mrs. Frank Swatman, Sandwich West, in her action against M. M. and E. Watson, Windsor, for injuries received in a motor accident.

Owen Sound has provided a civic camping ground for motorists.

Brockville milk dealers have reduced the price to nine cents a quart.

Constables John Smith and John Norman, Sarnia, have tendered their resignations.

It is stated that the Ontario Government will build a paper cement plant near Walkerton.

Wellington County Council will spend $83,550 on the 354 miles of county roads this year. Of this amount $625.00 on two and a half miles of road, goes to Erin township.

Burglars were busy in Milton one night recently. Goods were stolen from Dawson's hardware store; a five gallon keg of wine from the Grand Trunk Station and a motor car from an Italian resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Drummond Tate, of Grand Valley, announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary E., to Mr. C. G. Sharpe, of Toronto, son of G. E. Sharpe, of Owen Sound, the marriage to take place in July.

A Guelph burglar bungled his job when he attempted to remove a diamond ring from the finger of Mrs. Gardiner, of Chatham when she was asleep in the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Jackson, whose house he was burglarizing.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, June 22nd, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greer, 5th line, Melancthon, when their eldest daughter, Tressy A., was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Geo. Barrett, a prosperous young farmer of Melancthon.

Karl Homuth, M. P. P., has directed the placing of 20,000 small black bass in the Grand and Speed rivers. Ten thousand were placed in the Grand River, at Galt, twenty thousand in the Speed River, half of which were placed at Hespeler, and the other at Preston.

An accident which, happily, had no serious consequences, occurred at the barn raising at Mr. P. O'Leary's, near Loretto. Mr. John Joyce was engaged in the operation of fixing a "stringer" when he lost his balance and fell, making a grab for a nearby suspended logging chain, the hook of which entered the arm and caused a nasty laceration.

George H. Parslow, a well known farmer of the 14th con., Preston, met with a horrible accident while sawing wood at his home with a power outfit. His leg was torn off a little below the knee. It appears that the belt slipped off the pulley at the machine, and putting his foot on it he was precipitated instantly to the pulley on the engine with the awful results.

Alex Boyd, of Toronto, passed away in the General Hospital, where he underwent an operation the week before last. He was born in Eramosa 57 years ago, where he spent his early years. For several years he resided in Hillsburg and engaged in the grain business. Twelve years ago he moved to Port Hope, where he resided for several years, one of them he held the position of Chief of Police. The last three years he has lived in Toronto. He leaves to mourn his loss a number of brothers and sisters, his widow and four daughters.

JOHN J. HALL

Early on Monday morning of this week there passed away at his residence, Andrew St., Shelburne, another highly respected resident of this town in the person of J. Hall, at the age of 61 years. Deceased has been confined to bed for the past five weeks with influenza and pneumonia, diabetes finally resulting and causing his death. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, early settlers on lot 29, con. 1, Amaranth. About 42 years ago he married Mary Phillips, daughter of the late Henry Phillips of this town, and they came to Shelburne to reside about 12 years ago. The deceased first started in business here as a gardener and worked up an extensive greenhouse business, which he attended to until his death. He also acted in the capacity of Police Magistrate, few cases of late being upon the docket without his presence. He was a man of big size, weighing, when in normal health, over 300 pounds, consequently his illness was rather trying and irritating. He is survived by his widow and one son, Jno H. Hall; four brothers, Wm. T., Winnipeg, Man.; L. S., Denver, Col.; R. F., Kansas City, Kan.; E. L., Toronto; and four sisters, Mrs. Joshua Hare, Mrs W. Sanderson, and Mrs. (Rev.) Dunn, Toronto, and Mrs. H. Graham, Culross, Man. His remains were interred in Shelburne Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon of this week—Free Press.

—The championship lacrosse game between the St. Simons team and The Dufferins will be one of the big attractions at Grangeville's 55th of July Celebration.

Nearly Insane From Leg Ulcers

The tale of suffering and brief story of her relief.

Read these two letters from Sarah D. Lawrence of Roebuck, Ontario. "I can't sleep at night from leg ulcers. I am in pain most of the time. I have doctored but no use. A lady from Winnipeg says that D. D. D. cured her of a bad case of eczema. Then her sores are all healed. Can you help me?"

Now a few words from a later letter. "I have used D. D. D. as directed, and my leg is completely well."

Why not be convinced and try this remedy today for any form of skin disease? One application and the itch is gone. You money back if relief doesn't come from the first bottle. 85 cts bottle. Try D. D. D. Soap, too.

Five human beings—two females and three males—are to divide the $5,000 offered for the recapture of Norman Garland, the Woodstock murderer. Each gets $200.

Milton's four-day Chautauqua closed with a record-breaking attendance. The proceeds, after paying nearly $1,000 for expenses, will be divided between several deserving organizations.

For different reasons the 12th of July Celebration which was to have been held in Walkerton cannot be held there this year, and Palmerston has been decided on for lodges in Wellington and Perth.

R. Verne Russell, who recently arrived from Sturgeon Falls where he was principal of the high school, has accepted a similar position in Grand Valley High School for the term beginning in September.

Robert Wesley Jones, the young man who has been held as a suspect following the attempted highway robbery near Bolton, was sentenced by P. M. Crawford to serve three months with hard labor in the Brampton jail for carrying firearms without a license.

An Inglewood youth is said to have gashed his throat badly with his brother's razor in an attempt to commit suicide which fortunately proved abortive. The young man's desire to take his life is said to have been caused because a village belle would not marry him.

At a recent session of the Guelph Police Court, Magistrate Watt announced that the case of Wm. Griffen, of Erin, who is charged with committing a serious offence against a young girl, also of Erin village, would be heard on Thursday, July 7th. The case has been standing over since April last.

Jessie Rilla, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Stinson, of Mansfield, died on the 18th of June, from an infantile trouble that baffled the doctors. The little one was sick but a few days and was 20 months old.

There were 74 candidates wrote on the High School Entrance examination in Mount Forest.

NELSON–SCARLAND

The Methodist Church, Niagara-on the Lake, was the scene of a very quiet wedding at noon on Wednesday, June 29th, when Ethel Maud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Scarland, Woodbridge, Ont., was united in marriage to Hunter Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson, of Toronto. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Geo. D. Moore, brother-in-law of the groom, the bride being attended by her sister, Myrtle, while Harry McIntyre, of Grand Valley, acted as best man. After returning from their wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson will reside near Laurel, Ont.

THE MAPLES

The Women's Institute will hold their annual garden party on The Maples School grounds on Friday evening, July 8th. Will J. White, popular concert comedian, and Harold Rich, a refined entertainer, will provide the program for the evening. Refreshment booths on the grounds. Ad-

M'KINLEY–M'MULLIN

Wedding bells rang again in Caledon East on Wednesday, June 15th, when Miss Myrtle May McMullin, of Mono Mills, daughter of the late George McMullin and Mrs. McMullin, was united in marriage to Mr. William Wilfrid McKinley, of Caledon East, son of Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley. The wedding took place quietly and impressively at the Methodist Parsonge and was conducted by the Rev. Alfred Laycock, a former pastor of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. John Wesley McMullin, wore a smart suit of navy tricotine with pretty tulle hat. Miss Carrie McKinley attended the bride. After the ceremony the happy couple left on the evening train for Hamilton and were honored by a hearty send-off by their many friends of Caledon East and vicinity.

"LET me get him on Long Distance, and I'll soon settle this"—says the shrewd business man, as an emergency arises. His personality, with the persuasive tones that helped him build up his business in the old days, is still the greatest force at his command, and it never fails to bring the needed results.

Long Distance permits him to retain that personal contact and influence with men in distant places, on which his success was built. "If one of our travellers fails to secure an important order, he gets me on Long Distance before the interview is over, and I nearly always land it."

The power of Long Distance as a business-getter is only beginning to be appreciated. "Use the 'Bell' to Sell", and see how economically it produces results. WARDEN'S ADDRESS

County is in Splendid Financial Condition, Being Entirely Free of Debt.

In his address to the County Council during the June session, Warden Brown commented upon the enviable financial position of the County of Dufferin, which, despite the heavy expenditure on County Roads and for other purposes, is still entirely free of debenture debt. The Warden also stated that because of the many new expenditures that are being forced upon the County the Council would likely find it necessary to increase the county rate. The full text of the address follows:

Orangeville, June 21, 1921

To the Members of the County Council of the County of Dufferin:

Gentlemen,—

Once more we are permitted to meet for the transaction of County business and it gives me much pleasure to meet you all again and to welcome you to this June Session of the County Council.

I am pleased to note that the crops are in a good healthy condition and prospects are good for a bountiful harvest in this banner County of Dufferin.

The Chairman of the Road and Bridge Committee, the County Engineer and myself have made an inspection of Boundary Line Bridges and a report of the same will be presented to you for consideration by the Chairman, at this session of Council.

It will be necessary to pass a by-law to equalise the assessment of the County, also to levy the rates for expenditure, including Roads and Bridges and County Roads.

The Committee, appointed at the January session of this Council to consolidate the By-laws of the County, have completed their work and copies of the By-laws, revised up to date, have been printed and are ready for distribution in pamphlet form. The By-laws have been very carefully indexed and any By-law in force at the present time can now be turned up without trouble, which will be of great assistance to the Councillors and others in the transaction of County business.

It is a source of great satisfaction to me and I know you will be pleased to learn that, notwithstanding the heavy expenditure made last year on County Roads, the County is in splendid financial condition I am informed by our County Treasurer that at the present time we are in the enviable position of being entirely free from debenture and bank debt and at the end of our financial year had a surplus of $1,168.60.

As many new obligations are being forced upon the County by the Government, such as increased aid for Schools, Mothers' Pensions, Children's Aid, etc., I do not think it will be possible to meet these increased obligations without increasing our County levy which in the past has been about the lowest for any County in the Province of Ontario.

It is pleasing to know that our levy for boundary line bridges will be unusually low for the present year, which will enable us to provide more for our County Roads.

In conclusion I wish to thank you for your careful consideration of all business coming before you. I feel sure that things have been carried on in a manner that will reflect credit upon the County.

(sgd.) JAMES BROWN,
Warden.

BONE DRY ON JULY 18

Ontario will become "bone dry" on July 18. Proclamations to that effect appeared in the Canada Gazette on June 18th. The proclamation affecting Ontario provides that thirty days from its publication, that is, on July 18, the sections of the Canada Temperance Act prohibiting importation of intoxicating beverages into the province shall become operative. That is to say, on and after July 18, importation of such liquors, except for medicinal, industrial and sacramental purposes, into Ontario will be illegal.

WHITTINGTON

The Whittington Women's Institute will hold a picnic in Mr. R. J. Wallace's grove on Friday afternoon, July 8th. The members are asked to bring lunch. Everybody is invited to come and have a good time.

Miss Georgina Beatty, of St. Catharines, was the guest of Miss Lorna Cruikshank for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Trodgett and little son, Ralph, of Toronto, spent the week-end as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cruikshank.

KNOX CHURCH GRAND VALLEY

The Ladies' Aid of Knox Church, Grand Valley, will hold their annual Garden Party at Wm. Crane's on Friday evening, July 15th. The Ladies will serve an old-fashioned Supper followed by a good programme. Admission, 50c. and 25c. for children under 10 years.

IT IS HOT

Ontario Sweltering With Thermometer in the Nineties in the Shade. Weatherman Holds Out Little Prospect of Cooler Weather For Sometime.

For the last week Ontario has been sweltering under a spell of extremely hot weather. Day after day the thermometer has climbed into the nineties in the shade and away over one hundred in the sun. Monday afternoon when exposed to the [illegible] sun the big thermometer on South Broadway near the Post Office stood at 106. It is very unusual to have a torrid spell of such length, particularly so early in the summer as this. Heavy rains fell on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week, bringing badly needed moisture to the hot and parched earth. The rains, however, did not bring any relief from the extreme heat. This, too, is very unusual, for in Ontario thunderstorms are almost invariably followed by a shifting of the wind to the west or northwest and a few days of much cooler weather. Last week's rains saved the crops for the time being. Meadows, grain and roots of all kinds were badly in need of rain and much injury would have resulted had it been withheld much longer. Rain would be welcome again now, but there is none in sight and at present the weather signs point to a continuance of the present dry and extremely hot spell. Houses everywhere are superheated and it is impossible to get bedrooms cooled sufficiently at nights to permit the occupants to spend the earlier part of the night in any degree of comfort. Toward morning the air gets cooled sufficiently to permit sleeping in comfort, but as soon as the sun appears above the horizon everything starts to heat up for another almost unendurable day.

Farmers and other classes of outdoor workers find the sun and torrid heat hard to endure. It is also very hard on horses. On Saturday the Italians who are grading for the Provincial Roads Department on the Prince of Wales Road lost a fine horse from the heat. Monday a team was overcome on the highway near Claude in the County of Peel. One of them died and the other is ill and under the care of a veterinary. Two cases of heat prostration are reported from the township of Melancthon. On Saturday a man was prostrated by the heat while working in the fields and on Monday another was overcome while attending service in one of the Melancthon churches. It is also reported that a young man named McKinnon was prostrated in Caledon township on Monday.

THE 12TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

Orangeville's 12th of July Celebration next Tuesday promises to equal or surpass any former Celebration in the history of the town. Nearly every lodge in the County of Dufferin will be here and the visiting lodges will include the Mulmur and Bradford districts from the County of Simcoe and the Mt. Forest district in the County of Wellington. It is probable that there will be at least fifty lodges represented in the procession which will form on the Market Square at one o'clock and march to the Exhibition grounds, where a programme of addresses and music will be provided. County Master T. H. Bullock will preside and the speakers will include Rev. John Coburn, of Toronto;, Rev. T. R. White, of Cookstown; John Best, M. P.; T. K. Slack, M. L. A.; C. R. McKeown, K. C.; John Reburn; Rev. A. W. Hone, of Bradford; Revs. S. Lundie and J. D. Truax, of Grand Valley, and others. Local Committees are hard at work making the necessary arrangements, including special provision for feeding the multitude of visitors expected in the town for the day.

ALTON

A memorial service for the soldier heroes of the church and community will be held in the Alton Methodist Church on Sunday next, July 10th, at 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon. The following will be the order of service:—

Hymn—"Unto the Hills."
Prayer—Rev. W. N. Carr.
Lesson—Psalm 46.
Anthem—"If He Should Come Today," by Carrie B. Adams.
Address—Rev. H. L. Partridge, B. A., Orangeville.
Hymn—
Address—
Anthem—"A Memorial," By Dr. S. B. Jackson.
Reading of Names—Capt. J. F. C. Morris.
Last Post—
Address—Lt.-Col. G. H. Williams, D. D., pastor of Shelbourne St. Methodist Church, Toronto, and Assistant Director of Chaplain Services for Canada during the War.
Hymn—"For All The Saints."
Benediction—

The service in the Melville Appointment will be withdrawn next Sunday afternoon on account of the Memorial service in Alton Methodist church.

Lieut.-Col. Williams, who will be the chief speaker at the Memorial service Sunday afternoon, will also preach in the Methodist church here at night.

ORANGEMEN'S SERVICE

Members of the two local Orange Lodges will attend divine service in the Baptist Church on Sunday, July 10th, at 11 a.m. Rev. J. W. Edwards, the pastor, will address the brethren. The Lodges will meet at L. O. L. 635 Hall at 10.30 a.m. Members of neighboring Lodges are cordially invited to attend the service and join the local brethren in the parade.

MONO MILLS.

The people of the community and the pupils of the school bade farewell to Miss Edna Gallaugher, of Mansfield, on Thursday evening last, when they assembled at the grounds in connection with the English church parish hall. The affectionate esteem in which Miss Gallaugher was held by her pupils was expressed in the presentation of a locket and an ivory set, accompanied by an appreciative address, which was read by Emma Arlow. Gordon Duke and Ina Adair made the presentation, after which the chairman called upon Miss Ursie Matheson, who read an address from the Sunday School, in which Miss Gallaugher has always been an active and energetic worker. At the proper moment Miss Clara Jones presented her with a leather club bag. Miss GaHaugher expressed in a few well-chosen words her sincere appreciation of the kindness of her pupils and the people of Mono Mills and her regret at leaving the community where she had made so many true friends. She assured the people here that in her future work as teacher in Toronto, she would not soon forget the pleasant relations that had always existed with everyone during the three years she had spent amongst the people of Mono Mills. The evening was then very pleasantly spent in games, music and in doing justice to a splendid luncheon. Rev. J. A. Matheson occupied the chair. The addresses follow:—

Dear Miss Gallaugher,—

As teachers, officers and scholars of the Union Sunday School, Mono Mills, we greatly regret to learn that you are removing from our community where you have given such willing and efficient services in every good cause. You have never spared yourself whenever you saw that good could be accomplished, and we can assure you that the influence of your example and of your work here will be felt for a very long time. You have been a faithful and successful worker in our Sunday School since its inception. A large share of its success is due to your untiring efforts with those of others who have at heart the welfare of the young. Your assistance to the Boys' and Girls Clubs will always be remembered with gratitude and pleasure, and we all unite in wishing you a happy career wherever your sphere of work may be. Kindly accept as a reminder of our pleasant associations this little gift.

Signed in behalf of the Union Sunday School,

W. G. DUKE,
D. N. POTTER.

Dear Miss Gallaugher,—

We, your pupils of School No. 16, Caledon, whom you have taught for the last two and a half years, learn with deep regret that you are not coming back to be our teacher again when the next term opens. We had hoped that you would always be with us as long as we should attend school. We cannot get words to express our feelings over our disappointment. We, however, promise to do our best to keep in mind the lessons you taught us, the good example you have always shown us and we wish you every happiness and much success in your work wherever you may be. Please accept the accompanying gift as a small token of our gratitude and esteem.

Signed in behalf of the school,
Emma Arlow, Lovina McCandless and Ina Adair.

Rev. D. G. Atkinson will address the brethren of Mono Mills L. O. L. No. 192 in the Anglican church at 7 o'clock on Sunday evening next. The members of neighboring Orange and True Blue Lodges are cordially invited to join in the service.

Remember the postponed Garden Party of Mono East Presbyterian Church on the grounds of Mr. Alfred Mills, 7th line, Mono, on Thursday night. The best programme of the season will be furnished. Everybody is going.

Connor Orange and True Blue Lodges will attend divine service in St. John's Church, 7th line, Mono, at 3 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, July 10th. Rev. D. G. Atkinson, the rector, will address the members of the two lodges. Members of neighboring Orange and True Blue Lodges are given a cordial invitation to join in the service.

THE ST. SIMONS GAME

Excitement will run high when the Toronto-St. Simons team and The Dufferins clash on Idylwyld Park next Tuesday afternoon, July 12th. The teams are tied for first place in the group and both are anxious to win the game. St. Simons are bringing up their best available team. The Dufferins will also have their strongest line-up out for the game. The ball will be faced at 3.30 sharp. On account of the Orange Celebration in town the game is sure to attract an immense crowd.

PASTORATE CLOSED

The Collingwood Bulletin states that on Sunday evening at the Maple Street Methodist Church, and to a large congregation Rev. E. J. Adams; formerly of Laurel, gave his farewell sermon, therewith closing his four years' pastorate in that town. The service throughout was decidedly interesting and was added to by a visit from Rev. S. Farley, M. A., of the Presbyterian Church, who spoke on behalf of his session and his congregation, expressing such appreciation of Rev. Mr. Adams, and conveying to him their best wishes for his continued success in the work of the ministry. Rev. Mr. Adams goes from Collingwood to Cannon Church, Toronto.

PRESENTATION TO TEACHER

The pupils of S. S. No. 18, Caledon, presented their teacher, Miss Atkinson, with a beautiful parasol with sterling silver handle. Miss [illegible] McKim read the address [illegible] gift. Aileen Speers presented [illegible] as follows: The address was [illegible] June 27th, 1921.

Miss [illegible] Atkinson, Teacher.

Dear Miss Atkinson:—Hearing that you are about to leave our school, we feel that we cannot let you, our teacher, depart without some tangible expression of the high esteem in which we hold you.

We have not been as diligent or attentive as we might have been at times, perhaps, but we would ask you to look over our failings and think only of the pleasant times we have spent together. We ask you to accept this parasol as a slight token of our good will. We wish you God's richest blessing and a multitude of true friends in your new charge, wherever that may be.

Signed on behalf of S. S. No. 18.

Miss Atkinson has been in this school two years and had been quite a favorite among the people of the section. We learn she has accepted Caledon School for the next term.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT

An American tourist in Scotland took a great fancy to a handsome collie he saw and offered to buy it. The owner asked some question and on learning that it was the would-be purchaser's intention to take Jock to America, he refused to part with the dog.

Just then a fellow-countryman came along and he also made a bid for the collie, which, though less than the first offer, was finally accepted. The American was annoyed and when the Englishman had departed, he said: "You told me you wouldn't sell your dog."

"Na, na," replied the canny Scot. "I sold him to Jock to Amerrica, but I'll see him back in a day or two never fear. But he couldna swim the Atlantic."

AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION AT UNIVERSITIES

Agriculture being the basic industry of the country, every advance made in the development of agricultural education is of national value. Recently, several provincial universities have presented extension courses for the benefit of farmers and others. To this end the educational authorities have co-operated with farmers' organizations with highly encouraging results. In the case of Manitoba a course of lectures was given on rural economics and sociology, supplemented by special lectures on a variety of subjects appealing to other sections of the community. In Ontario also, the University of Toronto was induced to give a similar course. A noteworthy feature of the course was the taking of students to the stock-yards, the abattoirs, and other places of a pretical illustrative value. It is felt that the alliance thus established between the agricultural industry and those engaged in educational work will tend to a better understanding of economic problems which affect the welfare of town and country alike.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

SHOOTING MATCHES

(Intended for last week.)

A team of nine Pioneer Rifle Cadets went to shoot in a match against the Hillsburg Rifle Club on June 22nd. The total scores were: Hillsburg 1043, Orangeville Cadets 968. The return match was shot at the P. S. Cadet range on June 22nd. The scores were as follows:—

The Hillsburg Club treated the Cadets to a splendid supper at the hotel there and after the return shoot the visitors were treated to a lunch by some of the ladies of the P. S. staff. Keen interest was manifested in both matches. In justice to the Cadets it should be stated that they were up against marksmen much older and more experienced than themselves. Taking this fact into consideration the locals made a most creditable showing.

WHAT THE FLOOR MANAGER SAID

At a country dance in Kent county, when the fiddlers had resined their bows and taken their places on the platform, the floor manager rose. "Git yo' partners fo' a cotillion," he shouted imperiously. 'Al yo' ladies an' wommen dat wears shoes an' stockings take yo' places in de middle of de room. All yo' ladies an' wommen dat wears shoes an' no stockings, take yo' places immediately behin' dem. An' yo' barfooted crowd, yo' last big 'n' roun' in de corners."

FLYING ALLIGATORS

The hard working fancy dealer had vainly ransacked the whole of his shop in his effort to please an old lady who wanted to purchase a present for her granddaughter. For the fifteenth time she picked up and critically examined a neat little mantel.

"Are you quite sure that this is a genuine 'alligator skin?'" she inquired.

"Positive, madam," quoth the dealer "I shot the alligator myself."

"It looks rather soiled," said the lady.

"That, madam, is where it struck the ground when it fell off the tree."

THE FOURTH CLASS PICNIC

(Intended for last week.)

Our Fourth Class gave a picnic,
The Seniors came along,
We went a rough and rocky road,
And, gee! the sun was strong.

Some of them went in an old Ford car,
While others went on bikes,
Which shows what tender feet they are,
And not much used to hikes.

The ones that rode the whole way out,
Got there ahead of time,
While we who walked took short cuts
And went the old spur line.

At last we came to our journey's end
And all sat down to rest,
And I must say, for fence climbing,
The teacher did the best.

But, ah, the naughty little boys,
What do you 'spose they'd done?
They tore the boards off an old house,
Thinking it was fun.

Hewson handed them the hammers,
Carpenters were few,
But when the boys had fixed it up,
The house just looked like new.

At length, when Mr. Firth appeared,
We all felt very gay,
And everybody cheered and cheered
And cheered, "Hip, Hip, Hooray."

A game of football then we had,
A right one it was too,
But when they said it was a tie,
Then neither side felt blue.

And then when lunch time came, oh, boy!
Our stomachs we did fill,
There wasn't much left over,
But the papers are there still

And when we had our supper,
We started out for home,
And that night in our rosy dreams,
The country we did roam.

NECESSARY PRELIMINARY

A recent experience of a Virginia clergyman throws light on the old English law requiring that marriages should be celebrated before noon. A colored couple appeared before him, asking to be married, the man in a considerably muddled state. The minister said to the woman, "I won't perform this ceremony."

"Why is dat, boss?" she queried "Ain't de licenses all right? An, we is we of age."

"Yes but the man is drunk. Take him away and come back again." Several days later the couple again presented themselves, the man once more obviously intoxicated. "See here, I told you I wouldn't marry you when this man was drunk," the minister said testily. Don't you come back here till he's sober."

"Well, you see, suh," the woman replied apologetically, "de trufe is dat he won't come less'n he's ti up."

CHEVROLET

For Economical Transportation

THE more a man knows about automobiles, the more experience he himself has had with them, the more critical he is apt to be of their essential features.

To satisfy this class of motorists is the chief motive of Chevrolet construction and equipment.

It is to this element therefore that the convenience of operation, accessibility and equipment, the dependability and economy of the Chrevolet makes its greatest appeal.

WM. W. YOUNG

After an illness of some months' duration, Wm. W. Young, Esq., of the 10th con., Erin, passed away at his home early on Tuesday morning, June 14th last, surrounded by the members of his family and his sisters and brother. The funeral took place on Thursday, June 16th, and a large gathering of friends came to express their regard and respect for a sincere friend and good neighbor. The pallbearers were six nephews, Neil McKinnon, Ed. Young, Elgin Barbour, Arnold Barbour, Geo. Lacey, H. Nodwell. Many friends came from a distance, among whom were Rev. A. Fowlie and Mrs. Fowlie, Mrs. George Ballentyne, and others. The services at the home and at interment in Huxley's Cemetery, were conducted by Rev. F. C. Harper, of St. Andrew's Church, Hillsburg.

STOMACH TROUBLE DUE TO THIN BLOOD

It Usually Disappears When the Blood is Made Rich and Red.

Thin blood is one of the most common causes of stomach trouble. It affects the digestion very quickly. The glands that furnish the digestive fluids are diminished in their activity, the stomach muscles are weakened and there is a loss of nerve force. In this state of health nothing will more quickly restore the appetite, digestion and normal nutrition that good, rich, red blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood, making it rich and red, and this enriched blood strengthens weak nerves, stimulates tired muscles, and awakens to normal activity the glands that supply the digestive fluids. This is shown by an improved appetite, and soon the effect of these blood enriching pills is evident throughout the whole system. You find that what you eat does not distress you, and that you are vigorous instead of irritable and listless. If your appetite is fickle, if you have any of the distressing pains and symptoms of indigestion you should at once take Dr. Williams Pink Pills and profit by the better condition in which they will put your blood.

These pills are sold by all dealers in medicine, or you can get them by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PRESENTATION TO TEACHER

On Monday afternoon, June 27th, the pupils and a number of the parents and ratepayers of S. S. No. 19, Mono, (the Gleno School) presented their teacher, Miss Beatrice Emack, with a beautiful Japanese tea service and the following address:—

Dear Miss Emack,—

Now that the time has come for our parting as teacher and pupils, we have a few words to say in appreciation of your work at Gleno.

During the last year and a half you have taught us faithfully and patiently. We feel that under your tuition we have made good progress. Never holding aloof you have been our teacher, friend and playmate, sharing our sports and helping us out of our difficulties.

We would gladly have you stay but our best wishes accompany you always. We think and hope that the future holds much happiness for you.

Let not our friendship like roses wither,
But like the evergreen live on forever.

We ask you to accept this Japanese tea service as a souvenir of the happy time we have spent together and when you are enjoying the "cup that cheers" will you sometimes think of the little people at Gleno in whose hearts you have won a deep and lasting affection.

Signed in behalf of the pupils of the school,

VIOLA DERMOTT,
MERLE HALL,
ANNIE McKIM.

Miss Annie McKim read the address and Misses Merle Hall and Viola Dermott made the presentation. Miss Emack expressed her thanks in a brief reply in which she voiced her regret at severing her connection with the children and people of the section. Popular with the children and successful as a teacher, Miss Emack's departure means a very real loss to the section. We understand that she has decided to accept a school in Caledon.

NOBLE-WATSON

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. A. Watson, Back Line, Melancthon, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at two o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, June 29th, when their eldest daughter, Sadie G., was united in marriage to Mr. William John Clifford, Noble, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Noble, of Whitfield. Rev. F. G. Stotesbury, of Corbetton, officiated. The bridal party took their places on the lawn beneath an arch of evergreens decorated with orange blossoms and white bells, in the presence of about sixty guests. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked dainty in ivory satin and beaded georgette with veil of Brussels net, and carried a bouquet of pink Columbia roses and maiden hair fern. Miss Lulu Noble, of Chicago, sister of the groom, played Mendelssohn's wedding march. During the signing of the registed Miss Helena Myers sang very sweetly, "Drifting." The bride and groom led the way to the dining room, which was prettily decorted in white and blue. After the wedding repast the happy couple left on the evening train for a short trip to Toronto and Niagara, the bride travelling in a suit of navy tricocine, hand embroidered in blue and gold, with hat of navy mohair. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful and costly presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a cabinet of silver, to the pianiste a gold-filled fountain pen, and to the soloist a pearl bar pin. On their return the happy couple will reside on the groom's farm, 4th line, Ammaranth.

DOMINION DAY

Orangeville's Celebration Well-Attended Despite Excessive Heat and Numerous Counter-Attractions.

The excessive heat and numerous counter attractions doubtless kept a large number of people at home or induced them to spend last Friday elsewhere, but notwithstanding the influence of these factors it was an imposing concourse that thronged Idlewyld Park afternoon and evening for the Dominion Day Celebration held in Orangeville under the auspices of the Dufferin Lacrosse Club. The management of the Club had made arrangements for an extensive programme and visitors to the town found plenty to interest and entertain them during the day. Excellent music was provided by the Collingwood Kilties Band, Collingwood Highland Pipers and the Orangeville Citizens Band. The Kilties Band was here for the Dominion Day Celebration a year ago and the splendid impression created on that occasion was enhanced by the fine music they furnished on Friday. The organization is one of which Collingwood has good reason to be proud. Orangeville Citizens Band was also in excellent form and rendered a number of excellent selections under the skilled leadership of Mr. J. E. Jessop. The performance of the Band elicited much favorable comment and Mr. Jessop and his musicians would have felt proud indeed had they heard all the appreciative remarks called forth by their performance. For the Scotchman there is no music like the pipes and Scotchmen must have been out in force on Friday if one may judge of their numbers from the volume of the applause that greeted the Highlanders after every number. The pipers provided spirited music in a spirited manner. Their drummer was an artist and the skill with which he manipulated the drumsticks was good to watch.

The lacrosse match between the Durham intermediates and The Dufferins was one of the chief afternoon attractions. Unfortunately the visitors were short some of their regulars and consequently were not any match for The Dufferins, who played in real senior form. The green shirted home had the Durham defence completely non-plussed in the opening quarter and ran in four goals in almost as many minutes. After that the visitors settled away and made a much better showing. The halftime score was decidedly in favor of the Dufferins. In the second half the locals played ten men while the visitors were allowed to play twelve men. The disparity in numbers made its influence felt almost from the face-off and from then to the finish the spectators were treated to a real game. The final score was 16 to 9 in favor of The Dufferins. The game was interesting to watch, particularly in the second half. It gave the spectators an excellent chance to study the style of play of the two teams. The combination work of the Dufferin home was both pretty and effective and elicited much favorable comment from holiday visitors who had not had an opportunity this season to see the local team in action. The Durham home was much stronger than the visiting defence and showed up well whenever the opportunity offered. Hiltz worked like a beaver and his efforts were ably supported by Mac Saunders, Burnside and Kearney. Saunders is a fine shot and beat Booth two or three times with fast ones from well out on the side. The team was in charge of Harry Harding, a former Orangeville boy, who explained that the combination of his team was "all shot to pieces" by the absence of the missing regulars. Harding had gone to no end of trouble to get a team together for the game rather than cause any disappointmtnt at this end. Armour Robinson, a promising junior, was tried out on the Dufferin home and made a very good showing indeed. He has plenty of speed, is a clever stick-handler and fields the ball well Densmore, the big point man of the Dufferins, was indisposed and did not play. The teams were:—

Durham—Mercer, H. McDonald, Henning, A. Saunders, Hugill, Burnside, Hiltz, Burnside, Kearney, Mac Saunders, Eldridge and Saunders.

Dufferins—Booth, Cushing, Cranston, Black, Scott, Ewing, Golden, Gordon, Blythe Brown, Bert Brown, Spares, Stevenson, Mitchell and Robinson.

The lacrosse match was preceded by a baseball game between the Alton and Laurel teams. Both teams put up a good brand of ball but the Laurel nine won an easy victory, winning an eight innings game by the score of 11 to 0. The Alton boys fielded well, but when they came to bat found themselves at the mrecy of Harrington, a Toronto twirler, who was in the box for their opponents. Harrington handled himself like a professional and in several innings retired the opposing batsmen in one, two, three order. On the other hand the Laurel batters did not experience any real difficulty in solving the offerings of the Alton pitcher, who was hit hard and frequently. Good fielding on the part of the beaten team helped to hold down the score. In justice to the Alton boys it should be said that they played a purely home team. Players and positions were:—

Laurel—1st B., W. Lanktree; 2nd B., Craft; 3rd B., R. McDonald; ss., A. Buchanan; lf., Cecil Grosskurth; cf., Os. Black; rf., W. R. Grosskurth; c., J. McDonald; p., Harrigan.

Alton—c., Myers; p., R. McLean; 1st B., Palmer; 2nd B., Lowell; ss., McIntyre; 3rd B., Dean; rf., Dorrington; cf., MacLachlan; lf., Simpson.

In the early evening Dufferin Juveniles defeated a team of Juveniles representing Shelburne by a score of 12 to 3. Both teams played well and the game proved quite interesting to watch. The Dufferins were represented by the following players:—

Goal, Rhomer; point, Henry; cover-point, Hughes; defence, H. Flint and Crowe; centre, W. Flint; home, Connell and Smith; outside home, McKim; inside home, Hogg. Spare, Robinson.

At night a very fine band concert was given by the Collingwood Kilties Band and the Highland Pipers. The programme was pleasantly varied by a number of selections by Mr. Finlay, a Collingwood singer and humorist, who proved himself a veritable entertainer. The Concert was followed by a dance in the Opera House. The latter affair was largely attended by the young people of the town and district.

Between quarters of the lacrosse game a number of foot races were run off.

CHAS. J. M'CABE

Charles Joseph McCabe, of 423 Agnes St., Winnipeg, died on Sunday evening, June 26th, at 9.45 o'clock, aged 74 years and 5 months. Mr. McCabe retired from active business some years ago removing from Toronto to Winnipeg in 1911. He formerly resided near Orangeville and was the son of the late Henry McCabe, of Granger, Ont. Deceased is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Agnes McCabe, two daughters, Mrs. F. J. Clarke, of Regina, and Mrs. E. G Charter, of Winnipeg, and one son, H. R. S. McCabe, Managing Director of the Northwestern Life Assurance Company, and by tw sisters, Margaret, of Arthur, Ont., and Mrs. Ellen J. Thompson, of Toronto, and by two brothers, Richard, of Arthur, Ont., and Henry, of Toronto.

Mr. McCabe belonged to St. Edward's Roman Catholic Parish, Winnipeg, and was a member of the Knights of Columbus.

JOHN AIKINS

Mr. John Aikins, an old resident of Mono, passed away at his residence, lot 23, 4th line, in that township, on Tuesday morning June 28th, after an illness of six months duration from nerve trouble. He bore his sufferings with great patience, never complaining no matter in what position he was placed. Deceased was 67 years of age and had always lived and worked on the farm, where he was always contented. He was an old member of the Orange Order, having joined when he was eighteen years of age. He was deservedly respected as a neighbor and citizen and was always willing to give a helping hand wherever needed. In his domestic life he filled the part of a faithful husband and father. Deceased was a staunch Conservative and a man of strong convictions on public questions. The late Mr. Aikins was born on June 4th, 1854, on lot 24, 5th line, Mono, where he lived until he was 35 years of age when he moved to the farm on the 4th line where he resided until his death. In 1880 he was married to Miss Margaret Ann Halbert, daughter of John Halbert, 5th line, Mono. The union was blessed with a family of four daughters and two sons, all of whom survive. The daughters are Mrs. Wm. Anderson, Mono Centre, Mrs. Edgar Manning, Shelburne, Mrs Add. Allen, Glencross, and Miss Edna at hme; and the sons, J. J. Aikins, 4th line, Mono, and George on the homestead. One brother, R. J. Aikins, lives on the farm where the subject of our sketch was born. The surviving sisters are Mrs. Jos. Dermott, Elba, Mrs. James Foster, Shelburne. The funeral was held to Relessey Cemetery on Wednesday afternoon, June 29th, and was one of the largest ever witnessed in that community. Rev. Mr. Forth, present pastor of Relessey church, invoked the divine blessing and Rev. Garnet Lynd, of Laurel, preached the sermon. The pallbearers were old neighbors, namely, Messrs. Wm. Ewing, Thos. McFadden, Wm. Quigley, Richard Holmes and two brothers-in-law, Thos. Halbert and James Foster. The floral tributes included a broken column from the wife and family and a wreath from his only brother.

LADIES' MEETING

A meeting of the ladies will be held in the Library Auditorium at 8.30 o'clock on Monday evening, July 11th, for the purpose of making arrangements for the supply of refreshments during the approaching Bowling Tournament. All interested ladies are urged to attend.

12TH OF JULY DINNER

The ladies of the Methodist church are making arrangements to help entertain Twelfth of July visitors by serving a hot dinner in the basement of the church. Arrangements are being made to feed a large number of people. Strangers are reminded that the church is on First Ave., the first street north of the business part of Broadway.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends of the community for their kindness during the illness and since the death of our husband and father, the late John Aikins.

LOCAL NEWS.

—We regret to learn of the resignation of Miss E. Sinclair, of the High School staff. Miss Sinclair was a efficient and conscientious teacher and the Board would have been glad to retain her services. We understand that Miss Sinclair has accepted a position in North Bay High School.

—Two rinks of Orangeville bowlers competed in the Guelph tournament this week. The players were: T. H. Greenis, Thos. Wright, J. D. Torrie and J. D. McMillan, skip; Elmer Still, Fred Wright, W. J. Gillespie and T. S. Parkinson, skip. They report a torrid time. The Guelph greens are sheltered by buildings and high fences and the players found the heat decidedly oppressive.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Darraugh, of Toronto, were the guests of Orangeville friends for a few days last week. We are pleased to note that Mrs. Darraugh won a first prize in the Ladies' Doubles at the Ontario Bowling Tournament last week.

DOCTORS CRUSADE AGAINST THE HOUSE FLY.

Eight hundred Bronx physicians recently joined Dr. Arthur J. O'Leary, Health Officer of the Bronx, in a crusade against flies for the elimination of diphtheria and other contagious diseases.

WEDNESDAY LACROSSE

Two lacrosse matches were played at the ball grounds on Wednesday afternoon of last week. Shelburne Juniors defeated the Dufferin Juniors by a one-sided score, reported from some sources as 12 to 4. Orangeville Midgets furnished local enthusiasts with some solace for the defeat of the Juvenile team by putting it over the Shelburne Midgets by 6 to 3. The kids played fast, snappy lacrosse and both teams have a number of youngsters who promise to become real lacrosse players.

DISPOSED OF HOLDINGS

Mr. H. A. Chamberlain, Promoter and Manager of the Chamberlain Coal & Oil Development Co., Limited, of Shelburne, has sold his holdings in the above named Company to Shelburne parties and will devote all his time in the future to the Orangeville Oil & Gas Syndicate. Mr. Chamberlain states he has his leases nearly all blocked up now in such shape that he will be ready to receive applications for shares of the Orangeville Oil & Gas Developing Syndicate by the 12th of July. A competent civil engineer is expected to make a survey of the holdings this week, after which the report of Mr. Monroe will be completed and ready for publication.

MARSVILLE

Marsville Women's Institute will hold their garden party on July 19. The Marr Family, entertainers, will be present. Full particulars later.

Miss Mary Rowan, a former Orangeville girl, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. (Capt.) W. J. Adams, and other friends in Orangeville and vicinity for the last couple of weeks. Miss Rowan has just returned from California where she spent the winter. She is quite enthusiastic over the fine climate and the beautiful scenery of that State.

Mr. and Mrs. John Meek and two sons, Harold and Herbert, of Mono, motored to Melbourne, Ont., near London, last week and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Meek. On Sunday they motored down to Port Stanley, the widely known Lake Erie summer resort. The extreme heat had driven the people to the water in thousands for the day. Trains from London and St. Thomas were crowded to capacity. Mr. Meek found the farmers in Melbourne district through with their haying and commencing to cut their fall wheat, which is a splendid crop. Spring grain is already coloring and the harvest will be completed before the end of July. Mr. and Mrs. Meek and family made the home trip of nearly 140 miles on Tuesday, arriving in Orangeville before five o'clock in the afternoon.

The evils of the race course have few friends in the churches of the land. During the past month special resolutions urging their elimination have been passed by the Baptist Associations, the Methodist Conferences, the Presbyterian General Assembly and the Anglican Synod. Horse racing is a sport that makes a strong appeal to many people because of their innate love for the horse. If it is to continue as a recognized form of sport it should be absolutely divorced from betting and the other forms of gambling nearly always found at race meets.

PRESBYTERY MEETING

At a meeting of the Orangeville Presbytery in Eugenia on Tuesday, June 28th, Rev. J. A. Black, of Horning's Mills, formerly of Mono Mills, was appointed Moderator of Presbytery for the ensuing six months. Ministers were appointed to visit the Augmented Charges of Presbytery as follows:—Keldon, Mr. Lundie, Grand Valley; Alton, Mr. Matheson, Mono Mills; Ballinafad, Mr. Harper, Hillsburg; Caledon, Mr. Coutts, Camilla. The Clerk was given permission to call a pro re nata meeting in Orangeville to dispose of the Call, which that congregation has decided to extend to Rev. F. W. Mahaffy, B. A., of Buckingham, Que.

MAPLES GARDEN PARTY

The Maples Women's Institute will hold its annual garden party on the School Grounds at The Maples on Friday evening of this week. Will J. White, the popular concert comedian, and Harold Rich, a refined and versatile entertainer, will furnish the greater part of the programme and will be assisted by Cecil Menary, a local humorous entertainer, who is rapidly winning his way to the front. Short addresses will be given by Rev. G. W. Lynd, of Laurel, Mr. J. M. McNaughton and other speakers. Mayor Parkinson will occupy the chair. There will be the usual refreshment booths on the grounds. Programme at 8.30 sharp. Admission, 35 and 20 cents. Proceeds in aid of The Maples Community Hall.

TWILIGHT RECITAL

The excessive heat interfered with the attendance at the Twilight Organ Recital given in St. Andrew's Church on Saturday night. Despite the discomfort which the heat caused indoors an audience of perhaps two hundred persons sat through the programme and enjoyed to the full the rare musical treat provided by Mr. A. C. Hannahson, the talented organist of St. Andrew's, and the assisting artists, Miss Lillian Vise, of Toronto, violiniste, and Miss Marguerite Goodall, of Belwood, soprano. The two young ladies remained in town over Sunday and gave valuable assistance at the Sunday services. Miss Vise played and Miss Goodall sang both morning and evening. Needless to say their numbers were keenly appreciated by the congregations.

KNOX CHURCH ANNUAL

Knox Presbyterian Church, Caledon, will hold its Thirty-Third Annual Garden Party on the spacious grounds of Mr. Thomas Smith in Caledon Village on Tuesday evening, July 12th. A programme of unusual merit will be furnished by The Royal City Quintette, featuring Stock Donaldson, Scottish character comedian; Will Morlock, violinist; Prof. Harry Holgate, solo pianist and accompanist; Tom Mead, baritone, and Hattie Mackenzie, gold medalist character dancer, Glasgow, Scotland, 1920. This formidable array of artists will be assisted by the Caledon orchestra under the expert leadership of Capt. W. F. R. Stubbs. The grounds will be illuminated with modern lighting and there will be well-stocked refreshment booths to cater to the wants of the multitude. The ladies of the congregation will serve lunches a la carte for 15c., 20c. and 25c.

WHEN USING WILSON'S FLY PADS READ DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY AND FOLLOW THEM EXACTLY

There is only one way to kill all the Flies

This is it—Darken the room as much as possible, close the windows, raise one of the blinds where the sun shines in, about eight inches, place as many Wilson's Fly Pads as possible on plates (properly wetted with water but not flooded) on the window ledge where the light is strong, leave the room closed for two or three hours, then sweep up the flies and burn them. See illustration below.

Put the plates away out of the reach of children until required in another room.

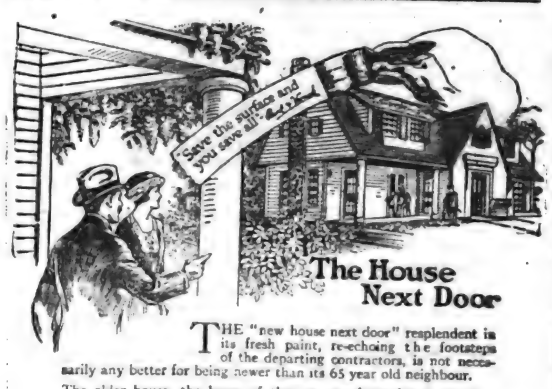
PASTOR APPRECIATED

From the Huntsville Forester the following item is taken. Rev. Alex. and Mrs. Halbert are both from these parts. They are being transferred from South Portage to Port Carling: On Friday evening, June 3rd, a goodly number of the congregation of the Union church, South Portage, gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Huston. The gathering was in the nature of a farewell to Rev. A. and Mrs. Halbert, who are just completing their fourth year on the mission, and will shortly be leavjng for a new field of labor. An oldfashioned "sing" was thoroughly enjoyed by all, and toward the close of the evening an address expressing the affection and esteem of the congregation for their pastor and his wife was read by Miss May Quinn and they were presented with a handsome chair and club bag. After a suitable reply by Mr. Halbert refreshments were served and a most enjoyable evening brought to a close.



The House Next Door

THE "new house next door" resplendent in its fresh paint, re-echoing the footsteps of the departing contractors, is not necessarily any better for being newer than its 65 year old neighbour.

The older house, the home of three generations—has been carefully preserved—its surface has been saved by the use of good paint, for paint is the world's greatest surface saver.

Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead

Throughout Canada thousands of homes are protected from the rigours of our climate by Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead.

Thinned with Turpentine and Pure Linseed Oil, as in B-H "English" Paint, Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead makes a thoroughly satisfactory paint. Many people prefer to mix their own, for they know that Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead cannot be equalled in covering capacity or permanence.

For those who prefer a prepared paint, Brandram's Genuine B.B. White Lead can only be secured in B-H "English" Paint.

EVERYDAY KINDNESSES

The following Paper was read by Mrs. Morson Rintoul at a recent meeting of the Whittington Ladies' Aid Society:—

The subject of my paper is Little Everyday Kindnesses—the little kindnesses that you and I may perform every hour of every day we like. form every hour of every day if we like.

Sometimes when we hear of a great or an "heroic" deed being performed, we think "poor me. I shall never do anything worth while for I'm buried alive in a home full of work and care that occupies my mind to the exclusion of everything else." My friends, the heroic deeds have not all been recorded in history and many a heroine surpassing Laura Secord, or Edith Cavell, have lived their lives in homes unknown to fame or fortune. They have lived lives of toil, poverty and care, and have been faithful to the end. They shall not be without their reward.

The Bible tells us that love fulfilleth the law, and this is true whether our lot be cast in high or low places. Our brave soldiers on the battle field ever remembered this and many a brave, unselfish deed was done. We can remember it in our homes and though we may not be rewarded with medals nor have our deeds recorded in history, I venture to say they shall not be forgotten up yonder.

Have you ever thought what gives you the most happiness in your everyday life? Why it couldn't be anything else but the little everyday kindnesses of those who are nearest and dearest to us. Pleasures we get, it is true, from many sources, but it is the little thoughtful and unselfish actions of those with whom we associate day by day that really make our lives.

A young girl, in starting her wedded life, asked a friend what quality her husband would desire most in her. Her friend, to gain time for thought, asked what her own opinion was. She said constancy. The friend said maybe she was right, but in her opinion this quality would be cheerfulness, and I think that the greatest kindness we can do for our loved ones is to be cheerful. It isn't always easy and sometimes it is the hardest thing we could be asked to do, but it is a plant that will stand cultivation. A grumbling complaining, teary eyed woman makes a mighty poor wife or mother.

It behooves us all if we would perform our share of the little everyday kindnesses this world needs to cultivate a spirit of unselfish thoughtfulness. The trouble with some of us that we don't do more good in the world is because we are so wrapped up in our own affairs that we never think of the need till someone else has done the good turn.

Christ, when He was on this earth, was kind in his everyday life. He cured the sick, made the blind to see and the lame to walk. He fed the multitudes when they were hungry, when he might have sent them away. He was kind to the children when their mothers brought them to be blessed. Even on the cross he was kind to the poor sinner beside him.

To-day we see evidences of God's kindness all around us which reminds me of this little verse:

"Go break to the hungry, sweet charity's bread,
For giving is loving, the angel aid;
"But must I be giving again and and again?"
My weary and wondering answer ran;
"Oh, no," said the angel, piercing me through,
"Just give till the Saviour stops giving to you."

Our kindness may only be a word of appreciation or comfort, a kindly smile or a warm welcome to a stranger in our midst, yet let it not be forgotten by us. Let us always remember that the little things are of more importance to us than the big ones because we have more opportunity to perform them.

Here is a little poem which struck me as having a strong bearing on my subject:—

Be swift, dear heart, in loving,
For time is brief,
And thou mayst soon along life's highway,
Keep step with grief.

Be swift, dear heart, in saying
The kindly word;
When ears are sealed thy passionate appeal
Will not be heard.

Be swift, dear heart, in doing
The gracious deed;
Lest soon they whom thou holdest dearest,
Be past the need.

Be swift, dear heart, in giving
The rare sweet flower;
Nor wait to heap with blooms, the casket,
In some sad hour

DEMAND FOR TANLAC BREAKS ALL RECORDS

Amazing Success Achieved by Celebrated Medicine Not Only Phenomenal, But Unprecedented—Over 20,000,000 Bottles Sold in Six Years—Foreign Countries Clamor for It.

Never before, perhaps, in the history of the drug trade has the demand for a proprietary medicine ever approached the wonderful record that is now being made by Tanlac, the celebrated medicine which has been accomplishing such remarkable results throughout this country and Canada. As a matter of fact, the marvelous success achieved by this medicine is not only phenomenal, but unprecedented.

The first bottle of Tanlac to reach the public was sold just a little over six years ago. Its success was immediate and people everywhere were quick to recognize it as a medicine of extraordinary merit. Since that time there have been sold throughout this country and Canada something over Twenty Million (20,000,000) bottles, establishing a record which has probably never been equalled in the history of the drug trade in America.

Fame is International.

The instant and phenomenal success which Tanlac won when it was first introduced has been extended to practically every large city, small town, village and hamlet in North America. Its fame has become international in its scope and England, Japan, Mexico, Cuba, Hawaii, Alaska, Porto Rico and many European countries are clamoring for it

From coast to coast and from the Great Lakes Tanlac is known and honored. Millions have taken it with the most gratifying and astonishing results and have pronounced it the greatest medicine of all time.

Tens of thousands of men and women of all ages in all walks of life, afflicted with stomach, liver and kidney disorders, some of them of long standing,as well as thousands of weak. thin, nervous men and women apparently on the verge of collapse, have testified that they have been fully restored to their normal weight, health and strength by its use.

Restored to Health

Still others, who seemed fairly well, yet who suffered with indigestion, headaches, shortness of breath, dizzy spells, sour, gassy stomach, coated tongues, foulness of breath, constipation, bad complexion, loss of appetite, sleeplessness at night and of terribly dejected, depressed feelings, state that they have been entirely relieved of these distressing symptoms and restored to health and happiness by the use of Tanlac.

MURPHY—FENWICK

Wednesday, June 22nd, was an ideal day for the happy event which took place at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Fenwick, Maxwell, when their only daughter, Alice, became the wife of Incel H. Murphy, only son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Murphy, Orangeville. The bridal party took their places before a bank of peonies and ferns to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Emily Fenwick, niece of the bride. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Roy, was handsomely attired in taupe taffeta and carried a bouquet of ophelia roses and carnations. Rev. Jas. Brown, pastor of Maxwell Methodist Church, officiated. Mrs. Harold Fenwick sang during the signing of the register, after which all repaired to the dining-room where a dainty wedding breakfast was served. The tables were tastefully decorated with carnations and sweet peas. Among the many gifts was a beautiful cash gift from the Superintendent and staff of Lord Dufferin Hospital, Orangeville, of which the bride was a graduate. There was also handsome cheques from the respective parents. The groom's gift to the organist was a French ivory jewel case and to the soloist a gold brooch. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy left for a motor trip to Kingston, Ottawa and other points, the bride travelling in a navy blue suit with hat to match. On their return they will reside at Orangeville.—Dundalk Herald.

Wilbert E. H. Foster, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Foster, Jr., Honeywood, departed this life at the home at Honeywood at noon Tuesday of last week.

TOO ILL TO GO TO SCHOOL

Mother Tells how Daughter was Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Cobourg, Ont.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me for my daughter. She had trouble every month which left her in a weak and nervous condition with weak back and pain in her right side. She had these troubles for three years and frequently was unable to attend school. She has become regular and feels much better since she began taking the Vegetable Compound and attends school regularly. She is gaining steadily and I have no hesitancy in recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine."—Mrs. JOHN TOMS, Ball St., Cobourg, Ont.

Standing all day, or sitting in cramped positions, young girls contract deranged conditions, and develop headaches, backache, irregularities, nervousness and bearing-down pains, all of which are symptoms of woman's ills. Every mother who has a daughter suffering from such symptoms should give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial.

NEPONSET ROOFS

For Buildings of All Kinds

For sloping roofs on residences, garages, bungalows, or public buildings, Neponset Twin Shingles make as handsome and durable a roof as it is possible to find anywhere—and they are most economical.

Neponset Twin Shingles are impregnated with asphalt and heavily surfaced with crushed slate. No wonder they resist time and wear. Their natural slate-red and slate-green colors are restful and beautiful.

They will not catch fire from falling sparks. Because they are two shingles in one and self-spacing, they require less labor and less nails to lay.

You get all the cream with a De Laval

GETTING all the cream means getting all the profit. It means that more money can be saved, or that more is available for use in building up the farm or for paying expenses.

Not every separator is designed so that it will get all the cream; some may do so for a short time.

But there is one machine that can always be depended upon to skim clean—the De Laval. You don't have to take our word for it, ask any De Laval user.

A De Laval user gets more cream from the milk of each cow, gets longer service from his machine, and spends less time turning and washing it. Even if you have only one good cow it will pay you to own a De Laval.

PHYSIOLOGICAL ACTION OF TANLAC EXPLAINED

World's Leading Authorities Show Just What Tanlac Really Is and Explain Effect of Each of Ten Ingredients on the Human System. Power of Medicine Conclusively Proven.

A day never passes but what thousands of people ask the questions: What is Tanlac? Why its phenomenal success? Why do we hear so much about it? and Why has this preparation so far outstripped all other medicines of its kind?

The answer to these questions is easy and can be explained in just one word—merit. Tanlac is scientifically compounded and represents years of work, study, experimentation and research by some of the foremost chemists and pharmacologists of America.

The Tanlac formula is purely ethical and complies with all National and State pure food laws. It is purely vegetable and is made from the most beneficial roots, herbs and barks known to Materia Medica. The Tanlac Laboratories are among the largest and most modernly equipped in this country.

Ten Ingredients in Tanlac

Altogether, there are ten ingredients in Tanlac, each of which is of recognized therapeutic value.

In referring to one of the more important ingredients of Tanlac, the Encyclopedia Brittanica says:

"It has been the source of the most valuable tonic medicines that have ever been discovered."

In referring to other of the general tonic drugs contained in Tanlac, the 13th Edition of Potter's Therapeutics, a standard medical text-book, states that "they impart general tone and strength to the entire system, including all organs and tissues."

This same well-known authority in describing the physiological action of still another of the ingredients of Tanlac, which is of value in treating what is commonly known as a "run-down condition," uses the following expression:

"It is highly esteemed in loss of appetite during convalescence from acute diseases."

There are certain other elements in Tanlac which, because of their influence upon the appetite, digestion, assimilation and elimination, improve the nutrition and vital activity of all the tissues and organs of the body and produce that state of general tonicity which is called health.

The United States Dispensatory makes the following comment regarding another ingredient;

"It may be used in all cases of pure debility of the digestive organs or where a general tonic impression is required."

There are certain other ingredients described in the Dispensatory, and in other standard medical text-books, as having a beneficial action upon the organs of secretion, whose proper functioning results in a purification of the blood streams passing through them. In this manner, objectionable and poisonous ingredients of the blood are removed and the entire system invigorated and vitalized.

Tonic and Body Builder

Tanlac was designed primarily for the correction of disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels. At the same time, however, it is a powerful reconstructive tonic and body builder, for it naturally follows that any medicine that brings about proper assimilation of the food and the thorough elimination of the waste products must, therefore, have a far-reaching and most beneficial effect upon the entire system.

WON IN BRAMPTON

Dufferins Played Excelsiors Off Their Feet in Opening Quarter of Saturday's Game.

Playing Excelsiors "off their feet" in the first fifteen minutes of play the Orangeville Dufferins gained a lead which the Red Shirts could not overcome and won Saturday's O. A. L. A. senior game in Brampton by 7 to 5. Despite the threatening weather the largest crowd that ever passed through the gates at Sunshine Park attended. Both teams lined up their best twelve. It was a clean exhibition, and very few penalties were awarded.

Orangeville scored the first two goals in three minutes. Cudmore bulged the net for Excelsiors first, but in the next five minutes the Green and White attacked in waves and increased their total to five. Campbell was off color and his support was very loose.

Play in the second and third quarters was fast, with the Excelsiors pressing all the time. G. Sproule and Warr registered Brampton's second and third counters, and in the third quarter Anderson and Sproule combined for the cleverest goal of the game. With Brampton one goal down play was exciting, but the third quarter finished with the Dufferins leading 5 to 4.

"Bert" Brown cinched the victory for the Duffs in the final quarter, when he accepted a pass while behind the net, sprinted to the front and scored. The Red Shirts again scored, but in the last few minutes of play the Duffs added another, Campbell having no chance to stop Brown's shot.

THE GAME BACK

C. R. McKeown Secured Nomination For Legislature at Conservative Convention on Friday.

John Best, the Sitting Member, Unanimously Renominated For the Commons.

Close to three hundred Conservative stalwarts foregathered at the Conservative hold in the Shelburne town hall last Friday afternoon to nominate candidates for the House of Commons and the Ontario Legislature. Every municipality in the constituency was represented and most of the municipalities were represented by their full quota of delegates. John Bryan, of Laurel, President of the County Liberal-Conservative Association, occupied the chair and had charge of the proceedings for the afternoon. When nominations were called for John Best, the sitting member, was the only candidate proposed for the Dominion House. Mr. Best was therefore declared the unanimous choice of the Convention for the Ottawa seat. C. R. McKeown, K. C., who was beaten out in the Convention that preceded the last Provincial Convention, John Reburn, his successful opponent, subsequently defeated by T. K. Slack, the U. F. O. nominee, W. A. Wansbrough, of Grand Valley, and President John Bryan were naminated as candidates for the Legislature. Messrs. Wansbrough and Bryan retired, leaving the field to Mr. McKeown and Mr. Reburn. The result of the vote was not announced, the Chairman merely making the statement that Mr. McKeown had received a majority of the votes cast. It was stated, however, after the Convention adjourned, that Mr. McKeown had received over 160 votes as against 72 for Mr. Reburn.

In his speech to the Convention Mr. Best confined himself mainly to Dominion issues, but made an incursion into the Provincial field to tell the audience what he thought of the Drury good roads policy and the Backus deal. He pointed out that Ontario was entitled to receive $5,800,000 of the Federal appropriation of $20,000,000 towards the construction of good roads. The Ottawa Administration would probably be compelled to withhold part of this appropriation because of the unfair and extravagant manner in which the Provincial Government was spending the money. Mr. Best charged that under the U. F. O. Administration there had been more patronage, trickery and corruption in the last two years than during the preceding twelve years. In his judgment a greater steal had never been put over on the people of Ontario than when the Drury Government gave Mr. Backus and his associates 2500 square miles of timber limits for the paltry consideration of $60,000. It had been estimated that the property acquired by Mr. Backus is worth $80,000,000. Mr. Best also took a fling at the money borrowing methods of the Ontario Government, pointing out that even in the stress of war times the Dominion Government had been able to raise all the money it needed by Victory loans bearing 5½ per cent. interest. The Ontario Government did its borrowing at six per cent. and whereas the loan was floated at a fraction over 94 points, the lists had not been closed more than forty-eight hours when the loan was quoted at par. Mr. Best referred to the tax on property turnovers and the increase in automobile licenses and declared that the Farmers' Government was squandering money in a most extravagant manner. Graft was rampant in connection with the work on the Provincial Highways and he knew personally of one road overseer, who was asked to get a good job for a young man, who did not possess any special knowledge of roadbuilding. In closing, Mr. Best expressed his sincere and grateful thanks to the delegates for the great honour they had again conferred upon him by selecting him as their standard-bearer.

Later in the day when called upon to formally accept the nomination for the Federal House Mr. Best paid his respects to Mr. Slack, the sitting member in the Legislature. In a speech at Beaverton Mr. Slack was quoted as stating that he would give $200 of his indemnity if Mr. Best could secure renomination in Dufferin. Having secured the nomination. Mr. Best thought Mr. Slack should be as good as his word and put up the $200. Mr. Slack was also reported to have stated in the same speech that he would donate $500 of his sessional indemnity to the Great War Veterans if Best could be re-elected in Dufferin. Best appealed to the Convention to see to it that Slack was given an opportunity to make this donation to the War Veterans. The third count against Slack was a purported statement of his willingness to resign his seat and oppose Best for the Commons if the latter should again secure the nomination. Best cheerfully expressed the hope that the Provincial representative would be as good as his word in this particular.

In his address before the vote was taken Mr. McKeown told the gathering that this was the seventh time that he had the honour of appearing before the Convention as a candidate for the Legislature. Two years ago in the midst of a wave of such dimensions that no man in ordinary circumstances could hope to stem it the Convention had seen fit to reject his candidature in favor of another man. He found no fault with the action of the men who had voted against him on that occasion, but simply took it that they had not done so through any ill-will or from any desire to find fault, but because they believed that in doing so they were selecting a candidate better qualified under the circumstances then existing to carry the party standard to victory in the impending election. He was now asking the Convention to again consider him as a candidate. He was not before the Convention begging for the nomination, but simply offering himself as a possible candidate. He was not before the Convention to favor any particular faction or party or to pat the back of any particular person, but as one who hoped that the Convention would select the best candidate possible, whether that candidate was himself or one of the other four men nominated. Mr. McKeown depicted the lengths to which the U. F. O. Government had been driven to get hold of the reins of power. It had, he said, been forced to form an alliance with the Labor party, a party with a policy diametrically opposed to the policy of the U. F. O. It had been driven to the Liberal party for a speaker and could be voted out of office to-morrow by a union of the Liberal and Conservative parties in the House. However, there was no danger of the Conservatives entering into any arrangement with their historic opponents for this purpose. When it came to uniting with the Liberals to vote a U. F. O. Government out of office then the Conservative party would quit. The Conservative party had a policy of its own and by that policy it would stand or fall. Mr. McKeown criticized the U. F. O. party for going outside of its elected members to select a leader in the person of Mr. Drury, who, as a Liberal candidate, had opposed Major Currie in Simcoe in the reciprocity election. Drury had made a brave appeal for popularity by reducing his own salary $3,000, but his followers had unanimously agreed to vote themselves an extra $600 apiece, thereby increasing the expenditure for sessional indemnities by $60,000 a year. The speaker also alleged that the U. F. O. party while condemning patronage was itself guilty of the very practices which it condemned. For instance Mr. Gregory, who resigned his seat in Halton, to make a seat for Premier Drury, was made Chairman of the Civil Service Commission, Mr. Hillyer, who had made way for Mr. Raney in East Wellington, when the latter said, "Yes, I'll take the job of Attorney-General, but where will I sit down," had been given a seat on the Civil Service Commission, and Mr. Clarke, who had resigned in favor of the Hon. Manning Doherty, had been given a sit for life as registrar of the County which he formerly represented.

Mr. W. A. Wansbrough was pleased with the speeches and with the splendid attendance. He was not a candidate and was surprised that he had been nominated. He had been keenly disappointed over the defeat of Mr. Reburn and the Government of Sir William Hearst at the last election. He considered the Hearst Government one of the cleanest and most progressive Governments in the history of the Province. Mr. Wansbrough stated that he looked frward with a great deal of hopefulness to the next Provincial election, when he felt confident that Dufferin would be redeemed. Stable, settled government was particularly needed and desirable at the present time.

President John Bryan did not intend to stand the Convention. He would like the honour of representing Dufferin, but at present did not feel he was in a position to spare the time. He appealed to the Convention to select the strongest candidate and to the delegates to get in behind the nominee and ensure his election. In Mr. Bryan's opinion Hon. G. Howard Ferguson is the first public man of Ontario. The President stated that possibly he should not have retired as he was from the hub of the County and also from a township that had never had the honour of a representative in either house.

When the result of the vote was announced between Mr. McKeown, and Mr. Reburn the latter promptly moved that the nomination of Mr. McKeown be made unanimous. The nomination was seconded by Mr. Wansbrough and carried by a standing vote. Early in the afternoon an announcement was made that the following properly accredited delegates were in attendance:—

Shelburne, 17; Grand Valley, 9; Mulmur, 38; Orangeville, 34; East Luther, 17; East Garafraxa, 11, one sub-division short; Mono, 23, three sub-divisions short; Amaranth, 32, two sub-divisions short; Melancthon, 39, one sub-division short. Total 220. Late arrivals increased the number of delegates to 230 or over.

GOING TO WINGHAM

Mr. C. B. Robinson, local Manager of the Bell Telephone Co. for the last three years, has been notified of his appointment as manager of the Wingham exchange and will leave Orangeville for Wingham about August 1st. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have been excellent citizens and their departure from town will be keenly regretted by a large circle of friends. Mr. Robinson will be especially missed in musical circles. He was a valued member of the Citizens' Band and of the Orangeville orchestra and both these organizations are losers by reason of his departure. Mr. Robinson will be succeeded here by Mr. Alex Price, of Sudbury.

ALTON

Alton Methodist Church was filled to its capacity on Sunday afternoon, July 10th, with those who came to witness a scene without parallel in the history of the town. They came to pay tribute to the memory of those young men who gave up their lives in the struggle for liberty in the Great War.

They came to witness the unveiling of a Memorial Tablet in honor of those who poured out the pure, sweet wine of life that the ideals for which our country stands might not perish from the earth.

Mr. James Barber, one of Alton's most respected citizens and one of the oldest members of the church, drew aside the Union Jack from the face of the Tablet, unveiling the names thereon to the congregation. The Tablet is to be erected in a suitable place in the church as a permanent memorial to those who fell in the Great War. There is also on it an Honor Roll for those who served overseas and in Canada.

After the unveiling Pte. George Presley stepped into the aisle, in uniform, and sounded the Last Post on the bugle.

Capt. (Rev.) J. F. G. Morris, pastor of the church, presided.

The Hymns were those used in the army and familiar to all soldiers. The first was "Unto the Hills," second, "O God Our Help in Ages Past" and the third, "For All the Saints." There were two anthems beautifully rendered by the choir, "If He Should Come To-day,' by Carrie B. Adams and "A Memorial," by Dr. S. H. Jackson. Rev. W. N. Carr, pastor of the Presbyterian church, offered prayer.

We were honored in having the chairman of Orangeville District, Rev. H. L. Partridge, B. A., who gave the first address and who bore personal testimony to his appreciation of the valiant services of the men at the front.

Before the unveiling the congregation had the privilege of an address from Lt.-Col. G. H. Williams, D. D., pastor of Sherbourne Street Methodist Church, Toronto, who was Assistant Director of Chaplain Services for the Dominion of Canada during the War. He was the chief speaker for the occasion and said that it was unique and without parallel in our history.

The Lesson, which was the 46th Psalm, was read by Lt. Charles Lovell, of the R. A. F.

MONO MILLS

By the report of the Toronto Conference, which met at Orillia this year, the people of Mono Mills Circuit learned that a change had been made which would cause the removal of their pastor, Rev. Peter Tiller. The report created a feeling of regret owing to the fact that Mr. and Mrs. Tiller had only been one year on the Circuit and by their sincerity and devotion had won their hearts of the people. On Monday evening of last week the church members met at the parsonage to say farewell, and after appointing a chairman several short speeches were made, in which many expressions of regret at the departure of their friends showed the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Tiller were held by the people. Mr and Mrs. Tiller each replied feelingly, expressing their regret at parting with the people of Mono Mills. After some appropriate music and refreshments, provided by the ladies, the meeting closed with many wishes for the future happiness of Mr. and Mrs. Tiller.

CHOLERA INFANTUM

Cholera infatum is one of the fatal ailments of childhood. It is a trouble that comes on suddenly, especially during the summer months, and unless prompt action is taken the little one may soon be beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets are an ideal medicine in warding off this trouble. They regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus prevent all the dreaded summer complaints. Concerning them Mrs. Fred Rose, of South Bay, Ont., says: "I feel Baby's Own Tablets saved the life of our baby when she had cholera infantum and I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MRS. JOSEPH WHITE

Sarah McComb, wife of Joseph White, died very suddenly at her home, lot 1, con. 1, Mulmur, on Thursday morning, June 30th. Although deceased had been a sufferer from heart trouble for some time she was apparently in good health up to the time of the fatal seizure, which occurred only a few minutes previous to her death. She was born in East Garafraxa. Besides the husband one daughter, Hazel, survives. The deceased's mother, Mrs. Jas. McComb, of Melancthon, and the following brothers and sisters also survive: Sam and Geo. McComb, Mrs. Benj. Wallace and Miss Edith McComb, all of Melancthon, and Miss Nellie McComb, of Toronto. Another sister, Miss Minnie McComb, whose death was also extremely sudden, died on June 19th. The funeral of the late Mrs. White took place to Shelburne cemetery on Saturday afternoon, being conducted by Rev. C. Forth, and Rev. G. W. Lynd, of Laurel. The following were the floral offerings:—Pillow, the family; gates ajar, McComb family and Women's Institute, Violet Hill; wreaths, Violet Hill S. S., Mr. and Mrs. Marquis, Toronto; Mr. Jas White and Miss B. White; sprays, Mr. and Mrs. White, Mr. and Mrs. Greenwood, Misses Harpell, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Atwood, Shelburne; Mr. and Mrs. D. Scott, Primrose. The following friends from a distance attended the funeral:—Mr. Jas. and Miss B White, Mr. W. Gamble, Mrs. Geo. Gamble, Miss Ida Gamble, Mrs R. Gamble, Mrs. Hunter and Miss Gordon, Waldemar; Mrs. Jos. Greenwood and Mr. B. Marquis, of Toronto; Mr. Jos. Greenwood, Grand Valley; Mr. and Mrs. John Irvine and Mr. A. "Use the 'Bell' to Sell"

LONG DISTANCE is maintained at a high degree of efficiency. Connections with distant points were never more quickly established.

"Long Distance enables us to transact business in twenty cities in one day" — says a subscriber — "we use it to get new customers, to make sales, to order goods or countermand them, to speed up shipments, verify credits, order new parts for machinery, etc. It multiplies our personal contact with our Branches, our salesmen, and the trade.

"Many of our Long Distance calls are now Station-to-Station. A large sign hangs over our Private Branch exchange, reading 'If possible, make it a Station-to-Station call.' Moreover, we notified our customers that two of our most capable men had been designated to look after Long Distance business. As soon as Long Distance calls, our Private Branch exchange operator switches the calls to one of these men, which gives our customers the advantage of Station-to-Station rates."

"Use the 'Bell' to Sell." The appeal of your voice will bring results when everything else fails. From your desk you can talk by Long Distance with 12,000,000 telephones in Canada and the United States.

WITH NEWSPAPER MEN

Excursionists Were Royally Entertained in Winnipeg and Saskatoon on Their Way West.

On their recent excursion to Vancouver the Weekly Newspaper men and their friends made a few stops that were not on the schedule. The first of these was at Cochrane, the terminus of the T. N. O. and a divisional point of the Transcontinental system. It being the King's birthday the party detrained and participated in a brief service in honour of this event of world-wide interest.

The Anglican service for the Royal family was read by Rev. A. H. Moore, of the party, and the National Anthem was sung by the assemblage. Following the service, Mr. Stevens, President of the Board of Trade, and Mr. Thorning, one of the publishers of the Northland Post, spoke a few words of greeting.

Although only a little over ten years old, Cochrane is an incorporated town, has a population of about 2,000 and is steadily growing in importance as a business and industrial centre. The farming settlements in this vicinity are being rapidly taken up. The land offerd by the Ontario Government for homesteading reaches from here to Hearst, and includes fifteen townships, exclusive of the two townships of Jacksonboro. It is estimated that in this district alone there are about 2,500 settlers, who have sought homes in this northern hinterland.

The run from Cochrane—24 hours from Winnipeg—was uneventful and through what is yet a ruggedly wild and almost uninhabited area, the log shacks being few and far apart. As an instance, however, of man's desire for companionship and recreation, we passed a low log building standing in a clearing, miles from any place apparently, and across its whole front in bold characters was the sign, "Pool Room." Where the patrons were to come from we were unable to ascertain.

Winnipeg was reached at 11 o'clock on Saturday morning, June 4th. Outside the station was a long line of automobiles with red ribbons fluttering on the breeze. There were cars without decoration, but the red ribbons were an intimation that for the time being our party owned these particular cars with competent chauffeurs in control.

For two hours the visitors were shown every phase of life in this great western city of almost 200,000 population, through the substantial wholesale and retail districts, the residential sections, and the city's extensive system of public parks, comprising 31 in number, and a total area of 674 acres. The largest of these parks is Assiniboine, comprising 282 acres. This was the objective of the drive, and there, as guests of the city, the press party was entertained at an excellent luncheon in the spacious pavilion. Addresses of welcome were made by Alderman A. A. Heaps, Chairman of the Parks Commission, and Mayor Parnell. The latter made a strong appeal for unity between the east and the west. Responses were made by Messrs. W. Rupert Davies, E. Roy Sayles, E. Calnan and J. E. Fortin, the last named speaking in French. Before sitting down to lunch a group photo was taken of the party.

From Assiniboine Park we were driven to the magnificent Parliament Buildings recently completed at a total cost of $7,500,000. A thorough inspection of the buildings was made under direction of a guide who exhaustively explained the details. The party was then taken to Fort Garry, the Grand Trunk's palatial hotel, and until nine o'clock, the time for departure, sightseeing was done on the go-as-you-please plan.

Among former friends and acquaintances whom we had the pleasure of meeting during our sojourn in the Manitoba capital were Mr. S. T. Newton, now Director of Extension work in Agriculture for the Provincial Government, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Duke, the former being the manager of the men's clothing department in a large Winnipeg store, partment in a large Winnipeg store, Edgar McGuire, Wm. Kennedy and W. H. McKinnon, an ex-Reeve of Caledon, who has a flourishing real estate business.

From Winnipeg to Saskatoon, Sask., the run, was made without stop, except for brief halts for water. One of these was at Watrous, where an enterprising medicine concern handed to each one of the party samples of their product, specifics guaranteed to cure. Saskatoon, the Wonder City, the site of which a few brief years ago was bald prairie, was reached at 11.30 a.m. on Sunday. Before dispersing Rev. Mr. Moore held service. Saskatoon, though its growth has been rapid, is substantially built, with good buildings and fine, wide streets. Here we were first impressed with what is a dominant factor throughout the west—the great importance attached to educational matters. The University of Saskatchewan is located in Saskatoon and in the city are numerous large school buildings costing as high as $250,000.

At 1:30 a fleet of about 25 automobiles came to the depot platform, ready to take the editors for a cruise through the city. The cars followed a route mapped out for them by the executive of the Chamber of Commerce. Leaving the depot they followed Twenty-first street to Spadina Crescent, and then north to the Twenty-fifth street bridge. Passing over the bridge, they proceeded to the University, where a short time was spent looking over the buildings, and the farm section.

The forestry farm was the next stop. Here the editors were greatly impressed with the progress made in growing trees in Western Canada. A brief address was given by Supt. James McLean, of the forestry farm.

Mr. McLean said that since the forestry farm was an institution of the Dominion Government, it was something in which they could all take an interest. It was the object of the farm to supply free trees to farmers in this district. All their experiments were directed towards discovering the hardiest and best trees for that country. He told how seven years ago there had not been a tree on the land they were now inspecting. The trees they saw were probably unfamiliar to eastern people as the farm obtained most of its varieties from the north, where the hardier species grew.

From the forestry farm the party was taken to the Saskatoon Club in the sitting room of which light refreshments were served under the direction of Mrs. L. G. Calder and Mrs. M. I. Robertson, President of the Council of Women of the Saskatoon Chamber of Commerce. The keen air of the west seemed to have done the editors good. Their appetites were in great shape, and they did full justice to the excellent fare provided by the energetic ladies.

Adjourning upstairs to the banquet room the party sat down for a rest and to hear some of their members say what they thought about it all.

Speeches were made on behalf of the city by Sheriff Calder, Mayor Young and Mr. Harley Henry, and for the editors, W. R. Davies, A. R. Brennan and C. R. Stewart. Speaking of the possibilities of Canada, Dr. Young said: "In Saskatchewan alone there was room for 25 millions of people." It was plain that the possibilities of the future were immense. In this young city of Saskatoon there was a clear demonstration of what could be done. In 1903 Saskatoon's population had been 113; now it was over 30,000.

Addressing the editors at the station Hon. Sam. Latta, Minister of Highways in the Saskatchewan Government, said: "A more wonderful thing is the fact that we are here as a fulfillment of the prophecy. It was our duty to develop in Saskatchewan British democratic institutions worthy of the flag, and the things for which the flag stands. The weekly and daily papers were among the greatest influences to this end. There was also a wider field—all Canada, and so the visit of those from the east to the west was a great event, in its relation to this work. Let the west know and understand the east; let the east know and understand the west, because to know each other better was to respect each other more to the and that in Canada there would be no east and west."

On behalf of the Saskatchewan Government, Mr. Latta extended a cordial welcome to the visitors and expressed the hope that their visit would remain long in their minds as a thing of pleasure and profit.

Dufferin County is well represented in the citizenship of this flourishing city. Time did not give opportunity to meet all whom we wished to see, but we had the good fortune to meet Mr. Adam Turner, a former Orangeville druggist, now living retired in the city and one of its wealthy residents. His son, Harris Turner, who lost his eyesight, while serving overseas during the war, runs a job printing office in the city and is a member of the Saskatchewan Legislature, having been elected as an independent at the recent elections. We were most hospitably entertained by Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Denton and their daughter, Miss Helen, whom we found looking well and still interested in the happenings back in their old home town in Ontario. J. C. Thompson, a former resident of Orangeville and a native of East Garafraxa, looks well and has prospered in the West. Peter Cameron, E. A. Bennett and James Jackson were among other oldtime acquaintances, with whom we had the pleasure of exchanging greetings during our stay here.

WRIST WATCH FOR TEACHER

On Friday afternoon a large number of ratepayers met at the school for a social hour with the teacher before she left. Mr. Murphy acted as chairman and with his Irish wit kept every one laughing. Several recitations were given by the pupils and parents. The pupils presented Miss Legate with a wrist watch to show the high esteem in which she was held by them. The oldest pupil read the address while the youngest presented the watch. Miss Legate was taken by surprise but made a fitting reply. Then after singing the national anthem, three cheers and a tiger for the teacher, some 50 sat down for a bountiful lunch of ice cream and cake. Mesdames Wilson, D. Hamilton, Tattrie, W. Hamilton and Miss Wilson and Messrs. Whitehead and Murphy acted as waiters. All left for their homes thinking if not singing "For she is a jolly good fellow."—Big Forks Corr., Fort Francis Times.

The young lady referred to is Miss Ethel Legate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Legate, Second Ave.

THE DAILY MISERY OF ILL-HEALTH

Three Years of Suffering Quickly Relieved by "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. GASPARD DUBORD

159 Avenue Pins IX, Montreal.

"For three years, I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia and my general health was very bad. I consulted a physician and took his medicine and faithfully carried out his instructions; but I did not improve and finally the doctor told me I could not be cured.

At this time, a friend advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and I did so. After taking two boxes of 'Fruit-a-tives', I was greatly relieved; and gradually this marvelous fruit medicine made me completely well.

My digestion and general health are splendid—all of which I owe to "Fruit-a-tives".

VANWYCK—M'DONALD

On Wednesday, June 29th, the home of Mr. and Mrs. David MacDonald, of Wingham, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their eldest daughter, Mabel Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Walter Vanwyck. The Rev. Dr. Perry tied the silken knot promptly at the hour of twelve o'clock, high noon, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, well rendered by Miss Marguerite McFarlane. The groom took his place before a bank of ferns and roses where he was joined by the bride, who was given away by her father. The bride looked very pretty in a gown of shell pink taffeta silk trimmed with silver lace. She wore a veil of embroidered Brussels net and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white roses, sweet peas and maiden fern. Her only ornament was a rope of pearls, the gift of the groom. After the ceremony and hearty congratulations the bridal party led the way to the dining room, where a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The groom's gift to the pianiste was a pearl ring set in onyx. The bride received many beautiful and costly gifts. Amid showers of confetti and good wishes the happy couple left on the 3.20 train for Toronto, Hamilton and other points, the bride travelling in a navy blue serge suit and sand colored hat. On their return they will reside in Wingham.

MARSVILLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Marsville Women's Institute was held on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Donaldson on Wednesday evening, July 6th, when the ladies of the Institute had as their guests the members of The Maples Institute and their friends. Over two hundred ladies and gentlemen were assembled on the spacious lawn, where a most enjoyable program was provided by the visiting Institute. After opening the meeting the President of the Marsville Institute, Mrs. Jas. N. Taylor, welcomed the guests of the evening and then introduced their President, Mrs. I. O. Reid, who took charge of the meeting. The visitors then proceeded with a delightful program of readings, vocal and instrumental music, the numbers including songs and instrumental music, Papers by Mrs. J. W. Hoare on "The Separate Purse," and Mrs. Will Caroll on "A Woman's Duty to Herself,' and a reading by Miss Hannah Bramble, entitled "When Mother Asked the Teacher to Tea. The Donaldson Bros. also contributed several warmly appreciated numbers on the violin. After the program lunch and ice cream were served. Afterwards the singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a thoroughly enjoyable evening.

Marsville Women's Institute will hold its annual Garden Party on the Marsville School Grounds on Tuesday evening, July 19th. The program will be provided by the popular Marr Family, including Will Marr, high-class comedian, Phylis Marr, national dancer and juvenile champion of Ontario, and Eunice Marr, the little wonder. These splendid artists will be assisted by Miss Marguerite Goodall, vocalist, Miss Freda Claridge, pianiste, and the Donaldson Bros., bagpipes and violin. C. R. McKeown, K. C., will occupy the chair and short speeches will be delivered by Rev. F. C. Harper, of Hillsburg, Rev. Hyde, of Orton, and other speakers. There will be the usual refreshment booth on the grounds. Program at 8.30. Admission, 25c.

—Orangeville Citizens' Band is open for Garden Party engagements.

(Intended for last week.)

Mr. and Mrs. McKenzie, of Detroit, who have been visiting Mrs. McKenzie's mother, Mrs. McArthur, leave in a few days for Little Current, the home of Mr. McKenzie's mother.

Miss G. P. Sutton, Assistant Superintendent of the Orthopedic Hospital, Toronto, is visiting her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Wallace, of Laurel, stopped for a few minutes Monday, on their way home from the strawberry district.

Another former Caledon girl will soon be "at home" in Laurel.

Dr. and Mrs. Thomas spent Sunday with the Dr.'s uncle at Barrie.

Miss Arkell has returned from a two weeks' visit with Toronto friends.

A most delightful evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McFettridge just prior to the Wiggins-Laughlin wedding, when the Swastika Sewing Club presented Miss Laughlin with a beautiful mahogany sewing cabinet.

Local horsemen are making good use of the race track, which is in fine condition, and the horses are showing up well.

Jane says:—"Some folk spend so much time listenin' for the things they shouldn't hear and lookin' for what they oughten to see and repeatin' what'll do no good, that it ain't no wonder their minds get curdled."

A serious motor accident was most narrowly averted on the Centre Road opposite the Town Hall on Saturday evening. As usual it was a case of excessive speed. Is a fatality or serious accident a necessary preliminary to some action being taken to prevent this reckless disregard of life on the part of joy riders, a few of whom are local car owners?

Two young men, who had been working on a farm near Orangeville, were detained until they gave an account of themselves to the authorities on Saturday evening. Their actions near the bank aroused suspicion, which happily was without foundation.

L. O. L. No. 250 attended divine service at Knox Church, Caledon, at 3.00 p.m., July 3rd.

John and James Gamble, farmers near Owen Sound, were both injured in an accident recently, which might easily have proved fatal. John Gamble is now in the General and Marine Hospital, Owen Sound, with a broken leg, and James Gamble is at his home in Sarawak with a severely cut head and bruised shoulders. The accident was the result of a team of horses running away with the hay rake which James Gamble was driving, and John was injured by a kick from a horse that he was trying to aid after the runaway.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

FLORAL INSPIRATIONAL

Some 30 years ago an Owen Sound boy named Butchart came to British Columbia. Like all young men, he was venturesome. He stumbled and struggled along as best he could in this vast far western province. He made head as the years advanced and finally located a gypsum deposit near Victoria. There he erected cement works and soon was on the road to fortune.

Fortune continued to smile on this Owen Sound boy. Larger and larger grew the output of the cement works and greater and greater became the fortune of R. P. Butchart.

As the rock was quarried and crushed into powder great ugly excavations were made here and there in the heavily wooded country on the coast near Butchart Inlet.

But the Owen Sound boy had an eye for the artistic as well as for cement making, and soon he began in a small way to transform the landscape into dreams of floral beauty. Bit by bit the wilderness was redeemed; a beautiful residence was built in a nook in the forest, surrounded by gardens of the most beautiful flowers. To-day one of the sights of the city of Victoria, to which thousands of tourists are driven each year, is known as the Butchart Gardens. These are private grounds, but so beautiful are they, and so hospitable are Mr. and Mrs. Butchart, tens of thousands of Victoria's visitors and citizens enjoy them each season.

Words failed the eastern editors and their wives on their visit to these gardens last Sunday morning, whither they were taken as guests of the Victoria newspapermen. The sunshine was bright and mellow, a slight breeze cleared and cooled the atmosphere; wide, beautifully paved roads led through miles of home grounds and small fruit orchards. Seventy or eighty autos driven by Victoria citizens, members of the Automobile Club, followed the sightseeing cars to Butchart's Gardens. The trip from Victoria was most enjoyable. When the cars unloaded at the gardens and the 400 or more newspaperpeople dropped into the shady nooks or revelled in the gorgeous beauty of the sunshine and flowers, it was, to many, like being dopped into a corner of paradise.

Mr. and Mrs. Butchart threw open their home to the visitors, and it was here the inspirational climax came. Tears of joy came to the eyes of hundreds; hearts o'erflowed with feeling as they gazed in dumb admiration upon the magnificent coloring effects of floral amassed beauty.

There was an atmosphere of service and of Godlike fellowship in the surroundings. One's admiration for the flowers gave way before the greater splendor and freedom of the characters of Mr. and Mrs. Butchart, who conceived and carried out the idea of transforming old lime stone quarries into these sunken gardens of such inspiration and beauty; a sermon in every bush; an inspiration and a divine influence at every turn of the road or pathway and in every flower.—Okanagan Commoner.

Keeps Motors Smooth Running

Quality maintains economy. You may pay ten "per gallon" for other lubricating oils but you get more lubrication "per dollar" when you buy Imperial Polarine Motor Oils.

USERS of Imperial Polarine Motor Oils enjoy a singular freedom from engine trouble, which is at once a source of profit and pleasure to them.

Every bearing and rubbing surface is cushioned with an unbreakable oil film which relieves friction and minimizes wear. Good compression is also maintained, saving both fuel and oil and increasing power.

Lessened repair bills, lower upkeep costs, better satisfaction and longer service from your car follow the use of Imperial Polarine Motor Oils.

Consult our Chart of Recommendations for the grade of Imperial Polarine best suited to your motor. See Chart at your dealers or write to 56 Church Street for "Automotive Lubrication," a booklet which contains the Chart and other valuable information.

IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

WE GIVE IMPERIAL Polarine CRANK-CASE SERVICE

FOR A CLEAN EFFICIENT MOTOR

The crank case of your motor should be drained, cleaned and refilled with fresh Imperial Polarine every 1,000 miles or less. Dealers who display this sign give expert crank case cleaning service, using Imperial Flushing Oil, a scientific cleaning agent which removes all dirt, grit and impurities, which are so harmful to your engine. It will pay you well to employ Imperial Polarine Crank-Case Service to-day.

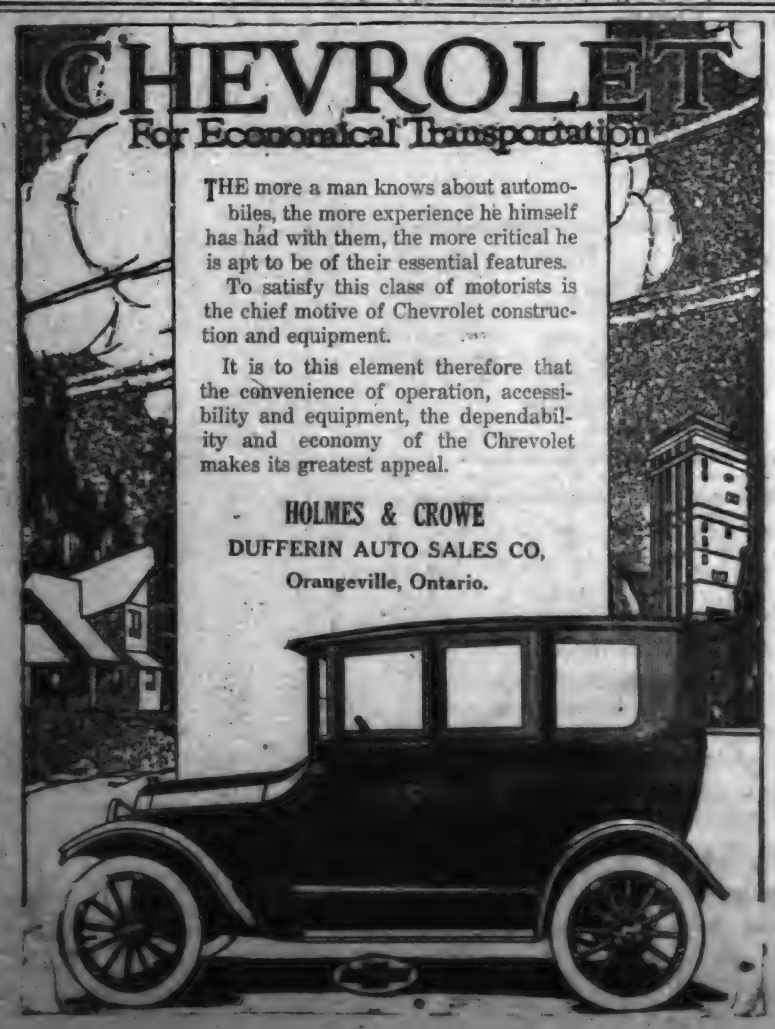
FURTHER PROHIBITION

The following humorous and rather clever verse appeared in a recent issue of one of the Shelburne papers:—

Would seem that Shelburne is a gay town,
A veritable limb of Satan,
According to J. Rufus Layton,
And he should know.
This sage has recently been thinking
Of girls' skirts, and how they're shrinking,
An evil greater far than drinking
Old Jim Crowe.
And this deplorable condition
Compels a lawyer's composition
Demanding further prohibition.
He tells us that this is an age
When speaking plain is all the rage,
And maidens young boldly engage
In unsavory talk.
Unblushingly they will enthuse
About the latest thing in shoes,
They'll show the men their No. 2's,
And all such rot.
Such blatant immoral condition
Will drive our youth to dire perdition,
The remedy is prohibition.
John Jerry's plump and comely spouse,
Who wears a Rufus Layton blouse,
Canvassed each day from house to house,
To swell the vote.
Against the Booze, the chief of sins;
She showed a goodly pair of shins;
Last week John Jerry's wife had twins—
A weird joke.
D' you think this interesting condition,
Which threatens John with such depletion.
Could be stamped out through prohibition?
Strong drink, an evil is, and great!
As Rufus ably doth relate,
But now it's banished from the state,
What would ye then?
Take all our evils, e'en the skirt,
The flapper, motor car and flirt?
O, Rufus, go and eat your shirt,
We're only men.
Whoe'er would create such conditions
Would surely drive us to perdition—
We've quite enough of prohibition.

CHEVROLET

For Economical Transportation



THE more a man knows about automobiles, the more experience he himself has had with them, the more critical he is apt to be of their essential features.

To satisfy this class of motorists is the chief motive of Chevrolet construction and equipment.

It is to this element therefore that the convenience of operation, accessibility and equipment, the dependability and economy of the Chrevolet makes its greatest appeal.

THE HEALTHY MAN HAS THE BEST CHANCE

Is Always Full of Life and Energy —Failures Are Weak and Bloodless.

Some men seem to have all the luck. If there are any good things going these men seem to get them. If they are business men they are successful; if they are workmen they get the foreman's job. They have the power of influencing people.

The same is true of women. Some have the charm that makes men seek them out; others are neglected. But this is not luck. It is due to a personal gift—vitality. Men and women of this sort are never weak, puny invalids. They may not be big, but they are full of life and energy. The whole thing is a matter of good blood, good nerves and good health. Everyone would wish to be like this and the qualities that make for vitality and energy are purely a matter of health. By building up the blood and nerves, sleeplessness, want of energy, weakness of the back, headaches and the ineffectual sort of presence which really comes from weakness can be got rid of. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have made many weak, tired men, vigorous and many pale dejected girls and women, rosy and attractive, by improving their blood and toning up their nerves. If you are weak, low-spirited, or unhealthy, try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and note their beneficial effect.

You can get these pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MRS. LETITIA M'GILL

The death occurred in Fort William on Tuesday, July 5th, of Mrs. Letitia McGill, 607 Euclid avenue, Toronto, a prominent worker of Christ Church, Cecil street, in her 75th year. Mrs. McGill was born near Erin, Ont., and was married to the late Dougall McGill. Dr. T. N. McGill, of Toronto, is her only surviving son. Four daughters remain, Mrs William Folliott and Mrs. W. McGill, of Toronto; Mrs. Harry Baker, of Yonkers, N. Y., and Mrs. Jack Gillespie, of Fort William.

MRS. JOHN FARNELL

The death occurred at Meadowvale on Friday last of Mrs. John Farnell, who passed away quite unexpectedly after a brief illness of one week. Mrs. Farnell was the daughter of the late John Dennis Lambe, one of the earlier settlers of the west side, and she was born at the corner of the fifth line, west, in the Churchville neighborhood. For over twenty years she was a resident of Meadowvale, where she was well known and very highly respected. Her husband predeceased her several years ago, and she was keeping house for a brother, Albert Lambe, of Meadowvale, at the time she was seized with a fatal illness. Another brother, William Lambe, of Orangeville, also survives. Three sons, Albert F., Ballinafad; Dennis and William, of Toronto, and two daughters, Mrs. Harold Routh, Hornby, and Mrs. W. A. Gardner, Bolton, also survive. The funeral, which was very large, took place on Sunday afternoon last to Churchville cemetery, the services being conducted by Rev. Mr. Petch. A large number of floral tributes testified to the high esteem felt for a life-long neighbor and friend.—Conservator.

THE GLORIOUS TWELFTH

Forty-Six Lodges Take Part in Monster Procession in Orangeville on Tuesday.

Orangemen Here From Six Counties —Immense Crowd in Town For the Day.

Forty-six Lodges, representing six counties—Peel, York, Simcoe, South Grey, Wellington and Dufferin—took part in the imposing afternoon parade, which was one of the features of Orangeville's Twelfth of July Demonstration on Tuesday. The parade was one of the finest ever witnessed here and that is saying a good deal, for Orangeville has had many large Orange Celebrations in its time.

It is doubtful if the town has ever before held as large a crowd of visitors as it did on Tuesday. Trains were crowded from north, south and west, but at that the great inrush of Orangemen and their friends was by auto. The cars poured in by every road and were parked everywhere. Broadway was closely lined on both sides as far west as the brow of the hill at the Bythia St. corner, First Avenue and Zina St. were lined on both sides and the same is true of First and Second Sts. and a number of short connecting streets. Scores of cars were ranged in order around Alexandra Park and even on the Park itself. The visitors began to come early and by 9.30 in the forenoon there was a good sized crowd in town. By noon the town was crowded to overflowing. The sidewalks on Broadway were so densely packed that locomotion was a difficult matter and the pedestrian who was in haste found himself obliged to take to the roadway and take chances among the cars. The hotels and churches had a tremendous task feeding the multitude during the noon hour and long waits at the dining room doors were unavoidable. Fortunately they had prepared on an extensive scale, so that no person was obliged to go hungry. Many who motored in brought along their lunches and dined in shady places on the lawns or boulevards of the town. Estimates of the size of the crowd vary, but it is generally agreed that from 8,000 to 10,000 people spent the day here. Notwithstanding the crush and the consequent congestion of traffic on Broadway and other central streets the day passed off without accident or mishap of any kind. Every person was in holiday mood and every person appeared to enjoy the day and celebration.

The town itself was in gala attire in honour of the Orangemen. Broadway was lined with evergreens. Flags and bunting were flying in profusion and huge streamers were suspended across the street, bearing the inscription, "Welcome, Brethren." The large arches, a conspicuous feature in former Celebrations, were lacking this year. The Committee had planned to erect two or three of these, but found it impossible to secure the necessary labour for the work.

Orangeville Citizens' Band, the two local Lodges and the local Reception Committee spent a busy morning meeting the incoming Lodges and escorting them to the Market Square, where banners, drums and other lodge paraphernalia were stored in the old Council Chamber until after the noon hour. Arrangements were also made for the registration of all Lodges immediately upon their arrival, a plan which helped a whole lot when it came time to form up for the afternoon parade. The first Lodge to register was Bowling Green L. O. L. No. 851, from the west side of Amaranth.

Shortly after one o'clock W. Bro. Jas. A. Patterson, Marshall for the day, and his aides, commenced to form the Lodges on Alexandra Park. Half an hour later the big procession was on the move. The route, which was changed from that advertised for the purpose of shortening the warch, was west on Broadway to Bythia St. and then by way of Bythia, Zina, First St., Third Ave. and Second St. to Exhibition Park. The parade was an imposing spectacle—banners flattering in the breeze, the long line of walking Orangemen, the shrilling of the fifes, the thunderous beat of the big drums and the blare of brass bands combining to make it something well worth seeing and hearing. Along the route the sidewalks and even the streets were densely lined with the spectators, who in places encroached upon the ranks of the parade, so dense was the crush and so anxious were the onlookers to see the marching brethren. The procession, which took twenty-five minutes to pass a given point, marched in the following order:—

Autos containing Aged Orangemen.

Soon after reaching the Exhibition grounds the marchers broke rank, many returning to Idylwyld Park post haste to witness the lacrosse match. Probably a couple of thousand remained for the speaking, which was of high order. W. Bro. T. H. Bullock, County Master of Dufferin, presided and Rev. Bro. John Coburn, of Toronto, a Past Grand Chaplain of Ontario West, was the chief speaker Addresses of a character appropriate to the day were also delivered by Rev. D. G. Atkinson, John Best, M. P., C. B. McKnown, K. C. and other speakers.

The following is a partial list of the winners of the prizes offered in connection with the Celebrations:—

Best Fife and Drum Band—1st, Laurel L. O. L. 330; 2nd, L. O. L. 635, Orangeville.

Best Lady True Blue Lodge—Mt. Forest.

Best Fifer—1st, E. Liddy; 2nd, F. Crisp.

Best Drummer—S. Courtney and R. Dermott, equal.

Oldest Orangeman—John Matson, Orangeville.

Lodge Having Best Regalia—Conn Orange Young Britons.

Best Marching Lodge—Warnock L. O. L. 250, Caledon.

Largest Lodge in Procession—Laurel L. O. L. 330.

Lodge Coming Greatest Distance —Reserved for decision of Committee. Probably between Mount Forest and Woodbridge Lodges.

Honeywood Band and Orangeville Citizens' Band were the only brass bands in the parade. Honeywood has a smart, nifty band and their music was much appreciated.

ORANGE SERVICE

Members of Orangeville Lodges Held Annual Parade to Baptist Church Sunday Morning.

Local Orangemen to the number of one hundred paraded to the Baptist Church on Sunday morning and listened to an impressive address by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Edwards. The parade was under the direction of L. O. L. No. 635 and the members of the town lodges and a number of the brethren of surrounding lodges assembled at 635 hall, whence they marched to the church headed by the lodge's fife and drum band under the leadership of Mr. Thomas Presley. The edifice was crowded to the doors and a number of seats were placed in the aisles to accommodate late comers. Mr. Edwards based his discourse on the text, "But be not ye called Rabbi; for one is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren." Matt. 23:8.

The priest, the minister declared in opening, is a preacher and a teacher, but not a father as is erroneously claimed in some quarters. He declares and instructs in the teaching of the Gospel, but farther than this he cannot go. The scribes and pharisees of the time of Christ were expected to tell the people what to do. They did that, but where they fell down was in failing to practice what they themselves proclaimed as the duty of others. The preacher drew a distinction between true and false prophets, condemned the inconsistency and self-satisfaction of the pharisees and asked where was the man who did not scorn those who are inconsistent in their lives and actions, those who do not play the game fairly and honestly. Deep down in our hearts we admire the man who is true, honorable and straightforward. He had no place for the man or woman who pretended to be goody-good. He did not believe that Christ intended people to be goody-good. Speaking about conversion Mr. Edwards narrated the dramatic experience that attended the conversion of Saul of Tarsus, the great change in the life of the famous Apostle when he first realized that the things he had hitherto believed in were not true. With Paul conversion was a case of right about face and quick march. It was much easier for the Christian, when he has made the great decision, to move forward in the Christian life than to stand still. The lives of the early disciples were so much like the life of Christ that their enemies called the Christians Christ-men. Christ was the perfect standard of the Christian life—the standard toward which all Christians should strive in their own lives. The speaker did not believe it was possible for the human life to be perfect, but he believed that the Christian life could be made more perfect and that it should be a progressive life. Every Christian life should be better and approach more nearly the perfect standard of the Christ life than it had a year before. In the same way every Christian in his congregation should be a better Christian a year hence than to-day. In their spiritual lives Christians are at the beginning spiritual babes and too often, unfortunately, many of them remained spiritual babes. As it is natural and proper for the babe to grow in strength and stature, so should the Christian develop and grow spiritually. As the heart of the parent is grieved by the condition of the child that is for some reason or another dwarfed physically and remains a babe, so is the heart of the heavenly Father saddened as he looks into the heart of the Christian, who does not grow and develop in the graces and virtues of the Christian life. Mr. Edwards made it plain to his hearers that he did not believe in sinless perfection, but believed in the type of Christian life which travelled steadily toward the goal of sinless perfection—the great goal of the Christian's life, but a goal never fully realized until he reaches the life beyond the grave. One of the closing thoughts of the sermon was the fact that Jesus was tempted and tried in all points as we are, but was without sin. The preacher concluded his address with an earnest appeal for a manifestation of the Christ character in purer, stronger, nobler and more virile Christianity.

The song service by the choir included an appreciated quartette by Mrs. Banks, Mrs. Mason and Messrs. Nightingale and King. After the service the brethren reformed and marched back to the lodgeroom, where a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to Rev. Mr. Edwards, the officials and choir of the Baptist Church for their assistance in making the service so successful.

A SURPRISE

Toronto-St Simons Combination Handed a Jolt to The Dufferins in Tuesday's Game.

Visitors Were in Fish of Condition and Won 4 to 2.

Toronto-St. Simons provided one of the big surprises of the lacrosse season at Idylwyld Park on Tuesday afternoon, when they defeated The Dufferins by the score of 4 to 2. The defeat came as a rude jolt to last year's champions, but the reverse is not irretrievable as the champions have still a chance to win out in the district. The visitors had on their best line-up, were in the pink of condition and came to town determined to pull out a win. In point of condition they had a marked advantage over the wearers of the green and white and consequently were on the aggressive the greater part of the time. The Dufferins did not seem to play with their usual vim. While they played a good game, we have seen them play a great deal better. On top of this their scoring department had some hard luck. McArthur, the visiting goal tender, had the good luck to get directly in the way of at least three straight-on shots when he hadn't a chance to even see the ball. Toronto-St. Simons got away with a 2 to 1 score in the first quarter. Dufferins evened early in the second period, but the visitors ran in two in succession before the quarter ended. The second half of the game was scoreless. Dufferins had several good chances in the second half but seemed unable to deliver the goods.

The game was witnessed by the largest crowd that ever attended a lacrosse match in Orangeville. The grandstand was filled to suffocation long before the game started. The playing oval was completely encircled by spectators, who lined the enclosure four and five deep. Each of these practically every bit of available space was occupied by autos crowded as closely as possible. Hundreds of people watched the contest from fence tops and from the Second Ave. hillside.

Both teams were at full strength, although Blythe Brown was injured early in the first quarter and played the remainder of the game with an injured ankle. The Captain retired in the third period Arm Robinson, a junior, taking his place, but pluckily came on again for the final quarter. The visitors seemed to have the edge on the Dufferins in fielding and excelled in the face-off and in getting the loose ball. In the first half their home bothered the Dufferin defence considerably, but after half time Densmore, Cushing et al held them safe and their sharpshooters rarely had a chance to beat Booth.

The visitors scored the first goal after 3½ minutes play. Eleven minutes later Orangeville evened after a piece of lightning combination work in which several of the home men figured. It took St. Simons 7 minutes to get their second, Robinson doing the trick. After one minute play in the second quarter, Golden evened for Orangeville on a pretty pass from Ewing after the latter had made a dodging run in from midfield. St. Simons then took two in six and seven minutes respectively, Bill Scott getting one and Herb Scott the other. Dedrick, a former Dufferin defence man, was on the defence for the visitors and played a strong, heady game. The game was clean considering the close, determined checking on both sides and the officials were not called upon to impose a penalty until the third quarter. In this period some of the visitors indulged in questionable tactics and each the team found itself playing two men short. Cushing incurred the displeasure of the referee in the final quarter and was relegated to the fence. His offence was a doubtful check. Teams and officials were:—

Toronto-St. Simons — Goal, McArthur; defence, Dedrick, Hayes, Thom, Hall, McArthur; centre, Trotter; home, Dopp, Holmes, Heath Scott. Robertson, W. Scott; subs, Lount, Sockett, Carroll.

Dufferins—Goal, Booth; defence, Cushing, Densmore, Cranston, Black, Scott; centre, Stevenson; home, Ewing, Gordon, Golden, Blythe and Bert Brown. Subs—Henderson, Robinson, Mitchell, Brawley.

Referee, Tom Humphrey; Judge of Play, Hugh Jack.

THE ICED TEA HABIT

At this season of the year, when iced drinks are most popular, it is interesting to know, as showing the increased consumption of teas in this country, that the iced tea habit is becoming more and more a vogue. Now it is considered more than a passing fad for particular housewives to serve iced Salada Tea to their families and guests. At the soda fountain, too, iced tea serving is becoming popular, and the delightful flavor of Salada has made thousands of friends among the women, and discerning men, who find in it a genuine bracer and a lasting cooler during the hot spells. It is, therefore, important that everyone should know how to make this delicious beverage.

Iced tea is easy to make and to make it properly the particular housewife should follow these simple directions:—

Scald out a crockery tea-pot and while it is warm put in a level teaspoonful of tea for every cup or glass. Pour on FRESHLY boiling water (but be sure that it is boiling) and allow it to steep from five to eight minutes. Then pour it off the leaves into a large pitcher or crock and sweeten to taste. Allow it to remain until cool, then serve in glasses with chipped ice. A thin slice of lemon with each glass may be added if desired, but it is really unnecessary, providing you are using the genuine "SALADA," which has such an exquisite flavour of its own.

Keep Your Home a family Inheritance

YOUR home as it stands to-day, if properly taken care of, will be the inheritance of a future generation. It will be a nice thing for your children's children to enjoy the privilege of living in the old family homestead—they will be able to if you profit by the experience of the past. The greatest preserver and saver of surfaces is paint, and the paint with the best record for permanence is

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT

For sheer covering capacity, brilliancy and durability, there is no paint we know of that can equal B-H "English" Paint. Because it covers more—it is more economical. You cannot afford, therefore, to buy a paint because it may be a little cheaper at first cost, for a gallon of B-H "English" Paint goes much further than a gallon of cheaper paint, and in addition the B-H formula guarantees a more lasting paint.

To keep your house a family inheritance—use B-H "English" Paint, it pays.

DENTAL INSPECTION

by

DR. C. H. CAMPBELL, Orangeville, Ont.

Dr. Campbell spoke from many years' experience of municipal affairs, and as a parent deeply interested in the welfare of children. He congratulated the Trustees' Association on the success of their efforts to make the education of every child in the Province as full and comprehensive as possible, which includes physical and moral development as well as intellectual. This is seen in improved school buildings, more wholesome environment and saner regulations. Fresh air and sunlight have dispelled the gloomy vitiated atmosphere of other days and the whole school plant has been made more attractive and sanitry. Ratepayers are drawing better dividends from their investments in education in brighter, stronger and happier children.

Notwithstanding our gratification over the progress of the past years we are not yet satisfied with present conditions. There are still many pupils who do not make the progress they should with their studies owing to retarded physical development, and who often become morose, sullen, unruly and even morally depraved, and further, these conditions prevail in schools of every quality and grade, both urban and rural, and like good business men, who are conscious of your duties as trustees, you set about to discover the cause. You are satisfied the school accommodation is good, the teaching efficient, the attendance regular and the curriculum of studies adapted to the needs of the pupils, and that these conditions still prevail. The fault must lie with the pupil. Many of the essentials of normal development, such as proper diet and physical culture, have been discussed and experimented with, with more or less good results, but still conditions are far from ideal. But in the last few years the voice of the family dentist has been heard in the land and his plea has been endorsed by the family physician insistently contending that the most prolific source of trouble is to be found in the unclean and unhealthy conditions which prevail in the mouths of a high percentage of the school children of to-day.

The Prevalence of Dental Diseases.

What are the conditions to-day? As civilization advanced throughout the world it was found that dental diseases increased, for dental disease seems peculiar to civilized peoples, and the higher the state of civilization, the more prevalent the disease. For some time the knowledge has been growing that the parts played by faulty dental conditions were not passive in their actions, as had been supposed, but were decidedly active. Pathological investigation and research have shown that no other organs of the human system are so subject to premature decay and destructive diseases, nor more productive of an infecting cause of serious and fatal maladies in the more vital organs. Dental diseases are no longer regarded as merely insidious and painful processes confined in their deleterious activities to their own local field, with possible evil effects upon the countenance and voice, but they are now regarded as deeper and darker fountains of evil which, however little suspected, spread their infection through every fibre of the tree of life.

The Breeding Place of Bacteria.

As you know, the essentials of healthy human life are pure food and pure air, and unless the food and air reach that part of the human organism, where they are assimilated, properly prepared and undefiled, their nutritive value is diminished or destroyed. Our standards of living and public health legislation require that all food offered for human consumption be pure. Nature has provided for its preparation a splendid masticatory apparatus—the teeth. But, unfortunately, advanced standards of living demanding foods more palatable, requiring less mastication and lacking the cleansing, stimulating and abrasive qualities of the foods of earlier days, and an ever increasing appetite for confections of all kinds has been attended by a lowered development of the teeth and their surrounding tissue. This lowered development is naturally followed by increased susceptibility to disease, disintegration of the tissue, forming more commodious recesses for the collection of debris and more favorable and more protected spawning beds for bacteria of endless varieties. These flourish and multiply in the congenial heat, moisture, and plentiful food supply to be found in the mouth and not only corrupt every particle of food taken into the stomach, poison every breath of vital air passed through this entrance into the lungs, but are scattered broadcast at every cough, sneeze or laugh, to create a menace to all around. Some idea of the gravity of this source of evil may be had from the fact that eminent bacteriologists tell us that in a fairly clean mouth there are present in one milligram of debris about five million of these microbes, while in a filthy or diseased mouth the same quantity of material will contain eight hundred millions. Accompanying these conditions there is almost invariably noticed the disastrous effects of disturbed digestion with its associated evils brought about by insufficient mastication, distracting pain, unsightly appearance and offensive breath.

Unhealthy Teeth Cause of Various Diseases.

The evils mentioned are not by any means the most virulent that have their source in diseased teeth. You have all probably heard of that dread disease, "Pyorrhea Alveolaris," and many of you have had experience either directly or indirectly with abscesses, or as some people still call them, gum boils. You have heard of these diseases which are the result of the more advanced stages of dental diseases. Any reputable physician of to-day will tell you of a long list of maladies which follow in their trail, not the least of which are Rheumatism, Neuritis, Nervous Disorders of various kinds, Kidney, Liver and Heart Trouble, and many others. And I may say in passing, that it is a significant fact that the increase in the percentage of heart trouble is in direct proportion to the increase of these diseases. The putrescent contents of these diseased areas are forced, under pressure, into the blood and lymph channels, immediately reducing the quality and efficiency of these, lowering resistance offered diseases and impairing the functions of the more vital organs, such as the heart, liver and kidneys. Surgeons and physicians are convinced to-day that the Hospitals, Sanitariums, Asylums and even prisons are filled with patients and inmates whose original source of infection was neglected dental disease.

Please do not imagine that I magnify or exaggerate conditions for the sake of making an impression on you. I tell you and I tell you in all earnestness that no one, be he private citizen, teacher, physician or dentist, who has not looked into the mouths of hundreds of school children and patients from all walks of life, has any conception of the dreadful conditions that really exist. Does it signify nothing that it is proven that 90 p.c. of the maladies to which the human organism is subject have their origin of entrance above the collar? Even such conservative authority as the Mayo Institute declares that 75 per cent. of all diseases are of dental origin. Does it signify nothing that in the call for soldiers in the late war 30 per cent. of the men at the best period of life were unfit for military service? But you say, what have these conditions to do with our work among the children, and the answer is, that many of these conditions are increasing to an alarming extent. Your duty lies, not only to the child of to-day, but to the citizen of to-morrow. Much of these evils could have been prevented if proper precautions had been taken in years gone by. Who will be responsible for the great calamity which overshadows the future if these precautions are not taken to-day? This work should be preventive rather than restorative and it is among the children between the ages of two and eighteen, when development is taking place when the balance is so easily turned for good or evil. If taken in the primary stages these diseases respond readily to treatment and comparatively simple precautions will entirely prevent a great percentage of the trouble.

The Prevalence of These Conditions Among School Children.

A Dental Inspection was undertaken last year in the County of Dufferin with the following results:—

Pupils examined	1264
Simple cavities	1755
Extensive cavities in permanent teeth	594
Cavities in deciduous teeth	2357
Abscesses	137
Teeth to be extracted	1276
Urgent cases	139

More work was required than could be done in six months by all the Dentists in the County. Conditions in Dufferin are typical of all parts of the Province.

In thirty schools in the United States where prophylaxis treatments had been given, an average reduction of 33 per cent. in cavities was obtained. The reduction in sickness among the children was very marked. In 1914 diphtheria was 36 per cent. In 1918 diphtheria was reduced to 18 per cent. In 1914 measles was 20 per cent. In 1918 measles was reduced to 4 per cent. In 1914 scarlet fever was 14 per cent. In 1918 scarlet fever was reduced to 0.5 per cent. There was a reduction of 50 per cent. in backward pupils. The cost for re-education in 1912 was 42 per cent. of the entire budget, while in 1918 it was only 17 per cent. In view of these facts why is it we do not get these truths over the top so that our profession is represented in high official positions on boards of health of cities, state and the nation?

The Remedy Provided.

You will ask, how shall we rectify such conditions? Many municipalities have established a dental clinic for their school children. The results of the work carried on thus far are very gratifying. The teeth of every child are examined every three or four months. A note is made of existing defects, one copy of which is kept by the teacher and another sent to the parent. It is left optional with the parents which dentist the patient shall visit, but regular and thorough cleaning is insisted upon.

At the last meeting of the Ontario Dental Society a strong resolution was passed asking for legislation to establish a dental service branch in the Department of Public Health to forward this movement in a systematic way.

If the attitude of the people of Dufferin is any criterion, I believe that in the very near future there will be sufficient sentiment throughout Ontario to demand legislation to enable you Trustees to engage in a more comprehensive plan than mere examination. They recognize the fact that "an ounce of prevention is worth sixteen ounces of cure," and only costs about one sixteenth as much; that no child can be properly developed who is a prey to painful and destructive diseases; that a child can not be properly and economically educated whose physical development is deficient. They believe that every child in this Province, be he native born or he be foreign born, has a right to as full and free development, physical, moral, and mental, as our Canadian Ideals and British Traditions demand, and they ask you men and women and trustees of Waterloo, Wellington, Peel and Halton to co-operate as far as lies within your power that in the matter of all essential health, something shall be done and done soon.

CONSOLIDATED SCHOOLS

by

PETER McLAREN, of the Education Department.

In the short time allotted to me this evening I can only briefly refer to a few facts gathered concerning the working out of Consolidation as I saw it in the United States.

The schools visited were in Michigan and Indiana—three in Michigan and four in Indiana. The climatic and road conditions and several other things are in many respects very similar to those in our own Province. All the Schools seen were brick structures, beautiful in appearance, with modern equipment, proper lighting, excellent heating and ventilation. Their curriculum of study consists of work up to the 8th Grade, (or Entrance examination) and High School work of four years, together with Vocational Work in Agriculture, Manual Training and Domestic Science under trained and qualified teachers.

The attendance ranged from 75 to 248 pupils, and the percentage attendance was from 90 to 97 per cent. We had an opportunity of meeting and personally interviewing many of the parents and ratepayers and officials of these schools, and the universal and unanimous opinion of everyone was that the Consolidated School is the type of School best suited to their needs. Some, who voted against it at first, on account, chiefly, of the difficulty of transportation, are now the most enthusiastic in its favour. Interviews were also held with the boys and girls, who were transported to school and belonged to the 8th and High School grades, as to what they and their parents thought of the Consolidated School, and everyone, without exception, was enthusiastic in its favour.

Enquiry was also made into the expense of Consolidation and facts go to show, and everyone admitted, that the expense was greater, but the education received and other benefits were well worth the extra cost. The Superintendent of Randolph County said that the increase in cost was about 50 per cent.

Another matter looked into was the working out of the transportation of pupils to and from school. This is done by motors, auto-busses and covered wagons in summer and by covered sleighs in winter. At some schools these conveyances are owned by the drivers, and at others by the school. On private or public ownership of conveyances there seems to be no settled policy, but opinion seems to incline to the latter. As to cost, it depends upon local conditions, length of routes and other things. While the opinion of some of the parents is that transportation is expensive and sometimes unsatisfactory, the vast majority consider that the increased school advantages are worth the increased cost and outweigh all difficulties in the way of transportation.

Two facts in closing:—

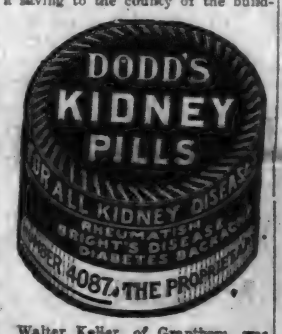
1. Each of these Consolidated Schools is a real rural school for rural pupils.

2. The Consolidated School is a real Community Centre, where the people meet and mingle with one another, and is therefore a great factor in making country life a most desirable life.

Peel County Women's Institute at an executive meeting decided to supplement the necessary amount to the county council grant of $1000 and the Government grant to support two school nurses in the county.

Grey County Council purchased a strip of land for $4,150, effecting a saving to the county of the building of two bridges and straightening out the road.

A prominent Georgetown lady made a wager on the Dempsey-Carpentier fight to the effect that she would roll a pea-nut over a certain over-head railway bridge in town if Carpentier lost the fight. Well, Carpentier lost and the lady rolled the peanut. It just took her 8 minutes and 13 2-5 seconds to complete the task.



Walter Keller, of Grantham, was committed for trial on a charge of stealing three horses.

YOUNG WOMEN AVOID PAIN

This One Tells How She Was Benefited by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Regina, Sask.—"For two years I suffered from periodic pains and nausea so I was unable to get around. My mother had me take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and am much better and able to go about the time, which I could not do before. I recommend Vegetable Compound to my friends if I know they suffer the same way, and you may publish my letter if it will help any one, as I hope it will."—Miss Z. G. BLACKWELL, 2078 Osler Place, Regina, Sask.

If every girl who suffers as Miss Blackwell did, or from irregularities, painful periods, backache, sideache, dragging down pains, inflammation or ulceration would only give this famous root and herb remedy a trial they would soon find relief from such suffering.

It hardly seems possible that there is a woman in this country who will continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial after all the evidence that is continually being published, proving beyond contradiction that this grand old medicine has relieved more suffering among women than any other medicine in the world.

For special advice women are asked to write the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of forty years experience is at your service.

A Sunday School class picnic at Inglewood nearly terminated in a drowning fatality when two young girls, Sadie McBride and Joy Jamieson, were carried down by the strong current of the Credit River and another girl, Lois Sibbald, who went to their rescue, also endangered her life for the terrified girls clung to her. Fortunately Malcolm Hall, of Brampton, and Jack Ramsey, Inglewood, happened to be in the vicinity where the girls were in bathing and heard the cries for help. They lost no time getting to the scene and their courageous efforts resulted in bringing the girls to safety.

10 Years of Eczema
A Sample Relieved Her

Are you reading the weekly Canadian letters, telling stories of suffering from skin diseases and how cure was effected?

Here is part of a letter from Mrs. Henry Harvey, Black Lake, Que. Write her if you desire.

"Ten years of eczema on the face. Treated unavailingly by doctors. A sample alone of D. D. D. cured me, etc."

The proof of the pudding is in the eating. When a prescription for skin disease has letters of cure and endorsement from nearly every city and town in the Dominion, surely it is enough to convince the most skeptical.

Relief from itching torment is immediate. Just try one bottle of D. D. D. today on our positive guarantee. $1.00 a bottle. Try D.D.D. Soap, too.

NEPONSET ROOFS

For Buildings of All Kinds

For sloping roofs on residences, garages, bungalows, or public buildings, Neponset Twin Shingles make as handsome and durable a roof as it is possible to find anywhere — and they are most economical.

Neponset Twin Shingles are impregnated with asphalt and heavily surfaced with crushed slate. No wonder they resist time and wear. Their natural slate-red and slate-green colors are restful and beautiful.

They will not catch fire from falling sparks. Because they are two shingles in one and self-spacing, they require less labor and less nails to lay.

THE BANNER

In The Banner is now appearing a series of advertisements the object of which is to educate the public to the value of forest preservation through prevention of fires. One of the things which impressed itself upon weekly newspapermen on their recent trip through northern Ontario and British Columbia was the terrible destruction wrought in the timber growth by fires, started usually by the carelessness of hunter, camper or settler. Anyone who sees great areas of timber thus blasted cannot help relizing the tremendous losses which these forest fires cause. At this time of the year when so many camping parties are out, the warning of the Department of Lands and Forests is particularly timely. Campers should remember never to pass on, leaving a fire which is not absolutely quenched.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is admittedly the greatest gift a parent can give a child. For fifteen years the Orangeville Business College has successfully trained young people for the best situations in Canada and United States. "A position for every graduate" is our motto. This school is affiliated with the Canada Business Colleges, Toronto, and ten other colleges in various cities and towns of Ontario. In union there is strength. In a multitude of counsellors there is wisdom. The Spotton Colleges are the largest trainers of young people in Canada. Mail courses in all subjects for those who cannot attend. Special courses in Farm Bookkeeping. Write for particulars to Canada Business College, Orangeville, or Toronto. 4-3t.

DUFFERINS IN ST. KITTS

The Dufferin lacrosse team visited St. Catharines on Monday, July 18th, and played an exhibition game with the Athletics of that city. The game was one of the big features of the Old Home Day celebration and attracted a large crowd. St. Kitts won by the close score of 7 to 6. The Dufferins, who were accompanied by a few of their ardent supporters, report a royal time and wish to express their grateful thanks to the Athletics and Messrs. J. D. McIntosh, Frank Dixon, J.D. Wright, Art Herr, Secretary of the local Club, Henry Day, Art Gayder, Billy Fitzgerald, George Kadis, Mine Host and Hostess Garbutt of the New Murray Hotel and other St. Catharines citizens for the splendid manner in which they were entertained during their stay in the city.

ST. SIMONS AGAIN

Toronto St. Simons lacrosse team will make their second visit to Orangeville on Wednesday next, August 3rd, when they hook up with The Dufferins for what will be the decisive game for the district honours. The Dufferins have to win the game to keep in the running. St. Simons need the game to clinch the district championship. With so much at stake both teams can be counted to make a supreme effort to win. The game promises to be one of the best of the season and should attract an immense crowd. The Dufferins are practicing hard and are determined to show their supporters that they are a better lacrosse team than the Toronto Amalgamated's. Ball will be faced at 3 o'clock sharp.

TOOK HIGHEST MARKS

The young lady's marks totalled 654 out of a possible 750. Thomas Windlaw, a pupil who wrote at Clifford, was second in the county with a total of 640. Mr. and Mrs. Skelton are well-known here, the former being an old Caledon boy and subsequently a business man in Grand Valley.

JUDG'T FOR PLAINTIFF

Dods Knitting Co. Scores Big Win in Litigation With Brampton Manufacturer.

At Osgoode Hall on Saturday Mr. Justice Kelly gave The Dods Knitting Co., of Orangeville, judgment for $16,811.95, against John McMurchy & Sons, of Brampton. The claim arose out of the sale of 141 bales of wool by plaintiff to the defendant company in 1917, while working on war contracts. Defendants claimed that the wool was not of good quality. This contention the Court disposes of in the judgment, which states that the plaintiff's side of the transaction was conducted without any attempt or intention to do otherwise than carry out the terms of the contract. The text of the judgment follows:—

"I find plaintiff's case completely established on the evidence of witnesses, whom I have no hesitation in believing. On plaintiff's side the transaction was conducted and recorded with regularity and accuracy and without any attempt or intention to do otherwise than carry out the terms of the contract. The account as set out in plaintiff's claim I accept as correct with this qualification, that during the trial plaintiff requested that a further credit of $1,332.93 be given, thus reducing the claim sued upon to $16,-891.95, for which sum and interest from the commencement of the action, there will be judgment in plaintiff's favor, with costs. There is no merit in defendant's counterclaim, and it is dismissed with costs."

A WOMAN'S RIGHT TO GOOD HEALTH

Most Troubles Affecting Women Are Due to Poor Blood.

To every woman belongs the right to enjoy a healthy, active life; yet nine out of ten suffer from some form of bloodlessness. That is why one sees so many girls pale, thin cheeks, dull eyes and drooping figures—sure signs of headaches, weak backs, aching limbs and uncertain health. All weak women should win the right to be well by refreshing their weary bodies with the new, rich, red blood that promptly transforms them into healthy, attractive women. This new, red blood is supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which reaches every organ and every nerve in the body. Through the use of these pills thousands of women have found benefit when suffering from anaemia, indigestion, general weakness and those ailments from which women alone suffer. Among the many women who tell of the good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done them is Mrs. L. Hicks, Round Hill, N. S., who says: "I became very much run down in health; my blood seemed weak and watery, my strength failed, and I was so easily tired that my work was a burden. I had often read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and decided to try them, and I can truly say that after using three boxes I found myself gaining, and under a further use of the pills all my old-time energy and vitality was restored. Out of my own experience I can strongly recommend this medicine."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PURSE FOR PASTOR

Congregation of St. Andrew's Makes Farewell Presentation to Rev. and Mrs. Morris.

Monday night, July 18th, the congregation of St. Andrew's Church held a social evening in the school room of the church to give opportunity to say farewell to their late pastor, Rev. W. M. Morris, and Mrs. Morris prior to their removal to their new home in Toronto. The terrific rainstorm kept many of the members from attending, but their was a surprisingly large number present considering the inclemency of the night. On every hand were heard expressions of sorrow that circumstances had led to the severance of the happy relations that have existed between Mr. Morris and his people here during the thirteen years of his pastorate in Orangeville. During the evening the pastor and his wife were each presented with a well filled purse and Mrs. Morris with a basket of beautiful roses. The presentations were made by Mrs. A. Connell, President of the Ladies' Aid Society, and Mrs. Henry Watt, President of the W. M. S. Mr. D. Macpherson, one of the elders of the church, read the following address:—

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Morris.

Dear Friends,—

We, the members and adherents of St. Andrew's Church, Orangeville, feel that we cannot allow you to leave us without making some recognition of the untiring zeal with which you and Mrs. Morris have served this congregation.

Your sermons, Mr. Morris, Sabbath after Sabbath, have been a continual source of inspiration and fresh hope to the many who have been privileged to hear them. During your pastorate our church membership has increased to no mean extent. Not only have you built up and strengthened the congregation, but ever since you came here thirteen years ago you have played an active and zealous part in the life of the whole community.

Those interested in temperance will not soon forget the energy you have displayed, and the tower of strength you have been in the fight against the drink evil.

Your activities in the educational advancement of the community have always been praiseworthy, and so it was not surprising to us when the Minister of Education called you to take charge of a part of the educational work of our Province. It is not only as members and adherents of St. Andrew's, but as citizens of the town, that we have benefitted by your ministry here.

We take pleasure in expressing our appreciation of Mrs. Morris' interest and work, especially in the Ladies' Aid and Women's Missionary Societies, where, as Secretary and President respectively, she has done splendid service.

We are asking you to accept these small tokens of our esteem and recognition of the services you and Mrs. Morris have rendered. Be assured that you will be followed by the prayers of the congregation for your success in the new sphere of labor for which you have shown yourself especially adapted. Our sincere hope is that you and your family may have health and prosperity, and continued joy in the knowledge of service to God and mankind.

Signed in behalf of the congregation,

A. D. McKITRICK,
Secretary.

Orangeville, July 18th, 1921.

In the course of his reply Mr. Morris, after referring to the happy relations that had marked his pastorate in St. Andrew's and expressing the grateful thanks of Mrs. Morris and himself for the present kindness and many other kindnesses from the hands of the congregation, explained at some length the nature and importance of the new duties he is undertaking as Secretary-Treasurer of the Ontario Trustees' Association. Messrs. Albert Walker, Maura McNaughton, J. E. Smith and R. Fairbairn, Mrs. Watt, Mrs. Connell and other members made short addresses expressing the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Morris are held and the regret so generally felt over their departure from town. A delightful musical program was also provided under the direction of Mr. A. C. Hannahson, the church organist, the numbers consisting of a piano solo by Miss Dorothea Browne, a former organist, a solo by Miss Myrtle Gardiner and an instrumental trio by Miss Hulse, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Hannahson. Mr. A. D. McKitrick, Secretary of the Congregation, occupied the chair.

At the close of the program the ladies served light refreshments and a delightful social time was spent by all. Before dispersing the gathering sang Auld Lang Syne with feeling and fervor.

During the thirteen years of Mr. Morris' pastorate the membership of the congregation has increased from 350 to something over 550. Mr. and Mrs. Morris and family left for their new home at 1216 Lansdowne Ave., Toronto, on Tuesday, July 19th. The hearty good wishes of the people of St. Andrew's and citizens of all walks and denominations follow them to the city and their new sphere of artivity.

LOUIS BENNISON
—IN—
"Sandy Burke of the U-Bar-U"
From first to last Bennison shows himself a true son of the West. While battling with cattle thieves in mountain fastnesses or depicting the plain, every-day cow-puncher of the range, there is always a true Western ring to his performance. A seeker after adventure, Sandy Burke has his fill of thrills from the moment he makes his way to a turbulent town in the Western cattle country. He is hired to round up an organized band of thieves and sets himself to the task of fighting armed crooks in their own lair, single-handed.

A BAD ACCIDENT

Mr. Nelson Black, a well-known East Garafraxa farmer, may consider that he is extremely fortunate to be alive to-day. He was very close to death last Friday, when a runaway team of horses jumped on him from the rear and hurled him to the ground in front of the mowing machine which he was driving at the time. Mr. Black was sitting sinkle clown on his farm near The Gien. Directly behind the mower his father-in-law, Mr. David Thompson, a former Orangeville man, was driving another team attached to a rake. In some way the tongue of the rake broke and dropped to the ground frightening Mr. Thompson's team and causing them to make a dash forward. When they struck and knocked Mr. Black off the mower his team started ahead dragging the unfortunate man for some distance with his head immediately beneath the driving shaft of the machine. How he released himself from his perilous predicament he can hardly tell, but he got free in some manner. He was carried to the house and an urgent message was despatched to Orangeville for a doctor. When Dr. Macleod arrived he found that the injured man had suffered a fracture of the small bone of one leg between the knee and ankle. He was also painfully cut and bruised about the head and body. Mr. Black is reported as doing remarkably well, but it will be six weeks if not longer before he can do any farm work. Mr. Thompson, who is well advanced in years, had the good fortune to escape without any serious injury. When the horse of the rake fell the team got free from the implement. He was, however, thrown to the ground by the shock and had his nose bled by the impact with mother earth.

WALDEMAR

Mr. and Mrs. Will Sanderson motored to Galt and spent the week-end with the latter's sister.

Mr. H. Ritchie spent last week with Mrs. T. W. Reid and Miss Forbes.

Mrs. Reuben West intends leaving shortly for a two months' trip to the west.

The Waldemar Women's Institute will hold their Garden Party on the grounds of Mrs. W. J. Tate on August 3rd. Watch for particulars later.

Loyal True Blue Lodge No. 354 attended divine service in the Methodist Church, Grand Valley, a week ago Sunday night. Quite a number from the Waldemar ladies attended.

Mrs. A. Shoote, of Regina, Sask., is spending several days at the home of her brother, Mr. R. Rodgers, after an absence of several years.

Messrs. West, H. Carter, J. Hunter and Jesse Reid attended the Conservative convention at Shelburne a week ago Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Lomas, of Chepeler, have got settled in their new home.

—Orangeville Citizens' Band is open for Garden Party engagements.

ALTON

Union services are being held by the Methodist and Presbyterian churches for six weeks, commencing on Sunday, July 24th. Services for the first three weeks will be in the Presbyterian church and will be taken by the pastor, Rev. W. N. Carr. On the three remaining Sabbaths Rev. J. F. G. Morris will hold services in the Methodist church.

Rev. and Mrs. J. F. G. Morris are enjoying their vacation these days.

There will be no services at the Caledon and Melville Methodist appointments while the pastor, Rev. J. F. G. Morris, is on his holidays.

Mr. Norman Storey, Centre Road, Caledon, has his new bank barn nearly completed. The structure is 56 by 60 with stone foundation underneath and will make a big improvement to Mr. Storey's property when finished. The framework was raised by block and tackle a couple of weeks ago.

Miss Marion Cameron, pupil of Margaret I. Meek, has been successful in passing the Elementary Piano Examination in the Canadian Academy of Music with first-class honours.

PATTERSON–HUNT

The marriage took place quietly at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hunt, Allenford, Ont., on Wednesday, July 20th, of Miss Laura Elma Hunt to Mr. Fred J. Patterson, Registrar of the County of Dufferin. Only the immediate relatives were present at the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. J. Cousins, of Allenford, at the hour of 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The bride, who was given away by her father, was daintily gowned and carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses. Little Miss Laura Hackett, niece of the bride, acted as flower girl, and her sister, Miss Reta Hunt, played the wedding march. During the signing of the register Mr. M. J. Aiken, brother-in-law of the bride, sang "Until." Following the ceremony the happy couple left on a week's wedding trip through the Thousand Islands. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson arrived home on Monday and are settling down to the realities of wedded life in their residence on Zina St. The Banner unites with their numerous friends in wishing them a long and very happy life together.

ENTRANCE RESULTS

Names of Dufferin Candidates at Dufferin County Centres.

In Dufferin there were 202 candidates and of this number 169 were successful and 29 took honours. The standard for honours is 75 per cent. of the marks assigned.

Every candidate taking a scholarship is in the honour list. One pupil, Miss Margaret Davis, not only took the scholarship for Amaranth, the special prize for History, given by the Daughters of the Empire, Shelburne, but made an average of over 90 per cent.

Certificates and the marks of the unsuccessful candidates will be sent out in a few days.

The following scholarships, arranged in the order of merit, were awarded:—

ACHIEVES SUCCESS

Orangeville High School Makes Splendid Record in Lower School Exams.

The results of the Lower School Examinations, recently published, cannot but be gratifying to the Principal and staff of our High School. It speaks well for the sound judgment and careful consideration exhibited, when every pupil who was recommended, was successful. This means that the class was one hundred per cent. efficient. Besides those who were recommended a few others who wrote were also successful. The total per cent. of successful candidates was seventy-five. This was a very creditable performance when we consider that the average for the province was sixty-three per cent.

Our High School is building up a high standard of efficiency, and can more than hold its own with any school of its size in the province. It is an asset to the town and district and deserves the support of every one interested in the advancement of education.

Miss Marion McNaughton is to be congratulated as being the only pupil in the county to obtain honour standing.

The following are the successful candidates:—Elizabeth Crozier; Edgar Dyer; Kathleen Hughes; Helen Irvine; Reta Kendrew; Helen MacMurchy; Marion McNaughton (hon); Jack Marshall; Ina Jackson (Geog.); Eileen Jackson; Velma Quinn; Velma Robbins; Charlie Rowan; Gwen Sproule; Edith Young; Clemina Legate; Viola McKim.

Other Dufferin County Pupils who were successful are:—J. V. R. Anderson; L. C. Armstrong; C. J. Baxendale; E. H. C. Carlow; M. G. Chalmers; W. D. A. Douglas; B. L. Dales; W. M. Gear; G. E. Luxton; W. S. Lomas; B. I. McCutcheon; R. T. Martin; E. E. McConnell; U. M. McIntyre; M. Reid; J. K. Thornley; F. I. Torrance; L. H. Tate; J. E. Turner; L. E. Turner; H. D. Wallace; N. J. Wallace; F. W. Wansbrough; E. B. Wolfe.

Successful Peel County pupils were:—S. Beatty; W. E. Benner; I M. Bellas; J. G. Bland; M. E. Burrell; T. Bryant; A. Burke; V. J. Coyne; F. E. Dale; E. M. Fenwick (hon); G. M. Gray; O. L. Guy; L. G. Passed—Gordon Atkinson; Schofield Battersby; Mabel Dodds; Cyril Fleetham; Arthur Lawson; Elmer Lemon; Margaret Lemon; Teresa McCormick; Vera McKim; Robert McKinley, Geo. Moon; Mildred Nichols; Arthur Rowan; Aileen Speers; Lila Speers; Lila Stewart; Pearl Watson.

MRS. WM. F. M'LACHLAN

An old and respected resident of Caledon township, in the person of Margaret Hooey, wife of William Flood McLachlan, Alton, passed away at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Dolson, Creemore, on Friday, July 8th. Deceased, who had been in ill-health for some time, had gone to live with her eldest daughter some few months ago. For a time her condition was somewhat improved, but the excessive heat proved too much for her and the end came quickly and peacefully on Friday night about one-half hour after retiring. Deceased was 78 years of age and spent her youth in the vicinity of Bowmanville. After her marriage, she and her husband settled in Maryborough township, Wellington county, on the Gravel Road near Rothsay, where her family of three daughters and two sons were born. They afterwards moved to a farm in East Luther, going from there to Caledon thirty years ago. Besides her husband she is survived by two daughters and two sons. The daughters are Mrs. W. J. Dolson, of Creemore, and Mrs. M. E. Wright, of Chicago. The sons are John A., of Alton, and George, of Palmerston. The funeral was held from the residence of her son, John A., to the Alton cemetery on Monday, July 11. Rev. W. N. Carr, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Alton, conducted the services at the house and grave. Many relatives and friends from a distance were present to pay their last respects to the deceased, who was loved and respected by all who knew her. She was a very domestic woman in her habits and tastes. Her duties centred largely in her home and family. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband and family.

BIRCH–M'CLELLAN

The wedding took place on July 14, at the home of the bride, High Park Avenue, Toronto, of Mary Alberta McClellan, eldest daughter of Mrs. Lawrence L. McClellan, Alton, to Mr. George Birch, of Toronto, the ceremony being performed by Rev. D. T. L. McKerroll. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Lawrence A. McClellan, LL. D. of Detroit, Mich., wore a gown of white georgette and taffeta. Her wide-brimmed hat was also white with flat ostrich feather trimmings. She carried sweetheart roses. Following the ceremony a buffet breakfast was served on the lawn.

DUFFERINS LOSE

Toronto-St. Simons Won in Overtime at Scarborough Beach on Saturday.

Teams Tied at Full Time With 4-4 Score—St. Simons Were Lucky in Overtime Struggle.

Out-lucked is the general verdict of supporters of The Dufferins, who saw their favorites defeated by Toronto-St. Simons at Scarborough Beach on Saturday afternoon. The Dufferin scoring division had the hardest kind of luck as they had enough chances at the flags to put the game on ice several times over. McArthur, the St. Simons goal tender, is clever, and he stopped a number that appeared tagged for sure counters. He was lucky as well as clever, for he generally happened to be in the way of shots that he could not have stopped otherwise. The hard luck was not all at this end of the field either. Booth, who played a remarkably strong game during the regular playing period, experienced a taste of it in the overtime test, when two long shots that looked ridiculously easy got by him, and lost the game to the Dufferins. It was certainly tough, but the luck is part of the game and any team is apt to get a streak of the ill-fortune that seemed to pursue The Dufferins on Saturday.

It was a great game nevertheless—one of the kind that gets the spectators on tiptoe nd sets them cheering madly as one clever piece of play succeeds another oftimes with dazzling rapidity. St. Simons supporters did most of the cheering in the early stages of the game. The Toronto team settled down quickly and had rather the better of the play in the first quarter, although their superiority was largely in midfield, where they did more ball getting and ball carrying than their opponents. The Dufferin home was often dangerous, but, try as they might, did not seem able to get the ball past McArthur. At the other end the green-shirted defence was playing fine lacrosse, and the Amlagamated home got few close in chances. Finally one came and Herb Scott batted the ball into the net after a scuffle in front of the flags. Scott also got another tally following a fast piece of combination play. The second quarter found The Dufferins playing aggressively and the St. Simons struggling hard to hold their lead. It was hard, determined lacrosse with little advntage to either team. Both homes shot repeatedly, but the two goal tenders got everything that came their way and the period passed without a goal on either side.

Dufferins made a shake-up at half time, Dr. Zinn going on the home and Ewing moving back to centre. It proved a change for the better. The quarter was all Orangeville, the green and white home scoring three times, while St. Simons were unable to improve their position. Ewing got one of the tallies by a spectacular run in from the field right back of the flags and then circling in and dropping the ball into the net from behind. Zinn, who proved a source of new strength to The Dufferin home, tallied another in clever fashion. The Shelburne man is a nifty stick handler and his strength makes him a hard man to hold. With the long end of a 3 to 2 score The Dufferins appeared to have St. Simons on the run at three quarter time, but the unexpected happened in the final period, when the Toronto outfit came back with a rush and placed two to their credit, while a single tally was all that The Dufferins managed to make. This tied the game with the score standing 4 all. The teams were ordered to play ten minutes overtime. Hardly had the ball been faced when St. Simons scored, Bill Scott doing the trick with a long one that fooled Booth. Robertson placed another to the credit of the Saints with a similar shot from far out on the side. Discouraging as these reverses were, neither goal being of the class that could be called earned, The Dufferins battled hard and managed to put another tally to their credit before time was called.

Blythe Brown, Captain of The Dufferins, was obliged to quit in the third qurater owing to an injured ankle giving out. His loss came at a critical stage of the game and improved the chances of St. Simons. In the same period Gordon and Bert Brown were both benched for trifling offences, so that The Dufferins were obliged to play two men short. We do not believe in rough play, but we do question the fairness and good judgment of any official who will handicap a team at a critical stage of a game by benching players for trifling offences. Several infractions of a much more serious nature than those for which the Dufferin home men were penalised occurred during the game and were allowed to pass without any penalty.

Taken as a whole the game was a great exhibition of lacrosse by two fast, clever and evenly matched teams. In spite of their defeat we still believe that The Dufferins are the stronger team, if the green-shirts were in as good condition as their opponents and we hope that they will get down to real training and demonstrate in the game here on August 3rd, that The Banner and the hundreds of loyal fans who believe as we do are justified in the faith they still hold in the team. Over 2,000 people witnessed the contest and the Dufferins had their full share of supporters in the crowd. Teams and officials were:—

Toronto-St. Simons—Goal, Bill McArthur; point, Dedrick; cover, Reyes; defence, Thom, Hall and L. McArthur; centre, Trotter; home Herb Scott, Holmes and Dopp; outside, Robertson; inside, Bill Scott; extras, Kirby and Strong.

Orangeville—Goal, Booth; point, Densmore; cover, Cushing; defence, Scott, Gramston, Black; centre, Stevenson; home, Ewing, Golden and Gordon; outside, Blythe Brown; inside, Bert Brown; extras, Henderson, Zinn and Robinson.

Officials—Charlie Querrie and Bibbie Hewitson.

We append a few comments from the pen of H. E. Murton, the lacrosse expert of the Evening Telegram and himself an oldtime Fergus boy and player: —

The game as a thriller was all that was predicted of it, and kept the crowd in a fever of excitement all through. It was one of those spectators' games, which at all stages are anybody's and it was not until the final whistle after 10 minutes of overtime that St. Simons' supporters breathed a great sigh of relief. First St. Simons led until half time, then Orangeville ran in three in the third quarter and led by one. Then in the fourth the Saints evened again. Orangeville in turn again went into the lead by one, then again St. Simons made it a tie. The latter had the better condition in the overtime and though Orangeville strove gallantly, they were not equal to the task and the final figures read St. Simons 6, Orangeville 5.

"Buck" Ewing was the strong man for The Dufferins. He worked hard all the time and his earnest efforts could not be denied. He must be credited with two of Orangeville's goals unassisted and he never quit trying for more. Orangeville's home seemed to play with more method when Dr. Zinn was on the field. The doctor is not yet is shape, but he got two nice goals, one in the fourth quarter and the other in the overtime, both of them on clean, smart combination. Densmore and Cushing, as usual, were a stone wall and played a splendid defence game. Bert Booth made a number of brilliant saves, but it is a mistake to leave his net unguarded so often when the ball is in close proximity. At least three of the Saints' goals were obtained on an empty net.

In Murton's opinion Dedrick, a former Dufferin player, was the outstanding man on the Toronto-St. Simons team. Dedrick, he says, "has been improving with every game. He is a great intercepter and always cool."

JUVENILES WIN

Orangeville Juvenile Dufferins made a clean-up at Hespeler on Saturday, July 16th, when they defeated the home team by a score of 4 to 4. The defeat was a big surprise to the Hespeler bunch, who won their game in Orangeville some weeks ago and were confident that they would have an easy victory on Saturday. It was simply another case of counting chickens before they are hatched. The local Juveniles have profited a lot by their early season games and reverses and have learned a whole lot about the fine points of the game. They have also been practicing faithfully and have now developed a clever, nifty playing team that bids fair to produce some real lacrosse stars in a few years. They say they played stellar lacrosse in Hespeler a week ago Saturday. At any rate it was too fast for the Germans down in that burg and they are still busy figuring out how it all happened. When the homesters found the day was going against them some of them resorted to that ancient but nearly discarded practice of "laying on the hickory" in a vain effort to intimidate their opponents and thereby stave off defeat. Clayton Connell, one of the Juveniles' clever home fielders, got his fair white boering in on the Hespeler flags and brought home a bone too pleasant memento of the encounter in the form of a gashed chin and a few injured teeth. He carried a bandaged face for a week or so but has lost none of his ardour for the game. Bill Flint, the centre fielder, is credited with a brilliant performance and something like four of the Dufferin goals. The line-up was:—

Dufferins — Rhomer, Henry, Hughes, Crowe, H. Flint, B. Flint, Connell, Smith, McKim and Hogg.

Hespeler—Coughlin, Runstander, Goebel, Swkeffer, Lawsenaith, Kissner, G. Kissner, Wilmer, Krafka, Entwistle.

CALEDON.

Miss Via Bayburn, of Hamilton, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Ruth Robinson, of Maple, is visiting Miss Rutledge.

Mrs. Faulkner, of West Toronto, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Wm. Faulkner, are with Mrs. Faulkner's sister, Mrs. Nesbitt.

Mr. Roger Bixsy, of Creemore, is at his uncle's, Dr. Thomas.

Miss Phoebe Judge is visiting relatives in Toronto.

Mr. H. Stuckey has been in town off and on for the last ten days superintending alterations to the Union Bank building, which he owns. H. S. is as full of pep as ever, and the work is being rushed. The building in which the bank is located was erected 73 years ago and the frame work is still in fine condition. There is no shirking in these days.

Caledon lacrosse team won from Inglewood last Thursday in a hot game. A late start forced them to quit at three quarter time, score 1-0. Caledon plays Inglewood at Inglewood Friday evening next.

There will be no service in the Methodist church for the next two weeks.

Rev. J. Burkholder is leaving for a three weeks' vacation, during which the morning service will be dispensed with.

Four more cars, three Chev's, one Hupp, found homes here lately.

HEIFER ASTRAY

A red mulley Heifer two years past strayed from lot 7, con. 6, east, Mulmur, about the middle of June. Any information leading to her recovery will be gratefully received by the undersigned.

IMPROVEMENT IS TALK OF FRIENDS

"Change Tanlac Has Made In Me Is Simply Wonderful," Says Toronto Woman.

"Tanlac has certainly had a good chance in my case to show what it can do, for I sure had a long, hard struggle and had just about tried everything," said Mrs. Mary Richards, of 251 Ashdale Ave., Toronto. "I have been in a badly run-down condition ever since I had pneumonia six years ago. My stomach was nearly always out of order. My appetite was very poor and I had to be very careful about what I ate, as I suffered terribly from indigestion, bronchitis and pains in my chest. My sleep was never sound and I had a tired, worn out feeling all the time. I had dreadful headaches and weak spells and had fallen off in weight until I was scarcely more than a shadow of my former self, and I was absolutely unfit for work of any kind.

"But Tanlac has done me a world of good. My stomach is in fine condition and I eat all I want and everything agrees with me perfectly. All my aches and pains are things of the past and I'm stronger than I've been in a long time. In fact Tanlac has the same as made a new person of me, for I can do my housework with ease and my friends are talking about the wonderful change that has come over me. I don't believe anyone who suffers as I did can do better than take Tanlac."

The East in the West

If we were only visiting the East—my wife and I—we would probably say nothing. First, because there are certain conventions which even we Westerners recall, but more likely because the East would still be showing us that mask of smiling indulgence which it wears for the benefit of the plainsman — and we should never have guessed its real forbearance underneath.

But having been brought here, so to speak, by royal command of an Eastern head office, and having been given the inestimable boon of enduring the most interfering traffic police and the most acquiescent criminal police in the world, we are accepted as Easterners! There is no longer any mask. This enables us to speak, as it were, within the family circle, with the mask hanging on a peg behind the door. Eastern universities feel just a little dismayed at the irreverence with which the Western student addresses himself to some of the age-old problems of metaphysics or natural science, and the breeziness with which he takes off his coat, makes his rough preliminary measurements, and proceeds to deal with that problem as cheerfully as though nobody had ever tried it before and failed! Undoubtedly this is a little crude, and the boy will probably fail and never have so much courage again. But this way, this Western way, will ultimately solve more problems than the way of the head shaker and the doubt-doubter who cherish as holy relics the traditions of other men's failures.

Among bank people here in the East there is an attitude of restrained wonder. Well, well; What will the West do next? Three-quarters admiring—and a little bit afraid!

And in railway circles I know high officers with whom, after a conversation at Saturday lunch, I have been invited back to empty offices to be shown coloured secret books that showed—there was no doubting it—how poor Billy Langley's head for figures had gone wrong again! How Bill, in public addresses before the Railway Commission, solemnly swore that he had shipped—let me see—1,000 bushels of oats and only made $250 because, forsooth, the railway rates had gobbled up the rest! Well, the railway rates hadn't done this gobbling it seemed. There were the books, and there were the pages, and there were the columns—and there the figures! If Bill's oats had been of the lowest grade, and if they had been shipped on the longest haul at the highest rate and sold for the lowest price in the year he was talking about—why Bill must have got at least $522 for his 1,500 bushels instead of the $250 which he told the world about. And if his oats had been high-priced oats, he would have had nearer $700. That he said, said the railwaymen, that he got only $250 and that the railways had taken the rest.

I could have told these Eastern railway officials even worse examples of election-time arithmetic than this one. There is far more amusing addition and subtraction right here in the East. But if they wanted Western gaspy—there was that farmer mentioned by Bill Langley, who claimed that 6,000 bushels of oats on which he paid 12c a bushel freight rate, would not not him more than 11c after paying for threshing. Well, if his oats had been of the lowest grade, and sold at the lowest price that is 42½c, he must still have had 18c a bushel with which to pay the thresher. Of course every farmer knows that no thresherman ever got 18c a bushel. The inference in this case was that once more the railways were getting it.

There was also the case of a Mr. Brown, of the United Farmers of Manitoba, who says that the cost of a binder flaid down at Pilot Mound, Manitoba, is now $48 higher than it was last year, and that the railway rates are to blame for $22 out of the $48. I happen to know from an implement manufacturer that the entire freight costs of a five-foot binder if shipped in carloads from Hamilton, or Toronto to Pilot Mound in the spring of 1920 was $12.16; in April, 1921, $16.40; an actual difference of $4.24. If carried in carloads to Winnipeg and re-shipped as an individual binder from that point to Pilot Mound the total freight cost in 1920 was $19.25, and in 1921, $25.25, a difference of $6. Mr. Brown's estimate of the increase alone was greater than the entire cost.

But could you explain to Eastern railway officials that [illegible] Bill Langley's figures, and [illegible] Mr. Brown's figures must not be [illegible] mistaken for Western arithmetic! [illegible] that because Langley was a cabi[illegible] minister the Western farmer wa[illegible] fooled into thinking that two an[illegible] so make five, simple because Bill [illegible] etimes thinks so. Surely the East has seen just such foolish examples of arithmetic in the strain of fighting elections. There is no higher level of native intelligence anywhere in this world than among the people I come from, the kind that had the courage to march up to a new country and say: "There! I am going to tame you!" and stick to it, although that country might still send all its forces of snow and wind and old-time loneliness to try to drive them back. As proof of the fact Langley was defeated in the Saskatchewan elections—rejected along with his arithmetic.

But leave the railways out of it. Among the small Eastern investors—the kind with whom my business brings me in frequent contact—I find what I might almost call sublime conceit in supposing that they can see through the charlatan and discover the fraud out West twice as quickly as the West itself. "No," quavers one of these very nice people with perhaps $1,000 to invest, "I don't think I care to hold any more western school debentures—or city bonds, or whatever it is!—until I see. There is a bit too much demagogery out there! Too many young lawyers strutting around and flirting with parlor Bolshevism. Not just the O. B. U. strike in Winnipeg though that was bad enough—but I read of a case, etc., etc., etc." I wonder how many of the well-informed easterners know the amount of buncombe of that kind is talked among the little investors in the East and in England, timid people to whom the loss of the interest on even one debenture would mean some bill unpaid, some comfort done without!

The West is just as sane as the East. It sees through its own demagogues just as quickly and perhaps a little more quickly than the easterner. The western farmer is the last man in the world to tolerate Bolshevism. If, as I suppose, the basis of this eastern distrust is due to sometimes extravagant attacks on the railways by western orators, the East should remember that one of the surest ways a young lawyer can take for getting into the public eye out West, and winning a good constituency is to quote Scripture and rag the railways. It is always better for a family doctor to tell a lady patient she has XYX-itis of the ABC than to tell her the truth that she is really suffering from run-down nerves, unwise eating, late hours, too much coffee, worry over her children, and acidosis of the temper. She would never recover. So these popular and wise young doctors of state flourish the sword of scriptural quotation and shout "have you troubles good people? Stop worrying. Your public ailments are really very simple. You think you have many, but you really have only one railway rates! "If he explained the whole combination of economic conditions that cause this or that unpleasant symptom he would put the wise men in his audience to sleep, and the rest would be frightened to death. But the West, which is mostly wise, is not fooled even by his promise to bring low the great. It winks and enjoys the fireworks. It knows very well when he quotes Scripture to liken the Winnipeg Board of Trade to Judas Iscariot, that he had to ask a Methodist preacher to look up the quotation, because the leaves of the office Bible, used for swearing affidavits, are pasted together to keep it from falling open and embarrassing some client in the middle of a perfectly good deal. These youngsters get up and talk about the psychology of the farmer—as though any self-respecting farmer would admit having such a thing, and as though these young orators had ever heard the matutinal rooster or sweated behind a binder. The West knows that when this lad gets to Parliament and his party is in power, responsibilities will sober him up. It knows that he knows that nobody understands better than the West the importance of having railways prosperous enough and ambitious enough to carry on as leaders in the development of the whole country.

Of course it is foolish to pretend that demagogery is not dangerous. It is. Fragments of rash speeches, traversing wires and cables, have often frightened shut the pocket-books of people who have never seen a prairie sunrise over the harvest fields. But Westerners are no more given to this vice than anyone else. Free speech is a British heritage and it is up to the intelligent Easterner or old countryman to make enquiries or to suspend judgment before deciding that the West intends to wreck the C. P. R. in order to get rails to build fences.

(Signed), A WESTERNER.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

REASONS FOR FINE

Text of Magistrate Crawford's Judgment in Liquor Case of Rex vs. Morrison.

Owing to the misleading reports set afloat by interested parties, The Banner has been asked to publish the judgment of Police Magistrate Crawford, of Brampton, in the liquor case of Rex vs. Morrison. The following is the full text of the Magistrate's finding and the reason for his decision:—

Brampton, June 6th, 1921.

Charged with keeping liquor at other than the private residence in which he resided on April 22, 1921, contrary to the Ontario Temperance Act.

I find that Inspector Robinson and Mr. Ewing, Chief of Police at Orangeville, went to Morrison's farm on April 22nd, now last past, to search for three 5-gallon kegs and one 10-gallon keg of whiskey that said Morrison had received at Caledon Station on April 7th last. They got the three 5-gallon kegs in the cellar or dug-out under the floor of the main part of the dwelling on Morrison's farm. They all had whiskey in. The Inspector asked Tucker for the 10-gallon keg and he replied that there was none there or never had been a 10-gallon keg left there. They then made a search of the woodshed and a small room off the woodshed and found nothing in said room but a stinking deer skin. This was distinctly sworn to by the Inspector and Mr. Ewing, and corroborated by the defendant's witness, Tucker, who qualified his former statement made to the Inspector by adding the words "not to my knowledge."

I therefore find that I am bound to accept the evidence of these three witnesses that there was no 10-gallon keg in the dwelling or any part of the said dwelling or rooms adjoining. I therefore conclude that the three kegs were placed in the cellar of Morrison's house on the farm the day they were taken from the station and the 10-gallon keg was taken to Orangeville or some other place.

Having visited the farm last week, at the request of the defendant's counsel, and with the consent of the Crown, to satisfy myself about the defendant's evidence, who stated the 10-gallon keg was behind the door that opened into a small room off the shed, and that said keg was there when the Inspector made the search and overlooked by the Inspector, the reason given that the door was hung so that it would not open back to the wall and that said keg was behind the door—I find that the door would open right back to the wall and even if the keg was there the door would open back over the keg as it is three steps down into the said room. The defendant said nothing about a shelf behind the door on which I found the keg placed but his witness, Tucker, did. From the evidence given for the defence, I am quite satisfied that the 10-gallon keg was not behind said door when the search was made. I have therefore arrived at my decision from the evidence of the defence as well as from the prosecution, that the 10-gallon keg was not left at the Morrison house on April 7th last, and Morrison has not satisfied me what became of it.

I may say in conclusion that it is not reasonable to expect that any man would leave $100.00 worth of whiskey in an outhouse that could be entered in two ways without going into the part used as a dwelling, and not under lock.

Now respecting the construction of the word "dwelling." It makes very little difference in this case. For the purpose of this, my judgment, if it is necessary to decide whether the Dufferin House, Orangeville, or Morrison's house on the farm were Morrison's private residence at the time of seizure, I decide that the Dufferin House, Orangeville, was his place of residence. The defendant's witness, Tucker, states in his evidence that it was not until after the seizure that Morrison remained to work on the farm. I therefore find the defendant, Morrison, guilty under the Act of having liquor in a place other than the private dwelling in which he resided at the time of the seizure.

The charge being laid as the third offence, and the solicitor for the defendant objecting to it on the ground that the summons served did not state so, and that he was taken by surprise, I therefore ask the Crown to drop that part of the information, as this was the first case tried in Peel County under the Ontario Temperance Act and the previous convictions alleged to have been made against the defendant were made in the County of Dufferin.

I therefore make the fine $200.00 and costs and in default of immediate payment to imprisonment for three months. I direct the liquor seized by the Inspector to be confiscated.

St. John's Church, West Toronto, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Marguerite Audrey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Hopkins, was married to Mr. Francis Romaine Cowan, only son of Mrs. Frances A. Cowan, Crawford Street.

Forest Fires Kill Jobs

HERE are instances of carelessness such as the Fire Rangers of Ontario are meeting all the time. Each is an actual case, as officially reported in detail to the Forestry Branch. Until each individual realizes personal responsibility and co-operates to prevent forest fires, Government Fire Rangers can hope merely to lessen the tragic consequences of such human carelessness and bad judgment.

They're Yours

Lumbermen's Fires

May 25th, 1920—A careless river driver, by leaving his smudge fire or throwing a cigarette into slash, burned over two townships, including 7,000,000 feet of pine, a $5,000 mill, camp buildings and equipment worth $7,000, sawn lumber worth $7,500, and killed several million young spruce and jack pine trees.

May 25, 1920—Fire in a rubbish heap behind a lumber company's boarding house got away and, despite prompt action, burned over 1,600 acres, including 2,000,000 feet of white pine, and a set of new camps worth $1,000.

June 1, 1920—Two old men left to attend to the stop logs in a dam, let fire get away from either their smudge or camp fire, and burned over 9,000 acres, including 6,000,000 feet of pine, one mill, four camps, large quantities of supplies, and equipment to a total value of $40,000.

May 4th, 1921—Lumbermen burning slash around their camps, lost control of their fire and 15,000 acres were burned before they regained it.

Railway Fires

June 5th, 1920—Engine No. 1368 started a forest fire which ran over 15,000 acres, burning one saw mill, three sets of lumber camps, stables, houses, and outfits, 5,000 cut logs and 1,400 piles, besides standing timber.

May 25th, 1920—Engine No. 2509 set a fire which burned over 12,000 acres of timber worth $20,000 on the stump, camps and logs worth $5,750, and cost $1,000 to fight.

June 2, 1920—A section crew left a pile of burning ties to go away to their regular work. The fire spread over 1,200 acres.

Fires Set Out Under Permit

June 16th, 1921—Parties burning slash under permit, lost control through bad judgment, and 1,050 acres were burned and forty buildings, including saw mill, were wiped out.

May 27th, 1920—A squatter, burning debris near his shack, fired 7,000 acres, 1,000 of which were virgin timber, and wiped out four sets of logging camps.

Neglected Camp Fires

July 4th, 1920—Tourists left camp fire on shore of Deer Lake. After six days' fight, rangers put fire out, but 550 acres of young pine were dead.

May 31st, 1920—A neglected camp fire, despite efforts of Chief Fire Ranger and 42 men, burned 1,200 acres of young pine.

May 7th, 1921—Indians left camp fire, which burned over 7,000 acres and took one week of fighting to control.

Be careful of fire in the forests. Be careful to put your camp fire out—dead out. Don't throw away lighted matches, cigarettes or cigar ends. Watch out, lest your fire gets away from you.

MONO COLLEGE

The last meeting of the Mono College Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. W. N. Baker, Centre Road, on July 7th. There was a good attendance. The program consisted of recitations by Misses Lily and Dorothea Shirley and a very instructive Paper, "A Girl's Possibilities," by Mrs. I. J. Murphy. The meeting closed by singing the National Anthem. The hostess then served a dainty lunch and the usual social hour was spent by all. The Institute will hold a Basket Picnic in Mr. A. Shirley's Grove, Centre Road, on August 4th, at 2 p. m. A programme of races, games and other amusements has been arranged. Everybody welcome. Bring your basket and enjoy a half day with the Mono College Institute. Collection taken. Refreshment booth on the grounds.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCES

The Auxiliaries of the Orangeville Presbyterial W. M. S. held their Conferences during the month of June. The object of the Conferences was to create a deeper missionary interest among the members and eventually increase the membership of the Societies. The interest in the work was manifested by the excellent attendance at all the Conferences. The first Conference, representing the southern section, was held at the Park, Erin, on June 15, at 11.30 o'clock. Mrs. McKechnie, President of the Erin Auxiliary, was in the chair, and her opening words took the form of an address of welcome. Mrs. Dodds, of Cheltenham, gave an excellent address on Leadership. Mrs. Burkholder, of Caledon, the Presbyterial President, conducted the Question Drawer and the answers given by her will assist the many delegates who attended in working out the difficulties in their Auxiliaries. Special music was given by Mrs. Foster, Erin, and Mrs. Albert Walker, Mrs. Adamson and Miss Lamont, of Orangeville. Dinner and tea were served and the thanks of the Conference are due to the Erin Auxiliary for their kind hospitality. For the northern section of the Presbyterial similar Conferences were held in Horning's Mills on June 20th and at Riverview on June 21st.

SATURDAY'S LACROSSE

Brampton surprised lacrosse followers by winning from the Maitlands at Scarborough Beach on Saturday. The Bramptons got the big end of a 4 to 3 score and strange to say got all four goals in the second quarter. The winners have a strong, heady team and are always dangerous once they get going right. Their win was quite popular here. Beaches pulled off the second surprise by beating Weston right on the Weston grounds. The game also resulted in a 4 to 3 score.

RURAL SCHOOL FAIRS

The following is the list of the dates of the Rural School Fairs to be held in Dufferin County, 1921:

Sept. 13, Tuesday—Tarbert.
Sept. 14, Wednesday—Laurel.
Sept. 19, Monday—Mono Centre.
Sept. 20, Tuesday—Marsville.
Sept. 22, Thursday—Corbetton.
Sept. 23, Friday—Horning's Mills.

It is generally recognized that these Fairs are valuable, and are therefore deserving of all possible encouragement and assistance. Parents and teachers can help greatly to make these Fairs successful, for as a rule the greater the encouragement given the children by parents and teachers the better the Fair.

SUMMER HEAT HARD ON BABY

No season of the year is so dangerous to the life of little ones as is the summer. The excessive heat throws the little stomach out of order so quickly that unless prompt aid is at hand the baby may be beyond all human help before the mother realizes he is ill. Summer is the season when diarrhoea, cholera infantum, dysentry and colic are most prevalent. Any one of these troubles may prove deadly if not properly treated. During the summer the mother's best friend is Baby's Own Tablets. They regulate the bowels, sweeten the stomach and keep baby healthy. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The three young ladies are pupils of Miss Norma Henry, of Camilla.

BRAMPTON SATURDAY

The Brampton Excelsiors will be here on Saturday afternoon for their second game on Idylwyld Park. The game promises to be a hummer. The Dufferins are taking no chances of defeat, for they need the game and need it badly. Excelsiors, while defeated in their last game here, have a fast, dangerous team and will keep the green-shirts going at top speed from start to finish. They defeated Maitlands at Scarborough Beach on Saturday, when everyone thought the Toronto team was going to have a nice little picnic and lunch. They are liable to give The Dufferins a big scare on Saturday, and in any event the game will be well worth seeing. It will commence at 3 o'clock, the usual hour.

An Insurance Policy will not Prevent a fire— but A good Paint does Prevent Deterioration

THERE is a certainty about the permanent protection from decay that goes on with every can of B-H "English" Paint.

There is also the romantic value of a well preserved home which goes on accumulating to an even greater degree than does its real estate value.

Therefore, for economy's sake, it pays to specify a paint of proven permanence and quality.

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT 70% Pure White Lead (Brandram's Genuine B.B.) 30% Pure White Zinc 100% Pure Paint

All the year through your property will be protected by the use of B-H "English" Paint. Heat, wind, rain, frost or snow cannot harm the house, the surface of which is protected by B-H "English" Paint.

The guaranteed formula on every can is your protection, for the base of this famous paint contains 70% pure white lead (Brandram's Genuine B.B., the world's standard) and 30% pure white zinc, to which is added linseed oil made in our own mills.

Before you paint be sure that you are using B-H "English" Paint, so that you can give your surface the correct protection.

J. C. Telford's Rink Carried Off McKeown Trophy at the Orangeville Tourney Last Week.

Orangeville Challenge Cup and Association Event Captured by Breckenridge, of Rusholme Club.

Last week the Orangeville Lawn Bowling Club held one of the best bowling tournaments in its history. Fifty-four rinks entered and fifty-three took part in the Tournament. That there was only one default was remarkable in view of the extremely heavy rain Monday night and the extremely doubtful weather outlook all forenoon on Tuesday, the day set for the opening of the Tourney. The preliminary round was scheduled to begin at 9 o'clock in the morning, but it was one o'clock in the afternoon before the grounds had dried sufficiently to make it possible to start play. Even then the greens which had been flooded in many places by the downpour of the night before, were damp and slow. A couple of hours of bright sunshine worked a wonderful improvement in their condition and by the middle of the afternoon they were in fine condition. Ideal bowling weather prevailed throughout the Tournament and contributed to the splendid condition of the greens and the enjoyment of the players.

The home Club was represented by twelve rinks. Some of these made an excellent showing, but failed to win through to the prizes. It was hardly to be expected that they should, because they were drawn so that everyone who wished to play might have a chance to do so irrespective of playing ability, whereas the visiting rinks were all picked rinks composed of seasoned and experienced players. Of the forty-one outside rinks no less than twenty-four were from Toronto. Other places represented were Owen Sound 3, Brampton 3, Bolton 2, Grand Valley 3, Fergus 2, Streetsville, West Toronto, Orangeville Old Boys and Erin 1 each. The great majority of the games were keenly contested. There were some very exciting finishes, the issue being in doubt until the last bowl was played. In the Trophy event two St. Matthews rinks, Hogarth and Dr. McNichol, Telford, of Owen Sound, an oldtime Dufferin lacrosse player, and Judge Fisher, of Orangeville, worked their way through to the semi-finals. Hogarth vanquished McNichol by 19 to 9 and Telford took the Fisher quartette into camp to the tune of 17 to 14 after a hard fought contest. In the final the Owen Sounders proved too strong for the St. Matthews rink, winning out by 20 to 17. Victors and vanquished played fine bowls and the gallery that followed the game was treated to some really spectacular playing. In addition to four first prizes the victory gave the Telford rink the right to hold the McKeown Trophy until next year's tournament.

The Association semi-finals found Thompson, of Owen Sound, Smith, of Bolton, and Breckenridge, of Rusholme, still in the running. Breckenridge drew the bye. Thompson put Smith out of the running by 17 to 13, but experienced a reverse in the final game, being beaten by the Rusholme rink by a score of 23 to 17. Their victory gave the Rusholme rink the right to hold and defend the Orangeville Challenge Cup, which was offered for competition for the first time at last year's Tournament and was then won by Scott, of Parkdale, Raney, of Parkdale, Felker, of West Toronto, and Smith, of Bolton, reached the semi-finals in the Consolation event. Smith had the good fortune to draw the bye and the Bolton players were interested spectators while Raney and his men were busy disposing of the West Toronto rink's claims to a share in the prizes. The Parkdale men bowled well and slap got the breaks of the game. When the last bowl was played they had the long end of a 13 to 5 score. The winners and the Bolton rink agreed to a division of the prizes without playing the final game. As the additional game would have prolonged play until late Thursday night everybody was satisfied with the arrangement.

President J. D. Torrie, Secretary Parkinson and the various local committees handled the tourney and all necessary preparations and arrangements in splendid style, everything passing off without a hitch. The ladies contributed largely to the success of the event by contributing and serving refreshments in a large marquee adjoining the playing greens. The Orangeville orchestra supplied a delightful musical program Tuesday night and again on Wednesday night. These two features added largely to the attractiveness of the tourney from a social standpoint and many of the visitors expressed the opinion that the Orangeville tournament furnished opportunity for one of the most delightful outings of the kind to be found anywhere in the province. Wednesday afternoon the visiting players took up a voluntary collection in aid of the Lord Dufferin Hospital. The offering amounted to $37.00.

Details of the three days' play follow:—

HIGH FINANCE

Eugenia baseball club went to Gibraltar last Wednesday evening to play a game, for which they were to receive five dollars. After the game the club was charged five dollars for their supper. The club also had to pay for their own transportation. The fun was all in favor of Gibraltar. It isn't the first time Gibraltar has been found to be a bad thing for navigators to run up against.—Flesherton Advance.

Seven Cobalt Chinamen were arrested for gambling on Sunday.

Mr. W. Williamson, of the South Line, Artemesia, suffered a painful accident the other day. When a storm was coming up he undertook to shut the barn doors, and while placing the door post in position a gust of wind drove the door shut. In the resulting impact Mr. Williamson was knocked down, and either by the blow from the door or by striking his head when he fell, he was rendered unconscious, in which condition he remained for over an hour.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

A Dismal day for two vacationists in the country

Edison is first with Broadway Hits

EDISON'S Special Broadway Hit Service has brought Broadway right into our store. We can put Broadway into your home. Come to our store and listen to Edison's July Broadway hits, if you want to hear the same hits that Broadway is singing, dancing and whistling this very moment.

If you do not own a New Edison, we shall be glad to loan you one on three days free trial, together with the latest Broadway hits.

Not until you have a New Edison in your home, can you appreciate what music will do for you; how it will revive you on a hot day; drive away the blues; banish worry, and refresh you when you are exhausted.

Mr. Edison's $10,000 Prize Offer

You have probably heard about Mr. Edison's famous $10,000 Prize Offer for a four or five word phrase, which will distinguish the New Edison from other phonographs and talking machines. Ask us for information about this prize offer. Having a New Edison in your home will give you ideas for prize contest phrases.

You fill out the coupon and we loan you an Official Laboratory Model—the only phonograph that can sustain the test of direct comparison with the living artist.

Of her 12 children, five are living, and she has had thirty-one grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren and four great-great-grandchildren.

EDITOR E. H. DEWAR

On Sunday evening, July 24th, Editor E. H. Dewar, of the Harriston Review, passed away, death being due to cancer, with which he had been ill for only a few days. The deceased, who was sixty-nine years of age, had been engaged in newspaper work practically all his life. He was at one time connected with the Guelph Herald and conducted papers in Erin, Arthur and Harriston. For some twelve years he was editor and proprietor of the Enterprise. This he sold about thirty years ago to Mr. M. C. O'Donnell and went to Harriston, where he founded the Harriston Review which he has since edited and published. Mr. Dewar was one of the most gifted and widely known newspaper men of Western Ontario. As a paragraph writer he had few equals in the province. He enjoyed a reputation for straight forwardness in his dealings which was never questioned. He was always an ardent Conservative and by his death that party loses one of its most effective supporters in North Wellington. Among his fellow publishers in the district he was highly esteemed.

COULD BEAT HANDS SHUCKKING HIS CORN

At Least J. A. White Would Bet So, After Being Relieved Of Dyspepsia By Tanlac.

"My wife and myself have had stomach trouble," says Mr. J. A. White, residing on the Leestown Pike, R. F. D., No. 6, near Lexington, Ky., "and have both been nervous and run-down.

"We could not eat anything without suffering afterwards and could not sleep at night. We were regular nervous dyspeptics. We tried many remedies without permanent benefit until we heard of Tanlac. I got this medicine and began using it. We noticed immediate results. We are both greatly improved by Tanlac. We give all credit for the change of health to Tanlac. It is a remarkable medicine.

"I personally feel so good that I told my hands a day or two ago that I could beat any of them shucking corn. I meant it and believe I could beat 'em all."

Of all the maladies that afflict humanity chronic dyspepsia, such as Mr. and Mrs. White suffered from, is probably the most prevalent and hours might be consumed in describing the sufferings, mental and bodily, of the victims of chrinoc dyspepsia.

A morbid, unreal, whimsical and melancholy condition of the mind, aside from the nervous phsical suffering, is the usual state of the average dyspeptic and life seems scarcely worth the living.

Tanlac, the celebrated medicine, was designed especially for overcoming this distressing condition and millions of people hve taken it with the most astonishing and gratifying results. It seems to go straight to the spot, toning up and invigorating every organ of the body.

While working in the mow in his barn, John Paton, a farmer, living about four miles from Fergus, fell through between the poles, one of which followed him to the floor beneath, striking him on the head. He has been unconscious ever since.

One day recently Walter Hoffman, of the Base Line, while working at his father's helping to unload hay in the barn, pulled at the rope of the hayfork so hard that it broke and he fell in such a manner that he had a very serious dislocation of the ankle.

Over 70 descendants survive the late Jos. Brownridge, former resident of Brantford, who died in Toronto.

J. A. Brackenridge, a prominent citizen of Nottawa Village, and for over fifty years proprietor of the grist mill there, was instantly killed when he fell from the roof of his mill, a distance of over forty feet, into the rocky bottom of the Pretty River. He had ascended to the roof of his mill for the purpose of making some repairs, unknown to any of his employees.

NEPONSET ROOFS

For Buildings of All Kinds

For sloping roofs on residences, garages, bungalows, or public buildings, Neponset Twin Shingles make as handsome and durable a roof as it is possible to find anywhere — and they are most economical.

Neponset Twin Shingles are impregnated with asphalt and heavily surfaced with crushed slate. No wonder they resist time and wear. Their natural slate-red and slate-green colors are restful and beautiful.

They will not catch fire from falling sparks. Because they are two shingles in one and self-spacing, they require less labor and less nails to lay.

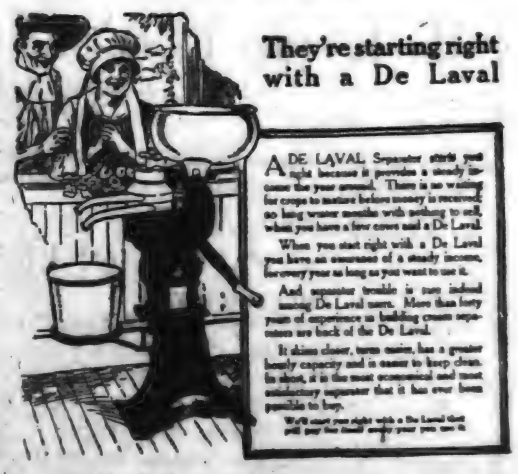
Straight talk on Cream Separators by

J. E. SMITH & Co.
Orangeville, Ont. Canada.



They're starting right with a De Laval

A DE LAVAL Separator starts you right because it provides a steady income the year around. There is no waiting for crops to mature before money is received, no long winter months with nothing to sell, when you have a few cows and a De Laval.

When you start right with a De Laval you have an assurance of a steady income, for every year as long as you want to use it.

And separator trouble is rare indeed among De Laval users. More than forty years of experience in building cream separators are back of the De Laval.

It skims closer, turns easier, has a greater hourly capacity and is easier to keep clean. In short, it is the most economical and most satisfactory separator that it has ever been possible to buy.

We'll start you right with a De Laval that will pay for itself while you are using it.

Sooner or later you will buy a

ONE OF MOST EFFICIENT

One of the most efficient of the many local co-operative organizations in the Province is the Orangeville Co-operative Marketing Company. This Company does the co-operative marketing business of nine Farmers' Clubs located in the territory adjacent to Dufferin's county town. The Company was incorporated a year ago last October and in its first year handled over 250 carloads of farm produce, including 60,000 bushels of potatoes and 45 cars of grain. It is shipping steadily on the average, two cars a week of livestock. It also handles bulky commodities, such as binder twine, feed and sugar, of which farmers are large purchasers. In the present season it has purchased over 1200 pounds of arsenate of lead and Paris Green for the treatment of potatoes, of which even more are being grown than in 1920, despite last year's unfortunate experience in the matter of prices. J. M. McNaughton is Manager of the Company.—Toronto Globe.

NEWSPAPER COSTS

The reason the newspaper morgue is so full is shown by an editor who has been investigating the cause of so many newspaper demises. He figures out than in 1907 wages were at 100. In 1914 they had advanced to 178., and in 1921 the figure was 393. Newsprint from 100, jumped to 177 in 1914, and to 623 in 1921. Newspaper postage, which cost the normal of 100 in 1907, was 167 in 1914, and 337 in 1921. Ink was 100 in 1907, 200 in 1914, and to-day stands at 331. Editorial expense jumped from 100 in 1907 to 120 in 1914 and 241 in 1921. Miscellaneous expenses went from 100 in 1907 to 125 in 1914, and 244 in 1921. Taking the average of all newspaper costs, it was found that while the average in 1907 was 100, in 1914 it was 159, and in 1921 it had reached the mark of 411. It is not surprising with such figures that over 4,000 newspaper publications have gone out of existence in the United States and a corresponding number in Canada, says the Brantford Expositor. It will also be seen that a much greater increase in rates than those that have been made would be quite justified, and that reductions in cost will have to be very considerable before reductions in rates can be entertained by publishers.

SHORTHORNS POPULAR

Agricultural Representative H. A. Dorrance is authority for the statement that there are few counties in Ontario where there is more uniformity in breeding in commercial cattle than in Dufferin. One can travel for miles in this county without seeing anything but Shorthorn marking. Sheep are also becoming an important factor in the stock raising activities of the farmers of the county. In eight days, mostly in the Township of Amaranth, Mr. Dorrance assisted in the clipping of 2300 sheep.

40 MILLS

Town Council Struck 1921 Tax Rate At Monday Night's Meeting.

Amount to be Raised For All Purposes Close to $50,000.

At Monday night's meeting the Town Council spent considerable time wrestling with estimates of the sums required to meet the various municipal expenditures for the year. The result was a decision to strike a tax rate of 40 mills, which will, it is expected, provide the sum of $47,274.76. Details of the levy follow:—

	Amt. Required	Rate
Consolidated Debenture Principal	$ 1046.75	.89 Mills
Consolidated Debenture Interest	201.55	.17 Mills

High School Maintenance	6500.00	5.47 Mills
	$19636.19	16.53 Mills
	$47274.76	40.00 Mills

The rates for all taxes except taxes for school purposes will be levied on an assessment of $1,177,613.00. The taxes for school purposes will be raised on an assessment of $1,187,613.00.

In addition to the general rate of 40 mills, owners of business property in the central part of the town, will pay a special rate of 2 mills to provide for salary of a nightwatchman. This special rate is levied on an assessment of $251,337.00 and will raise the sum of $502.77. All taxes become due and payable on October 17th. A discount of one per cent. will be allowed on all taxes paid on or before October 15th, and five per cent. will be added to taxes not paid on or before December 16. Mr. J. M. Aiken was appointed tax collector at a salary of $125.00, including postage, stationery and the preparing of the necessary tax notices.

The estimates submitted by the Public School Board showed an expenditure of $13,456 and receipts of $560. Of the $12,895 to be raised by levy Orangeville will contribute $12,314.72, Mono $322.38, Caledon $225.66, and Amaranth $32.24. High School expenditure was estimated at $14,525 and receipts at $6,702, leaving $7,823 to be raised. This was reduced to $6,500 by the deduction of a surplus of $1,823 carried over from 1920 account.

Corporation accounts were passed as follows:—

Roads and Bridges—Sam. Stump, $5.40; Sam. Street, $9.00; Joseph Ogston, $22.20; Henry Sanderson, $17.10; Archie Nesbitt, $48.00; Jno. Hammond, $47.50; Thos. Reid, 75c; Matthews & Gilmore, 50c; Willis Denny, $105.00; John Matson, $18.

Town Property—T. J. Robinson, $7.50; J. Trelford, $4.70; Orangeville Hydro Commission, $1..20; Fred Grieves, $25.60; W. O. Thomas, $1.80; Geo. King, $3; R.J. Legate, $24.60; Hughes & Norris, $5.50; Fred Manning, $3.00; C. H. King, $69.00; H. W. Marshall, $1.00.

T. J. Robinson, fire, $125.00; Municipal World, stationery, 66c; Orangeville Hydro Commission, water, $2.75, fire, $28.50, street lighting, $318.70; W. J. Curry, charity, $8.70; Fred Grieves, W. W. main., $12.30; W. O. Thomas, cement tile, $16.20, fire, $10.80; Geo. King, cement tile, $25.50, fire, $20; Edward Delaney, street watering, $90.00; Crane, Ltd., fire, $7.25, water, $12.66; E. C. Clark, cement tile, $32.20, fire, $128.35; G. B. Hayes, Assessor, $200.00; W. W. Marshall, water, $3.00.

Council decided by a vote of 4 to 3 to pay one third of D. W. Gray's account of $61.11 and to charge the balance to the account of Mr. A. E. Annis.

Council voted to accept the tender of E. C. Clark for steam coal for the Fire Hall, at $10.00 a ton.

D. B. Brown, Secretary-Treasurer of the Dufferin Agricultural Society, applied for the usual grant in aid of the Society.

The Council will not meet again until Monday evening, September 19th. The Mayor was authorized to issue orders for workmen's wages and other necessary payments during the interval.

Dufferins Defeated Brampton Excelsiors in Saturday's Match.

Brampton Excelsiors and The Dufferins treated the spectators to an excellent exhibition of lacrosse in a senior championship game at Idylwywld Park on Saturday afternoon. Both teams were in excellent form and were matched closely enough to make it a real game from start to finish. Fast, skilful lacrosse was the order of the afternoon. The game, while keenly contested, was played in the proper spirit, the opposing players manifesting the best of feeling toward each other. Dufferins were strengthened by the addition of Dr. Zinn, who played at inside home and added materially to the strength and effectiveness of the scoring division. Golden was moved from the home field out to centre, where his speed and splendid condition made him a most valuable man. He was always in the game and generally outfooted the Brampton fielders when it came to a dash for the ball or a rush in on the flags.

Brampton got the ball on the initial face-off and the sphere travelled rapidly in the direction of the Dufferin flags. An intercepted pass deprived the visitors of their advantage and play was quickly transferred to the other end of the field. After a futile try for the flags The Dufferin home lost possession and the Excelsiors resumed the aggressive, only to lose to Densmore, who broke up the rush with a clever stop. Ewing started the crowd cheering with one of his dodging rushes, transferring the sphere to Golden close in to the flags. The latter shot right on the net, but Campbell blocked and cleared neatly. A few minutes later Ewing came back with another rush and managed to plant the ball between the posts for the first tally of the day. Time of game 8 minutes. The Dufferin home was boring in, but Campbell was playing in great form and saved his citadel repeatedly. Finally after ten minutes play, with the game going much in favor of The Dufferins, the second tally came on a lightning pass from Gordon to Zinn, the latter scoring from a seemingly impossible position. After the game Referee Hugh Jack said Zinn's tally was one of the best goals he had ever seen scored on a lacrosse field. Rod Anderson drew a five minute penalty early in the second period. Zinn scored again while the visitors were playing a man short. Later in the quarter The Dufferins made what proved to be their final tally on a pretty piece of combination play from Bert to Blythe Brown, the latter scoring with one of his lightning shots from the side. Cushing was given five minutes at the fence and a little later Anderson incurred the displeasure of the referee for rapping Gordon on the head. His offence was visited with a ten minute penalty. Dufferins netted the ball shortly before the period ended but the goal was disallowed as the score was made from within the goal crease.

Stevenson went on at centre for The Dufferins in the third quarter, Bert Brown retiring. With four goals to their credit and their opponents blanked Dufferins seemed disposed to take it easy during this period. Excelsiors on the other hand speeded up noticeably, putting more pep into their play than they exhibited earlier in the game. Play became very even, the visitors being on the offensive just as often as The Dufferins. The Brampton home worked the ball close in after some brilliant dodging and passing and Warr shaped up for what looked like a sure goal. Before he could shoot the Brampton man was brilliantly checked by Cranston and instead of travelling toward the flags the sphere was projected out near midfield. In the mix-up Cranston's stick slipped down his opponent's and came to rest on Warr's head, inflicting a gash, which called for the services of a doctor. The injury was purely accidental and Cranston, who is one of the cleanest players in the game, felt very badly over the incident. He was benched for ten minutes and Brampton pressed hard using their one man advantage for all it was worth. After a prolonged struggle success rewarded the efforts of the visitors, Harry Sproule accepting a pass close to the flags and scoring easily. George Sproule got the final counter of the game well along in the last quarter with a swift, low shot that Booth caught but was unable to hold. The quarter was very fast and produced some of the best lacrosse seen on Idylwyld this season.

Dufferins showed marked improvement over the form displayed in some of their earlier games, although Blythe Brown was handicapped by a sprained ankle which he was obliged to save as much as possible. Booth performed splendidly in the flags and his fielding, when he was obliged to go out after the ball, was one of the features of the game. The defence played a strong, steady game and the Excelsior home earned whatever chances they got at the flags. Scott, Golden and Ewing made a speedy and an aggressive field and kept the home division well fed. The home was fast, clever and elusive, but found the Brampton defence opponents worthy of their mettle. For the Excelsiors Campbell in goal played a strong game, stopping at least a dozen of difficult shots, several of which looked like sure counters. He was well protected by the Excelsior defence, Mara and Ingram being prominent at all stages of the game. The home tried hard, but the Dufferin defence was usually able to cope with any attack that developed. Cushing and Charters had a busy afternoon, the former trying to dodge in and the latter holding his man outside the danger zone. Joe had the advantage in weight and was just as good as his check in all other respects. Charters, who is a fast, dangerous shot, did not do any scoring, which indicates that Cushing was right on the job. Players and officials were:—

Dufferins—Goal, Booth; point, Cushing; c. point, Densmore; defence, Cranston, Black and Scott; centre, Golden; home, Ewing, Gordon and Blythe Brown; outside, Bert Brown; inside, Dr. Zinn; spares, Stevenson, Robinson and Mitchell.

Excelsiors—Goal, Campbell; point, Mara; cover-point, Ingram; defence, N. Anderson, McLean and Burrell; centre, Warr; home, H. Sproule, G. Sproule, Cudmore; outside, R. Anderson; inside, Charters; spares, Stevens, Blanchard and Yates.

Referee, Hugh Jack, Brantford; Judge of Play, Duffy Braden, Toronto.

CONGRATS.

To Mr. and Mrs. Rich. Partridge, of Brampton House of Refuge.

Mr. Richard Partridge, Superintendent of the Brampton House of Refuge, has received a number of congratulatory messages from keepers of Houses of Refuge in the Province. The following is a sample:

Kingston, July 22, 1921.

Mr. and Mrs. Partridge,
House of Refuge,
Brampton, Ont.

Allow us to extend to you both our sincerest congratulations on the Inspector's report re your home, as read by us in the Toronto paper. We have been through the same process ourselves lately, and can fully sympathize with you. Our work in the home is hard enough without the inmates making it harder. Sorry I did not see you at our convention at St. Thomas, and sincerely trust you will be at the next one in our city next year.

E. and R. BALDWIN,
Superintendent and Matron.

PLEADED GUILTY

P. M. Crawford Sentenced Young Men Implicated in Theft of Fuel Farmer's Auto.

The four young men appeared before Magistrate Crawford this morning, and pleaded guilty to the charges of stealing an automobile from Andrew McDonald, of breaking into the G. T. R. station and taking parcels therefrom, and Hopson and O'Brien pleaded guilty to carrying firearms without a permit.

R. W. Lent appeared for the prisoners and made a strong appeal for clemency on the part of the court. The sentence for stealing an automobile is one year in jail without prejudice on the part of the court, and for breaking into a station, fourteen years. Mr. Lent represented the men as out of work, without money or food, and put up a strong argument for mercy on these grounds.

Magistrate Crawford said that the unemployment question is a very serious one, and likely to become worse with the passing months. He considered it wise to place three of the men, Hopson, O'Brien and Parker, where they would have shelter, food and care for some time, as well as the opportunity of learning a trade. These were sentenced to two years in the Ontario Reformatory on the charge of breaking into the station, and one year on the charge of stealing the automobile, the sentences to run concurrently. Delaney, who turned King's evidence, was given one year on suspended sentence, to report monthly to the court officers.—Conservator.

HOCKLEY.

(Intended for last week.)

There are big doings in the little burg since lacrosse has become so popular. Every one talks of the game. Beeton and Hockley clashed in an exhibition game at Colgan picnic on Tuesday, July 23, when Hockley was downed by a score of 1-0. Both teams played hard, Hockley having the most of the play all the way through, but were unable to bulge the nets. The goal tender was always in the way. The first quarter was keenly contested, but no goals were scored, and no penalties imposed until the quarter was nearly over, when McDermott, one of the hot-headed Beeton bunch, who was getting in close corners and hard checked, deliberately turned and slammed the ball in McKim's face, and then disputed the referee for giving him five minutes on the fence. Such play as this does not do the game any good. The second quarter opened, when Nichol, one of Beeton's stars, secured the ball in his stick, holding it with his hand, and landed it through the defence after quite a struggle and scored the first and only goal. After the face-off he tried the same stunt, and after getting a good sound tap on the thumb, which guarded the ball, was forced to drop it to his opponent. The third period was played at the Beeton goal, but, unfortunately, our boys were unable to score and darkness came on and it was impossible to play the final quarter, which left the score 1-0 in favour of Beeton, who were glad to quit any way. Hockley team were getting into good condition and could have played the other quarter in better style than the first. The line-up was:—

Beeton—Goal, C. Camplin; point, W. E. King; c. point, W. E. Kearns; defence, H. Nichol and J. Watson; centre, H. Dorsey; home, J. Camplin and D. Gilmour; outside, McDermott; inside, H. Camplin.

Hockley—Goal, H. Firth; point, J. Varey, c. point, D. Pierson; defence, M. J. Varey and L. Armstrong; centre, McKim; home, T. Parker and S. Parker; outside, W. Cromplyn; inside, H. McFarland.

PRESENTATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Robinson Honored Prior to Their Departure For Their New Home in Wingham.

On Monday night the members of the Orangeville Citizens' Band presented Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Robinson with a pair of beautiful mahogany candle sticks fitted with shades, and the following address:—

Mr. C. B. Robinson,
Orangeville, Ont.

Dear Sir,—

We, fellow members of the Orangeville Citizens' Band, have taken occasion to have you meet with us once more before your departure for a new field of labor. We have been told that a man without friends is like a monkey without a tail, so just wish to remind you that in leaving Orangeville you will not find yourself in any such predicament. In leaving us be assured that you are leaving many friends behind who shall miss your companionship and co-operation. Because, in all the time, you have been one of our Band never withholding your services but giving fully and uncomplainingly of your time and assistance, and because we have enjoyed your company, appreciated your help, and are sorry to lose you, we wish to offer you some favor by way of expressing our appreciation. We would be glad if you and Mrs. Robinson will accept this gift from the members of the Band, and with it our heartiest wishes for your future success, good health and prosperity.

Signed on behalf of Orangeville Citizens' Band.

On Friday night last the staff of The Bell Telephone Office presented Mr. Robinson with a fine electric reading lamp and an appreciative address worded as follows:—

Mr. C. B. Robinson,
Orangeville, Ont.

Dear Mr. Robinson,—

We, the staff of The Bell Telephone Office, Orangeville, hearing of your removal from our midst to a new field of labor, wish to show you in a small way the esteem which we hold for one who has always been one of us in act as well as in deed.

You have ever been cheerful and full of co-operation with the rest of us and while we know of your removal from amongst us we also feel pleased at your promotion and trust you will still continue in your good work.

We will now ask you to accept this lamp as a slight token of our appreciation of your services. It is not for its intrinsic value but for the good wishes that go with it.

Signed on behalf of the Bell Telephone staff.

Mr. Robinson has been Manager of the local Bell agency for the last four years and has been courteous and obliging in his dealings with the public. As an official of the Company he has proved capable and efficient and the reward for efficiency has come in the form of a promotion to the Managership of the Wingham office, a large and important agency. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson have been excellent citizens during their sojourn here and the sincere good wishes of our citizens accompany them to their new home.

MRS. W. H. ROWCLIFFE

An old and respected resident of Alton, in the person of Janet McAllister, wife of W. H. Rowcliffe, Alton, passed away at the residence of her son, Mr. E. Rowcliffe, Alton, on Saturday, July 16th. Deceased had been in ill health for some time and the end came peacefully on Saturday at noon. The late Mrs. Rowcliffe was 66 years of age and spent her youth on the old homestead on the 9th line of Erin. After her marriage she moved to Alton, where the rest of her life was spent. She is survived by her husband, one son, Mr. E. Rowcliffe, of Alton, and her niece, Mrs. Bert Hillock, of Hamilton; also two sisters, Mrs. Ephraim West, of Brandon, Mrs. Neil McPhail, of Tyre, Michigan, and two brothers, John McAllister, of Brown City, Mich., and Richard McAllister, of Seattle. Deceased was a member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. W. N. Carr, of Alton Presbyterian Church, and Rev. F. N. Bowes, a former pastor of Alton Methodist church. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved husband and family.

MRS. MARGARET M'MILLAN

Mrs. Margaret McMillan, mother of Messrs. Hugh and Adam McMillan, butchers of this town, died at her home in Northeast Hope township, near Stratford, at an early hour on Tuesday morning, July 19th. Mrs. McMillan had been a patient sufferer from cancer for some time and her death was not unexpected. She bore her sufferings with true Christian fortitude and passed peacefully away at the time mentioned above. Deceased was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church and took a keen interest in all religious work. The late Mrs. McMillan was 59 years of age and leaves to mourn her death a husband, one daughter and five sons, Nellie and John at home, Warnock, of Harriston, Guy, of Wellesley, Hugh and Adam, of Orangeville. The funeral was held on Thursday and was largely attended. The Banner extends its sympathy to the bereaved family.

MISS M. MONTGOMERY

Miss Martha Montgomery, whose death in the Hospital for Incurables in Toronto on Tuesday of last week was briefly noted in last issue of The Banner, was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Montgomery, of Camilla, and spent practically the whole of her life near that village and in Orangeville. Prior to her illness, which confined her entirely to her home, she was an active member and Sunday School worker in St. Andrew's Church, Camilla. The family moved to Orangeville about eleven years ago. Since the death of her parents, the deceased made her home with her sister, Sarah, until the latter's demise eight months ago. She bore her affliction with wonderful courage and true Christian cheerfulness. A brother, Mr. James Montgomery, of Toronto, is the only surviving member of the family. The remains were brought to Orangeville for burial, the funeral taking place from Hulse's Undertaking Rooms to the Forest Lawn Cemetery on Thursday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Neil, of Toronto, an old friend of the family, conducted the services at the house and grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. Jos. Howard, K. R. Howard, William Howard, Arnott Bailey, Russell Clarke and George Fleming.

MRS. MALCOLM DAVIE

Sarah Davis, wife of Malcolm Davie, formerly of Amaranth township, now of Thornloe, New Ontario, died on Wednesday, July 20th, after an illness of three or four months. Her death was due to the after effects of influenza, which she contracted about four months ago. Mr. and Mrs. Davie moved to Thornloe from Amaranth about four months ago. Deceased was in her 63rd year, and besides her husband, is survived by six sons, Thos. J., Wm. M., Jas. A., Ed. L., of Thornloe; Geo. L. and Robt. H., of Earlton, New Ontario; and one daughter, Mrs. Alfred Myers, of Shelburne. Mrs. Wm. Ewing, of Andrew street, Shelburne, and Mrs. Thos. Burnside, of Grand Valley, are sisters, and Geo. L. Davis, of Campania, is a brother of the deceased. Her remains were brought to Shelburne on the morning train on Friday last and the funeral took place from the home of her son-in-law, Alfred Myers, lot 29, con. 6, Amaranth, on Saturday afternoon to Shelburne cemetery.—Free Press.

MRS. W. FINES

There passed peacefully away at her late residence, 5th line, Erin township, on Saturday evening, July 23rd, Olive Maria Johnston, relict of the late William Fines, in her 74th year, Mr. Fines having predeceased her thirteen years ago. In 1869 they were united in marriage and for a time resided in Mono township, later moving to Caledon, and about thirty-two years ago came to Erin township, where she has resided continuously. To this union was born eleven children, nine of whom survive, Archie, Richard and Thomas, in Erin township; William in Sask., Mrs. A. Austin, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. A. McCarty, in Sask., Mrs. H. McArthur and Mrs. E. Pesvoy, in Erin township. One brother, Jacob Johnston, of Manitoba, also survives. She was a kind and loving mother, ever ready to lend a helping hand, and a Methodist in religion. The interment took place to Coningsby cemetery on Tuesday, July 26th, the Rev. A. Evans conducting the services at the church and grave. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.—Advocate.

A PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY

Reeve J. Sheehan, of Adjala, has received the following communication from the Hon. F. C. Biggs, Minister of Public Works, regarding the designation of the provincial county road, which, in its course, from Orangeville to Bradford, follows the Hockley Road.

June 30th, 1921.

Dear Sir,—

Your letter of June 20th, re designation of provincial county road—Bradford to Orangeville—duly received. I am pleased to state that this designation has been made by the department, of which you will receive notice in due course.

Yours truly,
F. C. BIGGS,
Minister of Public Works.

To Mrr. J. Sheehan, Reeve, Adjala.

CALEDON CROPS GOOD

Mr. Carroll (District Representative for Peel), took a trip to Caledon Township this week, and says that one could not wish for better crops than are to be seen in the township in the north. He mentioed especially the conditions on the farm of Hillyard Brothers. They have some barley and oats that, considering the weather conditions that have affected the rest of the country, are phenomenal. Beside the road, is a field of potatoes that are a sight for all passers. Indeed, pilgrimages to the spot have been made in order to see the beautiful foliage that indicates a fine crop beneath. In visiting the Village of Caledon, Mr. Carroll found that hogs are scarce in the township. The first shipment for three weeks was made on Tuesday, and then included only twenty hogs. He finds that farmers killed even their breeding stock last fall when the price of feed was high, rather than keep the animals over at a high cost. Now the difficulty is in getting hogs for the market. Weanlings are dear and farmers do not like to put the money into them.—Conservator.

CHAS. REBURN

(Intended for last week)

There passed away at his home, Joseph St., Shelburne, on Sunday afternoon last another of the older and highly esteemed citizens of this town in the person of Chas. Reburn, in the 68th year of his age. The deceased had been ill only about two weeks but his death was not unexpected. He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Reburn, of Mulmur, and had resided in Shelburne for about 33 years, where he plied his trade as a stonemason. It was while assisting in the construction of the new cement sidewalk on Main street that he was stricken with the illness which finally culminated in his death. Besides his widow, whose maiden name was Jane Ann Braden, he is survived by two sons, Herbert J., Rosemont, and Lorne C., of Toronto, and one daughter, Mrs. Wm. Gallaugher, of Shelburne. He was a member of L. O. L. No. 1321, and the funeral, which takes place this Wednesday afternoon to Shelburne cemetery, will be under their auspices. Two brothers, R. J. and William, of Victoria street, also survive. Another brother, John Reburn, died on May 16th.—Free Press.

INCREASED RAILROAD RATES NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR BUSINESS STAGNATION

A denial of the frequently-met allegation that increased railway rates are responsible for the present business depression was made by William Sproul, President of the Southern Pacific Railway Company, at the convention of the National Association of Credit Men at San Francisco last week. Mr. Sproul, after alluding to the so-called "freight blockade" that occurred in 1917, said:—

"Just as it was lightly alleged then that the railroads had broken down, so now it is readily alleged that the increase in railroad rates is responsible for the stagnation of business. Because transportation is so important a factor in business it would be a serious charge, if it were true, that the railroad rates had produced the present stagnation in business. But it is not true.

"On the contrary, the railroad rates were not raised in time to enable the railroads to move the commerce of the country in its active period when the business of the country at large could easily absorb the increase. The fact is that the rates were raised and business declined at about the same time, but one had nothing to do with the other as a related matter.

"In proof of the suggestion, let me call your attention to the water rates. The rates by water have been on the decline. Yet private owners are laying up their ships. The United States Shipping Board's ships are laid up by the score because business is stagnant. The cause is found in the sheer inability of business to run back on a peace basis. That is the reason business has halted.

"Yet the call of the day is that railroads reduce their rates because business is bad. This call for reduction comes from all sources even on all important commodities and from all sections of the country. I venture the opinion that if all the railroads of this country were, by some edict, to reduce their rates one-half on every kind of traffic everywhere, there would be no appreciable increase in the volume of business moved, but the railroads would be prostrate in one common disaster that would shake the nation and call credits into question."

A SLIGHT MISTAKE

An elderly Scotsman was tried for a slight offence and was put in prison. The warder handed him a pail of water next morning, with the remark, "That's to clean your cell." What was his astonishment on returning, to find Sandy, who had divested himself of his clothing, having a bath.

"Good gracious!" exclaimed the warder. "what are you doing Sandy?"

Sandy (turning round quite innocently), "Didn't ye say it was to clean masel?"

NAMES AS MONUMENTS.

They Are Found Many Times In Our Language.

Every great discovery or international crisis brings forth a man whose name is destined to live in our language. Particularly striking is the group of memorial names in the electric and radioactive world. A few may be given to interest those who constantly use the terms yet do not know their derivation.

The measurement for pressure or electromotive force is a volt named after Alessandro Volta (1745-1827), an Italian physicist, originator of the electrophore, electroscope and the Voltaic pile and who proved Galvani (galvanise) wrong in his theory of animal magnetism.

The student reads that the ampere unit of electricity gives the rate of flow, i.e., it takes one volt of pressure to drive a current of one ampere strength through a resistance of one "ohm," but he does not gain the additional interest of knowing that Andre Marie Ampere (1775-1836) was a French electrician and "the father of electro-dynamics," who found that two parallel conducting wires attract each other when the current traverses them in the same direction but repel each other when the current flows in opposite directions.

George Simon Ohm (1789-1854), a German physicist, claims the ohm law that the electromotive force divided by the resistance is equal to the strength of the current.

The watt is one volt multiplied by one ampere, but James Watt (1736-1819), inventor of the condensing steam engine and his work is generally known. The unit was too small to be convenient, so electricians adopted 1,000 watts as a commercial unit of power and named this a kilowatt.

The coulomb brings into view Charles Auguste de Coulomb, a French scientist (1736-1806), who invented the torsion balance, which gave two new inverse square laws in addition to the Newtonian one of gravitation. A coulomb is the quantity of electricity required to produce a definite chemical effect—to deposit 1.1183 milligrams of silver.

The joule is named after James Prescott Joule (1818-1889) of Manchester, the unit being the energy extended in one second by a current of one ampere passing through a resistance of one ohm.

It is scarcely necessary to mention the origin of the Curie unit which represents the quantity or mass of radium emanation in equilibrium with one milligram and one-thousandth of a milligram respectively, for Marie Curie is still working, though Pierre Curie is dead.

The farad unit (Michael Faraday 1791-1867), from which faradization comes, should be added, and most readers know of mesmeric powers and of being mesmerized (Franz Mesmer 1773-1815).

Galvanic, galvanized are equally familiar. Luigi Galvani (1737-1796) was a professor of anatomy at Bologna and was noted for his investigations in the contractions produced in the muscles of frogs by contact with metals. This was the beginning of galvanic or voltaic electricity.

There are dozens of names which are used as adjectives: Hertzian waves, rontgen rays, coolidge tube, and, to step a little outside the scientific world, who does not enjoy having a mackintosh in winter and the smooth macadamised roads? Charles Mackintosh, who, in 1823, found he could apply napcha to cloth and so render it rain-proof, was also doubtless pleased, and John Macadam (1756-1836) certainly found the English roads in a horrible condition when he brought his engineering skill to work on them. France quickly adopting his theories.

Another "Mac," this time Macassar, invented a wonderful hair oil early in the nineteenth century, which was so freely used and the oiled heads so bad for stuffed furniture that "anti-Macassars" came into general use. When Sir Robert Peel instituted the London police force, they were and are known as "Peelers" or "Bobbies." Even to-day how much does the average person, reading advertisements, know of what splendid achievements and benefits listerine gum and pasteurized milk remind the man who has read of Lord Lister and Louis Pasteur?

Some men's characters are perpetuated as uncomplimentary adjectives. All know the Judas kiss, and a Machiavellian policy, (Nicolo Machiavelli (1469-1527).

Remarkable Memories.

Extraordinary memories have attracted the attention of men in all ages. Themistocles, a famous Greek general, is said to have known every citizen in Athens. No doubt Otho, the Roman Emperor, owed much of his success to a remarkable memory. He learnt the name of every soldier and officer in his army, and this, among other things, rendered him so popular that he was at length acclaimed emperor. When reporting was prohibited in the British House of Parliament, and any one seen to take notes was immediately ejected, the speeches, nevertheless, were published in the public press. It was discovered that a man named Woodfall used to be present in the gallery during the speeches, and sitting with his head between his hands, actually committed the speeches to memory.

Prizes for Taxpayers.

Prizes for prompt and uncomplaining payment of taxes are offered by the Japanese Government and range from 50 cents to $25. When a man pays promptly he is given a slip of paper entitling him to a certain number of chances in the municipal lottery. When his record for a number of years justifies the distinction, a porcelain medallion is presented to him to be placed on the door of his home as a badge of good citizenship.

A Dossier.

Mary, enthusiastically—"Oh, Mr. Hoakly is so clever! Why, he's quick as lightning when he answers you."

Margaret, dryly—"I've always heard he was a flashy sort of person."

Brings the Farm to Town

NOW that he can order it at once by Long Distance from his favorite dealer in village, town, or city, nothing is too good for the farmer. "You advertised a special sale on phonographs in to-day's paper. Ship me one"—he telephones.

Within the same convenient radius of your store are scores of thrifty housewives who would be pleased to have a merchant solicit their trade by Long Distance. Even if a sale does not result, you have advertised your business in a very effective way. They will probably call when they come to town, or order from your advertising. It's human nature.

We know a tire dealer who called up 29 strangers by Long Distance and sold tires to 8 of them. A follow-up letter or personal call later brought nearly all the others to his store.

Don't let your telephone idle. Long Distance can bring suburban prospects within sound of your voice. Turn it into a salesman, and keep it busy. Every other means of communication is substitute for the voice—the voice is YOU.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

EARLY RISING

"I reckon," said a farmer, "that I get up earlier than anybody in this neighborhood. I am always up before 3 o'clock in the morning." Another farmer said he always had part of his work done by that time. The first farmer thought he was not speaking the truth and decided to test him. A few mornings later he got up at 2 o'clock and went to the neighbor's house. He rapped at the back door and the neighbor's wife opened it.

"Where is your husband?" asked the farmer, expecting to hear that he was in bed.

"He was around here early in the morning," answered the wife, "but I don't know where he is now."

WANT HIGHWAY

Deputation Asks Public Highways Department for Extensive Addition to Provincial Roads Programme.

On Tuesday of last week a deputation, about one hundred strong, headed by Mayors and Reeves of a number of municipalities in Dufferin, Grey, Bruce and Simcoe counties, waited on Hon. F. C. Biggs, Minister of Public Highways, and Attorney-General W. E. Raney, at the Parliament Buildings, requesting that the through road connecting up the counties, be taken over as a Provincial highway.

The route they proposed for a new Provincial highway runs from Croxton's Corners on the Penetang Provincial road, through Cookstown, Alliston, Rosemont, Shelburne, Mt. Forest, to Harriston, where it strikes the Provincial road to Kincardine.

While admitting the importance of the route as mapped out by the representatives of the various districts involved, Hon. Mr. Biggs held out little hope of immediate compliance with the request. It was his opinion, he said, however, that the proposed route must be one of the first to be included in any addition to the Provincial highway scheme. He pointed out that only last week a cross road had been designated as a Provincial county road from Bradford, through Orangeville and on to Arthur, which would give some relief to conditions in that section.

"It has been said," declared Hon. Mr. Biggs, "that the Government has bitten off more than it can chew so far as Provincial roads are concerned. That may be the opinion of part of the population of this Province, but that is not the opinion of the department or of most of the municipal representatives as we meet them, I am quite satisfied (Applause.)

"Before the next two years go past the people of the Province of Ontario will agree that the department has utterly under its own control the system as now designated."

Rural Districts Behind Biggs.

The Minister of Public Highways impressed upon his interviewers the need for caution and care in any big new venture, involving some 70 miles of roadway, such as was suggested, but promised them careful consideration of their request, and was given hearty applause when he concluded his address.

One of the representatives, in addressing the Minister, declared: "I think if Hon. Mr. Biggs wants any evidence that the people of the rural districts don't take any stock in the campaign to swat him and his good roads, that evidence is before him now."

Attorney-General Raney spoke briefly in appreciation of the merits of the suggestion that had been laid before him, and said that, as the representative of East Wellington, he naturally held up both hands for the proposal. But, he said, as a member of the Government, he had to consider the requirements of a Province. He commented on the fact that eastern Ontario had only one through east-and-west road.

Among the Speakers.

Among the speakers were Joseph Whiteside, Wm. McBride, J. H. Mitchell (Mayor), all of Alliston; D. Banting, Reeve of Essa! Jas. Sheehan, Reeve of Adjala; T. Fleming, Reeve of Tecumseth; H. Coldwin, Chairman of Roads and Bridges for Simcoe; W. A. Boyes, M. P.; Mayor D. Anderson, Orillia; Mayor John Little, Barrie; Warden James McKnight, of Simcoe; John Best, M. P.; T. K. Slack, M. P. P.; H. Falconer, ex-Warden of Dufferin; R. A. Riky, of Shelburne; T. J. O'Flynn, Reeve of Shelburne; Reeve McKee of Mulmur; Reeve McGhee, Melancthon; ex-Reeve Hepton, Amaranth; D. E. Dean, Shelburne; Mayor Allen, of Mount Forest; A. S. Clarke, Mt. Forest.

POOR PREDICTING

"It's a long way to Tipperary" for the Green Shirts and they've got a hard row to hoe. Excelsiors, by winning every game (and that's not easy) will be very much in the money. Whether they can tie up the group by so doing will depend on how the other teams break in their fixtures. We predict two wins for Maitlands, one when they again meet the Saints and the other with Orangeville.—Brampton Conservator.

Maitlands lost to St. Simons by 8 to 2 on Saturday afternoon and it's a pretty safe bet that they will get another beating when they stack up against The Dufferins.

The Fire Ranger and His Job

DOTTED over 100,000,000 acres of forest, 1,000 men, organized in the employ of the Government of Ontario, are, this summer, passing back and forth over the canoe routes and along the railways, watching out for the tell-tale smoke which is the sign of fire. Regardless of hot weather, black flies, mosquitoes, discomfort, loneliness or monotony, the Fire Ranger makes his rounds, preventing, quenching or fighting fires in Ontario's forests, paying his own living and traveling expenses, and receiving $3.00 per day for his services.

All in all, the Ontario Fire Ranger is entitled to the help and co-operation of everyone. He deserves all the support the people of Ontario can give him. His work is of vital importance. Heed his warnings. Do what he asks.

Save Ontario's Forests
They're Yours

The Ontario Fire Ranger, during the danger period of the dry summer, is constantly on patrol to catch fires while they are small. He cannot prevent them starting, as a rule. He is at the mercy of all types of carelessness. Thanks to his vigilance, however, two-thirds of the forest fires in the last four years did not spread beyond five acres and of these, half did not exceed one-quarter acre.

Most of Ontario's Fire Rangers are northern woodsmen. Contrary to common belief, only five per cent. of them are students, and these are experienced Fire Rangers or returned soldiers.

Rangers travel chiefly by canoe and in pairs over a definite "beat", the length of which varies according to the degree of danger from fires.

Others travel up and down the forested railway sections on hand velocipedes, following trains to put out fires set by steam locomotives. In all, 2,100 miles of railroad are patrolled steadily all summer.

Two men devote their whole time to examining locomotives to see that screens and ashpans will not permit the escape of sparks and live coals. In the clay belt, a large force of Rangers supervise settlers' fires in land-clearing operations.

Don't blame the Fire Ranger if he asks you to be careful. Don't think he is too particular. He knows the risk. Ontario is poorer by untold millions of dollars through forest fires in the past. Help the Fire Ranger save the increasingly valuable forests that remain.

FREQUENT HEADACHES

A Sure Sign That The Blood Is Watery and Impure.

People with thin blood are much more subject to headaches than full-blooded persons, and the form of anaemia that afflicts growing girls is almost always accompanied by headaches, together with disturbance of the digestive organs.

Whenever you have constant or recurring headaches and pallor of the face, they show that the blood is thin and your efforts should be directed toward building up your blood. A fair treatment with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will do this effectively, and the rich, red blood made by these pills will remove the headache.

More disturbances to the health are caused by their blood than most people have any idea of. When your blood is impoverished, the nerves suffer from lack of nourishment, and you may be troubled with insomnia, neuritis, neuralgia or sciatica. Muscles subject to strain are under-nourished and you may have muscular rheumatism or lumbago. If your blood is thin and you begin to show symptoms of any of these disorders, try building up the blood with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and as the blood is restored to its normal condition every symptom of the trouble will disappear. There are more people who owe their present state of good health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills than to any other medicine, and most of them do not hesitate to say so.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A VETERAN ORANGEMAN

Mr. John Matson, who was awarded the prize for the oldest Orangeman at the 12th of July demonstration in Orangeville this year, has been a member of the Order for 72 years. He was initiated in Sandhill Lodge shortly after coming to Canada at the age of 20 years. He subsequently transferred his certificate to Prince of Wales L. O. L. 320 and was made a life member of that Lodge a number of years ago. Bro. Matson states that in all these years he has not once missed a 12th Celebration. At 92 years of age he is still hale and vigorous, works every day and has one of the finest plots of potatoes in Orangeville this year. These he has himself planted, hoed and cared for. The prize won by Bro. Matson was a walking stick, but as he was already the possessor of a stout blackthorn all the way from Old Ireland, the Committee bought and presented him with an umbrella. That the stout-hearted and sturdy-bodied veteran may be spared to celebrate many more Twelfths is the sincere wishe of his numerous friends in and out of the Order.

SHELBURNE WON

In an O. A. L. A. group 3 juvenile championship lacrosse game in Shelburne on Wednesday afternoon of last week, the home team defeated the juvenile Dufferins by a score of 8 to 6. The teams were very evenly matched and the game was closely contested until shortly before full time when, with the score standing 6 to 6, the referee, who was not any too conversant with the rules, awarded the homesters a free throw right in front of the Orangeville flags. The throw meant an easy goal much to the discomfiture of The Dufferins. Before they settled down again the northerners ran in another. The teams were:—

Orangeville—Goal, Rhemer; point, Henry; c. point, Hughes; defence, H. Flint and Crowe; centre, W. Flint; home, Connell and McKim; outside, Smith; inside, Rowan; spare, Robinson.

Shelburne — Goal, H. Wallace; point, M. Wallace; c. point, Ireland; defence, Cook and M. Douglas; centre, Lindsey; home, Graham, White; outside, Boettger; inside, D. Douglas. Spare, Hall.

The district standing is as follows:

	Won	Lost
Shelburne	2	1
Hespeler	2	1
Orangeville	3	2
Fergus	0	3

CALEDON

Reports of the local potato crop vary greatly. Poor seed is the most general reason advanced for "misses," though in some instances it seems as if sweet clover plowed in immediately before planting is responsible. In early potatoes, where size and quality is good, the yield per hill is much below that year. Among the good fields, that of Hilliard Bros., facing Centre Road, is most noticeable for its fine, healthy appearance. This is a fertilizer demonstration plot and if the yield is in accordance with the present appearance the value of fertiliser will surely be demonstrated.

Capt. Jack Atkinson, of the Canadian Red Cross, visited relatives over the week-end.

RURAL SCHOOL FAIRS

The following is the list of the dates of the Rural School Fairs to be held in Dufferin County, 1921:

Sept. 13, Tuesday.—Tarbert.
Sept. 14, Wednesday—Laurel.
Sept. 19, Monday—Mono Centre.
Sept. 20, Tuesday—Marsville.
Sept. 22, Thursday—Corbetton.
Sept. 23, Friday—Horning's Mills.

It is generally recognized that these Fairs are valuable, and are therefore deserving of all possible encouragement and assistance. Parents and teachers can help greatly to make these Fairs successful, for as a rule the greater the encouragement given the children by parents and teachers the better the Fair.

LOCAL NEWS.

—The change to cooler weather is very acceptable after the long spell of torrid heat.

—Harvest has come in very rapidly. Quite a number have already finished cutting.

—Mrs. G. B. Hayes entertained the members of the Busy Bee Club at her summer home at Caledon Lake last Friday afternoon.

—The party who left a pair of spectacles and case in The Banner Office a few days ago may have same upon calling and proving ownership.

—Jimmie Marshall, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Marshall, West Broadway, is quite seriously ill with rheumatic fever. He has been bedfast for the last two weeks.

—200 or 300 bags of this year's potatoes were loaded at Hillsburg last and this week. The buyers were paying $3.00 a bag. Pity some of last year's crop could not have been saved until now.

—The completion of a fine, modern verandah makes a marked improvement to the residence of Mr. William Kearns, York St. The work was done by Mr. W. G. Cranston, First Ave.

—W. S. Crozier, of Owen Sound, formerly of Orangeville, has purchased the general store business at Barrow Bay, Bruce County, from Mr. Roy Greig, who has been running the business for several years.

—A son of Mr. Albert Trimble, 4th line, Amaranth, was thrown off a horse the other day and had the misfortune to have his left leg broken above the ankle. We understand that the fracture was caused by the horse stepping on the limb, when the boy fell to the ground.

—Grain crops in this district will not yield as well as anticipated earlier in the season. The continued heat has ripened the grain too quickly to permit of proper filling. This is especially true of the oat crop, which has also been affected by rust to a considerable extent.

—Our old friend, Mr. J. H. Corbett, Proton Station, sends along another year's renewal and the usual good wishes to The Banner and its staff. Mr. Corbett has been taking The Banner upwards of 25 years and has always been one of our paid in advance subscribers.

—Miss Dorothea Browne, a former organist, presided at the organ in St. Andrew's Church last Sabbath. At the evening service the choir was assisted by Mrs. R. E. Jackson, a former choir leader, whose fine rendition of the solo, "The Broken Pinion," was an appreciated feature of the service.

—Maxville Women's Institute Garden Party was quite a pronounced success. Gate receipts were over $150 and the refreshment booth realized another $100. An excellent program was provided by The Marr Family.

—Riversides won from St. Catharines by 16 to 2 at Scarboro Beach on Monday. The Globe states that "Hutch" Keith was the star of the game, accounting for no less than six of the Riverside goals by tallying once in each of the first three periods and three times in the last.

—Rev. A. E. Thornley, pastor of Knox Church, Shelburne, preached two excellent sermons in St. Andrew's Church last Sabbath. His morning theme was the life, character and teaching of John The Baptist and in the evening he delivered a masterly discourse on the Brotherhood of Man.

—Last week Mr. W. J. Dodds, of Blount, advertised in The Banner for a two year old heifer that had been missing since the middle of June. One insertion did the trick. A few days after the paper reached its readers Mr. Dodds received a telephone message informing him of the whereabouts of the missing animal.

—Forty rinks competed in the big bowling tourney at Southampton last week, E. C. Clark's Orangeville rink got through to the semi-finals in the Trophy match. In their semi-final game they were beaten by McLinden, of Owen Sound, by one shot, the score standing 14 to 13. The local players were E. C. Clark, skip, T. H. Greenis, Chas. Gillespie and Robt. Allen.

—A runaway team belonging to Russell Oliver, of East Garafraxa, created some excitement on Broadway on Tuesday morning. The horses, which were hitched to a heavy farm wagon, took fright while standing at Hopkins' grist mill and dashed up Mill St., at breakneck speed. They just missed the iron policeman, managed to make the turn east in time to miss the Adamson Hardware Co.'s store front and came to a standstill when the wagon collided with a telephone post opposite the Orangeville Fair. The horses escaped injury and harness and wagon were not seriously damaged.

INDUCTION SERVICE

Orangeville Presbytery will hold a special meeting in St. Andrew's Church here on Friday evening for the purpose of inducting Rev. F. W. Mahaffy, B. A., of Buckingham, Que., who recently accepted a call to become pastor of St. Andrew's congregation. Presbytery will meet at 7.45 p.m., and the induction service will take place in the auditorium of the church at 8 o'clock. Rev. J. A. Black, of Horning's Mills, Moderator of the Presbytery, will preside, and Rev. S. Lundie, of Grand Valley, is to preach the sermon. Rev. W. N. Carr, of Alton, has been appointed to address the congregation and Rev. J. A. Reddon, of Laurel, will address the minister.

SUMMER COMPLAINTS KILL LITTLE ONES

At the first sign of illness during the hot weather give the little one Baby's Own Tablets or in a few hours he may be beyond aid. These Tablets will prevent summer complaints if given occasionally to the well child and will promptly relieve these troubles if they come on suddenly. Baby's Own Tablets should always be kept in every home where there are growing children. There is no other medicine as good and the mother has the guarantee of a government analyst that they are absolutely safe. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Follow Nature's Example

Paint is to the house as Bark is to the tree

NATURE never makes mistakes—she knows that her handiwork, in order to retain its beauty and its usefulness, must have protection against the elements.

Apply this same thought to the protection of the home and you see at once how important it is that exterior surfaces should have adequate protection against natural decay. By saving the surface you save all that lies beneath.

The Paint which has the guarantee of durability and quality is

B-H "ENGLISH" PAINT 200% Pure White Lead (Dominion Government Standard) 50% Pure White Zinc 100% Pure Paint

A formula that has been pronounced correct for Canada's rigorous climate.

Insist upon B-H "English" Paint—it provides a coat of such body, brilliance and toughness as to defy rain, sun, sleet, snow or frost, where cheaper paints will flake, crack and peel. Throughout Canada B-H "English" Paint has been giving surface-saving protection for years—it will protect your home as bark protects the tree.

Edmonton Occupies Commanding Position as a Great Distributing Centre.

(Intended for last week)

Westward from Saskatoon the train traversed prairie land noted for its wheat raising qualities. This was passed in the night and we were well into Alberta before breakfast next morning. A spot of particular interest which we missed in the darkness was Wainwright, where is located the world's largest herd of buffalos, the animal which a generation ago covered the prairies by millions. The Dominion buffalo park is the largest fenced-in park in the world, its 160 square miles being surrounded by a woven wire fence seven feet high.

A Famous Buffalo Herd

There is an interesting story in connection with this herd of buffalos. The nucleus of it was originally owned by a man in Montana. Finding it beyond his ability to take care of, he offered it to the United States Government, but while Congress was debating the subject a representative of the Canadian Government came along and made a bid which was accepted. There were at the time 706 in the lot, and the price paid was $256 per head f. o. b. Edmonton, delivery to be made by railway, a task which was accomplished with the loss of eight animals. To-day, fifteen years later, there are approximately 3,500 in the herd. But there is still another lot of interesting animals in the park, and that is the cattalo, a cross between a buffalo and a cow. The originator of this animal was an Ontario man, who bred a domestic cow to a buffalo bull and then a buffalo cow to a domestic bull. The progeny from these two matings were in turn mated and the cattalo, noted for its beef-giving qualities, was the result. Moose, elk, deer and antelope are also preserved in the park.

Approaching Edmonton Monday morning mixed farming looked to be more general and both the farm homes and buildings and the country had more the appearance of the east.

The Province of Alberta

Just a word as to Alberta, created province in 1905 and twice the size of Great Britain and Ireland. In length it is 750 miles from north to south, while its greatest width is 400 miles, with 10 per cent. of its arable land used. Its field crop in 1920 had a total value of $190,023,000. It will be of interest to learn that while a few years ago Alberta did not make enough butter for its own requirements it now produces to-day of creamery butter alone, over twelve million pounds and exports to the United States and countries overseas. Its dairy products in 1920 had a value of over $34,000,000.

Edmonton, A Fine City

We arrived in Edmonton at 9.30 Monday morning, June 6th, and were immediately taken in autos to the MacDonald Hotel, which is conducted by the Canadian National Railways and is one of the great hotels of Canada. In its hotels the west, as a rule, far surpasses the East. The MacDonald has a magnificent situation in the centre of the city and on the high banks of the River Saskatchewan, commanding a view for miles in every direction and with gardens along the bluff, where one can rest and enjoy the scenery.

The city's commanding position on the high banks of the river gives it picturesque attractiveness while its geographical location is such as to ensure commercial importance. It was because of its advantage in the latter respect that the Hudson's Bay Company, over a century ago, selected it as the site for a fur trading post and built a fort there to protect it. The site of that fort is to-day occupied by the imposing parliament building of the province. Even before the advent of the railway Edmonton was a place of some importance, being a centre from which trappers and fur-traders began their journey into the northern wilds, while the mighty Saskatchewan flowing past its shores served as a highway to and from distant parts of the Great West. Twenty years ago it had a population of 2,626. When in 1905 the Canadian Northern, now a part of the Canadian National Railways system, entered the city, the population was 10,000. To-day it is about 65,000.

City Stands on Coal

Some conception of the importance of Edmonton as a distributing centre may be gathered from the fact that it has more than one hundred wholesale houses. It has been said that Edmonton literally stands upon coal. The fact that outcroppings of the latter are to be seen on every hand in the vicinity may well indicate this. But that which is the best proof is the existence in and about the city of over thirty coal mines.

Variety in Architecture

Our drive was characteristic of those all through the western cities in that it showed us splendid educational buildings and many beautiful homes as well as substantial business district. There is more variety in the architecture of the homes in the West and this gives the cities a better appearance. One explanation is that numbers of bright young architects flocked to these western towns and cities and gave their best talent, in return, of course for substantial emolument.

Covers Too Much Ground

Like many another western town Edmonton covers too much ground and there is much vacant land well within the city which has little value to-day. Streets have been paved for miles beyond where the homes end, real estate agents having been too ambitious.

Golf is Popular

After our drive, which was very pleasant, the weather being ideal, we were taken to the Government House and shown through. We could live there comfortably. The grounds around it were spacious and there was a big staff at work gardening. From the grounds we had a view of the city golf links on the plateau below us along the river. Every city in the west has its golf links and golf is certainly a popular game there among men and women. As far as we could see they play it more on Sundays than on other days. From the Government House we went to the University of Alberta, where luncheon was served by the Board of Trade in one of the large halls and where we heard an inspiring address by Hon. Bob Oliver, one of the pioneer newspaper men of the west, a clear thinker, with a fine conception of Canada as a whole and the place of the country newspaper man in helping the country to work out its destiny. The parliament and university buildings in the west are wonderful when you consider how young is the country. With vision for a great future have the westerners laid the foundation. It is broad and strong and its superstructure surely must be sound.

Western Women Friendly

At Edmonton, as elsewhere, the ladies of the party were met by representatives of women's press clubs and other women's organizations and friendly and kindly and considerate were the western women. In Edmonton one of those on the reception committee was a most delightful young Scotch woman—Mrs. R. M. Alexander by name—the music editor of the Edmonton Journal and having what is generally admitted to be the best music page in Canada. She had a delicious Scotch accent and such a friendly way that everyone who met her fell promptly in love.

While in the city we met a number of former Ontario acquaintances, most of them from Orangeville and vicinity. Hon C. W. Cross, for many years Attorney-General of the Province of Alberta, is an old Madoc boy and a graduate of Toronto University. He spent a summer in Orangeville as a student and played lacrosse with The Dufferins. Mrs. Cross was Miss Lynde before marriage and attended High School in Orangeville. She is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Aiken, West Broadway. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Sydie, former Orangevillians, are now living at Champion, Alta., near the capital and their daughter, Evelyn, is now the wife of an Edmonton citizen. Their son, Earl, is studying law in the city. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Delaney gave us a hearty welcome. The former has a good position with the C. N. R. Mr. and Mrs. Austin McKittrick and family and Mr. and Mrs. Frank McKittrick, old-time Orangevillians, are doing well here and, like every other citizen, are enthusiastic over Edmonton's future. Thos. Huston, a former Orangeville boy, is city electrician, but retains a warm spot in his heart for the old home town. Mr. W. A. Lewis, a son of Mrs. (Dr.) Lewis, is accountant in the Bank of Commerce at Edmonton Heights. He is happily married and an enthusiastic and optimistic westerner, a typical representative of the thousands of energetic and clear-visioned young men who are laying the foundations of the future greatness of Edmonton and the Province of Alberta.. We were glad indeed to meet Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sutherland, still well remembered in Orangeville. Mr. L.H. Bessey is one of the city's prominent real estate agents, to whose courtesy we were indebted for a delightful and instructive auto trip around the city. Mr. Sutherland, we might state in passing, has a good position in the drug store of Mr. J. M. Simons, who served his time as a drug clerk with Mr. Adam Turner, of Saskatoon, while the latter was in business in Orangeville. We also met Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland's two daughters, Dimple and Deed, one the wife of Mr. W. W. Gourlay, a real estate man, and the other wedded to Mr. L. A. Brown, a prominent Edmonton druggist. Mr. A. R. Groff, who published the Orangeville Advertiser for a year or so, is librarian in the office of the Edmonton Journal. Dr. Fred Mercer, a dentist in the city, and Mr. Frank Mercer, a jeweller, are old Orangeville boys, being sons of the late T. L. Mercer. They are looking and doing well. Thos. Stevenson, a member of the Dufferin Lacrosse Club, in the early days, is in the automobile business in the city.

Leaving Edmonton

From the Edmonton Journal we take the following account of our departure from Edmonton:—

"With half of Edmonton I walked to the C. N. R. station to see the 'Press Special' pull out for Jasper. The Newsboys' Band—strangely appropriate—had come, voluntarily, to "play them off." At the call of the conductor friendly groups were separated and the Easterners reluctantly boarded the train. The band stopped playing and the engine bell broke into its warning clang. Before the wheels could turn someone began to sing—someone on the platform of a sleeper. The whole trainload took up the refrain, and to the tender sentiment of "A Perfect Day," carried far beyond the confines of the station on the listening air, the engine took the strain and the "Press Special" passed from Edmonton."

Far more effective than Sticky Fly Catchers. Clean to handle. Sold by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

ELECTION NOVELTIES.

How Absentee Votes Are Taken In British Columbia.

Absentee voting and penalty for non-voting were the two unique features of the provincial elections in British Columbia on December 1, both of these being novel in Canada if not indeed hitherto throughout the world. Both, too, were brought into effect by Liberal farmer-premier, Hon. J. Oliver, popularly hailed in British Columbia as "Honest John."

As a result of absentee voting candidates with bare majorities sat pins and needles for weeks after polling. All small majorities extremely uncertain. Even a of a majority may be con The idea came partly from experie in the war. The Conservative leade Mr. W. J. Bowser, was himself count ed in at the last provincial election by 184 soldier votes cast in the camps and trenches in England and France.

"It is the finest thing I ever ran across in connection with elections," was the verdict of Mr. Joseph Martin, a former Premier and Attorney-General of that province and a well known politician of Canada, as he watched on election day the polling of these absentee votes in the special booths arranged for them in the various polling places in Vancouver city, when no less than 2,585 were polled. "Think of the traveling expenses it saved even when legitimately expended," added Mr. Martin. He was himself a candidate for the —teenth time and ran twelfth in a field of 29, polling some 9,000 odd votes, while "Mary Ellen," widow of the late Hon. Ralph Smith, headed the poll with 17,647.

At the prohibition referendum on October 20 last, this provision for absentee voting was made for the first time, thus giving the returning officers and their staffs a good trial before a real political event. On that occasion 39,351 votes were polled on a total of 52,763 votes in Vancouver city. Of these 14,277 favored prohibition, including 515 absentees, while 24,616 went for Government sale of liquor with 1,516 absentee voters. There were also 458 spoiled and rejected ballots.

The "Absentee Voting" procedure is quite simple. A voter from Rossland or elsewhere in British Columbia, happening to be in Vancouver on election day, goes to the absentee booth, makes a declaration that he is on the list and entitled to vote in Rossland or wherever else his home may be, is given a ballot, which he marks behind the curtain. The ballot in the presence of the scrutineers is placed in an envelope and sealed and the declaration attached to the outside. It, with any other Rossland votes at that polling place, are, after the election, forwarded to the returning officer of the voters' riding. There on the official recount, in the present of representatives of the candidate, the returning officer checks the absentees' declaration with his voters' list, and, finding all satisfactory, the envelope is opened and the ballot placed in a box to be counted later as the official count proceeds.

The "penalizing section" is also novel in Canada, although for many years frequently discussed from the standpoint of the responsibility of the voter and the voter's duty as a citizen; but the theoretical side of the question is far from being the whole of the matter. It is of outstanding practical importance. The striking off of non-voters from the voters' list follows immediately after the next official count, and while penalizing those who are negligent it is a great advantage in cleaning up the voters' list. Under it all "dead men" and "absentees-from-the-province" now cease "to be voted" by any parties however corruptly inclined in British Columbia. The penalty, too, is not excessive, as there is an annual May revision of every voters' list, and so in May next all those neglecting to vote at the present election will have an opportunity of having their names replaced on the list. They are, however, disfranchised for the intervening period.

CALLS FOR QUICK ATTENTION

Grave Danger in Delaying to Get Medical Attention When a Bone Has Been Swallowed.

The necessity of examining the esophagus (tube down which we swallow) with an esophagoscope as early as possible after a foreign body has been swallowed is emphasized in a report by Dr. Joseph Eastman Sheehan of New York to the Medical Record on a recent case of his own.

A man of sixty-four was received at the Post-Graduate hospital a few months ago, suffering from pain and inability to swallow. He said that a few nights previously he had swallowed a bit of the neck of a chicken, and since then had been suffering as described. Doctor Sheehan pushed an esophagoscope down the man's throat and readily recognized one of the vertebrae of a chicken's neck sticking in the esophagus about half way down to the stomach. He seized it with the forceps and gently pulled it up through the tube.

But the bone had deeply ulcerated the flesh around the place where it had been impacted, so that swallowing food would have caused blood poisoning. It was necessary to resort to rectal feeding while the ulceration was being treated by direct applications. After ten days the patient left the hospital none the worse for his very trying experience.

White House Orchids.

The next mistress of the White House, whoever she may be, will have at her disposal the most remarkable collection of orchids in existence. In the greenhouses of the White House are orchid blooms that have been collected from all quarters of the globe. Beneath the glass dome there are thousands of these wonderfully beautiful flowers swaying and nodding in the hot damp of a tropical atmosphere, waiting to adorn the First Lady of the Land.

His Fate.

"There is no harmony in that man's life."

"Is his family quarrelsome?"

"No; he gives singing lessons."—Baltimore American.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

May Pass the Critical Period Safely and Comfortably by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Regina, Sask.—"I was going through Change of Life and suffered for two years with headache, nervousness, sleepless nights and general weakness. Some days I felt tired and unfit to do my work. I gave Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial and found good results, and I also find it a very helpful Spring tonic and useful for constipation from which I suffer much. I have recommended Vegetable Compound to several friends, and am willing you should publish this."—Mrs. MARTHA W. LINDSAY, 810 Robinson St., Regina, Sask.

If you have warning symptoms such as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backache, dread of impending evil, timidity, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin taking the medicine at once. We know it will help you as it did Mrs. Lindsay.

Rev. W. I. Newton, of Toronto, has accepted a call from Knox Church, Windsor, Ont.

Two calls came before Peterboro Presbytery at a meeting held on August 2nd, at Cold Springs, for the induction of Rev. J. S. Ferguson. One is from Bracebridge to Rev. R. McEachern, of Keene, and the other from Betterden and Roseneath to Rev. Mr. McCord, of Essex.

"Come upstairs and let me wash your hands," said Winnie's mother. "I don't want to go up," wailed Winnie, aged three. "Let her wash them down here," called grandma, "she can do it just as well." "No," her mother said firmly, "I want her to come up with me." Winnie came upstairs as slowly as possible. "Oh," she said, turning a wrathfully tearful face to her mother, "Why don't you obey your mother?"

Owing to ill health the Rev. J. Hildritch, who has been Methodist missionary to the Indians at Cape Croker Reserve, has been obliged to give up his work for a time. Straight talk on Cream Separators by

J. E. SMITH & Co.
Orangeville, Ont. Canada.

De Laval cream makes the best butter

WHETHER you make butter yourself or sell butter-fat to a creamery, the value of your cream depends largely on the kind of butter it will make.

It is easy to prove that De Laval cream makes better butter. Every first prize awarded at the Conventions of the National Buttermakers' Association since it was started twenty-eight years ago, has gone to butter made by De Laval users, or from gathered cream largely De Laval-separated.

The De Laval Separator is cream separator; its bowl runs at lowest speed and delivers the heaviest, richest cream, and it is used in practically all of the world's cream contests, because it gives not only more cream but better cream as well. And the fact that the De Laval runs at lower speed adds years to its life.

Let us demonstrate to you why the De Laval is the World's Standard Cream Separator

Sooner or later you will buy a De Laval

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The town council is still dallying with the sewerage question. Looks suspiciously like a case of professing to move and not moving.

The Globe opines that Premier Meighen is recrossing the Atlantic only to embark on a sea of troubles. It is a pretty safe prediction that the Globe will not pour very much oil on the troubled waters.

Canada's share of the German indemnity looks large when expressed in figures on paper, but it will not likely help very much in the way of lightening the burden now resting on the shoulders of Canadian taxpayers.

It is announced that aluminum will be reduced to less than one-third its present cost by a new process of manufacture. The announcement will be welcome news to other citizens as well as householders. It will stimulate the demand for fares made from this very useful and very serviceable material. Any invention calculated to reduce the cost of the necessaries or conveniences of life is doubly welcome in these times of expensive living.

A London newspaper has calculated that in hot weather the average woman's dress weighs 9½ ounces without the shoes, which would hardly make up the pound. Men's clothes weigh nearly five pounds. Why should man not gamb just as lightly as woman in the torrid season? Are the tailors who clothe the male portion of the human race less ingenious and resourceful than the modistes who design and make clothes for femininity? It looks very much that way.

Movie devotees will be interested in the opinion of a University of Pennsylvania student from India, who went to a moving picture show to see "India." He declares that he never witnessed such a "conglomeration of inconsistencies and such a hopeless confusion of material from various sources." He sympathizes with those who depend on the "movies" for their information about India. If the moving picture shows are to be the educators that their advocates claim, they must be accurate and reasonably true to fact, whether in history or nature.

The increasing frequency of automobile accidents suggests the need of stricter penalties for reckless drivers. The man who is proved criminally negligent in the handling of a car should not be allowed to drive a car. Too often human life is endangered or destroyed by the thoughtlessness or irresponsible conduct of some hair-brained driver, who rushes along at breakneck speed' regardless of the safety of pedestrians who may happen to be on the streets. No autoist has the right to drive the streets of a city like Toronto at a speed of forty or fifty miles at any hour of the day or night, and any person caught indulging in such reckless conduct should be deprived of the right to drive a car. The car is a great convenience and in many cases almost a business necessity, but it should not be allowed to become a menace to life on the streets of our cities and towns.

Preliminary population figures just issued by the Census Branch at Ottawa indicate a very substantial increase in the city population of Canada. Sixteen of the smaller cities show an average increase of slightly over 26 per cent. It is almost certain that a much higher rate of increase will be shown by the larger cities. It is to be feared that much of this urban increase has been at the expense of the rural population of the Dominion. Complete figures are not yet available, but we will be greatly surprised if these do not show that the rural population has remained stationary or has even decreased in many parts of the country. The whole tendency of economic growth and development in the last decade has been in the direction of the great cities. These have grown rapidly in population and wealth, while other parts of the Dominion have barely held their own. This centralization constitutes one of Canada's real problems. It is not a problem peculiar to this country, for in the United States, Great Britain and elsewhere a similar process of centralization has been going steadily forward. Our modern industrial system is, of course, primarily responsible. Small industries and small enterprises have been gradually forced to the wall by the huge combinations of wealth and resources that naturally centre in the larger cities. What the ultimate outcome will be is difficult to foresee. The increasing congestion coupled with the increasing expense of city life has caused a movement from the large centres back to the towns and villages and even to the farms. What will be the extent and effect of this movement it is yet too early to determine. It is not likely to assume extensive proportions unless the heavy overhead expenses in the cities should make it advantageous for manufacturers to divert their operations to the smaller centres. Then, we would have a real, and we believe, a very beneficial movement away from the cities. City life may have its advantages, but it is true, nevertheless, that the gathering of a large part of the country's population and resources into a few large centres begets economic and social conditions that do not make for the best interests of the nation or national life.

BARNARDO CHILDREN

It is a surprise to many people to learn what beautiful surroundings the Barnardo children are brought up in the Old Country. The Girls' Village Home is about 12 miles outside of London, England, is a perfect model old-fashioned village, occupying 65 acres, with over 70 cottages, each housing 20 girls in charge of a foster mother. The girls do all the work at the house and are thus brought up to the domestic life. The estate has its own church, hospital, railway station, and in the centre is the village green, used for games and assemblies. There is also a Boys' Garden City, run on similar lines and the organization has recetly acquired a beautiful mansion in Hertfordshire for more of the boys. These youngsters are keen to come to Canada, where past experience shows they make splendid settlers.

A new party of boys and girls, 10 years of age and upwards, is expected to arrive in September, and the Barnardo organization, which has its Headquarters at Toronto, is now registering applications for these children, who will all be available for the farms.

ONE WEST—ONE EAST

Every new settler in the Canadian West means, at least, one new job for someone in the Canadian East. Those who fear that an immigration campaign, that would bring in settlers, might add to the unemployment in eastern cities, should bear this truth in mind. One in the West means—at least—one in the East.

The present immigration policy tends to ADD rather than subtract from the total of the unemployed in Canada. At present a small Western population is bearing the whole cost of the railways, telegraphs, Government and other public services in the West. It is admittedly a heavy load. Though these costs are reduced to a rock bottom minimum, they take from the Western farmer, nevertheless, a comparatively large share of his total earnings. Sometimes, in bad crop years, he tends to become discouraged; he may even—in isolated cases—abandon his farm. And when he does, another idle man must also be reported in the East.

But with more immigrants, more settlers, more farms, these overhead costs in the West are reduced. Ten people are paying the bill instead of five. A poor crop does not matter so much. Then costs grow lighter in the only way costs can be lightened. Their numbers increase. Then purchasing power expands. And there is more employment in the East.

The ban on immigration is a step towards greater unemployment—not less. This cannot be too strongly emphasized.

PASTOR INDUCTED

Rev. F. W. Mahaffy Enters Upon His New Duties As Minister of St. Andrew's.

Large Congregation Attended Induction and Sunday Services.

Friday night last in the presence of a large and deeply interested congregation, Rev. F. W. Mahaffy, B. A., late of Buckingham, Que., was formally inducted into the pastorate of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. Rev. J. A. Black, of Horning's Mills, moderator of the Orangeville Presbytery, presided during the impressive induction service. With the Moderator on the platform were Rev. G. W. Rose, of Corbetton, who preached the sermon, Rev. J. A. Matheson, of Mono Mills, the interim moderator of St. Andrews, who narrated the steps leading up to the call; Rev. J. A. Reddon, of Laurel, who addressed the newly inducted pastor, and Rev. W. N. Carr, of Alton, who delivered the charge to the congregation. The church choir led in the service of song, Mrs. (Dr.) G. H. Campbell presiding at the organ.

As a text for his discourse Mr. Rose took the words, "I am not worthy," uttered by the Roman centurion in the course of his interview with the Master, when he besought the latter to heal his servant. The speaker described the incident with which the words of his text were connected as one of the most important recorded in the Gospels. Referring to minor differences in the story as told by Matthew and Luke he pointed out that the Bible records were merely recollections set down by the disciples and not verbatim reports of what had occurred during the Saviour's sojourn on earth. The fact that while there were minor differences the two records were substantially the same was one of the very best evidences we could have of the authenticity of the Scriptures. The Roman centurion was one of the most interesting characters recorded in Holy Writ. It was very remarkable that the Jews should come to our Lord and entreat him in behalf of one of the hated Romans. Luke furnishes the explanation in the words, "He loveth our nation and he hath built us a synagogue." This man, the representative of the haughty Roman rulers of the land, had won the regard and affection of the Jewish people, because he had interested himself in their life, their social problems and their religion. Similarly people of to-day are judged by their attitude toward their nation, toward their church and toward the people with whom they come in contact. The Christian citizen should take an interest in the problems of the state. It was his duty to carry the spirit of his church and the spirit of his worship out into everyday life. He must not only do this, but he must be careful not to fail in his duty to the home and the moulding of the home life. The greatness of a nation consists not in the strength of its external bulwarks, but in the hearts of its people and in their faith and trust in God. Mr. Rose emphasized the judgment the Saviour passed upon the centurion as expressed in the words "I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel." Faith is the foundation of every virtue and the faith of the centurion was honored as true faith is always honored. We should ask God to increase our faith and as a Christian people and congregation should labor to increase the faith of our own people and those about us. The church existed for the propagation of faith and the speaker expressed the great desire that under the ministry of their new pastor the congregation of St. Andrew's might grow in faith, grace and as a power for good in the life of the community.

In the course of an impressive address to the new pastor upon his duties and responsibilities, Rev. J. A. Reddon, of Laurel, stressed the importance of clear, practical, earnest and spiritual teaching from the pulpit. The minister should always emphasize the fact of God, the dignity of humanity and the divine character of his own mission. Symnathy, understanding and a deep feeling for the need in human hearts were essential qualities in the pastor who would fully discharge his duty to his people and the Master whom he sought to serve. The minister should keep himself under strict discipline and must concentrate his energies upon the work to which he has been called.

Rev. W. N. Carr emphasized some of the things which the minister might reasonably expect from his congregation. They should respect him and have regard for his good name. They should be somewhat sparing in their criticisms of him. Much criticism was thoughtless and undeserved, seldom reached the ears of the person for whom it was intended and did much harm among outsiders, who were influenced and perhaps prejudiced against the minister by thoughtless remarks and unnecessary fault-finding. The congregation should wait upon the ministrations of its pastor. The chief function of the minister was to preach. By waiting upon the ministrations the congregation would increase his power. There was no inspiration in empty pews. A well-filled church and an attentive, sympathetic congregation always inspired a minister to do his best. The congregation should also be at church in time for the beginning of the service. There was nothing so disconcerting to the minister as the frequent interruptions that late comers cause during the first five or ten minutes of the service. Frequently these interruptions were the means of spoiling the service. The congregation should also co-operate heartily with the minister in the work of the church. The church might be described as a co-operative institution or a partnership between the pastor and his congregation. There were certain things the minister should do and certain things that the congregation should do. The minister should not be burdened for instance with the routine of business and finance. These were matters for the congregation and its officials. The congregation should also pray for the pastor and for his success in the work to which he had been called.

At the close of the service Mr. and Mrs. Mahaffy took their places at the east door of the church, where opportunity was given members of the congregation to meet them as they passed out of the auditorium. Mr. Mahaffy entered upon the work of his ministry here on Sunday, when he occupied the pulpit morning and evening, preaching two impressive sermons. Large congregations were present at both services. The opinion was generally expressed that in Mr. Mahaffy the people of St. Andrew's have secured a worthy successor to the gifted divines who have ministered to the spiritual life and needs of the congregation in the past.

The new pastor of St. Andrew's is a graduate in Arts and Theology of Queen's College, Kingston, and was settled in his first charge at Alvinston, Ont., in 1903. In 1908 he was called to succeed Rev. Stephen Childerhose, late Superintendent of Missions in Northern Ontario. After four years experience in Home Mission work and Children's Aid Work in that district and an interesting ministry in the town of Parry Sound, Mr. Mahaffy went west to the town of Taber, Alta., in 1912 during boom times in Southern Alberta. Mr. Mahaffy has had a large experience with the Mormons of Southern Alberta and with French Evangelization work in Quebec in addition to his experience in town charges such as Buckingham and Parry Sound. Mrs. Mahaffy is highly spoken of as a fine type of Christian woman and a zealous church worker. They have a family of four children—two boys and two girls. Mr. and Mrs. Mahaffy and family made the 350 mile journey from Buckingham, Que., to Orangeville by automobile and came through without the semblance of a mishap. They reached Orangeville on Thursday evening only to find that their household effects, which had been shipped a week before their departure, had not yet arrived here. Their car reached the station here on Saturday morning and they are now getting comfortably settled in the manse on York St.

LISTLESS, FEVISH GIRLS

When a girl in her teens becomes peevish, listless and dull, when eating seems to incrcest her and dainties do not tempt her appetite, you may be certain that she needs more good blood than her system is provided with. Before long her pallid cheeks, frequent headaches, and breathlessness and heart palpitation will confirm that she is anaemic. Many mothers as the result of the own girlhood experience can promptly detect the early signs of anaemia, and the wise mother does not wait for the trouble to develop further, but at once gives her daughter a course with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, which renew the blood supply and banish anaemia before it has obtained a hold upon the system.

Out of their experience thousands of mothers know that anaemia is the sure road to worse ills. They know the difference that good, red blood makes in the development of womanly health. Every headache, every gasp for breath that follows the slightest exertion by the anaemic girl, every pain she suffers in her back and limbs are reproaches if you have not taken the best steps to give your weak girl new bood, and the only sure way to do so is through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

New, rich, red blood is infused into the system by every dose of these pills. From this new rich blood springs good health, an increased appetite, new energy, high spirits and perfect womanly development. Give your daughter Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and take them yourself and note how promptly their influence is felt in better health.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail postpaid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

IMPERIAL CONFERENCE

Teachers from all parts of the British Empire will convene in Canada for the first time on August 10th to 13th, when the Imperial Conference of Teachers' Associations will convene in Toronto. The Convention promises to be of far-reaching importance and will be one that no educationist should miss if he or she can possible arrange to attend. It is felt that the Conference should be of material assistance in the campaign to improve the educational facilities and curriculum of the Province of Ontario. Trustees throughout the Province are cordially invited to attend the Conference and it is hoped that a large number of them will be able to arrange to be present.

MRS. WILMER HILLOCK

Mrs. Wilmer Hillock, a well-known resident of Caledon, passed away at her home in Caledon village on Saturday, August 6th, after an illness of less than one week's duration from erysipelas. Deceased, who was Miss Annie Florence Beatty, of Ballycroy, prior to her marriage, was 38 years and 11 months of age. She is survived by her husband, three children, Bertha, aged 8, Gertrude, aged 5 and Elton, aged 3, her mother, Mrs. Beatty, of Ballycroy, one sister, Mrs. Knight, of Toronto, and a brother, Samuel Beatty, of Detroit. Before moving to the village about a year ago the family had lived on their farm on the 1st line, east. The deceased was a member of the Presbyterian Church, a devoted wife and mother and a kind neighbor. The funeral, which was largely attended, was held to Caledon cemetery on Monday afternoon, August 8th, Rev. W. N. Carr, of Alton, conducting the services at the house and grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. G. Hillock, Will Hillock, Jos. Hillock, Geo. Irwin, John Young and Geo. Hamilton. The floral tributes included a pillow from the husband; "Gates Ajar," Mrs. G. VanWyck, Mrs. Thos. Petch and Miss Minnie Hillock; sheaf, Mrs. Hamilton; sheaf, W. E. Dean and family; sheaf, W. H. Knight and family, and sprays, Mrs. McArthur and Miss Irene McArthur and Miss E. Clark and Miss Via Rayburn. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved husband and family in their great loss.

WALLACE—PILCHER

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Pilcher, 9th St. East, on August 3rd, when their eldest daughter, Lessie A., became the bride of Mr. C. Rutledge Wallace, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Wallace, of Alton, Ont. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. P. T. Pilkey, in the presence of about thirty guests. The bride entered the drawing room as the wedding march from Lohengrin was being played by Miss Jean Black. She was given away by her father, and was prettily attired in a gown of ivory charmeuse trimmed with rose point lace and pearls. Her veil was caught with orange blossoms and white heather and her bouquet was composed of Ophelia roses. Her only ornament was the groom's gift, a rope of pearls. While the register was being signed Miss Ethyl Lawson sang "All Mine Alone." The groom's gift to the pianist and the soloist were gold bar pins set with rhinestones and pearls. The bride was assisted by Miss Euphie McKay, Miss Ethel Dobie, and Miss Margaret Chalmers, who received beautiful gold bracelets. Then the bride led the way to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served.

The bride's table centred with the wedding cake was beautiful with sweet peas and streamers suspended from a large white bell. The happy couple left on the 3.20 train for Hamilton and Toronto amid showers of confetti. The bride was attired in a travelling suit of navy blue tricotine and mohair hat with ostrich trimmings. On their return they will reside in Alton, Ont.—Owen Sound Sun-Times.

MELVILLE

There will be service in the Methodist Church next Sunday, when the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered at the close of the service. Sunday School at 2 p.m. as usual.

JASPER PARK

Newspaper Excursionists View Some of Finest Alpine Scenery in America.

Through Mount Robson Park to Kamloops and on to Vancouver. Two hundred and thirty-five miles west from Edmonton, Alta, lies Jasper station, the centre of all activities of Jasper Park. Here is situated a snug little settlement surrounding the administration headquarters. Jasper is known as the capital of this mountain kingdom, containing four thousand four hundred square miles, all within the Province of Alberta, and extending to the eastern boundary of British Columbia. It is one of the great Canadian playgrounds, set aside and cared for by the Dominion Government. It is impossible to convey in a word picture the magnificence of the mountain scenery in Jasper Park. Suffice to say some of the finest Alpine scenery in America is to be found there.

Jasper Park is historic ground—events which have shaped its destiny date back to the early part of last century, when it was one of the main points on the line of communication between Edmonton and Vancouver.

The party arrived here at 8 a.m., Tuesday, June 7th. Awaiting at the station were several autos and about 25 cayuses to take the party up the trails to Maligne Canyon, a distance of nine miles. The Banner chose an auto for the trip, the memory of which will never fade. Midway between Jasper and Maligne Canyon is the tented city, and at this point lunch was prepared and eaten amidst towering cedars and on the shores of Maligne Lake. A side of beef was roasted on a spit and the whole meal was cooked outside. It is no wonder that after T. P. O'Connor visited this spot of scenic wonders, he broke into poetry:—

I love to sit and see Beauvert reflect the pine-clad steep,
And watch the nimble rainbow trout
in Caledonia leap;
And view with awe the wondrous gorge the Maligne river makes,
And hear the thunder of the falls
where far below it breaks—
The wonder of this wonderland of Jasper of the Lakes.

The grandeur of its mountains, with their mists and lights and shades,
The beauty of its valleys and the glamour of its glades,
Its rivers, lakes and waterfalls, its forests, rocks and brakes,
Shall fill my future years with dreams of Jasper of the Lakes;
My steps may roam, but not my soul,
from Jasper of the Lakes.
Mount Robson, the Majestic.

On leaving Jasper station for the west, it is to penetrate further into the rugged mountain barriers of Jasper and Mount Robson Parks. Up to the time the Continental Divide is reached, the train is still in Jasper Park. Crossing the Divide into the Province of British Columbia Mount Robson Park is entered.

Mount Robson Park, established and maintained by the Government of the Province of British Columbia, is one of the most wonderful scenic playgrounds in Canada. Mount Robson is the centre and dominating feature of this park, and after one glimpse at the great monarch among peaks one understands its fame. The gigantic mass of rock rises to a height of 13,068 feet—10,000 feet above the valley below, lifting its head from 2,500 to 3,000 feet above the surrounding peaks, magnificent ones in themselves. Glaciers hang on its side, and great white sheets of glittering snow are draped upon it. Not only is the mountain majestic because of its sheer size and bulk, but it is beautiful in form. Merely to see Mount Robson is an event to remember. To view the district from the train or from the observation platform, where a brief stop was made, is wonderful enough, and gives an inkling of the wonders to be encountered by those who stop for a brief trip in Robson's vicinity.

A Washout on the Line.

Leaving Jasper at 8 p.m., we were due to reach Kamloops, B. C., at 8 a.m. on Wednesday, but at that hour we awakened to find the train quietly reposing at Blue River, B.C. We did not need to be informed that there was a washout on the line. We could see it from the car window. There was, however, a serious landslide thirty miles farther up the line, and our train was obliged to remain at Blue River for ten hours. This delay had no effect on the spirits of the party. There were pleasant walks and the only store had its stock of picture post cards almost depleted and the delay was made the occasion of many a brief missive home. A baseball match was also staged which created no end of amusement. It was fortunate for some of the players that the whistle sounded "all aboard" when it did or an ambulance might have been required to convey some of the players from the field of conflict.

Kamloops, B. C.

The delay on account of the washout upset the arrangements which had been made for entertainment of the party at Kamloops by the business men of the city. The train was due to reach there at 9.25 a.m., but when we did arrive very late in the afternoon the station was almost deserted. The Mayor was there, however, and by use of the telephone soon had a number of cars pressed into service and the larger proportion of the party were shown the sights. The circuitous drive up one of the numerous hills which surround the city was a thriller. It is called some kind of a curly drive, so named, we believe, from the tendency to make one's hair curl, but this of course did not apply to the writer, who has not enough hair to curl. It was a great drive, however, and like the American who went down the toboggan slide in Montreal, we would not have missed it for a million dollars, even if two millions would not have induced us to go again. Mr. W. H. Howard, a brother of Mr. T. A. Howard, Customs Collecter, is C. N. R Agent in Kamloops. Jos. Wilson, a son of Mrs. John Wilson, 5th line, east, Mono, runs the leading barber shop in the town. One of the Douglas brothers, formerly of Orangeville, is a druggist. We also met Mrs. McMillan, a former Easterner, and a sister of Geo. McAlister, the widely known auctioneer. We had also a pleasant meeting with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gordon, who entertained us with open-hearted western hospitality. Before our departure, Mrs. Gordon, better known here as Kathleen Green, only daughter of ex-Mayor and Mrs. W. M. Green, presented Mrs. McGuire with a basket of beautiful roses from her own flower garden. The gift was placed in the care of the porter over night and next day each of the press party in our car wore a memento of Kamloops and the kindness of Mrs. Gordon in the form of a deliciously fragrant rose. In approaching Kamloops, Kamloops Junction, four miles north of the town, a freight divisional point, with railway shops and roundhouse, is first reached. The North Thompson is here crossed on a fine steel bridge, and the train backs into Kamloops on a spur, following thereafter the north side of the main Thompson for awhile.

The town of Kamloops, situated at the junction of the North and South Thompson—the name, it is said, signifying in the Indian tongue, "meeting place of the waters"—is one of the earliest historical places in British Columbia, having been founded as a trading post by the Pacific Fur Company (John Jacob Astor's company, with headquarters at Astoria) in August, 1812. The North West Company also planted its post there a little later the same month, the emissaries of both companies having reached the interior by way of the Columbia and Okanagan. In 1821, Fort Kamloops became a Hudson's Bay Company post, that company having absorbed its rivals. An Indian, some historians say, quaffing water from the Thompson near Kamloops in 1852, discovered and picked up the first gold nuggets in the bed of that stream, and was thus responsible for the starting of the great gold excitement of a few years later which led directly to the opening up and development of British Columbia.

The Kamloops of to-day is a thriving town of over 5,000 population, with modern facilities pertaining to much larger cities, the centre of a large and fertile agricultural district in what is known as the "dry belt," whose population is steadily increasing as settlement extends and more land is brought under irrigation. The district is also rich in mineral wealth. Kamloops enterprise has installed a hydro-electric plant in its vicinity, at a cost of $500,000, which furnishes power and light to the city and to ranches and mining enterprises in the district.

The early completion of the Canadian National Railway branch from Kamloops to Vernon, Kelowna and Lumby will greatly aid in further developing the resources of the rich and beautiful Okanagan Valley.

Scenically speaking, Kamloops and district, including the valleys of the Thompson, Kamloops Lake and the enchanting Nicola and Okanagan Lakes and valleys, accessible now by automobile over hundreds of miles of excellent roads, are hard to excel, and the sportsman and angler can find game and gamey fish, both large and small, worthy of his prowess, easily get-at-able from this centre.

Arrived at Coast.

While many of us were seated at dinner the train pulled out from Kamloops, and we awoke early on Thursday morning to find ourselves in Vancouver, Canada's Pacific gateway.

Over 15,000 veterans are expected to parade to welcome Lord Byng when he opens the Canadian National Exhibition, August 27.

When Lord Byng opens the Canadian National Exhibition, August 27, he will be following the precedent set by every Governor-General since Dufferin.

The Young Farmers' Judging Competitions at the Canadian National Exhibition will be held Wednesday and Thursday, Sept. 7 and 8, starting at 9 a.m.

McKAY-ROSS

A pretty midsummer wedding took place in Fergus on Wednesday, July 27th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Ross, when their only daughter, Zelma, became the bride of Mr. Asa W. McKay. The bride was in a smart frock of white georgette, short sleeves and low corsage, her veil being arranged in chaplet style with orange buds and blossoms. Her only ornament was a platinum diamond bar pin, the gift of the groom, and she carried a shower bouquet of pink Ophelia roses. Miss Edith Street was bridesmaid and Miss Annie Marshall, of Orangeville, was flower girl. Mr. Kenneth Graham, Ripley, supported the groom. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. Walter J. Nichol, of St. Andrew's Church. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served. The bride travelled in a nigger brown taffeta, touched with taupe, a separate cloak of Joffre blue with shadow turban hat to match. After spending their honeymoon at the Thousand Islands and other points east, Mr. and Mrs. McKay will reside on St. George street, Fergus. Among the guests the following were from Toronto: Mrs. G. Smith Fox, Miss J. Cunningham, Mrs. Charles Law and Mrs. McDonagh.

GUNPOWDER EXPLODED

Mrs. Finley, wife of R. J. Finley, of Owen Sound street, met with a mishap on Thursday of last week which might easily have been attended with more serious consequences. As it was, she is now suffering from severe inflammation of the eyes and for a time her eyesight was considerably impaired. She went to Honeywood on Tuesday of last week to assist at the sale of the late Wilbert F. H. Foster on the following Thursday, and it was while doing some cleaning about the kitchen that she unknowingly placed a package containing gunpowder in the kitchen range. Scarcely had the ammunition touched the blaze when it exploded and she received the resultant discharge of fire, powder and smoke in the face and chest. Her eyes in particular gave the most cause for concern and for a few days she was completely blinded. Her hair was also scorched as well as her clothing. Dr. McGibbon, of Honeywood, was immediately summoned and we understand he entertains good hopes of saving her sight. She will be improved sufficiently to be able to return to her home here this week.—Free Press.

Wash Day and Backache

WASH day is the least welcome day of the week in most homes, though sweeping day is not much better. Both days are most trying on the back.

The strain of washing, ironing and sweeping frequently deranges the kidneys. The system is poisoned and backaches, rheumatism, pains in the limbs result.

Kidney action must be aroused—the liver awakened to action and the bowels regulated by such treatment as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. This favorite prescription of the well-known Receipt Book author will not fail you in the hour of need.

One pill a dose, 25c a box at all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

The Voice That Commands Supplies!

Long Distance Mobilizes the Necessities of Life

THAT you may not lack food or other necessities, a constantly growing stream of goods and products flows to market along country roads, many of them ordered by Long Distance.

Progressive dealers rely on Long Distance because it not only enables them to take advantage of favorable market conditions and order such supplies quickly, but because it enables them to secure confirmation of the order at the same time. It eliminates all hazards.

On a quiet morning a hog buyer for a packing house rings up from thirty to sixty farmers by Long Distance, and at the end of the week some 5,000 lusty porkers arrive in the city markets, summoned by telephone.

Buying and Selling by Long Distance is the modern way of securing the maximum number of results in record time, at minimum cost. Bankers, Brokers, Manufacturers, Merchants, Builders, Contractors, Butchers, Bakers, Grocers, Department Stores, Newspapers, all are using Long Distance more and more to increase efficiency. "Worth easily $50.00 a day"—writes a City Broker.

Could all your salesmen combined see as many prospects as can be reached in one day on Long Distance?

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

ANOTHER VICTIM OF RHEUMATISM

Entirely Well After Six Weeks' Treatment With "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

MR. AMEDEE GARCEAU

32 Hickory St., Ottawa, Ont.

"I was for many years a victim of that terrible disease, Rheumatism. In 1913, I was laid up for four months with Rheumatism in the joints of the knees, hips and shoulders and was prevented from following my work, that of Electrician.

I tried many remedies and was under the care of a physician; but nothing did me any good. Then I began to take 'Fruit-a-tives' and in a week I was easier, and in six weeks I was so well I went to work again.

I look upon this fruit medicine, 'Fruit-a-tives', as simply marvellous in the case of Rheumatism, and strongly advise everyone suffering with Rheumatism to give 'Fruit-a-tives' a trial."

BUTTERMILK FOR HOGS

One Dufferin County farmer who has remained steadily with the bacon hog is Mr. W. P. Dodds, who has farmed for several years in East Garafraxa, a short distance west of Orangeville. Mr. Dodds turns off about 125 hogs annually and says that buttermilk is an important part of the fattening diet. Of this food he obtains 1500 lbs. daily from the Orangeville Creamery. Mr. Dodds states that buttermilk is an excellent feed for hogs and proof of his statement is found in the average gains of his hogs, usually from two to two and a half pounds per day after the pigs are six weeks old.

Alexandria fall fair this year will be held on September 8 and 9.

MISSION WORK

Interesting Letter From Rev. W. J. Cook, of the Central India Field.

The President of St. Andrew's W. M. S. recently received the following interesting letter from Rev. W. J. Cook, of the Canadian Presbyterian Church Mission at Barwani, in Central India. The writer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Cook, Wellington St., formerly of East Garafraxa, and attended High School in Orangeville a number of years ago. His letter reads:—

C. P. Mission, Barwani, C. I.,
May 5th, 1921.

The President, W. M. S.,
Orangeville.

Dear Friends,—

In addressing the ladies of your society, though I would not by any means know all the members, yet I see the church and the place of meeting very distinctly. For nearly three years I attended there, assisted in the choir when Mr. W. McDonald was leader and also had a class in the Sunday School.

After graduating in Queen's and in Knox I came to India in 1910, where I have been in several of our fields but have spent most of my time in the Nimar West, known for some time as the Khalghat field, but now known as the Barwani field. The place where headquarters are obtained determines the name for a large territory out here Barwani field is a good deal larger than Orangeville Presbytery.

This field has been visited by missionaries coming from distant centres for over 20 years. Later the Rev. D. F. Smith, who is now on furlough and whose wife is an old Orangeville school girl, was appointed to this field. During these later years the mission was trying hard to get land in some suitable centre but whether Barwani was desired, or Khalghat was considered acceptable the authorities turned a deaf ear to all our efforts. Following Mr. Smith we were appointed to the Nimar West work and dwelt in an old building 14 miles from Mhow. During our furlough time we felt guided to ask to be returned to this same field. There were certain reasons for this—one was, I had left some inquirers there. One was a boy who had demanded baptism and when I could not, because he was too young, he wept bitterly and said "Should I die before I am old enough to be baptised, then what?" (He is now baptised and needs our prayers as he tries to win over his Mohammedan wife.) Another was the fact that through the assistance of a Roman Catholic magistrate in Dhar State we purchased an old hospital in Khalghat. (This is on the Narbadda River and almost half way between Barwani and Mhow, our railroad station, a 96 mile drive for us). After we obtained this site I felt that we had our foot in, but His Highness of Dhar State became very angry because we were given this land and, in his indignation, he dismissed my kind friend, the magistrate. From this it was clear that if I put up with those very small quarters and site I had no immediate prospects of extending it. But on the other hand, was that kind of sacrifice for the sake of Christ to be overlooked and forgotten? Our decision was:—We must return, but on pondering it over, I felt that I must make this the burden of my prayer for the intervening months and approach His Highness of Barwani. I am told that four times he refused our request but in the end he could not longer obstruct the cause of Christ. He was favourable, but when his cousin, the Diwan, came home a few weeks later, he did his best to turn His Highness from this decision. In this he failed but he kept me a long time waiting before the land question was settled. However, all was settled and the work went ahead.

The last year has been one exceedingly difficult. Carrying all that construction work, with its worry, amidst the intense heat, meant overtaxation to such an extent that sometimes I wondered what would happen to me, but I later learned that this was by no means the worst that was to come.. In June I had one small room in which to get shelter from the monsoon with its drenching rains. The walls were all up by this time and gradually the roof was put on and I got the plastering done and part of the doors and windows on and certain cement floors ready when my wife and two strong hearty children came down from Landour in October. All went fine for a couple of months when the children caught cold and as the compound was in a mess as yet and the dust got worse and worse I failed to cure our little boy of 6 years. In the end all went suddenly wrong with him and with a very bad throat he passed away in a little over one day's acute sickness.

In that lonely station, where those of kindred spirit are mixed up in drink, our home was glowing but the most radiant figure of all had been snatched away and since this I have gradually fallen through until I had to get away to the hills for a change.

In about a month I expect to return and perhaps you will join me in daily prayer that this precious life may not be destroyed in vain but that in some way Christ may use it to build His church to the salvation of many souls. So we pray for an ingathering and for the opening up of the women's work in this little station with a medical woman to care for the great numbers of poor children who meet death all too soon because they are not properly cared for. Our ladies are greatly in need of more medical missionaries.

Sincerely yours,
W. J. COOK.

Dufferins Gave Toronto-St. Simons a Sound Beating in Last Week's Game.

Winners Led by Score of 6-1 at Half Time—A Great Game and a Fine Victory.

The Dufferins took the measure of the Toronto-St. Simons team in fine style in the championship game on Idylwyld Park last Wednesday afternoon. Last year's champions assumed the lead early in the game and after the first quarter there was never any serious doubt as to the result of the match. The opening period ended with the Dufferins leading by 3 to 1. The green-shirts added three to their total in the second quarter and blanked their opponents. Each team scored twice in the third playing period and The Dufferins added a pair in the last quarter, making the full time score 10 to 3. While Toronto-St. Simons were outscored, they were not as seriously outplayed as the score would indicate. Both teams played fast, snappy lacrosse from start to finish. From the spectators standpoint the game was by all odds the best witnessed here this season. The Dufferins played a fast, aggressive game in the field, following up well and getting possession of the loose ball much oftener than their opponents. In this respect their performance was in marked contrast with the showing they made in the 12th of July game with the St. Simons team. Last year's champions had to win to stay in the running for district honors. They went out and won and did so in most conclusive fashion. St. Simons brought up their strongest team and had no excuses to offer for their crushing defeat.

Captain Blythe Brown won the toss and elected to defend the south goal. Gordon got the ball on the initial face-off and the Dufferin home was soon hustling the visitors' defence at the south end of the field. A bad pass deprived the homesters of their advantage. St. Simons launched a dangerous looking attack, but the Orangeville defence relieved. Some spirited end to end play followed and then Golden got an opening, ran in and when checked transferred the sphere to Blythe Brown, who scored the first goal of the game. A few minutes later St. Simons evened up. Dopp doing the trick after accepting a swift pass right in front of Booth's citadel. Heyes was penalized for hitting Brown. Dufferins worked the odd man to good advantage and, after a few minutes exciting play, Dr. Zinn fooled McArthur with a wicked drop shot. A little later Golden got right through the Saints defence for what looked like a sure goal, but McArthur made a wonderful save. There was no let up in The Dufferin offensive and Bert Brown scooped the ball into the net after McArthur had stopped a hard one that he failed to clear. The close of the quarter found The Dufferins still pressing hard, a shot by Blythe Brown striking one of the goal posts shortly before the whistle blew.

St. Simons started out at lightning pace in the second period and looked likely to score. They lost their advantage when one of their home players was penalized. A moment later Ewing dodged in from behind the flags with the ball, but was sent to the fence for bodying McArthur. Gordon and Bert Brown figured in a sensational play which netted the Dufferins another tally. Gordon dodged his check and scored the next unassisted. Bert Brown got the final tally of the period in a decidedly unusual manner. He shot on the flags from some distance out while running in at full speed. McArthur stopped but was unable to hold the ball which rebounded right into Brown's stick, giving him a second chance at the net. Early in the third period Ewing and Lount were benched for scragging. Gordon dodged two men and scored and a minute later repeated the performance minus the scoring. McArthur making a splendid save. St. Simons developed a determined offensive, which brought them a goal, Scott knocking the ball into the net after an exciting scuffle in front of the Dufferin flags. Gordon equalized matters with an underhand shot delivered so unexpectedly that it completely fooled the Toronto goal tender. Robertson got another for the Saints on a pass from Holmes after the latter had eluded his check.

Holmes was the most dangerous man on the St. Simons home in the final period, starting several rushes that gave The Dufferin defence no end of trouble. The Saints got two or three promising openings, but all Dufferin man was always in the right place at the right time. Bert Brown took a cramp and play was halted for a few minutes. McArthur got in the way of a hot one from Gordon on a clever pass from Zinn, but Clyde came back a moment later with another that beat the St. Simons net guardian. The final tally of the game was made by Zinn on a pass from Gordon.

McArthur in goal played a wonderful game for St. Simons. Booth was equally brilliant at the other end of the field, stopping a number of the hardest kind of shots. Dedrick and Heyes seemed the pick of the visitors' defence. Thom and Trotter showed lots of speed in the field. The home worked hard and combined well. Dopp and Holmes were dangerous at all stages and initiated a number of fast combination plays. The visitors appeared to be in superb condition and went at top speed right to the finish. Dufferins played the four quarters without making a change in the team. The players were in much better condition than in earlier games and put all kinds of pep into the game. There was also a marked improvement in team play. Dr. Zinn, who has played in only two or three games, combined well with Gordon and the Browns and added materially to the effectiveness of the home. The defence was steady, sure and equal to every situation. Between 2500 and 3000 people witnessed the game, many motoring here from points fifty miles away. Charlie Querrie and Tom Humphries, the officials of the day, were impartial in their decisions and prompt in checking any tendency in the direction of rough play. Dufferin supporters are jubilant over the showing the team made and are quite sanguine that in the event of a replay the green-shirts can trim St. Simons at Scarboro Beach. Players and officials were:—

Toronto-St. Simons—Goal, McArthur; point, Dedrick; coverpoint, Heyes; defence, McArthur, Thom, Hall; centre, Trotter; home, Herb Scott, Holmes, Dopp; outside home, Robertson; inside home, Bill Scott; spares, Lount, Kirby, Wallace.

Dufferins—Goal, Booth; point, Cushing; coverpoint, Densmore; defence, Cranston, Black and Scott; home field, Ewing, Golden, Blythe Brown; outside home, Bert Brown; inside home, Dr. Zinn; spares, Stevenson, Henderson, Robinson.

Referee, Chas. Querrie; Judge of Play, Tom Humphries.

In its report of the game the Mail & Empire says:—

The Toronto-St. Simons team came up with their full strength, and had no excuses to offer when the game was over. They admitted that they had been beaten by the better team, and had an edge on them in the play in every quarter. Orangeville did not intend to make any mistake to-day. They sailed right out from the start to make sure of the game, and notched their first goal in about two minutes. The visitors came right back with their initial tally, but it did not remain long in doubt that the Orangeville home was playing right at the top of the form that has made them famous. It was not mistakes or bad judgment on the part of the losers. The Orangeville team earned their goal, always by beating their checks just by a little. They got three goals in the first quarter, and at half time had it 6 to 1. The Toronto-St. Simons made their best showing in the third period when each side scored 2 goals, but once again in the final period, Orangeville held them scoreless while helping themselves to a couple more.

It was the first game against the Amalgamateds this year in which the Orangeville home could show that brilliant goal-getting lacrosse that has given them the reputation of being by far and away the best home in the senior O. A. L. A. In no game this year has there been such an exhibition of scientific attacking, and even the greatness of Bill McArthur could not avail against it. The caution that has made the Toronto defence so hard to beat in the previous fixtures was overcome by the dash of the Orangeville home. Men were foiling their checks who did not manage to do it in the previous three contests, and there you have the reason for the final score. On the other hand, Bert Booth more than redeemed himself for the two long shots that passed him at Scarboro. The visitors had a large number of shots, but Booth was in the form that he has displayed this season. Bill Scott was the most dangerous man on the Toronto home, and played a brilliant game. Herb Scott had to retire at half-time as the result of an injured foot received in the Maitland game.

On to-day's showing Orangeville justified the faith of those who have proclaimed them all season the class of the senior O. A. L. A. It was a magnificent exhibition of scientific lacrosse, against which few teams could stand up. It was a clean game, too, as well as being a great one to watch.

FIRST CANADIAN AUTO BUILT IN OWEN SOUND

There are very few people who realise that the automobile industry in Canada, which to-day runs into many millions of dollars, had its start in Owen Sound. But it did, and to an Owen Sound resident is due the credit for the building of the first gasoline automobile in Canada that was in any way satisfactory.

Away back in 1899 Mr. A. J. Frost started to build his "horseless" carriage and it was completed a year later. He built it on what was known as the Standhope type, looking very much like a pneumatic tired buggy without shafts. Then he changed his design somewhat by lengthening the chassis and putting the hood in front of the dashboard. The motor was a French two-cylinder opposed, air cooled type, cylinders 2 5-8 by 2 7-8. It drove the car at about 18 miles an hour.

The transmission was Mr. Frost's own design and was remarkable for its simplicity. It had two speeds forward but no reverse. It was a chain and sprocket drive to the real axle. On this car was probably the first self-starter ever made, consisting of a strap to the driving seat. Just a pull of this and the engine was turned over without much effort.

The tires were what was known as Dunlop pneumatic sulky tires 28-3 and were still in good condition when the car was finally laid up in 1906. The springs were full elliptic front and rear. The steering was "tiller" about the same as is still used on electric cars. The engine was under the seat and was light enough to be carried quite easily by any man.

A peculiarity of the engines of those days was that in damp weather they would not function. The old style carburetor was not as flexible as the new types. Mr. Frost carried a humidity ascertainer in the form of a plug of tobacco. When it was damp he knew that there was little use in trying to get the car to go.

The car weighed 90 pounds and would run 36 miles to the gallon of gasoline—a good record even for the present. Light for driving at night was provided by a small bicycle lamp. There was no headlight law in those days, no motor licenses, but there was a very strong feeling against permitting these cars on the roads. Of course this feeling was most acute amongst the owners of horses, and there was a very large number of horse owners at the time.

In fact horses were almost as common as the cars are now. And horses did not take kindly to the new outfit. The car was not the silent type that Mr. Frost now drives, but could be heard a long way off. Gasoline was less than a quarter of the price that it is to-day.

The workmanship was of the very best and compared very favorably with that of present day cars.

The car would not back up and when it became necessary to back up it had to be shoved backwards, and frequently the driver would get out and walk beside it going up a hill to help out the engine.

The first motor accident that ever occurred in Owen Sound was with this car. It was being driven around Mr. Frost's lawn and the driver (not Mr. Frost) managed to steer it into a tree. Of course the car stopped suddenly and a small child that was on the seat with the driver was thrown to the ground but fortunately was not injured.

There are many in Owen Sound who will remember Mr. Frost's car but there are few who know that it was the first gasoline drive car to be built and operated in Canada. There were other cars built in the States, including steam cars, but none had been made in this country. And the hood on this car was the first on any car any place. Now they all have them.—Sun-Times.

The Cat Show at the Canadian National Exhibition will be August 30 and 31 and September 1.

MAYOR'S AUTO STOLEN

Car Found in Ditch East of Brampton, But no Clue to Thieves.

Late on Wednesday night of last week some person or persons entered Mayor Parkinson's garage and stole the Chevrolet car that His Worship uses for business and pleasure purposes. The theft was not discovered until next morning, when Mr. Parkinson at once enlisted the services of the local police force and also got into touch by 'phone with the authorities in Toronto, Brampton, Shelburne and other outside points. About noon on Thursday a farmer living six miles east of Brampton phoned Chief Herkes of that town the information that a car, apparently abandoned, was standing on the roadside near his place. The Brampton chief communicated the news to Chief Ewing. Mr. Parkinson hired a car and, accompanied by the Chief, set out for the place designated, reaching their destination Thursday evening. They found the abandoned car was Mr. Parkinson's. Upon examination they found that some of the bearings had burned out and that a tire had blown out and had afterwards been removed from its rim and thrown in the back of the car. The thieves had evidently run only a short distance on the rim, which was not damaged seriously. The car had to be towed to Brampton, where it was left for repairs. Mr. Parkinson went to Brampton again on Saturday and drove the car home. The necessary repairs cost between $25 and $50. There is no clue to the thieves, but it is suspected that they hailed from Toronto and had planned to run the auto into the city, make alterations that would make it impossible for the owner to identify his car and then sell it. Nightwatchman Ewing noticed, about 11.30 Wednesday night that the door of Mr. Parkinson's garage, which fronts on the lane north of Broadway, was standing wide open. He also noticed that the car was not in its place, but thought that Mr. Parkinson was using it. About five o'clock on Thursday morning a gardener, on his way to the city with a truck loaded with produce, was hailed by four men a short distance from the place Mr. Parkinson recovered his car. The men demanded a ride to the city and when the owner of the truck protested that he could not very well take them as he was already heavily loaded they assumed a threatening attitude and told him plainly that if he did not want to get into trouble he had better give them a lift. Alarmed by their attitude and words, the man complied. The four rode into the city, where they suddenly left the truck and disappeared without even the formality of a "Thank You." The quartette were probably the car thieves. Mr. Parkinson did not hear any untoward noises from the direction of the garage, which is quite close to his house. None of his neighbors was disturbed by any unusual sounds. The garage was unlocked and it is thought that the thieves ran the car out by hand and pushed it some distance down the lane before they started the engine. If there were four of them it would not be difficult to do this.

A few minutes later St. Simons evened up, Dopp doing the trick after accepting a swift pass right in front of Booth's citadel. Heyes was penalized for hitting Brown. Dufferins worked the odd man to good advantage and, after a few minutes exciting play, Dr. Zinn fooled McArthur with a wicked drop shot. A little later Golden got right through the Saints defence for what looked like a sure goal, but McArthur made a wonderful save. There was no let up in The Dufferin offensive and Bert Brown scooped the ball into the net after McArthur had stopped a hard one that he failed to clear. The close of the quarter found The Dufferins still pressing hard, a shot by Blythe Brown striking one of the goal posts shortly before the whistle blew.

St. Simons started out at lightning pace in the second period and looked likely to score. They lost their advantage when one of their players was penalized. A moment later Ewing dodged in from behind the flags with the ball, but was sent to the fence for bodying McArthur. Gordon and Bert Brown figured in a sensational play which netted the Dufferins another tally. Gordon dodged his check and scored the next unassisted. Bert Brown got the final tally of the period in a decidedly unusual manner. He shot on the flags from some distance out while running in at full speed. McArthur stopped but was unable to hold the ball which rebounded right into Brown's stick, giving him a second chance at the net. Early in the third period Ewing and Lount were benched for scragging. Gordon dodged two men and scored and a minute later repeated the performance minus the scoring. McArthur making a splendid save. St. Simons developed a determined offensive, which brought them a goal, Scott knocking the ball into the net after an exciting scuffle in front of the Dufferin flags. Gordon equalized matters with an underhand shot delivered so unexpectedly that it completely fooled the Toronto goal tender. Robertson got another for the Saints on a pass from Holmes after the latter had eluded his check.

Holmes was the most dangerous man on the St. Simons home in the final period, starting several rushes that gave The Dufferin defence no end of trouble. The Saints got two or three promising openings, but a Dufferin man was always in the right place at the right time. Bert Brown took a cramp and play was halted for a few minutes. McArthur got in the way of a hot one from Gordon on a clever pass from Zinn, but Clyde came back a moment later with another that beat the St. Simons net guardian. The final tally of the game was made by Zinn on a pass from Gordon.

McArthur in goal played a wonderful game for St. Simons. Booth was equally brilliant at the other end of the field, stopping a number of the hardest kind of shots. Dedrick and Heyes seemed the pick of the visitors' defence. Thom and Trotter showed lots of speed in the field. The home worked hard and combined well. Dopp and Holmes were dangerous at all stages and initiated a number of fast combination plays. The visitors appeared to be in superb condition and went at top speed right to the finish. Dufferins played the four quarters without making a change in the team. The players were in much better condition than in earlier games and put all kinds of pep into the game. There was also a marked improvement in team play. Dr. Zinn, who has played in only two or three games, combined well with Gordon and the Browns and added materially to the effectiveness of the home. The defence was steady, sure and equal to every situation. Between 2500 and 3000 people witnessed the game, many motoring here from points fifty miles away. Charlie Querrie and Tom Humphries, the officials of the day, were impartial in their decisions and prompt in checking any tendency in the direction of rough play. Dufferin supporters are jubilant over the showing the team made and are quite sanguine that in the event of a replay the green-shirts can trim St. Simons at Scarboro Beach. Players and officials were:—

Toronto-St. Simons—Goal, McArthur; point, Dedrick; coverpoint, Heyes; defence, McArthur. Thom, Hall; centre, Trotter: home, Herb Scott, Holmes, Dopp; outside home, Robertson; inside home, Bill Scott; spares, Lount, Kirby, Wallace.

Dufferins—Goal, Booth; point, Cushing; coverpoint, Densmore; defence, Cranston, Black and Scott; home field, Ewing, Golden, Blythe Brown; outside home, Bert Brown; inside home, Dr. Zinn; spares, Stevenson, Henderson, Robinson.

Referee, Chas. Queerie; Judge of Play, Tom Humphries.

In its report of the game the Mail & Empire says:—

The Toronto-St. Simons team came up with their full strength, and had no excuses to offer when the game was over. They admitted that they had been beaten by the better team, and had an edge on them in the play in every quarter. Orangeville did not intend to make any mistake to-day. They sailed right out from the start to make sure of the game, and notched their first goal in about two minutes. The visitors came right back with their initial tally, but it did not remain long in doubt that the Orangeville home was playing right at the top of the form that has made them famous. It was not mistakes or bad judgment on the part of the losers. The Orangeville team earned their goal, always by beating their checks just by a little. They got three goals in the first quarter, and at half time had it 6 to 1. The Toronto-St. Simons made their best showing in the third period when each side scored 2 goals, but once again in the final period, Orangeville held them scoreless while helping themselves to a couple more.

It was the first game against the Amalgamateds this year in which the Orangeville home could show that brilliant goal-getting lacrosse that has given them the reputation of being by far and away the best home in the senior O. A. L. A. In no game this year has there been such an exhibition of scientific attacking, and even the greatness of Bill McArthur could not avail against it. The caution that has made the Toronto defence so hard to beat in the previous fixtures was overcome by the dash of the Orangeville home. Men were foiling their checks who did not manage to do it in the previous three contests, and there you have the reason for the final score. On the other hand, Bert Booth more than redeemed himself for the two long shots that passed him at Scarboro. The visitors had a large number of shots, but Booth was in the best form that he has displayed this season. Bill Scott was the most dangerous man on the Toronto home, and played a brilliant game. Herb Scott had to retire at half-time as the result of an injured foot received in the Maitland game.

On to-day's showing Orangeville justified the faith of those who have proclaimed them all season the class of the senior O. A. L. A. It was a magnificent exhibition of scientific lacrosse, against which few teams could stand up. It was a clean game, too, as well as being a great one to watch.

FIRST CANADIAN AUTO BUILT IN OWEN SOUND

There are very few people who realize that the automobile industry in Canada, which to-day runs into many millions of dollars, had its start in Owen Sound. But it did, and to an Owen Sound resident is due the credit for the building of the first gasoline automobile in Canada that was in any way satisfactory.

Away back in 1899 Mr. A. J. Frost started to build his "horseless" carriage and it was completed a year later. He built it on what was known as the Standhope type, looking very much like a pneumatic tired buggy without shafts. Then he changed his design somewhat by lengthening the chassis and putting the hood in front of the dashboard. The motor was a French two-cylinder opposed, air cooled type, cylinders 2 5-8 by 2 7-8. It drove the car at about 18 miles an hour.

The transmission was Mr. Frost's own design and was remarkable for its simplicity. It had two speeds forward but no reverse. It was a chain and sprocket drive to the real axle. On this car was probably the first self-starter ever made, consisting of a strap to the driving seat. Just a pull of this and the engine was turned over without much effort.

The tires were what was known as Dunlop pneumatic sulky tires 28-3 and were still in good condition when the car was finally laid up in 1906. The springs were full elliptic front and rear. The steering was "tiller" about the same as is still used on electric cars. The engine was under the seat and was light enough to be carried quite easily by any man.

A peculiarity of the engines of those days was that in damp weather they would not function. The old style carburetor was not as flexible as the new types. Mr. Frost carried a humidity ascertainer in the form of a plug of tobacco. When it was damp he knew that there was little use in trying to get the car to go.

The car weighed 90 pounds and would run 36 miles to the gallon of gasoline—a good record even for the present. Light for driving at night was provided by a small bicycle lamp. There was no headlight law in those days, no motor licenses, but there was a very strong feeling against permitting these cars on the roads. Of course this feeling was most acute amongst the owners of horses, and there was a very large number of horse owners at the time.

In fact horses were almost as common as the cars are now. And horses did not take kindly to the new outfit. The car was not the silent type that Mr. Frost now drives, but could be heard a long way off. Gasoline was less than a quarter of the price that it is to-day.

The workmanship was of the very best and compared very favorably with that of present day cars.

The car would not back up and when it became necessary to back up it had to be shoved backwards, and frequently the driver would get out and walk beside it going up a hill to help out the engine.

The first motor accident that ever occurred in Owen Sound was with this car. It was being driven around Mr. Frost's lawn and the driver (not Mr. Frost) managed to steer it into a tree. Of course the car stopped suddenly and a small child that was on the seat with the driver was thrown to the ground but fortunately was not injured.

There are many in Owen Sound who will remember Mr. Frost's car but there are few who know that it was the first gasoline drive car to be built and operated in Canada.

There were other cars built in the States, including steam cars, but none had been made in this country. And the hood on this car was the first on any car any place. Now they all have them.—Sun-Times.

The Cat Show at the Canadian National Exhibition will be August 30 and 31 and September 1.

MAYOR'S AUTO STOLEN

Car Found in Ditch East of Brampton, But no Clue to Thieves.

Late on Wednesday night of last week some person or persons entered Mayor Parkinson's garage and stole the Chevrolet car that His Worship uses for business and pleasure purposes. The theft was not discovered until next morning, when Mr. Parkinson at once enlisted the services of the local police force and also got into touch by 'phone with the authorities in Toronto, Brampton, Shelburne and other outside points. About noon on Thursday a farmer living six miles east of Brampton phoned Chief Herkes of that town the information that a car, apparently abandoned, was standing on the roadside near his place. The Brampton chief communicated the news to Chief Ewing. Mr. Parkinson hired a car and, accompanied by the Chief, set out for the place designated, reaching their destination Thursday evening. They found the abandoned car was Mr. Parkinson's. Upon examination they found that some of the bearings had burned out and that a tire had blown out and had afterwards been removed from its rim and thrown in the back of the car. The thieves had evidently run only a short distance on the rim, which was not damaged seriously. The car had to be towed to Brampton, where it was left for repairs. Mr. Parkinson went to Brampton again on Saturday and drove the car home. The necessary repairs cost between $25 and $50. There is no clue to the thieves, but it is suspected that they hailed from Toronto and had planned to run the auto into the city, make alterations that would make it impossible for the owner to identify his car and then sell it. Nightwatchman Ewing noticed, about 11.30 Wednesday night that the door of Mr. Parkinson's garage, which fronts on the lane north of Broadway, was standing wide open. He also noticed that the car was not in its place, but thought that Mr. Parkinson was using it. About five o'clock on Thursday morning a gardener, on his way to the city with a truck loaded with produce, was hailed by four men a short distance from the place Mr. Parkinson recovered his car. The men demanded a ride to the city and when the owner of the truck protested that he could not very well take them as he was already heavily loaded they assumed a threatening attitude and told him plainly that if he did not want to get into trouble he had better give them a lift. Alarmed by their attitude and words, the man complied. The four rode into the city, where they suddenly left the truck and disappeared without even the formality of a "Thank You." The quartette were probably the car thieves. Mr. Parkinson did not hear any untoward noises from the direction of the garage, which is quite close to his house. None of his neighbors was disturbed by any unusual sounds. The garage was unlocked and it is thought that the thieves ran the car out by hand and pushed it some distance down the lane before they started the engine. If there were four of them it would not be difficult to do this.

MAITLANDS COMING

The last home game in the Group 2 senior O. A. L. A. series will be played on Idylwyld Park on Wednesday afternoon, August 17th, when the Maitlands cross sticks with The Dufferins. Dufferins need the game and will go on the field in the best of condition to win. The locals are not expecting any easy time as the Maitlands have a fast, clever team. The visitors will make every effort to help out the Toronto-St. Simons team by pulling off a victory here. If they can win it will mean the championship for St. Simons. In any event the fans can count on a fast, keenly contested game, with both teams doing their best to win. Ball faced at 3 o'clock. Admission, 50 cents; children, 15 cents. Autos admitted free.

BIG ENTRY LIST

Upwards of forty outside horses are in town for the race meet this week. Officials of the local Turf Club are hard put to find stabling accommodation for all the racers. The Meet promises to be by all odds the best ever held in Orangeville.

THRESHING OUTFIT

A syndicate of twelve farmers in the Whittington neighborhood has purchased a fine $4,000 threshing outfit, consisting of a Geo. White & Sons traction engine and a Challenge separator. The out-fit, which was sold by S. H. Rutledge, was unloaded here on Monday and started for its destination early in the afternoon.

CHOLERA INFANTUM

Cholera infantum is one of the fatal ailments of childhood. It is a trouble that comes on suddenly, especially during the summer months, and unless prompt action is taken the little one may soon be beyond aid. Baby's Own Tablets are an ideal medicine in warding off this trouble. They regulate the bowels and sweeten the stomach and thus prevent all the dreaded summer complaints. Concerning them Mrs. Fred Rose, of South Bay, Ont., says: "I feel Baby's Own Tablets saved the life of our baby when she had cholera infantum and I would not be without them." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

COURT MADE ORDER

On April 21st last W. J. Ritchie, an Amaranth farmer, died leaving a will dated March 21st, 1905, by which he bequeathed the west half of lot 27, con. 8, Amaranth, to his nephew, W. J. Ritchie. In February, 1914, the testator sold the property disposed of in the will and purchased lot 12, 7th line, Amaranth. At Osgoode Hall last Thursday Mr. J. L. Island moved before Chief Justice Meredith for an order construing the will and declaring the nephew, W. J. Ritchie, the owner of the farm possessed by the testator at the time of his death. H. E. McKitrick appeared for the nephews and nieces of the testator other than the applicant. An order was made declaring the nephew owner of the testator's farm, subject to an annuity of $150 a year provided for in the will and payable to the widow of the deceased. Costs are to be paid out of the farm.

JOHN D. GODFREY

At Los Angeles, on July 8th, 1921, the death took place of an old Elora resident in the person of John Harold Godfrey, son of the late Alexander Godfrey. According to a Los Angeles paper he died unexpectedly of ptomaine poisoning. On the Sunday preceding he ate apricots and ice cream, which occasioned his illness. Deceased was born in Guelph on October 28, 1852. He came with his parents to Elora and later to Mount Forest. He started in the printing trade at 13 years of age, later working on the Globe in Toronto. At 18 he went to New York and worked on the Tribune when Horace Greeley was the editor. Going to Detroit he was on the Free Press for 25 years. He was foreman in a number of offices in Canada, at Bay City, Mich., and on the San Bernardino Index. With his family he went to California in 1901, locating near Redlands. Later he went to Los Angeles, working on the Herald and the Tribune. Mr. Godfrey was Secretary-Treasurer of the Los Angeles Typographical Union, and the Allied Printing Trades Council. At the April meeting of the former he had been appointed delegate to the Convention of the International Typographical Union which meets in Quebec on August 8th.

He was held in high esteem by all who knew him. His life was well worth while. He leaves a widow and two sons:—George H., a manufacturing jeweller, and Edward C., a printer in Los Angeles. He has two surviving brothers, Thos. and Albert C., of Vancouver, and three sisters: Mrs. Fred Stafford, Sudbury; Mrs. Yeomans, Alberta, and Mrs. Harris, California. The late Mrs. G. A. Campbell, Orangeville, was a sister.

He was a cousin of Postmaster Thomas Godfrey and Wm Godfrey, of Flora, Ontario.

Interment was in Forest Lawn Cemetery, Glendale, under direction of Mrs. Ethel Stone, reader of the Scientific Church, and the services of the International Union were read by Representative Charles T. Scott.—Elora Express.

OLD ALTON WOOLLEN MILL MAN

Says Toronto Mail and Empire: A remarkable case of vitality which has not been overcome by the battle of the years is that displayed by Mr. Benjamin Ward, of 85 Hawthorne Avenue, who, at the age of 91, packed his grips on July 29 and started out for a visit to the Old Country, quite unaccompanied. Mr. Ward is on a visit to his sister in Nottingham, and this is the 44th time that he had made the journey across the water. His last trip was some eight or ten years ago. Mrs. Wm. A. Milligan, of the above address, is a daughter, and Mr. Ward made his own preparations while Mrs. Milligan was staying in Muskoka. He arranged his own passport and carried out all the details totally unassisted. For his age, Mr. Ward is surprisingly hale and hearty. For the past twenty years he has been living retired, prior to which he was in the woollen manufacturing business at Alton, Ont.

THE BATH BRICK

As a Matter of Fact It Comes From Bridgwater.

Why do so many things appear to come from Bath? Bath buns, Bath fagots, Bath chairs, Bath bricks, Bath chaps, Bath olives, Bath pipe, Bath coating—these and others are known to everybody.

In the case of Bath brick, the prefix is certainly inapplicable, because that household requisite is a monopoly of Bridgwater, where alone it can be made.

The raw material of the cream-colored commodity is a peculiar kind of slime deposited near the town by the sluggish river Parret. As the tide ebbs it leaves on the banks a more or less thick layer of mud, which is apparently of the same composition everywhere. But that from which bath bricks can be made is found only in a stretch of about a mile from Bridgwater bridge.

Many attempts have been made to manufacture the famous scouring bricks from slime deposited elsewhere by the river. Always, however, the result has been failure, the products having been useless for polishing, etc. They have usually been hard, and more or less similar to bricks used for building.

What special quality, then, has the slime deposited in the birth-place of Bath bricks? Nobody knows.

The precise composition of that compound is a mystery. By the inscrutable action of water—the ebb and flow of the tide, coupled with a sieve-like effect—the detritus is kept in suspense until it is fit for use by the brickmaker, and then deposited at his back door, free for him to take as he wills.

Otherwise the Bath brick industry resembles ordinary brickmaking. As the unique slime is wanted it is gathered and wheeled into the works, where it is treated in much the same way as clay is treated during its conversion into bricks by old-fashioned methods.

TWO ARE HELPED IN SAME FAMILY

Chas. Walker Declares Tanlac Certainly Proved Worth to Himself and Wife.

"Yes, sir, Tanlac has helped my wife just like it did me, and now both of us are enjoying good health," said Chas. F. Walker, 220 Langley Ave., Toronto, a machinist employed by the F. N. Burt Co., Ltd.

"Both my wife and myself were badly run down. She complained of feeling tired out from morning till night and had become so weak she was hardly able to do the housework. It was the same in my case, and it just seemed that my whole system was out of order. Nothing tasted right to me, and I had about reached the point where I felt like I was going to give clean out.

"A neighbor of ours recommended Tanlac, and it seemed to help us right from the start. We have taken five bottles now between us, and I don't believe either of us ever enjoyed better health. I have been built up all round, eat hearty and sleep good and sound. My wife is looking fine and can do the housework without any trouble." Tanlac has certainly proved its worth to us."

Tanlac is sold in Orangeville by C. V. Jeffers, and by leading druggists everywhere.

CAR DITCHED

Arthur Campbell, of Norval, Pinned Beneath Ford.

Late on Friday night last a bad auto accident occurred on the Queen St. west sideroad not far from Brampton, Arthur Campbell, of Norval, and Fleck, of Georgetown, both youths, had been to Eldorado and were going home after having taken three male companions to Brampton.

Fleck was driving the Ford when he struck the edge of a culvert and the car was turned over into the ditch. The driver was thrown free but young Campbell was pinned beneath the car. Fleck was unable to lift the weight and ran along the road looking for assistance when two or more returning cars came along from Eldorado. Campbell was extricated from his perilous position and brought to a doctor in Brampton, who dressed a number of wounds in his head. Afterwards he was taken to his home in Norval and yesterday he was able to get about again. He is a son of Mr. W. J. Campbell, proprietor of the Norval flour mills, while the companion, Fleck, is a son of the manager of one of Georgetown's paper coating mills. The car was badly smashed up.—Peel Banner.

Rev. C. L. Graham, of Bond Head, has accepted a call to Bethesda Presbyterian Church.

THIS WOMAN'S MISERY

Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Remarkable Recovery of Mrs. Church.

Smiths Falls, Ont.—"I suffered with falling of my organs, pains around my heart and in bowels and down my legs, neuralgia in my face and head, and that terrible sinking feeling. I felt that I could not live and would fix my house in order every night so there would be no trouble if I dropped off in the night. My husband went to the druggist to get the best remedy he had and he gave him Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and felt a lot better. I will always recommend the Vegetable Compound, and you can use these facts as a testimonial."—Mrs. J. O. CHURCH, Box 645, Smiths Falls, Ont.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from nervous prostration, displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion and dizziness. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If there are any complications about which you need advice write in confidence to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Do Not Set Out Fire Without a Permit

THE welfare of new agricultural communities in this Province requires that land clearing be done with the cheapest agent at hand—Fire. Therefore, restrictions must hamper settlers as little as is consistent with safety to lives and property. Disastrous experience proves that in hot, dry weather unregulated use of fire in thickly wooded Northern Ontario means a menace to the lives and property of settlers and destruction of the provincial forest resources upon which a large part of Ontario's revenue and the livelihood of thousands of her citizens depend.

That is why Ontario adopted a "Close Season" and the "Permit System" for setting out fire. But, remember, whether you have a permit or not, you are responsible for damages caused by any fire you light. Be careful—

Save Ontario's Forests They're Yours

The "Close Season" for setting out fire in Northern Ontario is from April 15th to September 30th. During that time within the Permit Area no one may set out fire for clearing land, disposing of debris or other inflammable waste, or for any industrial purpose, without first obtaining a written fire permit from a Fire Ranger. This applies not only to settlers but to railway section crews, camp and mill crews, road builders, including Government employees, and all other persons.

When starting fire for cooking and camping, the law requires that a place be selected free from inflammable material, that every reasonable precaution be taken to prevent such fire spreading and that it be thoroughly extinguished before quitting the place.

The "Close Season" applies to all Ontario north of Bobcaygeon and Smith's Falls and west of the line from there to Renfrew.

The Permit Area includes those parts of Nipissing, Sudbury, Temiskaming and Algoma lying north of the C.P.R. between Mattawa and North Bay and north of the C. N. R. westward to a point some 35 miles beyond Hornepayne.

The remainder of the Province forms the Exempt Area. Within the sparsely peopled Exempt Area no permits are generally issued, but those setting out fires in the "Close Season" are required to exercise every reasonable precaution and a Chief Fire Ranger, if he deems it wise, may serve a Prohibitory Notice and require a person to take out a permit.

The Fire Ranger does his best to follow the happy medium between the desire of the settler to "get a good burn" and the requirements of Public Safety. Help him all you can.

A LOGICAL DEDUCTION.

"Mr. Smith," a man asked his printer, "how is it you have not called on me for your account?"

"Oh, I never ask a gentleman for money."

"Indeed! How, then, do you get on if he doesn't pay?"

"Why," replied the printer, after a momentary hesitation, "after a certain time I conclude he is not a gentleman, and then I ask him."

THE NEWSPAPER MAN

Bit of a priest and bit of a sailor,
Bit of a doctor and bit of a tailor,
Bit of a lawyer and bit of a detective,
Bit of a judge, for his work is corrective;
Cheering the living and soothing the dying,
Risking all things, even dare-devil flying;
True to his paper and true to his clan—
Just look him over, the newspaper man.

Sleep! There are times when he'll do with a little,
Work till his nerves and his temper are brittle;
Fire cannot daunt him, nor long hours disturb him;
Gold cannot buy him and threats cannot curb him;
Highbrow or lowbrow, your own speech he'll hand you;
Talk as you will to him, he'll understand you;
He'll go wherever another man can,
That is the way of the newspaper man.

Surgeon, if urgent the need be, you'll find him,
Ready to help, nor will dizziness blind him,
He'll give the ether and never once falter,
Say the last rites like a priest at the altar;
Gentle and kind with the weak and the weary,
Which is proved now and then when his keen eye grows teary,
Facing all things in life's curious plan,
That is the way of the newspaper man.

One night a week may he rest from his labor,
One night at home to be father and neighbor,
Just a few hours for his own bit of leisure,
All the rest's gazing at other men's pleasure,
All the rest's toiling, and yet he rejoices,
All the world is, and that men do, he voices—
Who knows a calling more glorious than
The day-by-day work of the newspaperman.

ISAAC MENARY

Isaac Menary died at Erindale on Thursday morning last at the patriarchal age of 104 years. The late Mr. Menary was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, on May 7, 1817, and had marched in 12th of July Orange parades for 75 years. He was taken ill on the 11th of July this year, which prevented him from marching this month. He came to Canada at the age of 18 and settled in Milton, Ont., where he married Miss Margaret McCormick, also from Ireland, who survives him, and is 89 years of age. They were married in 1856 at Milton. Later they moved to Erindale, where they lived together for 55 years. Mr. Menary was a Conservative, and has one son and three daughters, all living in Erindale. One grandson, William, of the 48th Highlanders, was killed in the war.

The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to Erindale cemetery, the service being conducted by the Rev. H. V. Thompson.—Conservator.

WELL AND HAPPY AFTER TEN YEARS

Never Dreamed Anything Could Help Her Like Tanlac Did, Says Mrs. Ahern.

"Tanlac has put me in good health when nothing else would even so much as help me, and the way it has worked in my case just seems miraculous to me," said Mrs. John Ahern, of 1 Boultbee Ave., Toronto.

"Words just can't tell how much I suffered for the past ten years from a terrible case of rheumatism, and the pains in my hands and knees were just unbearable. Many nights the pain was so bad that I couldn't even lie in bed, much less sleep, and would just have to get up and sit by the fire. The fingers of both my hands were so sore and swollen that at times they were altogether useless as far as work was concerned, and the suffering and misery I had to endure was simply indescribable.

"I got just wonderful results from my very first bottle of Tanlac, for it ended the aches and pains and four bottles have relieved me entirely of all symptoms. I feel just fine in every way now, can do all my housework with perfect ease and am as healthy and happy as can be.

I never even dreamed it possible for anything to help me like Tanlac has, and I simply praise the medicine from the bottom of my heart for the wonderful blessing it has been to me."

Tanlac is sold in Orangeville by C. V. Jeffers, and by leading druggists everywhere.

PICKED UP FOOT AFTER IT WAS CUT OFF

When the mowing machine which he was driving cut off his left foot, James Sharpe, 15 years old, of Defiance, O., picked it up and drove his horses to the house before he fainted from loss of blood. The boy said he stepped out on the tongue of the machine to whip the horses with the reins when he fell.

NEWSPAPERS IN SAME FAMILIES OVER SIXTY YEARS

Acton Free Press: The Markham Economist says: "Two Ontario papers have entered their forty-seventh year. The Thorold Post achieved such longevity some six weeks ago, and The Acton Free Press last week." The Economist saw its birth in Markham in July, 1856, just 65 years ago, and the Newmarket Era was born in 1852. The Era was founded by the late Easatus Jackson, and his son Lyman is now the proprietor-editor. The Economist was founded by the late Hon. David Reesor, and in 1867 was acquired by his brother-in-law, the late H. R. Corson, who took his son, R. J. Corson, into partnership in 1877, and the latter is still the owner-editor. Both the Era and the Economist have been published by the same families ever since they were established. We doubt if there are any other papers in Canada over fifty years old of which the same can be said.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is admittedly the greatest gift a parent can give a child. For fifteen years the Orangeville Business College has successfully trained young people for the best situations in Canada and United States. "A position for every graduate" is our motto. This school is affiliated with the Canada Business College, Toronto, and ten other colleges in various cities and towns of Ontario. In union there is strength. In a multitude of counsellors there is wisdom. The Spotton Colleges are the largest trainers of young people in Canada. Mail courses in all subjects for those who cannot attend. Special courses in Farm Book-keeping. Write for particulars to Canada Business College, Orangeville, or Toronto. 4-3t.

Canadian music will be a feature at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

An expenditure of approximately $600,000 is required each year to stage and prepare the Canadian National Exhibition.

The scenery for this year's spectacle at the Canadian National Exhibition will be 800 feet long and in places 50 feet high.

Straight talk on Cream Separators by

J. E. SMITH & Co.

Orangeville, Ont. Canada.

"Like Butter?"

De Laval cream makes the best butter

WHETHER you make butter yourself or sell butter-fat to a creamery, the value of your cream depends largely on the kind of butter it will make.

It is easy to prove that De Laval cream makes better butter. Every first prize awarded at the Convention of the National Buttermakers' Association since it was started twenty-eight years ago has gone to butter made by De Laval users, or from gathered cream largely De Laval-separated.

The De Laval Separator a mere matter of low first cost, but it more than pays for itself in the better quality and greater quantity of butter it makes. It is used in practically all of the world's creameries, because it gives not only more cream but better cream as well. And the fact that the De Laval runs at lower speed adds years to its life.

Let us demonstrate to you why the De Laval is the World's Standard Cream Separator

Sooner or later you will buy a De Laval

EDUCATION & CHARACTER

It has been said that "The Soul of Education is the education of the soul," which is just another way of saying that the great end of education is the production of character.

We are well aware that this is not the popular conception of education. Most people think of education as the acquisition of knowledge, and the most highly educated, according to this standard, are those who are the most learned. But the acquisition of knowledge is not education. An undisciplined mind may accumulate a vast store of miscellaneous knowledge and still be little more than an attic filled with rare and valuable treasures.

Education is the training of the powers of the soul, or, as the term implies, leading them out along the lines for which they are designed and fitted. The amount of knowledge which anyone is able to acquire, even in a lifetime, is of small importance in comparison to the training and discipline of the mind. The chief service of a university course is to teach men and women how to use their mental powers to the best advantage. Life itself is as much of a discipline as it is of service, and the further on in life we go the more we are impressed with the fact that we are just beginning to learn how to live. The whole of life is thus an education of the soul for something that lies before.

It follows from the very idea of education that it must concern itself with the whole nature of man. To sharpen the intellectual powers without any regard to the moral nature might only tend to make clever criminals. Perhaps the weakest feature of our educational systems today is their lack of moral emphasis. Not that the ethics of religion are omitted from our text-books of learning, but more positive teaching along this line is imperative, if our young people are to grow up with right moral conceptions. Scotland owes more, for the position which she occupies in the world to-day, to her parish schools in which moral and religious instruction formed so prominent a part, than to any other circumstance or influence. It was in these schools that character was moulded, and character is what always tells in the life of a people or nation.

The well-known American educationist, Mark Hopkins, after fifty years at Williams' College, said: "Christianity is the greatest civilising, moulding, uplifting influence in the world, and it is a sad defect in any institution of learning if it does not bring those under its care into the closest possible relation to it." At an educational convention in Nova Scotia some years ago, a prominent educationist was giving an outline of a system of education under the figure of a beautiful building with windows on all sides looking out upon the various and attractive fields of knowledge in every direction. During the discussion which followed, a gentleman visitor, who was invited to speak, after giving merited praise to the beautiful conception and the well wrought out figure of the speaker, said that the building which he had constructed with such skill and apparent perfection had one serious defect. It had windows looking out upon a wide horizon, embracing a great variety of fields of knowledge, but it lacked a skylight. The place of moral teaching had been omitted from the purview of the speaker in the construction of his educational edifice.

And this would be a fatal blunder in any educational system. We must not take too much for granted today in the way of religious education outside of our schools and colleges. We must not depend too much upon the Sunday School and the home training to supply the deficiency of an inadequate moral training in our common schools; for there are thousands of boys and girls who will be the future citizens of this land, whose only chance of religious training and instruction is the public schools connected with our educational system.—The Presbyterian Witness.

A permanent creche, where mother, while seeing the sights, may leave her baby in the hands of competent nurses, will be an innovation at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

"Must Be Operated On Today!"

Dr. Edwards, this is Dr. Watt, Blankville, speaking. I have a serious case of appendecitis—I want you to operate on immediately—this afternoon—at 168 Bellevue Avenue. Got that? 1-6-8.

There is a train leaving at 11.20 that will get you here by two o'clock. Will you catch that? Can I depend on you? Fine! I'll meet the train."

MRS. JAS. WISE

Mrs. Wise, wife of Mr. James Wise, the well-known Broadway baker and confectioner, passed away at her home on Second Avenue early on Sunday morning after a long and trying illness, which had its beginning at the time of the flu epidemic. A severe illness from the flu was followed by an attack of the measles and this by bronchitis. The successive illnesses undermined Mrs. Wise's constitution, so enfeebling her that she had been confined to the house almost continuously since last October. She was bedfast for a month or longer prior to her demise. Mrs. Wise, whose maiden name was Isabel Montgomery, was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Montgomery, of Chinguacousy. She came to Orangeville with one of her sisters about thirty-two years ago and has resided here since that time. She was a devoted member of the Methodist church and exemplified the teaching of her church in her everyday life, which was exemplary and consecrated to the service of the Master whom she loved. Before her marriage she took an active interest in the Epworth League and Sunday School of her church, being a zealous worker in the former and a faithful teacher in the latter. During recent years she has been more directly identified with the W. M. S. and the W. C. T. U., in which she was an active and valued worker. She took an active part in the management of her husband's business and until her illness spent much of her time in their place of business, where she was well and favorably known to the general public of this district. In her home she was a faithful, loving wife, whose happiness centred in the home and the loved ones of the family circle. She is survived by her husband and three sisters, Mrs. Thos. Parsons, of Brampton, and Misses Ella and Mary G. Montgomery, of Orangeville. The sympathy of the community goes out to the husband and sisters in their bereavement. There was a large attendance of citizens and sorrowing friends of the family at the funeral, which was held to the Forest Lawn Cemetery on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. H. L. Partridge, the family pastor, conducted an impressive service at the house and later officiated at the grave. He was assisted by Rev. G. W. Hewitt, of Hamilton, a cousin of the departed woman, and Rev. G. W. Robinson, of North Toronto, a former pastor. A large number of beautiful floral tributes bore mute testimony to the esteem in which the departed woman was held and the grief occasioned by her removal. These included a large spray from the W. M. S. of the Methodist Church and a wreath from the "Win One" Bible Class, of which Mr. Wise is teacher.

Friends from a distance included Mrs. Henry Parmaley, Toronto; Rev. and Mrs. G. W. Hewitt, Hamilton; Mrs. John Mowat, Shelburne; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Burton and Mrs. Thos. Parsons, Brampton; Mr. and Mrs. Robt Cranston, Mrs. John Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. A. Sanderson, Caledon East. Telegrams of sympathy were received from Mr. and Mrs. David Archibald, Port Carling, Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Follet, Port Carling, and other friends whom distance prevented from being present at the funeral.

"JIM" SMALL DEAD

A gloom was cast over the community, when the news spread on Thursday evening, August 4th, that James Small had passed to his eternal rest. Jim, as he was better known to a large circle of friends, was for many years in business in Erin, and was highly esteemed. When a young man, he learned the shoemaking, and about twenty-six years ago started business in Erin, and was noted for the fine work he turned out. A few years ago, finding his health failing, he took up a new occupation, when he started a grocery and confectionery business which he handled successfully, and from which he will be greatly missed by the many patrons. He was ill but a short time. Only a few days ago an infection appeared on the neck, which developed to a carbuncle, and later to blood poisoning, from which he suffered terrible agony. He was born at Mimosa, Erin Township, 56 years ago, and on May 24th, 1890, was united in marriage to Nellie Atcheson. He is survived by his bereaved widow, two sons, Wilbert and James, and one daughter, Ruby, also two brothers, John, of Fergus; Samuel, of Mimosa, and three sisters, Mrs. G. Sims, Grand Valley; Mrs. F. Black, Galt, and Mrs. E. Irwin, Sask. He was a member of the Orange and C. O. F. Orders, being very prominent in both, and a member of Burns' Presbyterian Church, Erin. He always took a keen interest in the sports and until a few years ago was active in the local ball team. He was, in his business, very obliging, and will be much missed by both young and old. The funeral took place from his late residence on Sunday, August 7th, at 2.30 p.m., the service being held in the Presbyterian Church, and conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. Lindsay. The brethren of the Orange and C. O. F. took charge of the ceremonies at the grave at Erin Cemetery. The funeral was very largely attended. The floral tributes were many and beautiful.—Erin Advocate.

MARRIED.

DAWSON-FORBES—At the home of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, August 17th, 1921, by Rev. R. J. McCarten, of Priceville, Thomas James Dawson, of Brampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dawson, Orangeville, to Isobel Caroline Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Forbes, Wellington street, Orangeville.

HENRY WHITE

An Old Resident of Mono Called to His Eternal Reward.

The death of Mr. Henry White, one of the oldest residents of the township of Mono, took place at his late home, lot 6, 2nd line, east, on Wednesday last, August 10th, after a very short illness. Deceased, who was a remarkably strong, vigorous man, was in the enjoyment of good health up to Sunday preceding his demise, when he complained that he did not feel as well as usual. Monday morning he failed to rise at the usual time and when his son went to his room, he found that he had suffered a partial stroke. He sank rapidly, the end coming peacefully on Wednesday as already stated. Dr. T. H. Henry, the attending physician, gave hemorrhage of the brain as the cause of death. Deceased was in his 86th year.

The late Mr. White, who was a member of an old and distinguished English and Irish family, whose ancestors crossed the Channel with the army of William the Conqueror, was born near Carrickmacross, County Monaghan, Ireland. He came to Canada when about twenty years of age and eight or nine years later bought the west half L. 6, C. 2, E., Mono, from his uncle, the late John Skelton, who had purchased the property from The Crown. Mr. White subsequently acquired the east half of the same lot, thereby becoming the owner of the fine 200 acre property on which he resided until his death. Fifty-two years ago the subject of our sketch was married to Miss Elizabeth Island, daughter of the late Michael Island, who was one of the first, if not the first, white settler in the west side of Mono. The union, a singularly happy one, was blessed by a family of two sons and three daughters. Mrs. White passed to her long home only last October so that the union of over fifty years was not long sundered by death. The surviving members of the family are the two sons, John J., of Blount, and Thos. H., on the homestead, and two daughters, Mrs. Jas. A. Leighton, Mono, and Mrs. W. J. Reid, Macleod, Alta. The other daughter died about 22 years ago. Mr. White was a member of a family of twelve brothers and sisters, of whom there survive only one brother, Timothy White, and a sister, Mrs. Fleming, both residing in Ireland. One of his brothers, James White, was a member of Queen Victoria's Household Guards. He stood 6 feet 6 inches and had the distinction of being the heaviest man in this famous regiment. In his younger days the late Mr. White was an exceptionally strong and active man. As a young man he experienced his full share of the toil, hardships and privations of the early settlers in this part of the country. The greater part of the country was heavily wooded and the settler usually spent the winter in the arduous work of chopping down the forest which covered his and his neighbors' farms. Mr. White and his cousin, Mr. Hugh Skelton, now residing near Shelburne, spent several winters at this work. They considered forty acres, twenty acres apiece, a good winter's chopping. As a neighbor the deceased was held in the highest esteem. He was always ready to lend a helping hand or do a neighborly turn and his word, once given, could always be relied upon implicitly. He made it a rule of life to do whatever he promised to do. He was strictly honest in all his business dealings. He was a man of decided opinions and was always ready to take a stand and make a fight for what he believed to be a righteous and just cause. The late Mr. White was a member of the Anglican church and a pronounced Conservative, although he did not hesitate to break away from his party on the burning Manitoba School question. He was at that time a pronounced and most outspoken supporter of the late Dalton McCarthy and the policy which that distinguished Canadian leader advocated. The deceased was a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and a staunch Orangeman. Many years ago he was initiated into the secrets of the latter Order in L. O. L. 635, Orangeville, but subsequently transferred his certificate to Purple Valley L. O. L. No. 84, Mono.

There was a large attendance of neighbors and friends of the family at the funeral, which was held to the Forest Lawn Cemetery on Friday afternoon. Rev. T. H. Stewart, rector of St. Mark's Church, conducted the services at the house and grave. The pallbearers were Messrs. John Hewitt, W. L. Clark, Abe. Reid, Geo. Thompson, Thos. Smith and R. B. Henry.

BROADWAY ORANGEVILLE

IN VANCOUVER

Newspaper Excursionists Greatly Impressed With British Columbia's Chief City.

Is Substantially Built and Delightfully Situated on Burrard Inlet.

Vancouver is a magnificent city with a population of nearly 200,000, of whom 10,000 are Orientals. When it is remembered that until 1886 its site was covered with a dense forest, its present size and importance is astounding to an easterner whose town has not varied but a few hundred in the same space of time. Even with its first rapid growth the early settlement was wiped out with the exception of one building, so that every structure, large and small, comprising the present city, has been erected in the space of thirty-five years. The situation is perfect as regards picturesqueness, natural drainage and harbor facilities. It has extensive wharves and warehouses, churches, schools, etc., all of the most substantial character, and many first class hotels, among them the Vancouver hotel, recently very much enlarged, operated by the Canadian Pacific Railway. It has many miles of asphalt streets and cement sidewalks, has an electric street railway, and is lighted both by gas and by electricity. An ample supply of pure water is provided by means of pipes laid under the inlet from mountain streams, while the city's sewage system is second to none.

The city, which is delightfully situated on Burrard Inlet, is named after the great navigator, Captain George Vancouver. The scenery in its vicinity is magnificent. To the north side the Cascade Mountains, to the south Mount Baker and across the water to the west are to be seen the mountains of Vancouver Island. As already stated the city is most substantially built. Its public buildings and offices are remarkably fine specimens of architecture, built in many cases of granite. It has finely paved streets and splendid motor roads and bridle paths. Its sewerage and sanitary arrangements are second to none on the continent and its lighting is both by gas and electricity. Coal, brought from Vancouver Island, is cheap and of good quality. An area of waste land known as False Creek, formerly flooded by the sea, has been reclaimed and a fine city terminal for the Canadian National railways erected on the site.

Stanley Park, reserved by the British Government for purposes of fortification, and now the property of the Dominion of Canada, is a piece of virgin forest, with magnificent "great trees" of Douglas fir and cedar, and is one of the sights of Canada. There are splendid opportunities for sport in the immediate vicinity of the city. Mountain goats, bear and deer are to be had in the hills along the inlet, and splendid trout fishing in a number of streams at no great distance.

Vancouver is Canada's main Pacific Ocean port. Its imports and exports in 1920 were valued at $49,256,913 and $39,535,283 respectively. Shipping returns show that in 1919 vessels to the number of 23,000, with a registered tonnage of 10,691,411 tons, entered and departed from the harbor. Besides regular sailings for coast points, ocean shipping arrives and departs for the Orient, Australia, Alaska, and by way of the Panama Canal for European ports. There are several important industries in the city, among them being lumber and shingle mills, shipyards, fish canning factories, and a sugar refinery. The city is also a large wholesale distributing centre.

This beautiful city was to be our home for two days, while the members of the Association were supposed to attend strictly to business. We use the word "supposed" advisedly, for with so much and so many to see, it was impossible to remain steadily at the sessions.

The Convention was the largest gathering of publishers ever held. Four hundred members were present and some of these travelled more than 3,000 miles (one way) to attend. The National Editorial Association of the United States held its convention in Florida during March. Up to that date it was the largest publishers' convention on record. Three hundred and sixty persons were in attendance, some of whom had travelled 1,800 miles to be present.

The Business Sessions

The business sessions of the convention were held June 9th and 10th in the magnificent Hotel Vancouver, owned and operated by the C. P. R. A large assembly hall was generously placed at our disposal by the management. Just a brief notation of the subjects up for discussion will suffice:—

"Should Weekly Newspapers have cost systems?" F.A.J. Davis, Carleton Place, Ont., Canadian. "The Difference in Costs Between Eastern and Western Publishing," L. J. Ball, Vernon, B. C., News. "Newspaper Costs as They Relate to the Subscriber and Advertiser," F. W. Kennedy, Seattle, Wash., Dean of the School of Journalism, Washington University. "What does it cost to set Display Advertisements?" J. G. Keefer, Norwood, Ont., Register. "The Job Department; Making it Pay," J. J. Hurley, Brantford, Ont., "Using Production as the Standard for Estimating and Costs," F. W. Kennedy. "Is the $2 Subscription for Weekly Newspapers too High?" Lorne A. Eedy, Walkerton, Ont., Telescope. "Soliciting Local Advertising," Fred Stevens, Hartland, N. B., Observer. "Obtaining a Paid-in-Advance Subscription List," Hugh Savage, Duncan, B. C., Cowichan Leader. "Some Impressions of the English Weekly Newspaper Business," W. R. Davies, Renfrew, Ont., Mercury. "Is the Editorial Column in the Weekly Newspaper Worth While?" J.J. Hurley, Brantford, Ont.

The Convention went on record as favoring Halifax as the place to hold the next annual gathering.

Mr. V. C. French, of the Times, Wetaskiwin, Alta., was elected President, A. R. Brannan, of the Journal, Summerside, P. E. I., 1st Vice-President, and J. E. Fortin, of L'Eclaireur, Beauceville, Que., 2nd Vice-President.

Western Newspapers Extend Welcoming Hand.

The daily papers of Vancouver were very generous in the space they gave in their various editions to the meetings of the Convention. Column after column was printed, the majority of the papers and addition all the dailies in the large cities where the C. W. N. A. special stopped both going and coming were equally liberal, varying both editorial matter and news stories telling of the work of the C. W. N. A. and describing the trip. The attitude of the Western newspapers was in marked contrast to that of the Toronto press which gave the tour very little attention either when the special left Toronto or upon its return. Once again has the Toronto press added to its reputaton of being blind to everything which is not specially designed to increase Toronto's own greatness or add to its power.

Moving Picturers of the Trip

Moving pictures of the trip were taken all along the line and are now being shown on the screen throughout Canada. Particularly good are those of the Canadian National Pictorial showing the party at Jasper Park having unch, riding the ponies, going up to Maigne Canyon, canoeing, etc. Splendid pictures were also secured of the clam-bake at Jericho Beach, Vancouver.

Entertainment for the party was provided by the British Columbia Institute of Journalists, and the chief feature was a clambake near Jericho Beach. There those who cared to reveled in fresh baked clams and crabs with the necessary accompaniment of sandwiches, cake, ice cream, and soft drinks. Each member of the party had fastened to his clothing a clam shell, with place and date inscribed on it and attached to a ribbon. After the clambake, there was an entertainment by a company from one of the theatres and a bonfire.

On Friday evening the party was taken for a drive along the Marine Drive and had pointed out the beauties of Stanley Park, with its mammoth fir trees and other attractions. English Bay, Shaughnessy Heights—the exclusive residential section—and other points To listen to the guide in some of the sight-seeing busses is not the least part of the entertainment for the visitors. Passing the city hall he drones "This is the city hall, the name does not appear because the city is ashamed of it; we are going to have a new building when Germany pays the war indemnity." Another time, "This is the most dangerous spot in the city; nine lives were lost here last night—the C. P. R. ran over a cat." The smallest youngsters look up from their play long enough to about "rubber necks" as the car passes.

Friday evening the party attended the Capitol Theatre as guests of the management.

Among the many points of interest within easy access of Vancouver is Capilano Canyon. Visiting this point one of the thrills is a walk over a narrow suspension bridge which crosses the canyon. We did not hear how high or how long it was but if we were asked after our experience on it we would guess it at 500 feet high and half a mile long. These figures are exaggerations, of course, but with every step the bottom comes up and meets your foot half way to the accompaniment of a swaying motion which makes progress slow as well as nerve-racking. When we were in the middle of it the thought occurred that it would be an excellent place to learn to shimmy. If one moves at all any other motion is impossible.

During our stay in Vancouver we had the pleasure of meeting a large number of former Ontario friends and acquaintances now resident in the city. We received a hearty greeting from Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Armstrong, formerly of Caledon and Orangeville, who entertained us at their home and to a motor trip thro' the city. Mr. Armstrong is building houses in the city and reported business quite brisk. We had also a delightful conversation with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Duke and family. Mr. Duke, who is a prominent B. C. Orangeman, is an old Mono boy and a brother of Mr. Wilson Duke, of that township. Mr. John A. McMaster, oldest son of Mrs. Jas. McMaster, First Ave., is running a large rooming house on Hastings St. Miss Mina Emslie, formerly of Marshall Green & Co.'s staff, has a dry goods business of her own and does an extensive trade. Her sister, Mrs. Clark, is also a resident of the city. Mr. James Stevenson, connected with the Stevenson Woollen Mills on East Broadway and a member of the Dufferin Lacrosse Club in the early days, is now manager of Motor Cars, Limited, at the corner of Granville and Pacific streets. Geo. W. and Douglas Endacott, sons of Sheriff and Mrs. H. Endacott, are officers in the British Columbia Horse and were both away at camp while we were in the city. Mrs. Stevens, another resident of the city, will be remembered by many of our Orangeville readers as Miss Maggie Paisley. Mrs. A. S. Swan was before marriage Miss Edna Chapman, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Chapman, of Toronto, formerly of Orangeville. We had a pleasant meeting with Miss Rebena Morris, daughter of Rev. W. M. Morris, late pastor of St. Andrew's Church here. Miss Morris is engaged in social service work in the Vancouver Community House, an institution maintained by the Presbyterian Church. Other old-time friends whom we were privileged to meet included Mrs. Thos. Stevenson and her daughter, Miss Kathleen, Mrs. John Clark (nee Minnie Ketchum), Lindsay and Will Morrison, Will Bradley, a son of the late Postmaster J. F. Bradley, Capt. Hugh Brewster, now living retired in the city, and W. Donaghy, a Vancouver lawyer, who attended High School in Orangeville and afterwards practiced law here for a short time. Mr. Burton Slough, a cousin of Mrs. A. D. McKitrick, is in the C. P. R. passenger department in Vancouver and was on our train as far east as Banff. We also met and had a pleasant talk with Mrs. Hodson, a niece of Mr. J. W. Aiken, West Broadway. We also enjoyed meeting Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McClellan, of Port Hammond, B. C., who spent a day with us in Vancouver. They are both looking well and enjoying excellent heath.

SUNBURN

KEEP CHILDREN WELL DURING HOT WEATHER

Every mother knows how fatal the hot summer months are to small children. Cholera infantum, diarrhoea, dysentry, colic and stomach troubles are rife at this time and often a precious little life is lost after only a few hours illness. The mother who keeps Baby's Own Tablets in the house feels safe. The occasional use of the Tablets prevents stomach and bowel troubles, or if the trouble comes suddenly—as it generally does—the Tablets will bring the baby safely through. They are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25c. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

PETERSON-FARNELL

The home of Mrs. H. S. Farnell, of Laurel, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, August 10th, at high noon, when her second youngest daughter, Viola Winnifred, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Wm. A. Peterson, son of Mr. B. Peterson, of Shelburne. The nuptial knot was tied by the Rev. W. J. Tribble, of Shelburne, in the presence of about fifty guests, immediate friends of the bride and groom. The bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Wm. J. Farnell, entered the drawing room to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, which was played by Miss Audrey Hoare, of Brampton. She was unattended and was attired in a beautiful gown of ivory satin, daintily beaded. Her veil was caught up by orange blossoms and old family pearls and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern. The groom's gift to the bride was a cabinet of community silver and to the pianiste a gold chain and pendant set with pearls. After the usual greetings the bride led the way to the dining room, where a sumptuous wedding repast was served. The happy couple left on the 5.30 train for Toronto, amid showers of confetti. The bride wore a travelling suit of navy blue tricotine with navy hat to match, trimmed with grey, and grey shoes. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm on lot 28, 5th line, Amaranth. The gifts to the bride were both numerous and costly, showing the esteem in which the young couple are held. Before leaving her position in Toronto, the bride-to-be was given an aluminium shower by the employees of her office and her girl friends.

For Economical Transportation

THE more a man knows about automobiles, the more experience he himself has had with them, the more critical he is apt to be of their essential features.

To satisfy this class of motorists is the chief motive of Chevrolet construction and equipment.

It is to this element therefore that the convenience of operation, accessibility and equipment, the dependability and economy of the Chrevolet makes its greatest appeal.

Healthy, Happy Boys and Girls

IS your child healthy? Is he or she up to standard weight, of good color, with plenty of rich, red blood to nourish the growing tissues?

For children who are thin, pale, anaemic, under weight, nervous, restless, sleepless, Dr. Chases' Nerve Food is of the greatest benefit imaginable.

Being mild and gentle in action, and yet wonderfully patent as a restorative, it soon makes the blood rich and builds up the feeble nerves.

50 cents a box, 6 for $2.75, all dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Ltd., Toronto.

Dr Chase's Nerve Food

DO YOU KNOW HIM?

Even the Byng Boys will hardly recognize their former leader in the above. It is, however, Lord Byng's very latest picture, specially posed for the Canadian National Exhibition, a few days before he sailed for Canada, for reproduction on a medal commemorating the opening of the 1921 Fair, over which he will preside on Aug. 27. Divested of his military attire the new Governor-General looks a very different person to the stern soldier Canadians knew through his war photos.

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

THE TORTURES OF RHEUMATISM

Happily Stopped When He Began To Take "Fruit-a-tives"

3 Ottawa St., Hull, P. Q.

"For a year, I suffered with Rheumatism, being forced to stay in bed for five months. I tried all kinds of medicine without relief and thought I would never be able to walk again.

One day while lying in bed, I read about "Fruit-a-tives" the great fruit medicine; and it seemed just what I needed, so I decided to try it.

The first box helped me, and I took the tablets regularly until every trace of the Rheumatism left me."

A couple of Scotch girls have been doing the people of Simcoe and Hespeler by selling the natives blue and grey serge. They generally stated that there were 8 yards in the piece, and asked $20. They sold as low as $13.75. When examined by the tailors, the goods were proved to be worthless, nearly pure shoddy. They said that they had intended having the goods made up for themselves, but were out of work and were going to Detroit. They have sold hundreds of pieces.

LIFE LOST BY DOUBLING OF PENSION

The doubling of this man's pension had played upon his mind and caused mental derangement, said the deputy coroner at Liverpool on Tuesday, in returning a verdict of suicide whilst insane, in the case of Henry Ludlam, 42, who served in the Garrison Artillery during the war. Recently he appeared before a medical board, and his pension was doubled. This made him think his condition had become worse and on Sunday he was found dead in his bedroom, having hanged himself.

The Community Sing in which all people in the grand stand join will be repeated at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

Thessalon Advocate: Did you ever see a man 64 years of age who never saw a picture show? Well, such an unusual person attended the Empire Theatre Thursday night last and laughed and cried and "whooped" and became terribly excited and would have made mince-meat of the villian darned quick, if he could have got hold of him. This was Indian Chief John LaPoint, of Drummond's Island. The Chief came next day to tell the Advocate man about it. He can speak good English, and he made it very plain to us this was the most wonderful experience he has had in his long life, and if it was possible he'd go and see the pictures every night. John is by this time relating his experience to the dusky braves, maidens and big-eyed papooses on the island, and we wouldn't be surprised if the whole band would come over and attend the Empire en masse one of those days.

Canadian National Exhibition Park has a value of $5,000,000 and the buildings an additional $3,000,000, without the new Arena.

You Save Every Way—

Quality maintains economy. No matter how much you pay "per gallon" for other lubricating oils you get more lubrication "per dollar" when you buy Imperial Polarine Motor Oils.

MORE mileage from every gallon of fuel and quart of oil; uninterrupted service from your car; slower depreciation; fewer repair bills and no lubrication trouble, just about sums up the savings and satisfaction enjoyed by users of Imperial Polarine Motor Oils.

The uniform high quality of Imperial Polarine Motor Oils, wherever you buy them, insures you more miles of correct motor lubrication for your dollar than you can obtain in any other way. Quality does maintain economy.

Our Chart of Recommendations shows the grade of Imperial Polarine Oils required to correctly lubricate your car. Use this grade exclusively and you will get the years of service and satisfaction which you have a right to expect from your car.

Consult our Chart at your dealer's or write to 56 Church Street, Toronto, for a copy of "Automotive Lubrication," which contains the complete Chart and other useful information.

FOR A CLEAN EFFICIENT MOTOR

Not even Imperial Polarine Motor Oils will lubricate properly if mixed with grit and dirt. Your crank-case should be thoroughly cleaned every thousand miles or less. Dealers displaying the sign to the left will clean your crank-case in an expert and workman-like manner. Such dealers use Imperial Flushing Oil, the modern scientific cleansing agent. Employ crank-case service regularly and you will save hundreds of dollars every year.

SOUSA ORDERS MANY KIDD GLOVES

An order for $6,000 worth of white kid gloves was recently placed with a New York City shop by John Philip Sousa, the march king. The contract calls for 100 dozens pairs to be delivered as wanted. REPORT
OF
The National Educational Association
HELD AT
DES MOINES, IOWA, JULY 3rd-8th, 1921.

To the Members of the Executive,—

Allow me to express my appreciation of the privilege afforded me of attending the National Educational Association, held at Des Moines, July 3rd to 8th. It was of great inspirational and educational value to me personally and I hope to be able to make it worth while for the Trustees' and Ratepayers' Association. I may say I conceived it to be my mission, while there, to examine the Constitution of the Association and to learn something from their manner of conducting a Convention. I therefore lost no opportunity to get into conversation with the officers of the Association, State and County Superintendents and Teachers.

CONSTITUTION OF THE N. E. A.

The Constitution of the N. E. A. differs from that of the O. E. A. in that it is composed entirely of those who are actively engaged in the profession of teaching or other educational work, while the O. E. A. has had a Department of School Trustees for the past thirty-five years. The American Association is only fifty-nine years old, while that in Ontario passed its sixtieth birthday last Easter. It was my privilege to bring them the greeting from an older sister. There are eighteen departments of the American Association, including Business Education, Child Hygiene, Class Room Teachers, Educational Publications, Elementary Education, Higher Education, Kindergarten Education, Library, Music Education, Normal Education, Physical Education, School Administration, Rural Education, School Patrons and a Department of the wider use of school houses. There are as many Departments and Sections in the O. E. A., including one for School Trustees and Ratepayers, which has passed its thirty-fifth birthday.

This point of difference between the two associations greatly impressed your Secretary with the fact that the Canadian method of dealing with educational problems is based on a sounder and more democratic principle. The Trustees and Ratepayers represent the owners of the school system more nearly than do the Teachers, who may be regarded as the employees of the School Boards. It is a more hopeful sign for the future of education in Canada to know that the shareholders of the educational plants in most of our provinces meet annually and assume responsibility for the improvement of our educational facilities. This is more in evidence in the western provinces where the Trustees' Association overshadows all other educational gatherings. They will have more influence with the rank and file of the people and with the governing bodies of the various provinces than associations of teachers could possibly have.

AFFILIATED ASSOCIATIONS

The Educational Association of a State, territory or district may become affiliated with the National Educational Association and be a State unit by paying the annual dues of $10.00 for each delegate to which the said State shall be entitled. Any local Association may affiliate with the National Educational Association by paying the annual dues of $5.00. These State and Local Associations shall receive all regular publications of the National Educational Association, including the volume of proceedings.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF EDUCATION

This Council shall consist of one hundred and twenty regular members selected from the active members of the National Educational Association. Any active member of the N. E. A. is entitled to membership in the Council and each member shall be elected for six years. The annual election of members of the Council shall be held at the time of the Annual meeting of the Association.

The purpose of the National Council of Education shall be to discuss educational questions of public and professional interest; to propose to the Executive Committee, from time to time, suitable subjects for investigation and research; to have a report at the Annual meeting on "Educational Progress During the Past Year," and in other ways to use its best efforts to further the objects of the Association and to promote the cause of education in general.

FINANCES OF THE ASSOCIATION

There is one feature of the American Association that should stimulate greater activity amongst the Trustees and Ratepayers of Ontario as well as those of the Western Provinces of Canada. Out of the 700,000 teachers in the U. S. A. they have a membership, on the basis of a $2.00 fee, of 75,000. This fee is paid, I understand, by the teachers themselves, and not by any school board or other association on their behalf. Besides these they have a Life Membership list of 4,600 men and women, who are sufficiently interested in the work of the Association to contribute $100.00 each, thus adding to the revenue $460.000. They estimate that not less than 300 Life Memberships will be taken out each year and thus constantly increase the permanent endowment fund of the Association. These Life Members have all the rights and privileges of active members without payment of annual dues, and shall receive all the publications of the Association. Their revenue from membership fees is therefore $150,000, plus the interest on $460,000, which constitutes a permanent fund.

There were 6,000 teachers in attendance at the Convention. I was informed that these delegates, for the most part, paid all their own expenses and that it must have cost approximately $600,000 to finance their railway and hotel expenses. It impressed your Secretary as a hopeful sign for the future of American schools to learn that so many teachers would invest so generously in means and effort for the improvement of National Education. It is a great challenge to us in Ontario. If we, who are the Trustees and Ratepayers and owners of the system in Ontario, have anything like the same enthusiasm for the training of our youth for citizenship, there should be no difficulty in financing and carrying out a splendid programme for the improvement of education in the Province of Ontario. We are empowered to draw on Public School funds to meet these expenses. Besides the Legislature has voted us a grant of $10,000. An unprecedented opportunity is afforded us of keeping Ontario in the van of education on the Continent.

THE NATIONAL OBJECTIVE OF THE ASSOCIATION

The American teachers are carrying on a National Campaign for the purpose of creating a Department of Education in the Federal Government and to authorize the appropriation of money to encourage the States in the promotion and support of education. This Department of Education shall conduct studies and investigations upon, Illiteracy, Immigrant Education, Rural Education, Physical Education and many other branches for the purpose of improving the schools of the Nation.

This objective is incorporated in the Towner-Stirling Bill that has been before Congress nearly a year. The Bill asks for the following appropriations:—

To remove illiteracy among the American born	$ 7,500.00
For the instruction of immigrants in language and citizenship	7,500.00
To equalize educational opportunities in the various States	50,000.00
For the promotion of physical education	20,000.00
To encourage the preparation of teachers for P. School service	15,000.00

This Educational Bill has met with considerable opposition since its introduction. However, as the opposition became more violent, friends of the measure multiplied in number and became more earnest and enthusiastic in their support. Unfortunately efforts have been put forth by persons in positions of influence and power to displace the educational bills by a Department of Public Welfare in which education would be submerged as one sub-division along with various other unrelated interests. Such procedure might have been successful had not the friends of education rallied to the support of their cause. The National Educational Association has no objection to the creation of a Department of Public Welfare, but insists that education should be taken out of the proposed department and given independence and primary recognition.

THE PROGRAMME

Your Secretary attended three sessions daily for three days and listened to thirty-three addresses. A part of one afternoon was devoted to business, when a few of the audience took part in discussion. The addresses were all of a high order and ready for the printer before delivered. A full report of the addresses and proceedings will be published shortly. It would be impossible to give a synopsis of the programme without making this report too lengthy.

One feature of the programme that impressed me most was the Pageant of American Citizenship. This was presented by 75 men and women, who were foreign born and residents in the U. S. A. less than one year. They are in attendance at evening classes in the Public Schools of Des Moines, where they are taking a general course to fit themselves for American citizenship. Sixteen nationalities were represented, Holland, Poland, Roumania, England, Sweden, Norway, Italy, Phillipine Islands, Lithuania, Spanish-Indian, Armenia, Denmark, Austria, Belgium, Mexico and Greece. The stage was gorgeously decorated with American flags and a large map of the U. S. A., 12 feet by 8 feet, constructed by foreigners. It was a very impressive affair and will no doubt have a great influence upon education in the U. S. A. If this attitude is assumed towards the immigrants in all parts of the U. S. A. it will be the greatest factor in their assimilation to American citizenship. Nobody appreciated this part of the programme more than the participants themselves. When they sang the American National Anthem at the conclusion, one could see the tears in the eyes of some of these immigrants. They rejoiced in the spirit of freedom afforded them in this new land of Liberty. Whether six thousand teachers in attendance at this Convention will carry the message of the Pageant to every State in the Union. It is inevitable that immigrants will come to this continent so rich with natural resources. It is ours to assimilate them and instead of calling them names, nasty names, we should use our influence and our educational system to develop their talents and help them fit themselves for citizenship.

EXHIBITS

Another feature of the N. E. A. that impressed your Secretary was the Department of Exhibits. These were not only of educational value but a source of revenue to the Association. The Convention city placed its largest auditorium at the disposal of the Association and also provided a building to accommodate a large number of exhibits of publishing houses and manufacturers, who took this opportunity of displaying their goods. In this building there were exhibitions of Child Welfare, Stereopticons, Mimeographs, School Furniture and Equipment, Musical Instruments, Literature of various Publishing Houses and Visual Education. Each of these exhibitors rented a stall and the Association estimated a revenue of $11,000 from this feature of the Convention. Over $1,000 worth of space was applied for beyond the amount available.

There were many other features of the Convention and much information obtained by conversation, concerning Consolidation, Supervision and Financing of schools, that your Secretary would like to report upon, but realizes that from our point of view quite sufficient has been said. Consolidation of schools is not so popular in the older settled States of the East as in the newer Western States. I was surprised to find that more than half of the County Superintendents, or Inspectors, are women, and that in some States politics is a large factor in determining the appointment of State and County Superintendents.

I hope this account of the Des Moines Convention may be of benefit to you in making a contribution to the welfare of education in the Province.

Sincerely yours,
W. M. MORRIS.

KEEN RACING

Splendid Trotting Featured the Orangeville Race Meet Last Week.

Splendid racing featured the Orangeville Driving Club's two day Meet on Exhibition Park on Wednesday and Thureday, August 10th and 11th. There were nearly fifty horses here for the Races and as a result of the unusually large entry large fields were quite the order of the Meet. This was particularly the case on Wednesday afternoon, when all three events brought out large fields of competitors. The spectators got more than the worth of their money, as split heats occurred in every race. The classified race went six heats before Flossie K. was finally declared the winner over All Expense. Only the two winners faced the starter in the final and deciding heat. Peter Ine, owned by Fields, of Hamilton, won the 2.50 pace and Jack Canuck, one of the Overland string, landed the 2.16 event after a hard struggle with Francis Earl, a United States entry owned in Rochester, N. Y. A fairly large crowd witnessed the racing and was delighted with the splendid programme. The following is the summary for the opening day:—

2.16 pace, purse $400—

Jack Canuck, Overland, Orangeville	2	2	1	1	1
Francis Earl, Sanderson, Rochester, N. Y.	1	1	2	2	2
Tony the Hero, Browntree, Weston	3	4	3	4	4
Bertha Walsh, Moffatt, Elmvale	4	3	5	3	3
Billy Hal, Marsh, New Hamburg	5	5	4	dr

Time, 2.17 1-4, 2.15 1-2, 2.17 1-2, 2.16 3-4, 2.17 1-2.

Classified race, purse $400—

Flossie K, Robinson, Toronto	2	1	2	3	1 1

Time, 2.21 1-4, 2.21 1-4, 2.22 1-4, 2.22 1-4, 2.23 1-4.

What promised to be a most successful day's racing was terminated at the end of the fourth heat on Thursday afternoon, when rain, which had been falling intermittently since early in the forenoon, made the track so muddy that the officials were constrained to call off further racing. The prize money was divided among the horses as they stand in the summary which follows. A large crowd was on hand to witness the sport, which consisted of two events, the 2.18 trot and the 2.22 pace. On account of the weather and the unsatisfactory condition of the track, the 2.13 pace did not fill. Six good horses faced Starter Snow in the 2.18 trot. Baron Todd, who seemed quite at home in the heavy going, won both heats, with Mattie Tipton second in each case. An even dozen started in the 2.22 pace. Jimmie B. proved the best of the lot in both heats. Bob Abdell and Charlie Chaplin divided second and third money. The summary follows:—

2.18 trot, purse $400—

Baron Todd, Marsh, New Hamburg	1	1
Mattie Tipton, Proctor, T'nto	1	1
Dean Todd, Hodgins, Orillia	4	3
The Baronet, McDowell, Toronto	3	6
Gossett Bird, Paterson, T'onto	3	6

Time, 2.19 1-4, 2.19 1-2.

THE CAUSE OF BACKACHE

Only In Rare Cases Does Backache Mean Kidney Trouble.

Every muscle in the body needs constantly a supply of rich, red blood in proportion to the work it does. The muscles of the back are under a heavy strain and have but little rest. When the blood is thin they lack nourishment, and the result is a sensation of pain in those muscles. Some people think pain in the back means kidney trouble, but the best medical authorities agree that backache seldom or never has anything to do with the kidneys. Organic kidney disease may have progressed to a critical point without developing a pain in the back. This being the case, pain in the back should always lead the sufferer to look to the condition of his blood. It will be found in most cases that the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to build up the blood will stop the sensation of pain in the ill-nourished muscles of the back. How much better it is to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the blood than to give way to unreasonable alarm about your kidneys. If you suspect your kidneys any doctor can make tests in ten minutes that will set your fears at rest, or tell you the worst. But in any event to be perfectly healthy you must keep the blood in good condition, and for this purpose no other medicine can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.

You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BLOUNT

On August 10th the Blount Institute spent a very enjoyable afternoon at the home of Mrs Chas. Crombie. Minutes of the last regular meeting of the Institute were read and adopted. Miss Crombie gave a short address on the work taken up at the Guelph School for Rural Leadership. Rev. Mr. Dinnick contributed an excellent Paper on Community Slackers and Personal Slackers. He said that there were just two kinds of people in the world—the Helper and the Leaner. When Moses was asked to speak to the Children of Israel he said that Aaron could speak better than he could, when he could have spoken just as well as his brother. The speaker told of the joy that Thomas missed by not being present when the Lord appeared unto the disciples. Games were conducted by Miss Crombie and prizes presented to the successful contestants. Mrs. Geo. Crozier gave an interesting Paper on the Life and Habits of the people of New Zealand. An instrumental solo was contributed by Miss M. Dodds. After dainty refreshments had been served by the hostess the meeting closed with all present repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison.

PRIMROSE

Hello, there, Mr. Editor, just a few items, as it is some time since you have heard from our burg.

Harvesting is the order of the day and some of our farmers intend finishing next week.

Mr. Henry Walker has purchased a new engine from the Wateroo Manufacturing Company and will have it in commission for the season's threshing.

Perry Lindsay says that he thinks that school teaching will be a better job than farming after the summer vacation is over.

Trueman Thompson still makes his regular trips to David Horner's.

We wonder if Roy Wilson has made any week-end trips to Newton Robinson of late. Sucess, Roy.

It is reported that Charlie Foster has a notion of taking a course in the Orangeville Hospital.

Angus Bell says he likes olives, but bull dogs he does not care for.

We understand that Mr. Lyttle Thompson, whose days are just about numbered, is going to cage the bird in the near future. As he is still a youth both blithe and gay, we wish him the best of luck.

LOCAL NEWS.

—Grand Valley Council has struck a 40 mill tax rate.

—It was almost cold enough for frost on Sunday night.

—Mr. G. Beswick is treating the front of his furniture store to a coating of new paint.

—Mr. T. J. Robinson is raising and putting a foundation under his dwelling house on Zina St.

—Harvesting is nearly over in this district. The oat crop is a comparative failure. It is doubtful if the yield will be 50 per cent. of an average crop.

—Orangeville Fall Fair Prize List will be ready for distribution by the end of this week. Parties wishing to secure a copy of the List are invited to apply to the Secretary, Mr. D. B. Brown.

—Writing to The Banner from Wolseley, Sask., on August 8th, Mr. Harry Walker, formerly of Mono, states that harvesting will be general on August 10th. The crops, he describes, as heavy and tangled. There has been a lot of rain, too much in fact, in the Wolseley district this year. There is some rust, but not enough to injure the yield to any extent.

—Amaranth Voters' List is off the press and will reach the hands of Township Clerk E. Hamilton this week.

—Rev. J. R. Bell, of Toronto, who has been visiting his son, Mr. Logie Bell, First St., for the last two weeks, occupied the pulpit at both services in St. Andrew's Church last Sabbath. Mr. Bell preached excellent sermons and was greeted by large congregations. His hearers in the evening included quite a number from his former congregation at Laurel.

—The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith, near Cataract, was entered one Sunday recently while they were absent from home. The visitor annexed a purse containing some $20 in cash. A stranger, who travels under the high sounding name of Clarence Percival Fairchild, was arrested at Cataract Junction on the charge of taking the purse. Chief Herkes, of Brampton, made the arrest and saw that Percival was safely lodged in Brampton jail.

DIED IN CAR

James McEwing, of Drayton, Met Sudden Death While Motoring Home From Orangeville on Monday Evening.

Mr. Jas. McEwing, of Drayton, Adjuster and General Manager of the Peel and Maryborough Mutual Insurance Co. and for many years a prominent figure in North Wellington politics, met with a tragic death while motoring home from Orangeville on Monday evening. Mr. McEwing had come to town earlier in the day to meet Mr. Geo. Wilkins, local representative of his Company, for the purpose of adjusting some fire losses. He left Orangeville about 5.30 p.m., made a business call in East Garafraxa and then started out for home. While passing Mr. Elton Ferns' place on the Gravel Road in East Garafraxa, between six and seven miles from Orangeville, his daughter, Miss Nellie, who was driving the car, noticed that her father had apparently fainted. She drove the car into Mr. Ferns' place, where the seemingly lifeless body was removed to the house. Dr. Kyles, who was summoned by telephone, arrived from Orangeville a little later, but life was extinct long before he arrived. After a careful examination he pronounced it a case of heart failure and expressed the opinion that Mr. McEwing was already dead when his daughter first noticed that something untoward had happened. Word was at once sent to a son who lives on the family homestead near Drayton. Later at night he arrived at Mr. Ferns' place accompanied by the Drayton undertaker, who took charge of the remains and conveyed them to Drayton, where arrangements were made for the funeral.

The deceased was a large, fleshy man and was about 71 years of age. His wife died about three years ago and he is survived by a family of two sons and three daughters. Mr. McEwing was a prominent figure in North Wellington politics for a number of years and represented his constituency in the Ontario Legislature some years ago. He was a Liberal in politics.

Miss Verna Youmans, of Drayton, is holidaying with friends in town.

Miss M. Dunning, of Toronto, was a visitor in town Tuesday and yesterday.

Mrs. W. J. Lawrason, of St. George, and Miss Stella Campbell, of Markham High School staff, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Campbell, 1st Ave.

GEORGE F. MALTBY

Following an illness of two weeks from stomach trouble George F. Maltby passed away at his residence, 774 St. Clair Ave., Toronto, early on Monday morning. Deceased, who was in his 65th year, moved from Hillsburg to Toronto a year ago and was living retired in the city. For forty years he was engaged in blacksmithing in Hillsburg. He is survived by his widow and three sons. The latter are W. M. Maltby, a druggist on St. Clair Ave., E. R. Maltby, of Buffalo, and Melrose Maltby. The remains were taken to Hillsburg for burial, interment taking place in Huxley's Cemetery yesterday afternoon.

Switzerland in Canada

The Home of a Swiss Guide at Edelweiss, B.C.

A very successful attempt at introducing the Swiss-chalet type of architecture into the Canadian Rockies has been carried out at the village of Edelweiss.

Miniatures chalets of the Alps here blend in with the Canadian landscape in the side-hills above Golden as though part of it. The "Swiss-lines" of the little cottages themselves are further enhanced by the use of rustic bridges and handrailings leading up to the cottages clinging one above another over high or in true "excelsior" fashion.

It is customary in the very name of his swift passing for the tourists sitting by the window of the speeding "through train" to catch only a glimpse of this hybrid among villages.

Yet, the natural human-interest felt in the Real Swiss guide at Lake Louise who safely conducts you to The Great Glacier; to The Valley of the Ten Peaks and by other of these entrancing "Trails" abounding around "The Lakes in the Clouds" must often have aroused your curiosity as to where these wonderful mountaineers live when off duty. And you must often have found yourself speculating as to the home-life of the "Guide" so calmly and with such perfect assurance playing the hazardous double-call of "Trail-Maker" and "Trail-Master."

This foreigner is a specialist. And the fact that his knowledge of our own Mountains is on such greater than the average Canadian's gives him an added interest. At the same time the Swiss Guide represents in his mountaineering a gift of Switzerland to us. . . . A happy gift indeed when one thinks of it as a friendly holding out of experience gained in her mountains, a neighborly gift of knowledge which may help to interpret the Canadian Rockies in many of their most complicated and beautiful but "difficult" passages to us, who have so little time. . . . a week or two at most of summer holidaying . . . in which to learn the gigantic secrets of these marvellous "Rocks."

Trailing the human interest story of these Swiss Guides leads one straight to . . . Edelweiss. Straight to its revelation of the established presence of the Swiss chalet in Canada.

It leads one too, to a little family gathering of happy wives and little children. The happier for the feeling of home given by the resemblance which these their homes in the West, bear to the cottage, climbing the mountain-side, somewhere over there in the old land of Alpine Switzerland where fathers and mothers and sisters and brothers, still live.

No one would claim that Edelweiss is perfect from the architectural viewpoint. That would be absurd. Rather it has the happy title imperfections which must ever attend beginnings.

It is a pleasure to learn that the business of the bootlegger is likely to come to a sudden end in the near future. This happy consummation will not be due to the bootlegger himself, or to any desire on his part to get out of the nefarious traffic on which he has thrived for the last four years, but to the exhaustion of the liquor supply so necessary to the success of his activities. Available stocks are running low and there is no underground route by which it might be possible to replenish these stocks. Some smuggled liquor is finding its way into the Province, but the quantity is said to be negligible, with no prospect that it will ever become large enough to supply the bootleggers' needs. Faced with a growing scarcity of liquor the bootlegger has only one alternative and that is to get out of the business. He cannot retire too quickly to suit the law-abiding people of Ontario, who are completely disgusted with this particular class of gentry and the evil line of business they carry on.

Emerson and the Young Poet.

A good story told of the late W. D. Howells, the famous American critic and man of letters, is of the time when, as a young man, his ambition was to be a poet. He saw all the great Americans — Longfellow, Lowell, Emerson, Hawthorne, and Holmes. When he saw Emerson and mentioned his ambition to him, the distinguished essayist observed: "One may pass an hour or two very pleasantly over poetry." But this did not discourage Howells, and he had the satisfaction of seeing some of his poems published by Lowell in the Atlantic Monthly, and Howells subsequently became sub-editor and editor of this great journal.

HAS NO PAIN NOW

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Kiever.

Vancouver, B.C.—"I am pleased to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a lot of good. I can now walk about without the aid of a support and feel real strong again. A nurse advised me to take the Vegetable Compound and it is certainly helping me. It seems like Heaven to be relieved after months of pain."—Mrs. H. W. Baker, 2074 10th Ave. West, Vancouver, B.C.

Albert Co., N. B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines and they have done me a lot of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as we live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this may help some one else."—Mrs. Wm. B. Kiever, Upper New Horton, Albert Co., N.B.

The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

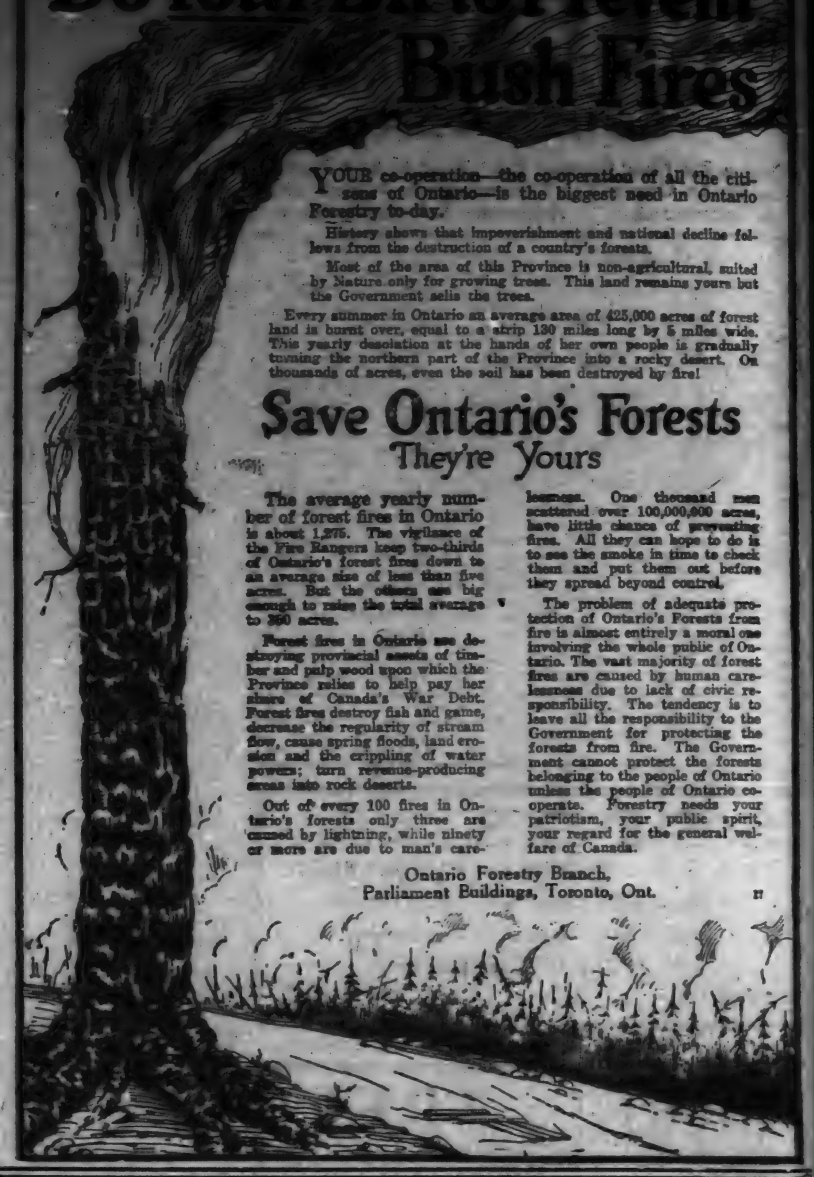
Do Your Bit to Prevent Bush Fires



YOUR co-operation—the co-operation of all the citizens of Ontario—is the biggest need in Ontario Forestry to-day.

History shows that impoverishment and national decline follows from the destruction of a country's forests.

Most of the area of this Province is non-agricultural, suited by Nature only for growing trees. This land remains yours but the Government sells the trees.

Every summer in Ontario an average area of 425,000 acres of forest land is burnt over, equal to a strip 130 miles long by 5 miles wide. This yearly desolation at the hands of her own people is gradually turning the northern part of the Province into a rocky desert. On thousands of acres, even the soil has been destroyed by fire!

Save Ontario's Forests

They're Yours

The average yearly number of forest fires in Ontario is about 1,275. The vigilance of the Fire Rangers keep two-thirds of Ontario's forest fires down to an average size of less than five acres. But the others are big enough to raise the total average to 350 acres.

Forest fires in Ontario are destroying provincial assets of timber and pulp wood upon which the Province relies to help pay her share of Canada's War Debt. Forest fires destroy fish and game, decrease the regularity of stream flow, cause spring floods, land erosion and the crippling of water powers; turn revenue-producing areas into rock deserts.

Out of every 100 fires in Ontario's forests only three are caused by lightning, while ninety or more are due to man's carelessness. One thousand men scattered over 100,000,000 acres, have little chance of preventing fires. All they can hope to do is to see the smoke in time to check them and put them out before they spread beyond control.

The problem of adequate protection of Ontario's Forests from fire is almost entirely a moral one involving the whole public of Ontario. The vast majority of forest fires are caused by human carelessness due to lack of civic responsibility. The tendency is to leave all the responsibility to the Government for protecting the forests from fire. The Government cannot protect the forests belonging to the people of Ontario unless the people of Ontario co-operate. Forestry needs your patriotism, your public spirit, your regard for the general welfare of Canada.

SAVIOUR OF LONDON

John Pomeroy, "the man who saved London," is the inventor of the explosive bullet that kept the German zeppelins from doing any more damage to London than they did. The British government gave him a reward of $25,000. He produced six other war inventions, and while in this country he will negotiate with this government regarding some of these inventions.

My dear Mr. Rachmaninoff:

Under a contract between yourself and Thomas A. Edison, Inc., dated the 24th of April, 1919, it is provided, in effect, that the royalties payable to you on various selections, which you have recorded for us, shall continue, only so long as you do not make phonographic recordings of such selections for anyone else.

I shall be very glad to give you permission to record these selections for others, without the loss of royalties under the aforesaid agreement. This will give you the opportunity to record your "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" and other important works, which you have already recorded for us.

Yours very truly,
Thos A Edison

Read this Letter

It is a reproduction of Mr. Edison's Letter to Rachmaninoff, the famous Russian composer-pianist.

Will any talking-machine company dare to let Rachmaninoff record his "Prelude in C Sharp Minor" and other famous compositions, which he has recorded for Edison? We fear that no talking-machine manufacturer will permit this deadly parallel. However, you do not have to wait. Rachmaninoff has recorded other selections for talking-machines. You can draw your own parallels.

Hear Rachmaninoff on the New Edison

Come to our store and hear Rachmaninoff exactly as he plays; then listen to him as he sounds on a talking-machine.

The New Edison is not a talking-machine. It is so much different from all talking-machines that Mr. Edison has offered $10,000 in prizes for phrases, which will best emphasize this difference. Ask for folder giving full particulars.

If you do not own a New Edison, ask us to lend you one for three days free trial. Act quickly, as the contest closes September 2nd. Fill out the coupon and mail or bring it to us.

MINISTER DISCUSSES HIS WIFE'S TROUBLES

Rev. A. H. Sykes, former pastor of the Watkins Park Presbyterian church Nashville, Tenn., says:

"After seeing what Tanlac has accomplished in my wife's case, I am convinced that it is a medicine of great power and extraordinary merit. I do not think I have seen anything give such prompt results. Mrs Sykes has been in delicate health for ten months, suffering from stomach trouble and nervous breakdown.

"I frequently sought medical advice but Tanlac is the only thing that gave her any relief. After taking the medicine only a short time, she was able to sit up and help with the household duties. I think it only a short time until her health will be fully restored."

Tanlac is sold in Orangeville by C. V. Jeffers, and by leading druggists everywhere.

An expenditure of approximately $800,000 is required each year to stage and prepare the Canadian National Exhibition.

The resourcefulness of the Irish is shown in their method of weighing without scales. "To weigh a pig," said an Irishman the other day, "all ye have to do is lay a plank across a sawhorse, place a big stone on one end of the plank and the pig on the other, then shift the plank until the two things balance. Then ye guess the weight of the stone and ye have the weight of the pig."

Clean to handle. Sold by all Druggists, Grocers and General Stores.

NOT "PUBLIC" SCHOOLS

"It is unfortunate," says the Catholic Register in its issue of July 14, "that our schools are referred to as 'Separate.' If they were called Catholic Public schools, which they are in reality, much misunderstanding would be removed, and there would be no excuse for special privileges claimed by the minority in Ontario."

If the editor of the Register had troubled to look up the word "public" in Webster's Dictionary he would have discovered it to mean "open to common or general use, relating to or affecting a nation, state or community at large." With such a definition before him he would have found it impossible to suggest the use of the term "Catholic Public schools." The Separate schools, as operated at present, are under the control of the Roman Catholic Church, and are attended by Roman Catholic children exclusively, the Roman religion being the only one taught by the nuns and Christian brothers who are employed as instructors. They are sectarian schools pure and simple, and will always remain so. As such they constitute a "special privilege" to the people of that faith. The term "Catholic Public schools," which the editor of the Register suggests, is a contradiction. He knows, however, that if such an expression could be brought into general use in Ontario it would be one step further in hoodwinking the people of the province into believing that the Separate schools occupy a position equal to that of the non-sectarian Public school system. It is a clever idea, but the citizens of Ontario are not so easily to be caught.—Orange Sentinel.

LET'S BUILD SOMETHING

It is notoriously easier to destroy than to build; to-day everyone seems to want to destroy, and no one to build. And at a time when there is nothing like agreement as to what it is we want to build on the cleared ground, the folly of pulling down ought to be doubly apparent. If we can check the craze for destroying all our imperfect institutions we may tide over a bad time, and come to something like an understanding of what it is we really want.

The scenery for this year's spectacle at the Canadian National Exhibition will be 800 feet long and in places 50 feet high.

Straight talk on Cream Separators by

J. E. SMITH & Co.
Orangeville, Ont. Canada.

De Laval cream makes the best butter

WHETHER you make butter yourself or sell butter-fat to a creamery, the value of your cream depends largely on the kind of butter it will make.

It is easy to prove that De Laval cream makes better butter. Every first prize awarded at the Conventions of the National Buttermakers' Association since it was started twenty-eight years ago, has gone to butter made by De Laval users, or from gathered cream largely De Laval-separated.

The De Laval Separator is more economy; its bowl runs at lower speed and delivers the butter-fat globules unbroken. It is used in practically all of the world's creameries, because it gives not only more cream but better cream as well. And the fact that the De Laval runs at lower speed adds years to its life.

Let us demonstrate to you why the De Laval is the World's Standard Cream Separator

THE PROVINCIAL HIGHWAY

Roadmaking operations on the Prince of Wales Road, now part of the Provincial Highway from Toronto to Owen Sound, are creating considerable local interest. A large steam shovel is operating opposite the McKitrick farm, lot 3, just north of the entrance to the Forest Lawn Cemetery, and is attracting many visitors from the town. The entire roadbed is being excavated to a depth varying from two to four feet. The excavated material is being used to widen the roadway along the flat nearer the town. An Italian Contracting Company has the job and the teamsters and shovellers are nearly all Italians. When The Banner visited the scene of operations last Saturday seven dump wagons were drawing the excavated material to the fill. The haul was very short, but the shovel could have kept another five teams busy without any trouble. Two shovels of earth filled a wagon to overflowing. There has been all kinds of speculation as to the reason for cutting down this particular grade, which was not at all steep and could have been left as it was. One reason given is the shortness of the haul to make the necessary fill along the flat to the south. Near the south end of the excavated piece of roadway the shovel ran into a mucky, springy bottom, which it is claimed will have to be filled in with stone before a good roadway can be built over it. The steam shovel is excavating about 500 yards a day and the cut will be completed about the middle of this week. The gang of Italians, who have been grading on the road for the last two months, are now working between 10 sideroad and Camilla. They moved from Orangeville a couple of weeks ago and are now domiciled in an unused house on lot 14, Prince of Wales Road, about a lot south of Camilla. A. N. Pratt's culvert gang have also moved their tents and outfit from lot 4 to lot 15 right at Camilla. Mr. Pratt is making good headway with the culvert work, having everything completed as far north as ten sideroad. He has three or four under construction in the next five lots and will be north of Camilla in the course of another week or ten days. All work is being done in thorough fashion and the Prince of Wales should be one of the model highways of the Province when the improvements are completed.

The famous Huntsville Band will appear for the week, August 29 to Sept. 3, at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Canadian music will be a feature at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

Lady Byng will be the guest of honor on Women's Day at the Canadian National Exhibition.

ANNUAL OUTING

Dufferin Old Boys Plan Big Time in Winnipeg.

The Dufferin County Old Boys' Association of Western Canada will hold its fourteenth Annual Midsummer Outing at Assiniboine Park, Winnipeg, on Saturday, September 3rd, commencing at 2.30 p.m.

A Committee, consisting of Bob Neely, Jim Braden and Jack Cumberland, is arranging to cook and serve 500 ears of corn; Hugh Watson, Drew Kilbourne, K. Maxwell, H. J. Petch and E. A. Braden, will look after the sports, and John Braden, J. C. McNabb and T. Bruce will have charge of picnic arrangements; while Mrs. J. T. Fisher, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. J. H. Braden, Mrs. Sheriff and Mrs. J. J. Rooney will be responsible for seeing to it that sufficient other viands are added to the corn to put every one in the best of humor.

Invitations will be sent out to Dufferin's eight Members of Parliament, namely:—John Best and T. K. Slack, Dufferin, R. H. Halbert, Ontario, J. A. Maharg and Harris Turner, Saskatchewan, D. B. Galbraith, Alberta, and Dr. George Clingan and E. A. August, Manitoba.

A cordial invitation is issued to all former and present Dufferinites, who can possibly do so, to join with the Manitoba contingent on this occasion.

Further particulars may be obtained from the Secretary, Easen Graham, Grain Exchange, or the President, Sam Newton, Legislative Buildings.

HYDRO FOR CALEDON

DUFFERINS WORSTED

Brampton Excelsiors Put Crimp in Championship Aspirations of the Green Shirts Last Saturday.

The Dufferins met with an unexpected reverse in their game with the Brampton Excelsiors on the latter's grounds last Saturday afternoon, the home team winning the game by 7 to 4. The defeat puts the locals out of the running for district honors unless Brampton can spring another surprise by beating Toronto-St. Simons in their game at the Beach next Saturday afternoon. If the Excelsiors can pull off another win in this game the Dufferins will still have a chance to tie with the group leaders. Otherwise they are down and out for this year.

It was recognized from the first that Saturday's game would prove a tough proposition as the Excelsiors had given the Dufferins a stiff argument on each of their previous meetings. The locals were not in the best of shape as the players were not over the effects of Wednesday's game with the Maitlands. Owing to the rain and the wet, slippery condition of the field the Wednesday game was a trying one on the team and undoubtedly slowed the most of the men considerably on Saturday afternoon. Ewing was not able to accompany the team on account of injuries received on Wednesday. The loss of the speedy and hard-working home fielder was severely felt. Blythe Brown was also handicapped by his injured ankle, which obliged him to retire for part of the game. We are making this explanation in simple justice to the Dufferins, without any intention of detracting from the merits of the Excelsiors, who played a great game after the first quarter. The home team was decidedly off color in the opening period and had the Dufferins been travelling at their usual gait they should have piled up a comfortable lead. The garnet shirts struck a lively pace after the first quarter and had the edge on the Dufferins for the remainder of the game. The story of the game is told in the following despatch from Brampton to The Globe:

Excelsiors handed a severe jolt to Orangeville's championship aspirations yesterday, when they won a clean-cut game by 7 to 4. The locals showed the best form of the season and brought back pleasant memories of their 1913-14 performances. At no stage of the game did the "Duffs" outplay the "Redshirts," but it was in the third quarter that the locals showed at their best. It was a hard checking, though clean game, and the visitors only drew one penalty.

The visitors scored first with Ingram on the bench. Gordon did the trick on a nice shot. There was no more scoring in that quarter, although the "Redshirts" missed several splendid opportunities. H. Sproule tied the score in the second period, while Rod Anderson beat Booth a few minutes later and Excelsiors went ahead one. The same player made it three on a pretty backhand shot after the "Duffs" had tied the score again.

The Excelsiors made life merry for Booth in the third quarter and N. Anderson bounced in the fourth goal from close to the nets. Clever combination earned the fifth one, Charters scoring. Again and again the "Redshirts" attacked and their efforts were rewarded when Booth failed to stop Cudmore's fast shot. The last quarter was a repetition of the previous two, with the locals the aggressors. Booth saved sensationally time and again. The locals' fast home combined, and with an odd man, G. Sproule scored the seventh goal. With the game nearly over the "Redshirts" slowed up, and in the last few minutes the "Duffs" added two to their total.

Orangeville—Goal, Booth; point, Cushing; cover, Densmore; defense, Cranston, Black, Scott; centre, Golden; home, Stevenson, Gordon, Blythe Brown; outside, Bert Brown; inside, Zinn; sub., Henderson.

Brampton—Goal, Campbell; point, Mara; cover, Ingram; defense, Burrell, McLean, Ashley; centre, Warr; home, G. Sproule, R. Anderson, Cudmore; outside, H. Sproule; inside, Charters; subs., N. Anderson and Blanchard.

A CIPHER OMITTED

The omission of a cipher made a big difference in certain figures given in the report of the National Educational Association meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, published in last week's issue of The Banner. The figures referred to set forth the appropriations asked for in the Towner-Stirling bill. In each case the last cipher was dropped reducing the sums from millions to as many thousands in each instance. The amounts should have read:—

To remove illiteracy among the American born	$ 7,500,000
For the instruction of immigrants in language and citizenship	7,500,000
To equalize educational opportunities in the various States	50,000,000
For the promotion of physical education	20,000,000
To encourage the preparation of teachers for Public School service	15,000,000

PAINFUL NEURALGIA TORTURING SCIATICA

Both Come From the Same Cause—Thin, Watery Blood.

Most people think of neuralgia as a pain in the head or face, but neuralgia may affect any nerve in the body. Different names are given to it when it affects certain nerves. Thus neuralgia of the sciatic nerve is called sciatica, but the character of the pain and the nature of the disease are the same. The pain in neuralgia is caused by starved nerves. The blood which carries nourishment to the nerves has become thin and impure and no longer does so, and the pain you feel is the cry of the nerves for their natural food. You may ease the pains of neuralgia with hot applications, but real relief from the trouble comes by enriching and purifying the blood. For this purpose Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are strongly recommended. These pills make new, rich blood and thus act as a most effective nerve tonic. If you are suffering from this most dreaded of troubles, or any form of nerve trouble, give these pills a fair trial, and note the ease and comfort that follows their use.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer, or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

9 TO 5

Dufferins Too Much For Maitlands in Last Wednesday's Game.

The Dufferins won last Wednesday's championship lacrosse match from the Maitlands by a score of 9 to 5. The game, which was witnessed by about one thousand people, was played in a drizzling rain and mist. The grounds were very wet and slippery and the players had a difficult time keeping their feet, when they attempted to do the usual side-stepping and dodging. The sticks soon became wet and heavy making it much harder to catch and hold the ball. Owing to the rain and slippery grounds, the game was a hard one on the players of both teams. Considering the adverse conditions the play was unexpectedly fast and both teams gave an excellent exhibition of clean, speedy and scientific lacrosse. Maitlands were in excellent condition and gave The Dufferins a real game. For three periods the visitors battled with the greenshirts on practically even terms. At quarter time The Dufferins led by 3 to 2. Each team scored twice in the second period. Maitlands pulled even for the second time in the game early in the third quarter, but The Dufferins regained their single goal lead near the end of the period.

With the score standing 6 to 5 at three-quarters time it looked like either team's game. Maitlands kept up their aggressive play in the final period, but the Dufferins went at them with a determination that brooked no denial and by clever work ran in three goals, meanwhile holding their opponents scoreless.

The first goal in the final period came on a rush and shot by Gordon, the second on a three-man combination play from Gordon to Golden to Zinn, who was too close to the flags for Grant to have a chance, and the third fell to Raspin Scott on a pass from behind the flags.

F. Stroud was banished for ten minutes in the first quarter, giving the Dufferins the advantage of the odd man. Maitlands' innings came near the end of the second period, when Golden was benched for hitting his check over the head. Dufferins were leading 5 to 2 at the time, but the visitors evened the score while the Orangeville fielder was watching the game from the sideline.

The wet day made the game a hard one for the goalkeepers, especially in the second half, which was played in a half mist that made it no easy matter to see the ball for judge its direction. Nevertheless, Booth and Grant played at top form and neither man missed any shots that he had a chance to stop. Dufferins had the most shots on the flags, but Grant performed brilliantly, stopping shot after shot that seemed tagged for a score.

The Browns, Dr. Zinn and Gordon divided the scoring honors for the Dufferins. Scott and Ewing also got one apiece. The Maitlands' home division was very fast and combined with deadly accuracy. They had the Dufferin defense guessing in the second period and again in the beginning of the third. Players and officials were:—

Dufferins—Goal, Booth; point, Cushing; cover, Densmore; defense, Cranston, Henderson, Scott; centre, Golden; home, Ewing, Gordon, Blythe Brown; outside, Bert Brown; inside, Dr. Zinn; spares, Stevenson, Black and Robinson.

Maitlands—Goal, Grant; point, Twiddle; cover, Brown; defense, F. Stroud, Porteous, J.Stroud; centre, Moore; home, G. Stroud, Plummer, L. Saunders; outside, Johnston; inside, Mitchell.

Referee—Tom Humphrey, Toronto.

Judge of Play—Art Harrison, Mimico.

LOST POCKET BOOK

On Wednesday night, August 17, Mr. F. A. Scott, of Melville Cross, a returned soldier, had the misfortune to lose his pocket book containing $20.00 in money, his discharge paper, G. W. V. A. certificate, a promissory note for a considerable sum and other valuable papers. Mr. Scott went to the Chinese laundry on First St. for a laundry parcel and is satisfied that he either dropped the purse in the laundry or on the sidewalk immediately after he came out. The pocket book was undoubtedly found by some person and as the discharge paper and the G. W. V. A. certificate both bore Mr Scott's name the finder should have found it an easy matter to restore the book and its contents to its rightful owner inside of a couple of days. The fact that Mr. Scott has not received any word about his missing property casts suspicion on the honesty of the finder. In connection with the matter it may not be amiss to state that the finder of money or other property, who fails to take whatever steps are necessary to find the owner and restore the property, is regarded in law as being in practically the same category as a thief and is subject to prosecution for his delinquency.

DANCE AT THE LAKE

A large crowd attended a dance held at Caledon Lake on Monday night to mark the opening of the new Pavilion, which has been erected by the Caledon Lake Club this summer. Parsons' orchestra supplied the music. An excellent time is reported. The Pavilion, which will cost in the neighborhood of $1,000 when fully completed, will make an ideal place for dancing and is bound to become very popular with devotees of this fascinating pastime. Building has been quite brisk at the Lake this season, no less than four new summer residences having been erected. It is said that two of these will cost their owners in the neighborhood of $3,000 apiece. In addition to the new buildings important improvements have been made to several of the cottages already built. The Lake is becoming quite popular as a summer resort. The number of cottagers has been larger this season than in any former year.

AFTER THE BOYS

A C. P. R. detective from Owen Sound was in town last Thursday trying to get the names of some local juveniles who have been amusing themselves by firing stones at passing trains. A couple of weeks ago they pelted a fireman and then aimed their missles at a passenger coach to such good effect that they smashed in one of the windows. The offenders will probably find that it doesn't pay to monkey with the C. P. R.

A ROBBERY

Shelburne Home Entered in Broad Daylight.

On a charge of housebreaking and theft, perpetrated in broad daylight in Shelburne on Monday afternoon of this week, George Shepherd, aged 19, a young married man, giving his address as Toronto, was later in the afternoon committed by Magistrate Falconer and Mason to stand his trial in Orangeville before Judge Fisher. The prisoner was seen entering the home of R. J. Ritchey, William street, early in the afternoon through a window guarded only with a fly screen. The occupants were away at the time but his movements were seen by young Emerson Stoddart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stoddart, and he immediately notified Chief Whitehead, who was working nearby, and with other assistance he went to the residence. While the chief was entering the house via the same route taken by the prisoner, the thief escaped by the front door and walked leisurely away, the chief and his assistant in hot pursuit. The chase ended abruptly at the C. P. R. depot, where the prisoner was apprehended. Shortly after his capture he handed over to Chief Whitehead a watch and fob the property of Mr. Ritchey, which was stolen from the latter's home. When the prisoner appeared before the magistrates above mentioned, it stated that he belonged to a camping party now sojourning on the 2nd Line, near Hall's bush, and in an endeavour to make some ready cash was going from door to door selling tables, the price of which was $1.00. The prisoner's father was also present in court and maintained that this was the first offence registered against his son. On Monday evening Chief Whitehead took the prisoner to Orangeville jail to await his trial. To Chief Whitehead and those who were associated with him in the capture, a word of praise is due for the efficient and speedy manner in which they handled the case and brought it to a successful conclusion, the outcome of which should prove a warning, and a deterent in a repetition of a like occurrence in this town.—Free Press.

Shepherd was tried by Judge Fisher on Tuesday. The theft of a watch was clearly proven. On account of extenuating circumstances the accused was allowed his liberty on suspended sentence.

The Baby Show will again be held on Labor Day at the C. N. E. Last year there were over 600 entries.

HE LED THE CLASS!

We are frequently told this of pupils who stood away down the list before they were fitted with glasses.

It is true that a child with defective eyes has not the same chance as the other scholars and when they are falling behind in their work they lose all liking for study.

Gradually they drift away from school and a good education.

Enable your child to take his place in the world with the best—have his eyes examined every two years.

We guarantee our test absolutely correct.

We examine children free of charge.

A BEAUTIFUL CITY

Visiting Newspapermen Were Charmed by Beauties of Victoria.

Vancouver Island a Rich Fruit Growing District—Butchart Gardens a Mecca For Tourists.

On Saturday morning, June 11th, we were again the guests of the C. P. R., when we left Vancouver on the C. P. R. steamer Princess Charlotte, for Victoria, the Capital of the Province. The sail occupies about five hours, and a splendid meal was obtained on the fine steamer. We arrived in Victoria about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, the first sight that greeted our eyes being the fine Parliament buildings. We were conducted to the fine hotel of the C. P. R., The Empress, which compares favorably with the others conducted by the Company, only possibly a little more reserved, occasioned no doubt by the great number of English tourists who stop at this hotel.

One of the most attractive regions of the Pacific Northwest is encompassed within the picturesque and rugged shores of that magnificent Vancouver Island that lies off the mainland of British Columbia and takes its name from its eighteenth-century discoverer. Reposing in splendor on the bosom of the great Pacific Ocean, this treasure island presents a tourist playground that is unsurpassed by any section of the continent. As large in area as the country of Denmark, it contains so vast a variety of incomparable attractions that not inaptly has it been termed "The Island of a Thousand Miles of Wonderland."

That intrepid navigator, Captain George Vancouver, of the British navy, discovered it in 1792, two centuries after the Greek navigator masquerading as Juan de Fuca, in the service of Spain, was credited with the discovery, for there is historical doubt whether the latter ever even sailed the waters tributary to the island. Two sentences from Captain Vancouver's journal will serve to-day:

"To describe the beauties of the region will, on some future occasion, be a very grateful task to the pen of a skilful panegyrist. The serenity of the climate, the innumerable pleasing landscapes, and the abundant fertility that unassisted Nature puts forth, require only to be nourished by the industry of man with villages, mansions, cottages and other buildings to render it the most lovely country that can be imagined."

These predictions have come true. The first step was the founding by the Hudson's Bay Company in 1843 of what is now the delightful city of Victoria, at the southern end of the island. Pretty little towns and rural communities dot the island for 175 miles. Settlement and capital have flowed in—have developed the fertile lands, the rich mines and the heavy forests with which Vancouver Island is so well endowed, and have created prosperity and contentment.

Vancouver Island is endowed with a wonderful climate, tempered by the ocean breezes and warm Japan current, a climate that has extremes neither of heat nor cold, in which roses bloom almost up to Christmas. That is why Victoria, variously known as the Garden City, the City of Sunshine, and Evergreen City, has become so favorite a winter resort.

Victoria's Parks.

Victoria is charmingly situated at the southern end of the island. There is an enticing welcome to the traveller entering its harbor—the blue tinted Sooke Hills, the Little Saanich Mountains, the snow-capped Olympic Mountains on the mainland, and then, entering the square Inner Harbor, a foreground of beautiful trees, shrubs, and flower-gardens. Victoria is the Evergreen City of Canada—a city of flowers, hydrangeas, roses, hedges, oak trees, holly, bungalows, gardens, trim boulevards and delightful parks. Its mild climate makes it a haven of content, in summer as in winter, for while zero weather is unknown there, so also is excessive heat. The characteristic beauty of its residential district has made it distinctively a home city—a spot favored, incidentally, by those who have acquired a sufficiency of this world's goods and wish to work no more. Nevertheless, Victoria's enterprising business district composed of imposing stores and tall office buildings, speaks of a rich commerce drawn from the vast resources of Vancouver Island.

Victoria has within its boundaries, or within easy access, many beautiful parks, comprising some 300 acres laid out as recreation grounds and pleasure gardens and containing many interesting monuments and relics. On the occasion of our visit the whole park was covered with the yellow broom, which abounds on the island. Magnificent views of the sea and the Olympic Mountains can be obtained from here. A local poetic enthusiast thus describes the beauty of this park when the broom is in full flower, as it was when we visited there:

"The moon-light strikes the topping height,
The moon-light paints the sea,
And blazoned on the greensward bright
Across the distant lea,—
The yellow waves of blossoms lift
And through the spaces thrill,
Where shines in many a golden drift
The Broom on Beacon Hill.

"Etched clear, the far Olympics stand,
Like Titans, crowned with snow;
And at their feet the shifting sand
Meets tidal ebb and flow;
But here in aureate splendor dreams
By Summer's grassy sill,
In wide-spread wastes of sallow gleams,
The Broom on Beacon Hill."

The principal bathing resorts within easy reach of Victoria, in addition to the Gorge, are Foul Bay, Cadboro Bay, Cordova Bay, Brentwood Beach, Willows, and Shoal Bay. Cadboro Bay is near Uplands, a charming residential section.

Saanich Mountain Drive

The drive of about twelve miles up the Saanich Mountain was a thrilling experience, winding on a narrow roadway on the ledge of the mountain, with scarcely room for one car to pass another, but what views! When the summit is reached, where the Observatory is located the interest is not abated, for the large telescopes and their operation by electric power, the whole dome revolving with works like a clock, created great interest for the visitors. The Observatory, which is the second largest in the world, has a reflecting telescope of 72 inches in diameter, while the tube of the telescope weighs some fifteen tons, which will give our readers some idea of the immensity of the outfit. Several members of the party were given a look through the telescope at the moon.

The Observatory Building.

The building in which the telescope is housed is circular, sixty-five feet in diameter, surrounded by a revolving dome. It is built entirely of steel and has a double steel covering with provision for circulation of air between the walls from the ground up to the louvres at the top of the dome. This is to prevent the building from getting overheated during the day and to enable it to quickly take the temperature of the air, both essential conditions for the satisfactory working of such a large instrument. The dome, as well as the telescope, though not the largest, is the most complete in all mechanical details of any before built. It is of hemispherical shape, provided with a double shutter to be opened during observing, sixteen feet wide and extending beyond the top. A movable platform raised and lowered by an electric motor across the shutter opening enables the observer to conveniently reach the top of the tube when the Principal Focus or Newtonian Focus methods are being used. Movable canvas curtains electrically operated move up from the bottom and down from the top so as to limit the length of the opening to prevent the wind shaking the telescope tube. The whole dome is revolved by a motor operated by a switch on the same boards from which the telescope is set. Indeed everything that could be thought of to facilitate the work of the telescope has been placed in the dome and mounting, and use has demonstrated the completeness and perfection of the whole equipment.

The equipping of this Observatory in such a splendid way places Canada in the front rank among the nations in astronomical research, as no other country has in its national observatory a telescope of half the size of this splendid instrument. This work accomplished with this installation in its splendid location will undoubtedly materially help towards the solution of the problems of the constitution of the universe, and will make Canada and Victoria well known.

In the Fruit District.

On Sunday morning our hosts were again astir early, determined that we should see all that was possible in our all-too-short stay. We motored out through the fruit-growing farms, for Vancouver Island is a great fruit district. The strawberries were ripe, and were being gathered in large quantities. Indians, Chinese, and Japanese were picking the ripe fruit, which was a large crop, and of a particularly fine sample this year. The owners of the lands were largely English and Scotch, several we met being from Owen Sound district in Ontario, who have done well in this beautiful island.

The Butchart Gardens.

One of the sights of Vancouver Island which we were warned we should not miss was a visit to the Butchart Gardens. Consequently our hosts next took us there. These are privately owned grounds with a delightful original residence in bungalow style. This proved one of the most interesting sights we had yet met with. We confess our inability to properly describe the grounds and residence of the hospitable owners, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, formerly of Owen Sound, but we will do the best we can.

Some thirty years ago Mr. Butchart went to Victoria and engaged in the manufacture of cement, having discovered a gypsum deposit on the site where he now lives. As the rock was quarried and crushed to powder, great ugly excavations were made here and there in the heavily wooded country on the Coast, which is now known as Butchart Inlet, was developed a beauty spot. As Mr. Butchart thrived, he began to give some thought to the artistic side of his nature, and soon began to transform the landscape, and the ugly holes into dreams of floral beauty. Little by little, the wilderness was redeemed, a beautiful residence was built where a huge rock had been, and surrounded by gardens where myriads of beautiful flowers bloom all the year round.

Returning to the home after a visit through the grounds, the visitors found their tastefully and luxuriously furnished home breathing the same air of generous hospitality as did the gardens. To have such an artistic home situated in the midst of such beautiful surroundings must be a continuous source of inspiration. In addition to everything which one would expect to find in such a home including a marble swimming pool and a conservatory, there is situated right in the centre a large electric organ, so built that panels open from the pipes into various rooms, and as the party were enjoying their all too brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Butchart, the strains of sweet music was wafted into the rooms. As one writer says: "There was an atmosphere of service and of Godlike fellowship in the surroundings. One's admiration for the flowers gave way before the greater splendor and freedom of the characters of Mr. and Mrs. Butchart, who conceived and carried out the idea of transforming old limestone quarries into these sunken gardens of such inspiration and beauty; a sermon in every bush; an inspiration and a divine influence at every turn of the road or pathway, and in every flower."

Homeward Bound.

With our return from the Butchart Gardens, our steamer was writing to take us back to Vancouver, and arriving there about seven o'clock in the evening, we were taken on board the special train over the C. P. R., on our return eastward, through the Canadian Pacific Rockies.

MELANCTHON STATION

Farmers are finishing their harvest, in many cases, in the month of August, with the exception of a few later crops on low-lying land, a fact that seems unusual in the New Survey of Melancthon. Years ago we thought we were fortunate if we finished harvesting by the last of September—in fact one of our oldest citizens remembers, to use his own words, "drawing in oats on the 12th of October."

Our neighbor, Mr. John Kirkton, has purchased a new threshing machine and is preparing to do the season's threshing. So far grain, although under the average yield per acre, is, nevertheless, a good sample.

Mr. and Mrs. Greer have moved into the C. P. R. station building and Mrs. Greer will be the new ticket agent, succeeding the late Miss McComb, who died so suddenly a few weeks ago.

Our merchant, Mr. Chas. O'Neil, reports business brisk around Melancthon's general store.

Another wedding is expected to take place in our burg in the very near future. Particulars later.

The ridiculous attack made by Dr. Forbes Godfrey, M. P. P., upon the esteemed Attorney-General of Ontario, at Weston, last Friday, was both untimely and uncalled for, and is likely to bring discredit upon the Conservative party in Ontario. The doctor reminds us of the small boy throwing stones at the king's palace. The Drury Government is doing more than any previous Government ever did to bring the rural and urban people of the Province together, and it ill becomes the member for West York to indulge in—to use his own expression—"sneaky sniping."

We regret to report the serious and continued illness of Mrs. James Sawden, but are pleased to hear that she is recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. Martin, of Dundalk.

Our esteemed neighbor, Mr. T. K. Slack, M. P. P., is a very busy man these days, between taking off his harvest and attending to his numerous calls to garden parties, picnics, etc., which have been so frequent in this locality this summer.

The raspberry and huckleberry crops are a partial failure in this section this year which is much regretted by our inhabitants.

Pains About the Heart

ANY derangement of the heart's action is alarming. Frequently pains about the heart are caused by the formation of gas arising from indigestion.

Relief from this condition is obtained by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Chronic indigestion results from sluggish liver action, constipation of the bowels and inactive kidneys.

Because Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills arouse these organs to activity they afford lasting relief for indigestion and overcome the many annoying symptoms.

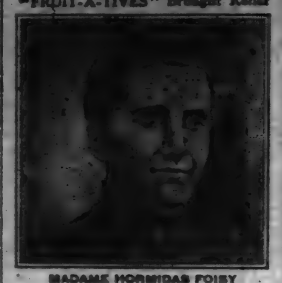
FREE OF TERRIBLE KIDNEY TROUBLE

After Three Years of Suffering, "FRUIT-A-TIVES" Brought Relief



MADAME HORMIDAS FOISY

624 Champlain St., Montreal.

"For three years, I was ill and exhausted and I suffered constantly from Kidney Trouble and Liver Disease.

My health was miserable and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good. Then I started to use 'Fruit-a-tives' and the effect was remarkable.

I began to improve immediately and this wonderful fruit medicine entirely restored me to health. All the old pains, headaches, indigestion and constipation were relieved and once more I was well.

To all who suffer from Indigestion, Constipation, Rheumatic Pains or great Fatigue, I advise the use of 'Fruit-a-tives'."

TURNING DEFICITS INTO SURPLUSES

By J. E. Middleton

Wherever electric light and power is available there is a steady increase in its use. The convenience and cleanliness of electricity, the growing interest in appliances for easing the burden of housework, the obvious advantages of the electric range all tend to increase the consumption of current by people whose houses are wired. All new houses are wired as a matter of course. For these reasons the engineers look for a regular percentage of new business from year to year. This normal increase was checked for a time while there was a power-shortage on the Niagara System, but the easing of that situation has had a marked effect upon the finances of the co-operating municipalities.

Among the municipalities which recorded a deficit on Hydro-Electric business during 1919 were Bolton, Brigden, Burford, Comber, Delaware, Dublin, Dundas and Harriston. By the end of 1920 each of these eight had a comfortable surplus. Where local rates had been readjusted for 1920 the increases were slight and laid no heavy burden upon the consumers. The cause of the improvement was mainly increased business which greatly stimulated the revenues. Considering the high level of cost for materials and labor the surpluses were most credible. The following table compares the deficits of 1919 with the surpluses of 1920.

	1919 Deficit	1920 Surplus
Bolton	$ 397.18	$ 779.97
Brigden	389.47	2,038.93
Burford	204.84	392.96
Comber	827.64	1,462.62
Delaware	187.01	227.28
Dublin	447.12	249.65
Dundas	1,586.57	2,503.77
Harriston	66.62	171.07

The revenues of the eight in 1919 and in 1920 were as follows:

Bolton	$6,825.45	$8,826.77
Brigden	5,957.60	8,150.48
Burford	3,539.13	4,540.56
Comber	2,338.50	7,265.36
Delaware	907.94	1,547.39
Dublin	1,824.83	2,612.98
Dundas	33,108.54	46,928.55
Harriston	9,591.42	15,228.69

A BIG SLUMP

No Market For Diamonds Since The War.

Trade in precious stones has experienced such a slump in the past 12 months that many of the jewel dealers are facing a serious financial crisis, according to Berlin experts who have been investigating the causes of an unusual situation.

The diamond markets are especially threatened, for the men and women who made money during the war and invested heavily in diamonds, recently have been selling brilliants extensively, while the old families of established wealth, upon which the trade once depended, have ceased to buy. It is said 50 to 60 per cent. if those who bought jewels with war profits in Germany and England have either sold their purchases or offered them for sale within the last few months.

The synthetic diamond, as well as the artificial ruby, sapphire and spinel, also has invaded the market to the detriment of the trade in legitimate stones, not only because many artificial stones are sold as genuine, but because the artificial jewel is preferred by many because it is less expensive, and often can be differentiated only by the connoisseur.

The business in synthetic stones has grown immensely during the last few years, with Germany and France the principal competitors, and Switzerland a close third. Raw materials for the manufacture of the artificial ruby, which is accomplished by an electrical process, are purchased by Swiss manufacturers from Germany, which has handicapped Switzerland in the race for control of the world market.

Although the production of artificial jewels has greatly increased the prices have risen, which is attributed by experts to the improved technique. Prices of synthetic rubies and sapphires have increased 20 fold over the pre-war prices.

Owing to the stagnation of the trade in genuine diamonds a number of the largest importing houses have ceased importations from South Africa, where their chief supply was secured, and others have greatly reduced their purchases of raw diamonds.

DID NOT COME OUT

The chauffeur never spoke except when addressed, but his few utterances given in a broad brogue were full of wit.

One of the men in the party remarked: "You're a bright sort of a chap, and it's easy to see that your people came from Ireland."

"No, sor; ye are very badly mistaken," replied Pat.

"What!" said the man. "Didn't they come from Ireland?"

"No, sor," answered Pat, "they're there yit."

Without a moment's warning Clifford's acetylene gas plant exploded a week ago Saturday evening.

Why the Ford is the "Universal Car"

DOWN among the orchards of Nova Scotia, the farms of New Brunswick, on Sherbrooke Street in Montreal, Yonge Street in Toronto, Portage Avenue in Winnipeg, on the far flung horizons of Saskatchewan and Alberta, up through the mountains of British Columbia, down Granville Street in Vancouver, on Government Street in Victoria—it's the same story—half of all the cars you see are Ford cars—in many sections they are two to one of all the other makes.

And it's the same story in Africa, Australia, Britain, Europe, United States—throughout the world—one half of all motors on earth are Fords.

Why?

Because the simplicity of the Ford Car adapts it to every driver.

—because the power of the Ford Car carries it wherever the driver wants to go.

—because its durability and rugged strength make it the car for every condition of usage.

—because of its low first cost and low cost of operation and maintenance.

The Ford Car is a good car for you to own.

WILLS $200,000 TO HER CHURCH

The Presbyterians Receive Large Sum From Mrs. Eddy's Fortune.

The Presbyterian Church of Canada, McGill University and Dalhousie University are among the chief beneficiaries of the estate of the late Mrs. E. B. Eddy, of Hull. The will was filed for probate at the Hull Court House. The aggregate of the will shows that the dead woman left an estate of about $3,500,000. The majority of the estate consists of personal property, bank and other stocks, bonds and real estate.

In her gift to the Presbyterian Church of Canada the sum of $202,000 is bequeathed, while the McGill University receives the same amount for the establishment of a chair or chairs to be known as the E. B. Eddy chair. The grant of $500,000 to Dalhousie University is to be continued, and the remaining unpaid instalments, which amount to about $185,000, are to be continued and paid out of the estate.

Other beneficiaries of the will are: Robert T. Sheriff, a brother, 1,007 shares of stock in the E. B. Eddy Co., and the house and contents owned by Mrs. Eddy. A hospital in Newcastle, N. B., $25,000, with provision that if $25,000 or more is left out of the residue of the estate it receive half of the surplus, while the Widows' and Orphans' Fund receives the other half.

Five thousand dollars is left to the schools of Chatham, N. B.

Mrs. E. J. Richardson, of San Diego, California, a sister, is given a life estate and the interest on $350,000 worth of war bonds.

The new one million dollar live stock arena at the Canadian National Exhibition will have 8½ acres under roof.

A permanent creche, where mother, while seeing the sights, may leave her baby in the hands of competent nurses, will be an innovation at the Canadian National Exhibition this year.

GUELPH FIRE

Several Thousand Dollars Damage Done to Warehouse.

An early morning fire did from $7,000 to $10,000 damage to H. H. O. Stull's garage and hide and wool warehouse. The loss will be partly covered by insurance; the damage done was principally to the contents of the building, although the interior of the building was damaged by fire and water.

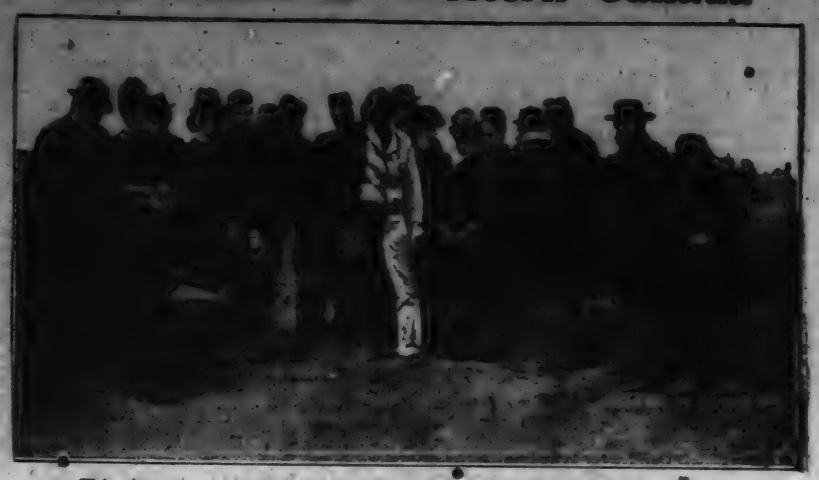
The blaze was discovered about 2.50 by a man employed putting in a switch in the neighborhood of Huskisson St., where Mr. Stull's premises are situated. He ran to give the alarm and meeting a policeman, told where the blaze was, and the constable turned in the alarm. The firemen were soon on hand and two lines playing on the blaze, which apparently started in the garage and in all probability originated in one of the cars in there. It was not an easy fire to subdue, as there was an immense lot of smoke and the blaze soon got into a number of barrels of tallow, which helped to keep the fire going. It was under control at 4.20, however, and though two men were left to keep an eye on things, the fire was completely put out.

In the building, which is of stone, and part of which was only recently turned into a garage, was a fine Studebaker touring car belonging to Mr. Stull, a large and a small motor truck, many barrels of tallow, a large quantity of hides and skins, etc. The touring car is almost a total loss and the small truck is damaged; the tallow and hides were either consumed or damaged by fire and water. The building will require considerable repairs to put it in good condition again, but Mr. M. F. Gray, the owner, is not just certain what his loss will be. Altogether the damage to building and contents will not be far short of $10,000, it is estimated. The insurance will cover most of the loss. The water pressure was first-rate; in fact, from the appearance of things it was all the men could do to handle the mains, so strong was the pressure.—Guelph Herald.

ROD AND GUN

Lovers of the out-of-doors will be pleased to know that a specially interesting number of Rod and Gun in Canada is just out. The August issue contains a particularly appealing article entitled, "Mississaugua—Canada's Best Canoe Trip," by Douglas Haiss. This is a story that everyone will enjoy. The stories by F. V. Williams, Bonnycastle Dale and Harry M. Moore, well-known contributors, will be received with undoubted favor. The thrilling experience outlined in the several articles following will be of great interest and value to the amateur sportsman.

Old Times in Western Canada



This picture reproduced from an actual photograph taken in 1886 at Stony Mountain, Manitoba, shows a group of French Journalists, the first to travel over the Canadian Pacific Railway. Poundmaker, the rebel Indian chief, is seen in the centre of the picture.

To get first-hand knowledge of the Riel Rebellion and the results which followed its suppression, a party of French journalists and their wives arrived at Quebec in July, 1886. They were the first French journalists to visit Canada after Confederation.

After spending a few days in the historic city they went to Montreal, where they were entertained by many French-Canadian Societies.

Leaving Montreal they travelled over the Canadian Pacific Railway lines to Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, where the women of the party remained while the journalists journeyed to the scenes of the battles during the Riel Rebellion. They visited Batoche, Cut-Knife Hill, Frenchman's Butte and other places. They travelled by methods of transportation used by the pioneer settlers, consisting for the most part of ox-carts.

Returning to Manitoba, the journalists visited Stony Mountain Penitentiary, where Poundmaker, the noted leader of a strong band of Indian Rebels was imprisoned. Poundmaker lead the band of Rebels who defeated Colonel Otter's forces at Cut-Knife Hill.

Poundmaker surrendered to Colonel Middleton on May 26, 1885, 14 days after the battle of Batoche. The Indian leader was sentenced to serve three years in Stony Mountain Penitentiary. Several other Rebels, including Riel were hanged. When Poundmaker was sentenced to prison, he said he would rather be hanged than go to "that place in Manitoba." He died before his sentence expired.

The French journalists had the only photograph taken of them in Canada, during their visit to Stony Mountain Penitentiary. Poundmaker was brought from his cell and posed in the middle of the group. Colonel Samuel Lawrence Bedson, warden of the penitentiary, stood behind Poundmaker, holding the chain which was attached to Poundmaker's wrist.

Poundmaker was one of the most noted and interesting prisoners ever imprisoned at the penitentiary. He was the only prisoner who was allowed to wear his hair long while serving a sentence.

Journalism and literature were not of a high standard when the French journalists visited the West. The early settlers paid almost undivided attention to their activities in the fields.

The journalists gathered what data they could regarding journalistic achievements in Western Canada. These facts were given to them by William F. Luxton, editor of the Manitoba Free Press, and the dean of newspaperdom in the West. The Free Press was established in 1872, and it had grown to be a political power in Canada. It championed the cause of the Liberal party.

The Nor' Wester, which was the pioneer newspaper of the West, carried the only news the settlers read in the earlier days. It flourished for several years, and "died" shortly after the suppression of the Riel Rebellion. The Manitoban, and the News Letter both had short lives. They were followed by The Metis, a French newspaper. It also met an early death. The fate of The Metis interested the visiting French journalists, who secured copies of it to take back to France.

The journalists then went to Toronto, then to Montreal, then to Quebec over the Canadian Pacific Railway lines, embarking on a steamer at Quebec for the voyage down the St. Lawrence River and across the Atlantic Ocean to France.

BUSINESS EDUCATION

A business education is admittedly the greatest gift a parent can give a child. For fifteen years the Orangeville Business College has successfully trained young people for the best situations in Canada and United States. "A position for every graduate" is our motto. This school is affiliated with the Canada Business College, Toronto, and ten other colleges in various cities and towns of Ontario. In union there is strength. In a multitude of counsellors there is wisdom. The Spotton Colleges are the largest trainers of young people in Canada. Mail courses in all subjects for those who cannot attend. Special courses in Farm Book-keeping. Write for particulars to Canada Business College, Orangeville, or Toronto. 4-3t.

About 1,400 people will take part in the Canadian National Exhibition spectacle this year.

AN APPRECIATION

Isabella Montgomery Wise, fourth daughter of the late Henry and Isabella Montgomery, Chinguacousy, Peel County, Ont., was born in the village of Sand Hill; her childhood and young girlhood being passed in close proximity to the place of her birth.

Gifted with a good intellect, and a clear receptive mind, she made rapid advancement in her studies, early reaching the point in scholarship where she was qualified to impart instruction to others.

In early childhood Isabel evinced a love and reverence for sacred things, a devotion which grew with her growth, and strengthened with her strength, as she developed sweetly, and without precocity, into fair and gracious womanhood. Just to "Be good and let who would be clever," to serve, to be usefule—helpful—this was her supreme ambition.

Loving work for its own sake, she loved it also for the joy of accomplishment — achievement. Capable, dauntless, efficient, she was ever a tower of strength in the old home—and, later in the new.

In the course of time, the lowlands of Peel were exchanged for the bluff and breezy highlands of Dufferin, and here under new conditions she sought and found new fields for service.

In 1899 our sister was united in marriage to Mr. James Wise, and subsequently became interested in her husband's business; in this way her sphere of service was enlarged, and she was brought more prominently before the public. Here, amidst the exigencies of the daily grind, by her gentle courtesy, her sweet patience and her thoughtful consideration for others, she won the esteem, regard and admiration of all those with whom she came in contact. With calm, unruffled mien, she met the day's demands—abroad and in the home.

As a church worker, she passed—with the passing of years—from Sunday School and Epworth activities, to the more mature service of the W. M. S. and the W. C. T. U. Her interest in Missions, Home and Foreign, was intensely vital, and, to her, prohibition was a burning question.

Filled to the brim with labour, and absorbing, engrossing interests, as was her life, she never forgot the absent ones, nor allowed herself to get out of touch with those she loved, but kept up the varied correspondence of friendship, as well as kinship, as long as she was able to write.

Leisured activities, distributed over a wide spapn of years, may be the privilege of some—and such favoured ones may be found still, lingering amidst the shadows of life's gloaming—but 'tis ever the lot of some to be placed in the forefront of the battle—life's battle—to bear the burden and heat of the day.

"The harder we work, the sooner we sleep." Barely beyond the peak of life, the pace began to tell; she grew sooner weary, but loath to leave her post. Two or three severe attacks of illness, from which she never really recovered, sapped her strength, undermining her splendid constitution—and she faded like a fading flower.

Deeply grounded in the faith, the storms and vicissitudes of life had no power to unsettle her soul. She knew in whom she had believed and, calm amidst the wreck of earthly hopes, she laid her hand in His, and let Him lead her gently Home. Absent from the body, to be present with her Lord.

Wondrously still and peaceful was her passing—without a moan; without a sigh, she slipped away, in the dawning hour of the Sabbath morn. The toil of earth all ended, the rest of Heaven begun.

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labours, and their works do follow them."

"Sleep soft, beloved!" we sometimes say,
But have no tune to charm away
Sad dreams that through the eyelids creep,
But never doleful dream again
Shall break the happy slumber, when
"He giveth His beloved, sleep."

And friends! dear friends, when it shall be
That this low breath is gone from me,
And round my bier ye come to weep,
Let one, most loving of you all,
Say, "Not a tear must o'er her fall,"
"He giveth His beloved, sleep."

WILLIAM PORTEOUS

William Porteous, aged 76 years, an oldtime resident of Orangeville, died at his home, 69 Hepbourne St., Toronto, on Thursday last, from a paralytic stroke, after four weeks' illness. He was born in Scotland, but came to Canada when young, and had lived in Toronto about 40 years. For many years he was employed by the Massey-Harris Company. Deceased was prominent in the Masonic fraternity in Toronto. He was a Past Master of Alpha Lodge, and an honorary life member of Mount Sinai Lodge. He was Past First Principal of King Solomon and Mount Sinai Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, and held office in the Grand Chapter of Canada, being also an honorary life member of Toronto Chapter. He attended St. Mary, the Virgin, Anglican Church.

Surviving are a son, W. A. Porteous, of the T. Eaton Co., Winnipeg, and two daughters, Mrs. Wm. C. Holtby and Miss Margaret Porteous, Toronto. Deceased was a wood worker by trade and was employed in McKitrick Bros'. implement factory for a number of years.

MRS. ORANGE LAWRENCE

Old friends in Orangeville and vicinity were grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Lawrence, widow of the late Capt. Orange Lawrence, of this town. Mrs. Lawrence had been living with her daughter, Mrs. R. D. McBride, of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., for the last three years and the sad event occurred in that city on Wednesday, August 17th. Deceased, whose maiden name was Hannah Fletcher, was born in Nottingham, Eng., and came to Canada with her mother when a girl of ten years. The family settled in Orangeville shortly after their arrival in this country. About fifty-eight years ago the subject of our sketch was married to Orange Lawrence, whose father, also named Orange Lawrence, was the founder of the town of Orangeville. Her husband died about ten years ago. The surviving family are Ferris Lawrence, of Weyburn, Sask., Albert E. Lawrence, of Detroit, Mrs. McBride, and John Lawrence, now living in the Peace River country. Deceased was a member of the Methodist church and was a woman held in high esteem by her neighbors and friends. The remains were brought back home for burial, the funeral taking place from the residence of her niece, Mrs. G. H. Niebel, John St., to Greenwood Cemetery, on Saturday afternoon. Rev. H. L. Partridge conducted the services at the house and grave. The pallbearers were her son, Albert, the son-in-law, Mr. McBride, and Messrs. Geo. Fewster, Toronto, D. B. Brown, Geo. Beswick and Adam Claridge, Orangeville. Friends present from outside the town included Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Goode, Toronto; Mrs. Leitch, Shelburne, and Pearson Fewster, Shelburne.

MRS. JOHN HAMMOND

By the death on Saturday last of Mrs. Hammond, wife of Mr. John Hammond, Wellington St., Orangeville has lost another of its older residents. Deceased, who was 70 years of age, had been ill all summer. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Mrs. Chas. F. Davis, of Willow Bunch, Sask., who came east some weeks ago and was with her mother during her last illness. Mr. Hammond whose maiden name was Martha Marshall, was a daughter of the late John F. Marshall, of the 6th line, Mono. She was married to Mr. Hammond over 35 years ago and has resided in Orangeville since her marriage. She was a quiet, unassuming woman, well liked by her neighbors and friends and devoted to her home and household duties. A sister, Mrs. Roe, of Moose Jaw, died about two weeks ago. The surviving sisters are Mrs. Wm. Brown, Melancthon, Mrs. Ed. Nicolletti, Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. Rebecca Burden, Moose Jaw. There are also four brothers living, namely, George, Thomas and Alex. Marshall, of Moose Jaw, and Wm. Marshall, Orangeville. The funeral, which was quite largely attended, took place to the Forest Lawn Cemetery on Monday afternoon. Rev. H. L. Partridge conducted the services and Messrs. Thos Wright, J H Hughes, Allen McKinnon, Jos. R. Lathwell, Jesse Robertson and Earl Harrison, a nephew, acted as pallbearers. Amongst the floral tributes were a wreath from her husband and daughter and sprays from Mrs. G. Marshall and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morton. The sympathy of their friends and neighbors is extended to the bereaved husband and daughter in their loss.

Friends from a distanse here for the funeral were Mrs. Nicolletti and daughter, Mrs. Ryan, of Cleveland, Mrs. Chas. Swan and two sons, of Barker, N. Y., and Mrs Wm. Brown, of Melancthon.

MELVILLE CROSS

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sawden, of this place, visited friends at Port Credit, Toronto and other points, making the trip by automobile.

The tide is high on the Credit River for this time of the year, and fishing has been pretty good all summer.

Although reports say potatoes are a partial failure throughout the Province, Caledon will have some very good yields of the all-important product.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of William S. Thompson, Mono Centre, who departed this life on August 16th, 1920.

"Gone but not forgotten."

WIFE and FAMILY.

HILLSBURG

The Field Day held by the Baseball Club on Civic Holiday, August 12th last, was a most successful one. A large crowd was in attendance at the baseball tournament. Belwood defeated Hillsburg 7-1 and No. 9 School defeated Everton in the first round. The final game between Belwood and No. 9 School was clean and fast with Archie McLachlan's huskies winning with a shut-out score of 3-0.

On Friday, August 19th, No. 9 School Baseball Club played in Hillsburg, with F. Carmichael for Hillsburg and Arch. McLachlan for Cosingsby, as the opposing pitchers. A good close score of 3-2 in favor of Hillsburg was a good indication of a fast game, Hillsburg bunching hits for three runs in the first and No. 9 scoring twice in the sixth. Hillsburg team played in the baseball tournament at Bellwood on Wednesday, the 24th.

Rev. F.C. Harper and Mrs. Harper returned last week from a month's vacation at Algonquin Park, Parry Sound district, and on Lake Simcoe, where they were at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ross. Large congregations greeted Mr. Harper last Sunday in St. Andrew's Church both morning and evening.

The annual meeting of the Hillsburg branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society will be held in St. Andrews Church on Sunday evening next, August 28th, at 7 o'clock, when a union service will be held of all the churches of the village, and a collection will be taken in aid of the Bible Society. The address will be given by Mr. L. T. Hwang on the distribution of the Bible throughout the world. All are cordially invited.
